GOSSIP.

Mr. John McFarlane, Dutton, Ont., has sold to Messrs. D. Brown and J. R. McCallum, Iona, Ont., the bull, Sittyton Marquis, for $230.

Mr. W. R. Bowman, Crest Hill Farm, Mount Forest, Ont., in forwarding copy for his advertisement, says that during the last few weeks they have sold choice lambs to J. W. Crane, of Burnstown; H. Brigham, Allan Park; B. Stroer, Mt. Albert, and James Shelley, Powassan. Enquiries are coming in rapidly. They have a fine bunch to choose from, and are selling at a low figure to give ample room to their breeding ewes. The Yorks are of the long, level-backed, easy-feeding type. They offer to ship C. O. D. to any point in Ontario.

COTSWOLD HILL COTSWOLDS.

Prominent among the Cotswold sheep breeders of Ontario is Elgin F. Park, of Burgessville, a short distance south of Woodstock. He is the owner of Cotswold Hill Stock Farm, just now the home of 150 head of essentially high-class Cotswold sheep, imported and Canadian-bred, typical representatives of this great English breed of wool and mutton producers. The two stock rams are both imported, bred by Swanwick and Garnet, massive, strong-boned, heavy-wooled fellows. For years, this great flock of Cotswolds have been exhibited at all the leading shows in Canada and several in the United States, nearly always coming out of the struggle with a little the best of it. This year, at Toronto, London, Ottawa, Halifax, and Charlottetown, they again covered themselves with honor. At Toronto, they won a little the best of it. At Ottawa and London, they won the lion's share. At Halifax, they were simply beaten out of first on aged and shearling rams, but won everything else. At Charlottetown, they won everything. For immediate sale are 12 shearing rams, 40 ram lambs, 50 one- and two-shear ewes, and 20 ewe lambs—an offering first-class in every particular. Write Mr. Park, to Burgessville P. O.

COL. J. A. MCGILLIVRAY'S SALE.

As announced in our last issue, Col. J. A. McGillivray will, on Friday, Dec. 14th, at his farm, at Bedford Park, three miles north of Toronto, on Yonge St., sell by auction, without reserve, the whole of his choice Shorthorn herd, 31 head, several of which are imported, notably: Trout Creek Belle 2nd (imp.), by Royal Edward, a two-year-old Village Maid; Beautiful Belle (imp.), by Bonus, a roan four-year-old; Missie 155th (imp.), by Spicy Robin; Dalmeny Nonpareil 6th (imp.), by Gravesend; Miss Mary (imp.), by Macaroni; Missie of Avondale 2nd (imp.), by Carlisle, and the progeny of these cows. The herd represents the Missies, Nonpareils, Miss Ramsdens, Village Maids, Duchess of Glosters, Crimson Flowers, Marr Meadowflowers, Beautys and Butterflies. There are 12 heifers up to two years of age of the above-named strains, and two young bulls about nine months old, one a Miss Ramsden, the other a Duchess of Gloster. These, and the bulk of the heifers, are by the stock bull, Butterfly King (imp.) 50019, bred by John Young, Tilbouries, sired by King Victor, dam Jubilee Maid 2nd, by Fortunatus. He will also be sold, the whole making an exceedingly attractive offering. Mr. McGillivray has been many years getting this herd together, and paid long prices for a number of them, but they will be sold for whatever they will bring. There will also be sold two imported Clydesdale mares, three years old, Kate Lander (imp.) 5605, by Rozelle, dam by Knight of Lothian, and Sarah Grand (imp.) 5602, by King o' Kyle, also 1 reg. Canadian-bred mare. All these are in foal to Imp. Celtic Baird, a Toronto winner. Holdenby Sall (imp.) is a four-year-old Shire mare, by Duke of Anglesby, dam by Calthorpe Disraeli. She, too, is in foal. Also, there will be sold 25 Dorset sheep, part of which are imported, the rest out of imported stock. The ewes are from one to five years old. There are eight choice rams, two-shear (one of them is a Toronto first-prize ram), and six lambs. This sale will certainly offer the best opportunity of the year of getting choice Scotch Shorthorns, Clydesdales, Shires and Horned Dorsets, at the buyers' own prices. Mark the date, and look up the advertisement in this issue.
