WEST END Y. ACTIVITIES.

The Senior Basketball League games played last night were full of excitement. The first game, between England and Belgium, was one of the best to date, Belgium winning by one point.

The second contest, while not so close as to score, was, nevertheless, interesting; in fact, the players were worked up to the highest pitch. Russia carried off the honors, winning by a score of 16 to 10.

Some very good wrestling will be witnessed at the first tournament, which will be held on Saturday night on the floor of the large gymnasium. The local wrestlers are ready to give a good account of themselves; these, with the outside wrestlers, will make one of the best nights yet. The entries will close on Thursday night. This tournament is open to all wrestlers of the city.

BROADVIEW BOYS' BASKETBALL.

The Broadview Y.M.C.A. Senior Business Basketball League closed a very successful season last night. C. Nicholson's team were returned winners, due mainly to the excellent playing of Searle and Nicholson. The line-up of the champions: Centre, C. Nicholson; forwards, W. Funk, C. Cubitt; defence, M. SCOTTISH CUP TIES ABANDONED

No Extra Games Outside the League Fixtures—Standing of Clubs.

LONDON, Dec. 9.—At a special meeting of the Scottish Football Association, held at Glasgow, it was decided to abandon the Scottish Cup ties for this season. The first round of these ties were due to be played off on Jan. 23, but in view of the agitation against soccer, it was agreed to play no extra games in addition to the Scottish League fixtures. The cancellation of the international games caused a big disappointment, as thousands of loyal Scots always set aside the day of the game v. England, which is quite the feature of the Scottish soccer season. To give some idea of the great interest taken in the representative game with England, last season's international, which resulted in a win for Scotland by 3 to 1, was played at Hampden Park, Glasgow, before a crowd of 130,000 persons.

The draw for the first round of the English Cup will take place in London on Dec. 21, for the ties to be decided on Jan. 9.

THE CASE OF GEORGE BUSH.

OTTAWA, Dec. 8.—The suspension of George Bush, the St. Patrick's football player who was protested by T.R. and A.A. on the grounds that he was a professional wrestler, is an aftermath of the annual meeting of the A.A.U. of C., which was held in Ottawa on Saturday.

Bush admitted to the A.A.U. of C. officials that he had wrestled with clionis at the Ottawa exhibition, but said that he had not been paid for doing so.

The stand taken by the A.A.U. of C. is that they do not wish to place the professional ban on Bush at present, and thus have suspended him from further participation in amateur sport, until his case has been more fully gone into and sifted to the bottom.
