Guiteau will Die Bravely.

WASHINGTON, June 13.—Guiteau announces that he is satisfied with Reed's conduct of his case. Reed is still confident of his ability to save Guiteau, but says if he fails the prisoner will go to the gallows bravely and with composure.

Reed has applied to Justice Bradley of the supreme court for a writ of habeas corpus in the Guiteaucase upon the ground that the criminal court district had no jurisdiction. Bradley has the papers under consideration.

Masonry at Barrie.

At the regular meeting of Kerr lodge No. 230, G.R.C., Barrie, the following were elected officers for the ensuing year: Bro C W Brown, (of Toronto), W.M.; Bro D E Brown, S W.; Bro F Willmott, J.W; Bro Wm Thomson, treas.; R W Bro Carlo Forbes, (P.D.D.G.M.), sec.; R W Bro D Spry and J Gordon, benevolent committee.

A BIENTOT.

Farewell, bright dawns and perfume-laden airs,
Faint with the breath of roses newly blown—
Warm slumbrous noons, when sleep our haunting cares,
Long summer days and nights, too swiftly flown,
With sighs and sad regrets we saw you go:
Why did you leave us, who had loved us so?

'Neath sapphire skies, and starry hedgerows sweet
Laced with gold threads of gossamer we went,
Wild summer blooms beneath or wandering feet,
And summer in our hearts; our love intent.
"I will return," you said, "when roses blow,"
That time we said "good-bye," a year ago.

But I alone have seem them bloom and die,
While you have passed beyond these shadows here
Into the light. I'll follow bye-and-bye.
Meantime I wait, and hold the roses dear,
And summer sacred, for the love I bear;
Until we meet again, some day, somewhere.

A DARK LOOKOUT IN EGYPT

ARABI PASHA SAID TO BE MASTER OF THE SITUATION.

Dervisch's Prestige Gone—The Populace Excited—Europeans Leaving the Country—Alarming Reports from Correspondents.

LONDON, June 13.—A correspondent at Alexandria telegraphs that the situation is terrible. Any small force the fleet could land would only suffice to excite the Arabs to a general massacre. The English man-of-war Superb came around to the harbor on Sunday at midnight. The report that she was about to land marines to protect the consulate spread, and the soldiers directly crowded the beach. The boats of the Superb were ordered to keep off. The proportion of the Arabs killed in the riot is insignificant. That the fleet is almost a source of danger is shown by the fact that when the French stationed a vessel opposite their consulate to receive the refugees she was immediately surrounded by Egyptian steam launches which remain here. A collision may occur at at any moment.

In the house of commons Sir Charles Dilke stated that the government informed the British consul-general in Egypt that they think his place is with the khedive at Alexandria. He said he supposed if the consuls went to Alexandria, numbers of Europeans would also go there. He declared the present anarchy in Egypt would not be allowed to continue.

The garrison of Alexandria has been increased to 12,000. In one outbreak of the riot Admiral Seymour made preparations to land a large body of marines, and telegraphed to the consul-general for leave to do so. The latter, however, refused, after conferring with the consuls. The purpose of Dervisch and the khedive going to Alexandria is to check further outbreak, and obviate the necessity of landing marines Egyptian unified securities have fallen 2 per cent within an hour, on reports of further troubles in Egypt.

A Cairo despatch says: The work of exciting the populace is complete. Papers have been distributed summoning the people to be ready at any moment. The Italian consul has notified all Italians to quit the country.

A correspondent at Cairo telegraphs that unless there is an overwhelmingly Turkish force at Alexandria before Sunday there will be a worse outbreak than last Sunday. He says the prestige of Dervisch Pasha has disappeared.

ALEXANDRIA, June 13.—The Europeans are leaving as fast as they can. The consuls have issued a proclamation exhorting Europeans to remain tranquil, and expressing confidence that the army will be able to maintain order. A hundred persons were killed in the riot on Sunday.

