The St. Catharines News says some rascal not having the fear of the majesty of the law before his eyes has passed a one dollar bill, converted into a five, on our august Police Magistrate.

The Galt Reporter says a stick of timber brought into the town on Saturday evening last took ten horses to draw it. It is oak, some sixty feet in length, and square about two feet. The timber is got out for the G. W. Company, and is to be used in re-building some important bridge on their line.

We are told by a high authority that next to green parasols for their wives at season-end dispose spices, there's nothing that so charms and wins hesitating voters as the kissing of their respective wives by the anxious candidate for office. Gloomy and unselfish patriot he may be, nasty, or unselfish patriot he may be, nasty, or unselfish patriot he may be, nasty, or
