Two Farms In Big Transaction

Nearly Four Hundred Thousand Dollars Being Paid for Gooch and Pears Properties on Keele St. —Will Be Subdivided.

The William Pears farm, at the southwest corner of Eglinton avenue and Keele streets, and the Gooch property, just north of the old belt line, are included in a deal now going on. Fairbank Lard Company is the buyer, and is paying close to $400,000. The Pears farm was bought last June by a syndicate known as the Kellesdale Land Company, a syndicate of ten, of which two were the late John McKee and A. E. J. Blackman of the Dodds Medicine Company.

Both properties will be subdivided in the spring. There is 134 acres in the Pears farm and 40 acres in the Gooch estate.