All last night prayers were said before crowds of fanatics at the tombs of saints. Menaces were made against Europeans and the natives were much excited. A proclamation signed by all the consuls is posted in the city, informing Europeans that an order has been established by the army advising them to avoid disputes with Arabs and counselling them not to carry arms but to remain in their houses as much possible.

The governor has imprisoned between 200 and 300 Arabs who took an active part in the riot. Several Europeans are still missing. To-morrow over a thousand Europeans will leave Egypt. An officer of the American ship Galena was dangerously wounded.

The khedive and Dervisch have arrived at Roselton palace which can be protected by the guns of the fleet.

An Italian corvette has arrived here. Several bodies of Europeans killed in the riots show bayonet wounds. Cattani, son of a prominent banker, and Rossi, son of a leading lawyer of Cairo, have been found dead.

Among the victims of the riots are six Englishmen, one German and three Italians. The khedive drove through the Arab and European quarters to-day without an escort.

The army is showing signs of insubordination. The Egyptian troops have been authorized to arrest Europeans firing from their windows at natives.

CAIRO, June 13.—According to the engagement between the foreign consuls, Dervisch Pasha, the khedive, and Arabi Pasha, the khedive undertakes to maintain order. Arabi strictly obeying his commands. Arabi also undertakes to stop seditions meetings and preachings, and the hostility of the native press. The arrangement is generally regarded as rendering Arabi master of the situation. The khedive and Dervisch Pasha started for Alexandria ts-day. There have been numerous assaults here on Europeaus by Arabs.

The khedive and Dervisch went to Alexandria in pursuance of orders from the sultan. Arabi rode to the depot in the same carriage with the khedive. Owing to the sending of reinforcements to Alexandria, only 200 cavalry and half a regiment of artillery are left here.

CONSTANTINOPLE, June 13.—Several Turkish ironclads are ready to embark troops for Egypt if necessary. The sultan expressed to the British ambassador regret at the affray in Alexandria, especially at the wounding of the British consul and the killing of the engineer of the Superb.

MADRID, June 13.—The greatest excitement is caused in Madrid by the intelligence from Egypt. The government and politicians of every shade fear complications between France and the North African Mohammedan States. The minister of foreign affairs yesterday declared he would insist upon the payment of the indemnity promised by France for the Spanish colonists of Oran, and would not admit the claims of French subjects in Cuba.

A man-of-war has been sent to Alexandria for the protection of the Spaniards there.

MARSEILLES, June 13.—The Mediterranean squads now at London has been ordered to get ready to proceed to Alexandria.

THE ANGLICANS' SYNOD.

OPENING OF THE SESSION AT THE CHURCH OF THE ASCENSION.

A Good Gathering—An Animated Discussion on Church Matters Expected—The Bishop's Address.

The Anglican synod of the diocese of Toronto met yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the school-house attached to the Church of the Ascension, in Richmond street west. His Lordship Bishop Sweatman presided, with Rev. John Pearson as clerical secretary and Dr. J. George Hodgins as lay secretary. There were 101 parishes and missions represented. The present session of the synod is looked upon as one of the most important ever held, embracing as it does the adoption, amendment or rejection of the new constitution. The 18th clause of the constitution is the one which will be primarily attacked, Rev. J. Langtry leading the opposition with an amendment whose effect will be to keep the executive committee in the hands of the synod, as at present, instead of as is alleged, virtually giving the bishop the power of appointing the greater portion of the members.

THE MORNING SERMON.

At 10 o'clock in the morning a sermon was preached to the synod by Rev. W. Reiner, of Cobourg, in St. George's church, the rev. gentleman selecting for his text from 2nd Cor. xiii, 11th verse, after which the holy communion was celebrated.

BUSINESS OF THE SESSION.

Rev. J. H. McCollum and E. M. Chadwick examined the credentials of the delegates and reported.

