Opportunity

BY EDWARD ROWLAND SILL

THIS I beheld, or dreamed it in a dream:—
There spread a cloud of dust along a plain;
And underneath the cloud, or in it, raged
A furious battle, and men yelled, and swords
Shocked upon swords and shields.
A prince's banner
Wavered, then staggered backward, hemmed by foes.
A craven hung along the battle's edge
And thought, "Had I a sword of keener steel—
That blue blade that the king's son bears,—but this
Blunt thing—!" he snapt and flung it from his hand,
And lowering crept away and left the field.
Then came the king's son, wounded, sore bestead,
And weaponless, and saw the broken sword,
Hilt-buried in the dry and trodden sand,
And snatched it, and with battle-shout
Lifted afresh he hewed his enemy down,
And saved a great cause that heroic day.

MEDALS FOR THE HUSSARS.

Editor World: I read in the Toronto papers that the Dominion government have reopened the time for applicants who are entitled to the Canadian general service medal. The time for the awarding of this decoration having been closed from Jan. 1, 1904, until now, I wish to state the case of the 13th Hussars. This corps was ordered out after the raid of Ridgeway, June, '66, to assist the troops on the frontier. They arrived in Toronto, September, '66. Their duty was guarding the Grand Trunk Railway. They were out during the winter of '66 and '67, and continued doing this duty until all the troops were withdrawn in the spring of '67, having done hard duty during the winter. Under the circumstances do you consider it honorable and just that the 13th Hussars should be debarred from receiving the decoration by the ruling of the minister of war in London? Altho it is a known fact that the Canadian government have presented medals to men who were never out of Toronto at the time of the raid, yet, when imperial soldiers apply to Ottawa for the medal which should be theirs for duty honorably done, they are advised to apply to the war office at London, only to be refused the decoration on the grounds that they were not present at the engagements. Whose fault was it they were not in the engagements? In a campaign, what more can a soldier do than do the duty assigned to him? I trust that the opposition members of the house will take this matter up and fight for an adjustment, as I feel we cannot look to the minister of militia and his claim medal staff for justice re the matter. A committee should be appointed to look into the matter rightly and see to it that the decoration is awarded those who were present and did the duty assigned to them during the campaign.

William Penton,
Late Trooper H.M. 13th Hussars.

Two Young Fellows Held for Hold-Up on George Street.

Two young fellows were brought into No. 1 police station after 11 o'clock last night by Officers Armstrong and Young and they protested vigorously against being held, but Charles McCreary, who lives at 157 George-street, came in at midnight and positively identified them as a pair who had an hour before held him up and assaulted and robbed him on George-street in the dark place by Christie, Brown & Co.'s factory.

McCreary says one of them smashed him and then the two forced him into the vacant lot and went into his pockets, taking $3. He told Armstrong and Young, who soon arrested Harry Pearsall, 203 Duchess-street, and Harry Burns, 142 Duchess-street.

HAMILTON HAPPENINGS

CUT OFF CATARACT LAMPS GIVE CONTRACT TO U.S. CO.

Recommendation That Filtering Basins Be Extended—Damages for Ejection From Car.

Hamilton, Oct. 8.—(Special.)—The city council this evening decided to cut off about eighty of the lamps now supplied by the Cataract Power Company at $82.50 a lamp per year, and give the American Street Lighting Company the contract for 250 boulevard natural gas lamps at $25 a year.

The report of the waterworks investigating committee recommended that the present filtering basin system be continued and extended, and that the recommendation of City Engineer Barrow, with reference to the cleaning of the basins and some improvements, be carried out immediately.

A grant of three months' salary, or about $1000, was voted to the family of the late City Solicitor Mackelcan.

E. B. Wingate refused to take $300 for his report on the Hamilton, Waterloo & Guelph Railway routes, and the sub-committee that engaged him was instructed to make terms with him.

The finance committee got permission to introduce a bylaw to raise $30,000 for a home for incurables.

Albert Catchpole was appointed a weigh scale clerk in the place of J. Hotrum.

The contract of building a foot-bridge over the G.T.R. tracks at Emerald-street was awarded to the Hamilton Bridge Works Company at $2775, and the contract stipulates that the bridge must be built by Jan. 3.

The committee was also authorized to spend $2346 on macadamizing Ferrir-street, and $1732 for macadamizing Wellington-street. On account of the illness of Mayor Biggar, Ald. Witton presided.

At the Assizes.

At the assizes this afternoon John R. Lavery, who was thrown off a Radial car by Conductor McQueen on July 6, was awarded $1000 damages and costs. Washington and Beasley acted for Mr. Lavery.

This afternoon the grand jury brought in a true bill against Harry McDonald, who is charged with manslaughter, and the trial will commence Wednesday. It is charged that McDonald kicked Alex McGarvey in the head at the Norton Manufacturing Company's factory and hurt him so badly that he died a few days afterwards.

May Take Cars Off.

As one result of the arbitrators' award, which provides that the men shall perform their day's work of ten hours within twelve consecutive hours, the company threatens to cut off twelve or fifteen cars on the Deering division. That means that many of the workmen in the large factories will have to walk to their work.

The prosecution of the Wholesale Grocers' Guild will not be gone on with at the present assizes, as the attorney-general's department wants it laid over until the appeal in the druggists' case is settled.

