A Hardware store had for a sign,
A padlock large, made out of pine.
A lady, from the Emerald Isle,
Stood gazing at it quite a while;
A fellow passing asked her why
She stared at the padlock in the sky?
"O!" says she, "I was wondering, at all,
at all,
If thim's the locks what's on the hardware!"

LORD NORBURY, in court one day, interrupted Curran in the midst of a speech, when an ass began to bray under the window by saying, "one at a time, Mr. Curran, if you please." Presently the judge began his charge to the jury, when the ass began to bray again. Lord Norbury very much annoyed, asked, "What horrid noise is that?" "Only the echo of the court, my lord," replied Mr. Curran.

A WITTY FELLOW happening to step into a little ale-house one day, called for a glass of the refreshing beverage. After drinking it, he turned to the landlady with the air of one who had some great secret to communicate, and said,—"Mrs D., I'll tell you how you can sell a great deal more ale than you do." "How, sir?" she asked. "Don't sell so much froth," was the reply.

"I LOVE to look upon a young man.—There is a hidden sensibility in the breast which at once charms and pains me." The daughter of a clergyman happening to find the above sentence at the close of one of her father's unfinished manuscripts, as he had left it in his study, sat down and added:—"Them's my sentiments, exactly, all but the pain."

AN ADVENTURE.—'Twas a winter's night, and the moon shone bright, and the snow was crusted o'er; with a maid as fair as seraphs are, I slid from a hill down lower. As we neared the place like a horse on a race, our swift-gliding sled careened; and with tresses fair, floating back on the air, sweet Sally went cend over cend.

DEAN SWIFT said that the reason why a certain university was a learned place, was, that most persons took some learning there, and few brought any away with them, so it accumulated.

A WESTERN EDITOR says that a farmer in his neighborhood made a scarecrow so very frightful that one old crow went and brought back all the corn he had stolen for several days and left it in the field.

LATOUR MAUBOURG lost his leg at the battle of Leipsic. After he had suffered amputation with the greatest courage, he saw his servant crying, or pretending to cry, in one corner of the room. "None of your hypocritical tears, you idle dog," said he, "you know you are very glad, for now you will only have one boot to clean."

The Louisville Journal learns that the cold weather during the holidays ruined the wheat crop in that neighborhood.

A lot is to be purchased in Forest Lawn, Buffalo, and a monument erected to the memory of the fallen heroes belonging to that city.

According to the Chicago Tribune the Union League in the United States now numbers some 800,000 members.

Forty-four thousand pounds of grease and twenty three thousand pounds of tallow were destroyed by fire at Somerville, Mass., on Monday.

Stoves made of soapstone have been introduced at Quebec. They are said to throw out a mellower and more uniform heat than iron. The material of which they are made is very abundant in the mineral region south of the St. Lawrence.

His Holiness the Pope has expelled the American spiritualist, Mr. Home, from "the Eternal City."

The other day an old soldier sat down on the steps of a house in London and blew out his brains with a pistol, He was insane.

A boy employed in a coal-pit near Brampton, England, a short time since, suspended himself by a rope "to see how long he could hang" without losing sensibility. It appears that he hung just a little too long, for he was cut down dead.

In Ayr, Scotland, a woman found in the centre of a potato, of which she was pitaking a gold wedding ring. As the potato was perfectly sound it is supposed that the ring found its way to the soil in manure, and was enclosed by the tubers in the process of growth.

A young dressmaker in London went to a house in Hyde Park Gardens to do some work. While there a servant in the house dressed herself in a sheet and appeared suddenly before the young lady in the night, frightening her so that she died three days afterward.

On New Year's Eve eight hundred thousand complimentary letters were sent through the Paris post in addition to the daily average circulation. Six hundred thousand were posted between 5 and 6 p. m., so that they might be delivered early on the Jour de l'An.

A movement has been set on foot for the purpose of providing an annuity for "Talhairn," well known throughout the principality as "the Burns of Wales," whose health has failed him.

