CORRECTIONS.

To the Editor of the Union Advocate:

Sir,—It is to be regretted that several inaccuracies have crept into my letter which you have so kindly published in the Advocate of this date. These inaccuracies not only do violence to the grammatical construction of some of the sentences but they also obscure the meaning in several particulars. I shall not trouble you to correct the bad grammar but with your permission I shall amend two or three sentences which may have been misunderstood by your readers.

In one sentence No16. has been substituted for No. 15. The sentence reads. "Application was made to the Chief Superintendent of Education on behalf of the Roman Catholic trustees of No.16 to empower these public school to hire and pay the Sisters teaching in District No. 16."

The sentence "discovered" should be the following sentence:—

"The reason for drawing up this bill should be remembered; and let the bill be read with the omnibus clause in it remembered; let it be remembered that it was after the Manual had been printed in proof sheet form and after the Chief Superintendent had been in Bathurst, that the meaning and intent of the Regulation was destroyed, and then also that the Hon. A. G. Blair the courage and honesty to deal honestly and honorably with the Protestant minority of Bathurst."—

I also note two or three inaccuracies in the sentence beginning with the words; "If the School Law of the Province had been honestly administrated &c. but as the matter is obvious I shall not make any further correction.

Thanking you for the space given to this and the columns of your valuable paper.

Yours

A. F. THOMSON.

Dominion Parliament,

OPENING OF PARLIAMENT.

Ottawa, Jan. 26, 1893.—The Dominion Parliament was opened this afternoon by Thursday last with the usual ceremonies. Lord Stanley delivered the following

SPEECH:—

Honorable Gentlemen of the Senate:

Gentlemen of the House of Commons:

I thank you for the loyal and [illegible] with which you have received my announcement of my meeting you at the commencement of another session of Parliament. It is a matter of pleasure to congratulate you on the continued [illegible] which the past year unfolds with regard to Canada. The increase in trade as illustrated by the exports and imports during the period for which the official returns have been prepared has been most gratifying, and that increase has continued down to the present time. All promise that the volume of business during the current year will exceed that of any year in the history of the Dominion. The revenues of the country have likewise provided for all the services for which Parliament has made appropriation, and the operation of the government railways has been a lessened burden on the taxpayers, the difference between income and expenditure than has been the case for a long series of years previously.

In Manitoba and the Northwest Territories the increase in immigration has been decided, and both the number of persons who have come from other countries and as regards the number of homestead entries made by settlers of all nationalities.

Measures have been taken to carry into effect the agreements arrived at with the United States on the subjects of the boundary of Alaska, boundary line in Passamaquoddy Bay, and the prevention of destructive methods of fishing and the preservation and increase of fish life.

With regard to reciprocity in wrecking and salvage a correspondence has taken place which indicates that privileges are demanded for United States vessels in Canadian waters which were not anticipated, but it not impossible that a satisfactory conclusion of the discussion may yet be reached.

During the recess friendly conference took place between delegates from my Government and those from the government of New South Wales on the questions which were pending between the two countries. It is hoped and expected that the interchange of views which then took place will be productive of beneficial results and lead to an amicable adjustment of those questions.

The statutes of 1887 relative to the department of trade and commerce and to the office of Solicitor General having been brought into force, the appointments were made which were contemplated by these acts.

It is to be regretted that the government of the United States were unable to accept the suggestions made by the government on the subject of canal tolls, and that the President should have thought it necessary to impose exceptional tolls on Canadians using the Sault Ste. Marie canal, which has so long been free to the people of both countries. My government, while ready to consider in a friendly spirit any proposals which may be made by the government of the United States, have caused efforts to be made to hasten the completion of the Canadian canal works, which will soon afford to the commerce of the Dominion a highway within our own country.

Measures will be laid before you for the improvement of the franchise act, for the amendments of the laws relating to the civil service, and the superannuation of civil servants, for regulating the admission of evidence in causes and matters under the control of the parliament of Canada, for extending the system of voting by ballot to the Northwest Territories, and for simplifying the laws relating to lands and transfers in the territories.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons:

The public accounts of the past year and the estimates for the coming year will be laid before you without delay and I trust it will be seen that ample provision may be made for the public service without increasing taxation.

Honorable Gentlemen of the Senate:

Gentlemen of the House of Commons:

I commend all these matters to your careful consideration and that your deliberations will keep in view, above all other considerations, the welfare and stability of the country.

On the return of the Commons to their chamber twelve members all liberal conservatives, elected during the recess, were introduced, among them Mr. Dickey by Hon. Mr. Foster and Geo. R. Baird and Mr. McInerney, by Hon. Mr. Costigan and Hon. Mr. Foster. Mr. Tarte was present in the building, but was not introduced. (Messrs. Choiny and McIntosh were greeted with loud applause as they took their seats.

On motion of Sir John Thompson who expressed regret that the leader of the opposition was absent through illness, the consideration of the address was postponed till Monday.

The house adjourned at half-[illegible] o'clock.

Mr. Dalton McCarthy has an interesting bill today with Hon. Mr. Costigan, Minister of marine and fisheries, to which he urged compliance with the petition of the Northumberland County council and the fishermen of Miramichi, that the season for bass fishing be extended so as to include the month of February? Bass are worth 13 cents a pound on the ice and realize 24 cents per pound to the exporter in the Boston market. Mr. Adams contends that there is no earthly reason why the prayer of the petition shall not be granted. Hon. Mr. Costigan promised to give the matter his instant attention. It is peculiar fact above Beaubear's island, where the Miramichi divides into two rivers, bass are only to be found in the northwest branch, not a single fish having ever been taken on the other.

OTTAWA, Jan. 27.—The house only sat a few minutes today before adjourning till Monday, when the address will be taken up. Mr. Laurier's health has so far improved that he will be able to take his seat by that time.

Mr. Ives was introduced this afternoon by Sir John Thomson and Sir A. P. Caron.

1893. HARPER'S WEEKLY.

ILLUSTRATED.

HARPER'S WEEKLY is acknowledged a standing first among illustrated weekly periodicals in America. It occupies a place between that of the hurried daily paper and that of the less frequent monthly magazine. It includes both literature and news, and presents with equal force and felicity the real events of current history and the imaginative themes of fiction. On account of its very complete series of illustrations of the World's Fair, it will not only be the best guide to the great Exposition, but also its best souvenir. Every public event of general interest will be fully illustrated in its pages. Its contributions being from the best writers and artists in this country, it will continue to excel in literature, news and illustrations, all other publications of its class.