The bishop then delivered his opening address, of which the following is a synopsis:

Since we last met in synod in November two of our clerical brethren have passed away. Rev. John Burdett, ordained a deacon by Bishop Bethune, in 1872; the greater part of his ministry was passed in the extensive and arduous mission of Galway, and he enterred his rest at the parsonage at Kinmount on Dec. 29 last. The dean of Toronto's demise was also appropriately and touchingly alluded to. There was no actual diminution to note in the clerical staff. The bishop had held 39 confirmations, in which 817 candidates were admitted, delivered 68 sermons and addresses, administered holy communion 31 times, attended 24 meetings, consecrated 3 churches, opened 1 new church, ordained 5 deacons and 6 priests, baptised 8 infants and 2 adults. With regard to the census of 1881 I had purposed to present a full analysis of those returns as exhibiting the growth or otherwise of the membership of the church of England in the various deaneries and parishes of the diocese as compared with the fluctuations of the population. An investigation of the figures leads me to the conclusion that the more prudent course is not to enter too closely into details in a statement that will be made public. The results are such as to arouse any earnest churchman to the serious conviction that we need to lay aside our differences, our supineness, or our self-complacency or whatever else hinders living growth and healthy expansion of the body if we desire to maintain even the position we now hold among the religious bodies of the country. [Hear, hear, from several rev. gentlemen.] The growth of the church, however, in the city of Toronto is healthy and the present position of the church in the diocese of Toronto is far more favorable than its posit on in the province of Ontario at large. Taking the five principal denominations and grouping under the denoions of Methodists and Presbyterians all the sub-divisions of those bodies respectively, the percentages of increase during the last decade have been: Total of the five denominations 53.1, Baptists 87.7, Methodists 70.4, Presbyterians 62.6, Church of England 49.5, Roman Catholics, 32.3. The actual gain of numbers by each body have been: Church of England 19,245, Methodists 6761, Presbyterians 5630, Roman Catholics 3835, Baptists 1714; and the total membership at the taking of the census was: Church of England 30,913, Methodists 16,357, Roman Catholics 15,716, Presbyterians 14,612, Baptists 3667. I am the more desirous of giving prominence to the fact that whatever retrogression has taken place in the relative strength of the church in the province has not been chiefly due to the falling back in this diocese, because this inference has been drawn in some of the public prints from a correspondence on this subject. I will compare the numerical growth of the five leading denominations during the last ten years in and outside of the diocese of Toronto. In Toronto diocese: Methodists show an increase of 31,488, Presbyterians 13,670, church of England 11,979, Roman Catholics 6333, Baptists 4913; in the rest of Ontario: Methodists 97,751, Presbyterians 47,637, Roman Catholics 40,344, church of England 23,565, Baptists 15,138—that is to say of the total increase of these general bodies in the whole province, the proportion which is assignable to this diocese is: Church of England 1 in 2.96, Baptist 1 in 4.00, Methodist 1 in 4.1, Presbyterian 1 in 4.48, Roman Catholic 1 in 7.37. The rank and strength of these five bodies at the present time in Toronto diocese and in Ontario outside of Toronto diocese and outside of Toronto the order is—Methodists 435,950, Presbyterians 322,426, Roman Catholic 258,989, Church of England 258,986, Baptists 762; within the diocese of Toronto: Methodists 155,553, Church of England 107,551, Presbyterian 95,323, Roman Catholic 61,550, Baptists 16,918. The present state of our diocese is certainly prosperous. The new mission scheme will be laid before you. Rev. Dr. Sullivan of St. George's church, Montreal, will be consecrated bishop of Algoma on St. Peter's day, June 29, in Montreal, in place of the late Bishop Farquier. The London society for the promotion of christianity have appointed Rev. Johnstone Vicars their general agent for the diocese of Toronto.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS.

Rev. John Pearson was re-elected clerical secretary, Dr. Hodgins lay secretary and W. B. Atkinson secretary-treasurer of the diocese.

The reading of the previous minutes, which had been printed and circulated, was dispensed with, and scrutineers were named for the election to-day of the elective members of the executive committee.

MEMORIALS PRESENTED.

A memorial was presented from the board of directors of the Upper Canada Bible association regarding the more universal distribution of the bible throughout the world., and praying that the synod would do all in its power to propagate the circulation of the bible. Referred to a special committee.