The Chicago Journal tells the following:—"a couple were married at a hotel in this city yesterday, and left for Milwaukee in a state of bliss. Marriages are not rare events in Chicago we know very well; but in this case the parties had been married before. They were divorced, lived seperately for some months, and finally concluded the best thing they could do would be to return to each other's arms.

It was Dow Jr.—sacred be his memory—who said that "life is a country dance; down outside and back, tread on the corns of your neighbor, poke your nose everywhere all hands around; right and left. Bob your cocoa-nut—the figure is ended. Time hangs up the fiddle, and Death puts out the lights.

THE EVIDENCE INCREASES.—Rev. Geo. M. Spratt, Lewisburg, Penn., writes—"I cheerfully recommend Mrs. S. A. Allen's World's Hair Restorer, and Zylobalsamum for curing baldness and restoring gray hair. Their use in this vicinity has been highly successful."
Sold by druggists everywhere. Depot, 198 Greenwich st., New-York.

HINTS FOR FARMERS.—A good farmer will never keep more than ten dogs to every five sheep. He will clean out his stables at least once every month. He will keep five or six sticks of wood cut up ahead, more than what is necessary for immediate use. He will not go to town and get on the spree oftener than three times a week, at least in harvest time. He will be very careful not to put up a rail on a line fence unless the neighbor is there to help him. He will not injure his health by lying in bed till after eight o'clock, a. m., but will have his cows milked, breakfast over, and his men at work as early as ten o'clock.

DESPERATE ATTACK IN THE KINGSTON PENITENTIARY.—Another act of insubordination occurred at the Provincial Penitentiary near this city on Friday (says the Kingston American). A convict named Fogarty, who had been reprimanded by the foreman, Mr. Mooney, for neglect of duty in the boot and shoe department, conceived the design of dealing Mr. Mooney a blow upon the head, which act of treachery he perpetrated by stealthily approaching his back, and inflicting a serious wound. He then immediately rushed down stairs and arming himself with an axe prepared to meet any approach. Although wounded Mooney was the first to pursue the culprit, and received a blow from the axe, which however was not severe. Fogarty was then overpowered and taken before the Warden, and was by him adjudged a term of imprisonment in a dark cell. While being taken thither he broke from those conveying him and rushed violently into a shop near by he seized another axe and threatened Mooney's life, running madly around in search of him. He was again secured and locked up for further examination.

THE VICTORIA
WASHING MACHINE!
Obtained the FIRST PRIZE at the Provincial Exhibition in London, in 1861.
THIS LABOUR-SAVING MACHINE
WAS tested by the Bureau of Agriculture, and declared to be the best yet brought under their notice. It is simple in its construction, easily worked, and not subject to get out of repair.
The cleansing process is effected by the rapid action of the water in the Machine, and not by pressure or rubbing, thereby avoiding the slightest injury to the finest fabrics, with a much less quantity of soap than under the hand-washing system. Persons who have used them are satisfied that the machine is capable of doing as much work in two hours as can be accomplished in a day by the ordinary process, thus Saving 4-5 of the time and Labour
And two-thirds of the Soap generally used.
The undermentioned persons purchased Machines, and having given them a full trial express their entire satisfaction:
J. J. Wright, Huron Hotel; Isaac Frederick, Jeweller; W. T. Cox, Signal Office; Alex. Nasmith; H. Horton, Esq.; Peter Nolan; D. Cummings; Reid Gibbons, Esq. Warden; Peter Gillies; R. Runciman, Esq.; Rev. Chas. Fletcher. Many other names might be added, if necessary.
CASH PRICE ONLY $6.50.
The Subscriber having purchased the Patent Rights for the County of Huron, is now prepared to supply the machine of which he solicits a trial, feeling assured that all who test it will be pleased with the rapidity and ease with which an other, wise tedious and laborious wash is performed.—Ladies will confer a favor by allowing the machine to be tested at their residence, to which it will be conveyed by the proprietor, and removed again should it not be purchased. All the subscriber desires is that the merits of the Machine should be thoroughly tested. Parties wishing to try it will communicate with the proprietor.
