PROTESTANT RIGHTS

Hon. Honore Mercier's Noble Sentiments.

An Answer to the Ravings of the Ontario Tory Organs.

The following patriotic words were uttered by the Hon. Mr Mercier at a dinner of the Letellier Club, in Montreal last week. Every Protestant should read them :—

Hon. Mr Mercier, in the course of a lengthy address, said : I cannot repeat it too often that our victory was not merely a party one, but a triumph of the people. We do not look upon it as a mere victory, for it was fought out under the flag of the national cause. The elections of the 14th of October were carried by the patriots of the two parties, who fought for the same cause and who are ready to follow the same programme. These elections resulted in the condemnation of a Government which was as remarkable for its impotency as it was for its faults, and which was, at the same time, unable to do good or to prevent evil. The elections were also a condemnation of political misdeeds and financial extravagance of three successive Ministries, and of their organized pillage of the public coffers. They were finally a condemnation of a Government that showed itself to be nothing but a weak tool in the hands of the Federal Ministers, and that did nothing to protect the provincial rights against Federal encroachments. The defeated Ministry are trying by all means to remain in power against the verdict and will of the electorate. Nobody dares deny that the Opposition has won. It makes no difference what may be the component elements af the Opposition, the one great fact is there that the majority of the Ministerial condidates were rejected by the people. In the majority that we claim there is not a single member that has not been elected as an opponent of the Government, while in the minority which our opponents claims there are four members who refused up to the date of the elections, to admit that they were supporters of the Government, and who declared that they were independent. As proof that Ross is in a minority I may state that I hold a document signed by 35 members, who declare they have no confidence in the Government. And why have we signed this document? Because it was necessary to answer the false assertions of dishonest persons who stated that the verdict of the people was not sufficiently clear; because systematic attempts were made to deceive the country and alarm the public mind, the majority of the representatives then deemed it necessary to take measures to place the verdict of the people in its true light. That is all that the thirty-five members did, and it was right to do it, and as leader of the Opposition I had the right to receive that document. Notwithstanding the outrageous and systematic lying of our opponents, our fight was not directed in the slightest degree against the right of the Protestant minority in this province. There is not one amongst us who does not entertain the greatest respect for the rights of the Protestant minority in the province. Thank God these rights are not imperilled. But if ever they were it would be found that they would be safer in our hands and would be better defended and upheld by us than by our opponents. I am pleased to say, to the honor of our Protestant fellow-citizens, that the appeal to their fears met with no success. The results prove it. Our opponents tried to lead Protestant opinion astray, to arouse religious prejudice, and to create in their minds a false idea of the true character of our political movement. These miserable attempts may have succeeded in certain places, but I have too much confidence in the good sense and intelligence of my Protestant compatriots to believe that, as a body, they will fall into the trap so openly set by our opponents. They will not remain long without recognizing the spirit of justice with which I wish to treat all races and creeds, and that I desire to be the loyal and sincere friend of all good citizens, whether they speak English or French, or profess one religion or the other. In the words you have addressed to me you were kind enough to allude to the formation of the new Cabinet that will soon be called to govern this Province. I do not know whom the Lieutenant Governor will call to form this Cabindt, but if he follows the constitutional usages he will select his chief adviser in the actual majority of the House, and will know how to resist the indiscreet and indelicate approaches that may be made to him to go outside the Legislative Assembly to seek for a Prime Minister. To repair the faults committed by past administrations, to improve the state of our finances, to introduce economy in the administration of affairs, to put an end to a regime of governmental and legislative impotency, to assert and protect our provincial rights, to unite all good citizens in favor of a wise, moderate and impartial administration, such is our programme, and one that will do honor to our new Legislature, and justify, even in the eyes of those who have been against us, the victory of our party. (Loud applause).

Auburn.

Rev. Mr Pritchard, who has for the past nine years occupied the Presbyterian pulpit at this place, will leave next Tuesday for Forest, where he has accepted a call.

One of the oldest residents of this section, William Wilson, sr., died here on Sunday. Nov. 7th, in his 86th year. He had been a hard worker all his life, and died in harness, having been stricken down by a paralytic stroke.

William McDonald, of California, a former Auburn boy, has taken up his quarters at the old homestead, and is quite an acquisition to the neighborhood.

William Graham, formerly reeve of Stanley, was visiting friends in this section last week. At one time he was a resident of Auburn, and kept store in the village.

The Best Fountain Pen in the World.

The "Wirt" fountain pen is the best thing yet invented in the way of a self-feeding pen. It has a gold nib, shades just as a dipping pen does, and never fails. It is a writing wonder. A sample can be seen at this office. Every lawyer, doctor, clergyman, school-teacher and business man should have one. Thos. McGillicuddy is the local agent.

Mr J. Higgins, of Brucefield, has been presented with a gold watch for his efforts among the church congregation during the pastor's absence.

Merchants can get their Bill Heads, Letter Heads, &c., &c. printed at this office for very little more than they generally pay for the paper, and it helps to advertise their business. Call and see samples and get prices.

EPPS'S COCOA.

BREAKFAST.

"By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected Cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a delicately flavored beverage which may save us many heavy doctors' bills. It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up until strong enough to resist every tendency to disease. Hundreds of subtle maladies are floating around us ready to attack wherever there is a weak point. We may escape many a fatal shaft by keeping ourselves well fortified with pure blood and a properly nourished frame."—"Civil Service Gazette."