A memorial was read from the Presbyterian synods of Hamilton and London, asking that a joint memorial of all synods be presented to the Ontario government, to pass an act making the reading of the bible in all public schools a part of the regular studies.

LEGALITY OF AN ASSESSMENT.

A great deal of interest was manifested in the subject of the legality of the assessment of the different parishes for the widows' and orphans' fund. Dr. Snelling, the burser, was asked if he had the written opinion of the synod's solicitors with him on the matter. The burser said that he had not, but the synod insisted on hearing it read before it was submitted to the court on contested seats. Dr. Snelling went after the document and it was read to the synod. It was an elaborately-prepared opinion and it held that the compulsory assessment was illegal, as was also disfranchisement of parishes which did not pay such assessment. [The opinion was received with applause.]

PRESENTING REPORTS.

The various reports in the order of business paperfrom letters A. to J., which had not been sent from the printer's hands, were accepted as read.

THE CANON ON MISSION FUND.

The canon on mission fund of the last synod, as follows, was read and confirmed without discussion:

There shall henceforth be only one mission fund for maintaining all the missionary operations of this diocese, whether home, domestic or foreign, which fund shall be administered by the mission board, in accordance with the constitution, canons and bylaws of the synod.

Under the name home missions, shall be included all Church of England missionary efforts within the diocese of Toronto. Domestic missions shall include the Northwest and Algoma. Foreign missions shall include all missions of the Church of England, not falling under the name either of home or domestic missions.

All moneys contributed or bequeathed for missionary work shall be managed and distributed by the mission board, in accordance with the wishes of the donors when expressed as to the particular branch or branches of the missionary work to which such money shall be applied.

All moneys not so specially designated or appropriated, shall be proportionally divided among the several objects of the mission fund, according to the judgment of the board.

Home missions.—(See canon for the expenditure of the mission fund in the diocese of Toronto.)

Domestic missions.—The moneys allocated to domestic missions shall be remitted to the committee appointed by the provincial synod to receive the same, and at such dates as may be agreed upon by such committee.

Foreign missions.—The moneys allocated to foreign missions shall be remitted to the committee appointed by the provincial synod to receive the same, and at such dates as may be agreed upon by such committee.

THE NEW CONSTITUTION.

A discussion ensued as to whether discussion of the new constitution should be proceeded with pending the distribution of the printed reports. The synod was divided in the matter, and on motion of Ald. Boswell it was made the first business of to-day immediately after the presentation of the report of the court on contested seats.

The canon on the registration of deeds of church property was discussed until the synod adjourned at 6 o'clock. The wording of the canon was considered by many of the speakers as equivocal and indefinite. The bursar said that it had been prepared in a hurry. The discussion will be continued to-day when the synod meets at 9 30 a.m.

A BIG GAME OF POKER.

Three Bets of $150,000 on a Single Hand—Alleged Fraud and Conspiracy.

NEWBURGH, N.Y., May 13.—At midnight Dr. Monteville M. Hodges, dentist and a sporting man was arrested here. Francis P. Weed of this city charges Hodges and Wm. M. Scott, who is now dying of consumption in California, with cheating at games and with conspiracy to defraud. It is stated that the three played poker in June last, each betting $150,000 on a single hand. Weed and Hodges lost. Weed alleges that the hands were put up by Hodges and Scott, they to divide the winnings. Weed had recently received from the estate of his deceased father half a million dollars. It is stated Weed paid the defendants during the year over $100,000, having compromised for $120,000, and there is $15,000 yet due on an unpaid note. This Weed desires to avoid paying and has begun attachment proceedings against Hodges and Scott to recover as much as possible of what they have already received.

THE LABOR WORLD.

Serious Riots at Cleveland—The Weavers' Strike—Iron Men Returning to Work.

