Captain Bishop states that he was beating up when the other, sailing with a fair wind, crossed his bow.

A SMALL BOY'S LOVE LETTER.—The following letter written by an eight year old boy recently fell into the hands of a teacher in one of our rural districts. It shows some training in letter writing and the use of words, as well as loving sentiment, fast budding into active exercise:

DEAR LENA: Charlie says you are going to marry him. Are you going to? Marry me and we will have him for a hard (hired) man. Your friend. JAMES. —Halifax Mail.

Ald. Kelly vs. the Globe.

During a brief lull in the proceedings at the Council meeting yesterday, Ald. Kelly arose to a question of privilege and read the following editoral from the Globe of October 12th:

"CITY INTERESTS.

"The city government should be carried on in the interests of the whole community, and not in the interest of a few individuals who are friends of particular aldermen. At the present time a great deal of the attempted legislation of the city council appears to be in the interest of particular persons for whom there is a stronger regard in the minds of some of the aldermen than there is for the city as a whole. St. John is not used to being governed in this way, and is not likely to put up with it without a great deal of murmuring. We have heard that in "old times" in St. John an alderman or an assistant would so far sacrifice himself as to lock up his shop in the forenoon to attend a council to vote something in the interests of a friend; but this was a good while ago, and some of these sturdy old fellows had the public concerns sufficiently at heart to risk a great deal for the public welfare. But, nevertheless, by their bad management, by their preference for person's rather than for the whole people, they managed to put the city heavily in debt and the entire city revenues trusteed. Nobody wants to see those days repeated in St. John; but it would all seem that if the evil is to be averted there will have to be a hand to hand conflict between those who work for their particular friends and those who look after the public welfare."

He asked Ald. Robertson, a partner of the editor of the Globe, if he endorsed the above article, or if he had any reason to believe that the aldermen were as dishonest as the Globe would make the public believe. He paused for a reply.

After vainly waiting a few second for Ald. Robertson to reply, Ald. Kelly resumed. He said that, personally, he had nothing to fear from the scurrilous writer of the Globe staff, who was as cowardly as he was abusive. Had he been personally named in the article he would have taken the writer by the throat and dashed him on the street, instead of troubling the council with this matter, but as the article reflected on all alike he felt it his duty to bring it up in open council and to call on Alderman Robertson for an explanation. He paused for a reply.

Ald. Robertson still refusing to rise, Ald. Kelly concluded his remarks by intimating that the writer of the editorial he had quoted was Mr. O'Brien, a member of the Globe staff, who sat outside the rail. He said that it ill became Mr. O'Brien to criticise the actions of any member of the board in relation to contracts or matters of that sort, as what little he had on this earth he got in a very questionable way through a lottery many years ago.

Ald. McCarthy rushed in where Ald. Robertson feared to tread by rising to a question of order. He said it was cowardly for Ald. Kelly to attack a man who had not the right of reply. If Ald. Kelly did not sit down he should be ejected from the council chamber by force. Ald. Kelly replied that he cared nothing for Ald. McCarthy's protest as all he was used to doing was standing with his hands in his breeches pockets leaning against the Globe office and continued that he had brought the matter up now so as to give Ald. Robertson a chance to explain whether or not he endorsed the utterances of his partner. He paused for a reply.

Ald. Robertson had nothing to say in explanation.

Ald. Lewis stated that he had been misrepresented by a black-mustached reporter and also by the Telegraph, but knowing that he was conscientiously doing his duty, he could afford to ignore all such attacks. He would just say that he forgave him and hoped that Ald. Kelly would do the same.

She has three on her foremast and is now a three masted topsail schooner. She is going to the Canary Island's from here thence she goes to Brunswich Ga., where she will load pine for Santa Fe, River Plate. This will be a delightful trip and as Captain Sloan is going to take some passengers there will likely be many applicants for a passage.

The above have sighed contracts. Either Kelly, Brouthers or Nash will be captain of the Bostons, with John Morrill, as financial agent.

Thus it will be seen that John Ward will transfer his allegiance to Brooklyn, where the club will be made up of players from this season's Indianapolis and Washington teams, with Ward as captain-manager.

Arthur Irwin will return to Philadelphia, where he will captain the team.

Comiskey is the only man drawn from the Association, and he will take Anson's place as first baseman and captain of the Chicago club, but Pfeffer will manage the team.

Glasscock and Denny are booked for Pittsburg, taking the place of Rowe and White, who go to Buffalo.

There are some players who have not been assigned to a club.

The new League will be ruled by a managing board of sixteen. composed of one player and one stockholder from each of the clubs.

The Turf.

The Toronto Empire says the thoroughbred ranks in Canada received a hard blow on Tuesday night by the death of Mr. J. C. Smith's stallion Rock and Rye.

Mr. Fred Gebhard's Leo, the big chestnut gelding that broke the world's record for high jumping at the last New York horse show, died on Tuesday last of lock-jaw. Leo's official record was 6 feet 9½ inches, although one of the judges stated the distance cleared was nearer 6 feet 11 inches. With proper handling it was believed that Leo could have cleared 8 feet.

