Poetry.

THE CLOUDS.

Beautiful travellers, silver-wing'd revellers,
Fair are your forms in their summer array;
O'er heaven's azure sea lightly your shallops flee
All the bright day.

Transiently, fleetingly, mockingly, cheatingly—
Round us ye gambol in purple and gold—
Merrily, cheerily, pausing not wearily—
Ne'er growing old.

Bright as the sunny beams lighting an angel's dreams,
Sweetly and swift on our wondering eyes
Up from your coral caves, built of your snowy waves,
Strange visions rise.

Wine-flowing chalices, amber made palaces,
Fairer than man ever fashion'd on earth,
Laughing like summer flowers woo'd by the fairy hours,
Spring into birth.

Then mountain and valley bright rise on the ravish'd sight,
Pannered with beauty and circled with joy;
Rose tinted swaddling, couches for cradling
Love's gentle boy.

And boating for ever the sunlight's hot river,
Ye shield from his rays the heat burden'd flowers—
Still gathering the rain from the foam-heaving main
For Spring's sweet showers.

And when the ev'ning sun sinks like a dying one,
Feeble and dim in the sapphire-robed sky,
Watching his rosy bed till his last smile is fled,
Still ye are by.

Then from his couch of gold, up piling fold on fold,
Climbing the dimness of night's azure noon—
Hurling your fleecy cars over the shining stars,
To the fair moon.

Off with your sheeny wings (ah, ye are conning things!)
Shading her face where she lights a lone bower,
Dark'ning the trysting bush, hiding the modest blush,
Beauty's best dower.

Ye are so beautiful, earth to be dutiful
Glasseth your forms in her streams with delight,
Glowing with choicest hues, dropping with amber dews,
Morning and night.

Bless ye, bright travellers, silver winged revellers,
Gifts from our God to enlighten life's way—
Guarding the maiden moon, shading the summer noon,
Ever in play.

Important to the Public!

SPRING AND SUMMER CLOTHING!

The subscriber has received per late arrivals, a large and varied assortment of GOODS, consisting of:—

CLOTHS, CASSIMERES, DOESKINS, Cashmeres, Cassinets, Buckskins, Velvets Satins, &c. with a large assortment of MATTRASSES Hammocks, Blankets, Sheets, Rugs, a superior article of OIL CLOTHING, Glazed, Beaver, and silk HATS,—high and low crowned, latest styles; Cloth and glazed Caps; silk and lawn Covers for do; Belts and sheaths; Knives; Lambswool, Merino and Cotton Shirts and DRAWERS; Regaio and heavy striped do: White Cotton do., with Linen trimmings: Linen Fronts, and Collars; Red and Blue Flannel and Serge Shirts; with an assortment of Tailor's Trimmings, and almost every article in connection, suitable for a GENERAL CLOTHING STORE.

And, as heretofore, having made up in the concern a great part of the Cloths into Fashionable Spring and Summer CLOTHING of the latest styles he is now prepared with his large stock of Ready made Garments of every fabric, style and finish, for the farmer or labouring man, the gentleman of fashion or mechanic, the seafaring man, and all others; which will be hereafter proffered for sale to the public at lower prices than ever before known.

It is almost unnecessary to point out to a discerning public the vast benefit arising to the Province generally by having your Clothing made up in the place. You may safely say that every imported garment you purchase, you are actually sending one fourth of the cost unnecessarily out of the country, not to speak of the great injury you are entailing on a large class of industrious people in your own city. It is high time to look seriously into this matter, and to tell those people who import that they are the real enemies of the country, and that their slops you do not want; but patronize those, and those only, who always get their Clothing made up in the City, and sell them at a cheaper rate than imported garments can possibly be obtained; and those Goods you will now find at the

AND GENTLEMEN'S
OYSTER SALOON.

THE Proprietor most respectfully informs the Public of saint John, that he has taken that Commodious House in Cross street, (nearly opposite his old stand,) and formerly known as Mrs. Brook's Boarding House, and that he has, at a very great expence, and a disregard of time and trouble, fitted it up in the most approved manner, after the style of similar establishments in Great Britain and the United states. He flatters himself that he has among his friends and well wishers, a great number of highly respectable gentlemen, and to them he would now tender his most sincere thanks for the very liberal patronage he has received from them. To those who may henceforth honor the ST. JOHN COFFEE HOUSE with their patronage he will pledge himself to give every satisfaction both in the quality and style in serving up of the viands which he may place before them; as also to have at the earliest moment any and every variety which this and the American markets can produce.

Families can be supplied with the choicest Oysters, raw or cooked in any style, delivered at their own dwellings, the quality of which shall be unquestionable.

Clubs and Dinner parties attended to with the least possible delay and at the most reasonable charges.

☞ Gentlemen will please call and judge for themselves and they will have a proof positive.

TRIUMPHANT SUCCESS OF
Buchan's Hungarian Balsam of Life,

THE GREAT ENGLISH REMEDY FOR

Colds, Coughs, Asthma, and Consumption.

THE most celebrated and infallible remedy for Colds, Coughs, Asthma, and every form of Pulmonary Consumption, is the HUNGARIAN BALSAM OF LIFE, discovered by that eminent medical chemist, Dr. Buchan, of London, England, and extensively known as the "Great English Remedy."

It has been tested for upwards of seven years in Great Britain and on the continent of Europe, where it is universally considered the great, and only remedy for this awful malady, and now introduced to the public under the immediate superintendence of the inventor. Within three years it has been distributed from Maine to Florida, and from Canada to Wisconsin, and its effects are every where alike ASTONISHING AND TRIUMPHANT.

As a preventive medicine, and an antidote to the consumptive tendencies of the climate, it is invaluable. As a remedy for severe and obstinate coughs Inflammation of the Lungs, croup, &c. it is unrivaled. But the Proprietors so confident of the merit of this great remedy, in the worst forms of consumption, that he prefers to have it used by the DYING INVALID rather than by persons afflicted with some simple and less dangerous disorder of the throat and lungs:—this may seem strong language, but it is the result of experience in thousands of cases, sustained by the most intelligent and unimpeachable testimony. It is not pronounced an infallible remedy in all cases, but it is THE MOST INFALLIBLE remedy known to the civilized world. It is the best preventive of hereditary consumption—it is the best defender against the influences of climate—it is the best remedy for incipient consumption—and it is the great and only remedy for that fearful softening of the lungs—inflammation of the membrane, and tuberculous decay, which are the last effects of that dreadful scourge, and which are erroneously supposed to be beyond the reach of medical aid;—the agent or proprietors of other medicines dare not claim for their preparations a power like this; they know that in no case have such effects been produced;—the grand object and purpose of the common 'remedies' is simply to give relief—not to cure: this is easily done by an intelligent Physician or Druggist; but while dallying with these delusive compounds, the patient rapidly declines, and every day places him farther and farther beyond the reach of hope.

Such is not the case with the Hungarian Balsam It is always salutary in its effects—never injurious. It is not an opiate—it is not a tonic—it is not a mere expectorant. It is not intended to lull the invalid into a fatal security. It is a great remedy—a grand healing and curative compound; the great and only remedy which mediest science and skill has yet produced for the treatment of this hitherto unconquerable malady. It is in fact the best remedy in the world!

[From the John Bull, newspaper, London.]

There is certainly some mysterious and occult virtue in the famous "Hungarian Balsam of Life which the medical faculty are unable to discover or Dr. Buchan would not be permitted for so many years to enjoy the magnificent monopoly of the treatment and cure of Consumption in Great Britain. No satisfactory analysis of this famous compound has ever, to our knowledge, been offered to the public.