CLEVELAND, June 13.—When work stopped to-night at the rolling mills a greater part of the hands were put in cars and sent down town. Seventy-five Bohemians who live in adjacent districts were escorted by fifty police. The streets filled with people, so that the police had to clear a way. When half-way to the cars the mob began a fusilade with stones and cinders. They aimed first at the workmen, but as the excitement increased the policemen were pelted. Scarcely any officers or laborers escaped. Many were severely cut and bruised. Detective Lawrence was knocked down and brutally beaten and kicked. Six stone-throwers and some wearing strikers' badges were arrested. The mayor and the heads of the police department are in consultation with reference to an effective method of preventing a repetition of the outbreak to-morrow.

PITTSBURG, Pa., June 13.—Some excitement is created in mining circles by the decision of the Baltimore and Ohio railway's miners not to mine coal for the east at less than four cents. The mines have been operating at 3½ cents, but the miners discovered that coal was being shipped west which was mined with the understanding that it was for the east.

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., June 13.—The strikers have resumed work at the Wabash rolling mills on the same conditions as those of the Cincinnati district.

COHOES, N. Y., June 13.—The five strikers who returned to work at Harmony mills Monday under a reduction were reinforced by five more to-day. With the aid of overseers and two bosses one hundred looms and four mule frames were put in operation. Twenty-five skilled operatives left to-day.

Tranquility Being Restored in the West

CHICAGO, June 13.—General Forsythe, the Indian fighter, says Teller's policy in disarming the Indians does much to prevent outbreaks and raids. The rapid development of railways in Mexico and portions of Arizona is also doing much to settle the Indian question. The proclamation of the president against the cow boys of Arizona did much good.

Galvanized into Speech.

RICHMOND, Va., June 13.—The doctor yesterday applied a galvanic battery to the colored boy alleged to have been struck dumb for lying. The boy speedily recovered his speech. The negroes believe that the cure was effected in as mysterious and providential a manner as that by which he originally lost his speech.

Mr. Beaty's Nomination.

Old Mr. Beaty appeared before Ald. John Blevins, the returning officer for East Toronto yesterday to put in his nomination papers. Mr. Blevins took objection to the names to the paper being blurred and advised Mr. Beaty to have them made good. Mr. Beaty went straightway to have the names put down again and to have his lawyer's (Mr. Bowes, of Foster, Clarke and Bowes,) advice in the matter. When he returned with the new papers he was told that the time for receiving nominations had expired and that his would not be received. So he was shut out, as he says, by a trick. Mr. Beaty had the $200 in his hand ready to put up.

Looking for Silk Stealers.

Detectives Cullen and Richardson of Montreal are in the city looking up a case of burglary which occurred in that city on the 14th instt, in which there were $1000 worth of silks, gloves, feathers, etc., stolen. The authorities kept the thing quiet and gave the thieves a chance to get rid of the stolen goods. They have traced two of the burglars to the city but have not laid their hands on them yet.

A Toronto Case in Winnipeg.

Winnipeg Times: The case of Clarke v. Kerr, which came up in the police court a few days ago, has collapsed. All the trouble between these parties arose from a mortgage which Clarke held on certain houses in Toronto belonging to Mr. Kerr, which, on account of depreciation in value, would not realize the face of the mortgages if sold. After having arrested Mr. Kerr for obtaining money under false pretences and putting him to an enormous amount of expense and trouble the prosecutor returned to Toronto. It is stated that Mr. Kerr will enter an action for damages for false arrest.

THE NEWS FROM EUROPE.

DISCUSSION ON THE REPRESSION BILL STILL IN PROGRESS.

An Attack on Bismarck—Joy Over Ignatieff's Resignation—Birth of a Russian Princess—European Crops.

LONDON, June 13.—In the house of commons consideration of the repression bill was resumed. Various amendments were moved by Irish members and rejected, but Gladstone agreed that a re-entry into an evicted holding should not be punishable unless it was effected by force, and of two magistrates exercising summary jurisdiction one must be a lawyer. Harcourt promised that summary jurisdiction, so far as it applied to assaults on bailiffs, etc., should be exercised only in proclaimed districts.

Clause 5 was adopted by 176 to 34.

Clause 6 dealing with unlawful assassins was adopted. It is reported that the government is negotiating with the home rulers with