The trotter Walkell Boy, 2:23¾, was burned at a Syracuse fire last Monday night.

J. I. Case thinks that Phallas could equal Axtell's 2:12.

Now the sensation-mongers say that Proctor Knott has broken down and that Sam Bryant outwitted his partner, Mr. Scroggin, when he made him bid $17,000 for the great gelding.

The Ring.

KILRAIN AND SCHOLES.

A New York paper referring to the Kilrain—Scholes exhibition to be given at Toronto Monday evening says:—

By the way, Kilrain is going to invade Canada to combine pleasure with profit. He has ratified a match with John F. Scholes, Toronto's popular champion athlete, boxer, and boniface, the pet of the Toronto police and their athletic adviser. Kilrain and Scholes are to box four rounds, Queensberry rules, in the big and commodious Mutual skating rink on Nov. 4, and it is needless to prophecy that the capacious building will not hold the large delegations that will journey from all parts of Canada to witness the gladiatorial show, for both are nearly six footers, and are to meet each other in full ring costume in the orthodox twenty-four foot ring in a rattling contest with gloves, which will last sixteen minutes. Scholes is one of the most extended boxers of the age, and he demonstrated that fact when he boxed with Jem Mace and fought Charley Mitchell. Scholes, it must be understood, is not only a champion with the mawleyes, but he has won that title at all branches of athletic sports.

This is Kilrain's first professional trip to Toronto.

M'CARTHY'S OPPONENT.

NEW YORK, Oct. 31.—Mike Nolan, the young Irish feather-weight, who intends to challenge Cal McCarthy, met Jack Williams in a fight to a finish with skin gloves, for a purse of $200, in a barn up in Westchester late on Wednesday night. He succeeded in defeating Williams by a blow on the stomach in the second round. It was a short, but desperate battle while it lasted, and in favor of Nolan from the start. Nolan scaled 115 pounds, and Williams weighed in just nine pounds heavier.

THE UPHAM-BROWN FIGHT OFF.

The fight between Arthur Upham and Sailor Brown, that was to have taken place next month at New Haven, has been declared off by Brown, who has contracted a heavy cold and wishes to be excused. Brown says he will fight Upham as soon as he recovers.

The prizes for the various events will be on exhibition Monday.

NOTES.

The handicaps at the Y. M. C. A. sports Tuesday evening will not likely be very extensive, as the nature of the running track precludes fast time.

It will be almost impossible to get a fifty yards straight at the rink, eight or ten yards reserve at least being necessary for a stop.

The intention is however, to raise an inclined plane up which the boys may run. This will assist materially in breaking the speed.

Says the N. Y. World: Alexander Jordan the great all-round athlete, does not look like such a mighty man of muscle when he has on his store clothes. When disrobed and in his running costtume, however, he is seen to be wonderfully well developed

City Police Court.

Another canvasser for St. John opera house stock is to be put on, allowing Mr. Reed the collector, to devote all his time to collecting. The directors, have decided to issue stock certificates at once as many stockholders have paid up all their calls and others will do so as soon as the certificates are ready.

A very pleasant social evening was spent by the members of Golden Rule Lodge, No. 46, I. O. O. F.; of the West end, and their friends, last evening, at their lodge room on the occasion of opening their reading room for the winter. A good programme was carried out and with the assistance of their guests a substantial lunch was disposed of.

Mr. Peter Hines, Tatamagouche Mountain, picked a second crop of apples from some of his trees this season. Some of the apples were quite large, well formed and palatable.

GARDENIA.

I WOULD call the attention of dealers and consumers to the following letter received by me this morning:—

SIR.—Enclosed please find P. O. order for —— amount of one barrel of oil, which proves to be of good quality and I am pleased with it.

Yours respectfully, ——

This gentleman has used every brand of oil in the market, and was using one of the most popular brands at the time of ordering Gardenia, but believing a better oil could be made, experimented and found he was correct. The gentleman is unknown to me except in the above transaction, and his letter can be seen at my office at any time. His only motive for so voluntarily expressing himself, was to encourage my efforts in putting such a superior oil on the market. I pledge my word as a practical man and as one who has introduced nearly all the popular brands on the market, that, GARDENIA is the peer of all. 1300 barrels of this oil is now due here and in course of shipment Orders booked at lowest possible prices consistent with the quality of the oil.

A Plea for Morning Shopping

Now that the Days are Shortening and it becomes necessary to resort to artificial light so early in the afternoon, we beg most respectfully to impress upon the minds of Ladies who have shopping to do (and what Lady has not?) the great advantages that the morning possesses over the afternoon for purchasing DRY GOODS, and submit the following as a few of our reasons for so doing:

The light is invariably better in the forenoon.

The stores are not so crowded.

The salesmen are not so rushed and consequently customers get better attention.

The Goods are in better condition and more accessible so that Ladies can get what they want and not waste their valuable time in waiting.

We always have something of special interest to show to the Ladies who come in the morning, when our salesmen have spare time to introduce the various novelties that are daily arriving for our autumn sales.

Our Establishment is open at seven o'clock in the morning and all salesmen are in their respective departments by eight, arranging the Goods for the day's trade, and bringing forward fresh Stock from the W