No Authority to Dig Trench.

The Manufacturers' Natural Gas Company has dug a trench in the county without obtaining the consent of the county councillors, who threaten to make the company remove its pipes unless it puts things in proper shape at once.

Three citizens called to serve on the grand jury failed to turn up this morning, and Justice Meredith instructed the crown prosecutor to see that they presented themselves in the court in the morning to show cause why they should not be punished.

Laughs at Sheriff.

Sheriff Sourbier, Indianapolis, Ind., is in the city after C. A. or "Cigaret" Baker, who has been living at one of the leading hotels under the name of J. L. Crawford. The charge is that Baker tried to bribe a legislator, but as the offence is not extraditable, he only laughs at the sheriff.

Wm. Greening, 189 North Hess-street, was fined $25 this morning for resisting arrest, and for escaping from the custody of P. C. Lentz.

BADLY HURT BY RUNAWAY.

Mrs. Margaret Bowdy is Knocked Down and Seriously Injured.

For several hours yesterday Mrs. Margaret Bowdy, 112 Arthur-street, lay unconscious and unidentified in the Western Hospital. She has very serious injuries to her head and body, caused by being knocked down by a runaway horse at Queen and Bathurst-streets at 3.30 yesterday afternoon. The horse was attached to a wagon belonging to the Grimsby Dairy and was tearing at a mad pace when it struck the lady as she was crossing.

Mrs. Bowdy, who is 61 years of age, was rendered unconscious and removed with all haste to the Western Hospital, where she remained unidentified until late last night. When she did not come home to supper her family became very anxious and her son made inquiries of the police.

At 2 o'clock this morning her condition was very critical, but there were hopes for her recovery.

RECEPTION AT MASSEY HALL

Everyone Invited to Meet T. P. O'Connor Saturday Night.

There was a meeting last night at the King Edward of the leading Irishmen of Toronto. E. J. Hearn presided. It was unanimously decided to tender a reception by the sympathizers of home rule of Toronto and vicinity to T. P. O'Connor, M.P., at Massey Hall on Saturday evening, under the auspices of the United Irish League.

M. J. Haney will take the chair and L. V. McBrady will act as secretary. An address will be presented and there will be suitable band and vocal music, in addition to an address on home rule by the distinguished guest.

The meeting will be free and open, and all are invited. Tickets of invitation for seats on the platform will be distributed by a committee consisting of E. J. Hearn, M. J. Haney, P. F. Cronin, L. V. McBrady, J. Loftus and M. J. Quinn.

Mr. O'Connor will arrive from Ottawa on Saturday at 4.30 p.m.

SHELBURNE CONSERVATIVES SURE OF BEATING FIELDING

By-Election Likely to Be Held on November 8—Dr. Weldon to Oppose Minister.

Halifax, N.S., Oct. 8.—(Special.)—The decision of the supreme court of Canada in dismissing the personal charges against Hon. Mr. Fielding will permit the local judges to at once transmit to the speaker their certificate declaring the seat to be vacant, and it is rumored that a writ for the by-election in Queen's and Shelburne will issue without delay.

The election will probably be fixed for Nov. 8.

On Friday next there will be a big Conservative rally at Shelburne, and Dr. R. S. Weldon, ex-M.P., will be named as the Conservative candidate. He is looked upon as one of the best and ablest men of the province, and the Conservatives are so confident of Mr. Fielding's defeat that it would not be surprising if Roche and Carney allowed judgment to go against them, and thus open a seat for the minister in the City of Halifax. Nothing definite will be announced, however, until Premier Murray returns from Ottawa. Mr. Fielding and he are expected to arrive together.

G.T.R. YARDMAN KILLED.

Mangled Body of Albert Lamb Found Opposite Peter St.

The terribly mangled body of Albert Lamb, a G.T.R yardman, was found lying on the tracks near the foot of Peter-street at about 10.30 last night by Bert Gibson, 532 West Adelaide-street.

The circumstances indicate that Lamb was struck by the yard engine. He was seen alive about an hour before the body was discovered. The yard engine is No. 67, in charge of Engineer Michael Scullen, who had no idea whatever that there had been a tragedy until he was notified of the discovery of the remains.

Lamb was married and had one child. He was 33 years of age. The bereaved family live at 1 Wellington-avenue. The remains were taken to the undertaking rooms of E. J. Humphrey.

Chief Coroner Johnson was notified and will investigate the circumstances this morning.

SCHOOL CHILDREN'S ART.

Interesting Exhibition is Opened in the Granite Rink.

The public school exhibit of art, manual training and commercial work which opened in Granite Rink last night, proves that the Canadian National Exhibition is not the only show which grows bigger and better year by year. The various specimens of pictorial art are arranged along the sides of the building, while the exhibits of sewing, writing and manual training are to be found at the back. In front a large platform has been erected, on which a program of drills and choruses is to be given nightly. Last night the schools of Ward 1 did the honors in this respect; to-night it will be Ward 2, and so on for the week. James Hughes officiated as chairman in his usual happy manner, and it must give him pleasure to hear the many expressions of approval made by the hundreds of spectators who were in attendance.

CLAIM VERBAL OPTION WANT IT CARRIED OUT

But W. G. Trethewey Says That Other Parties Have Made Big Mistake.

Yesterday, at Osgoode Hall, Pinkerton, Clute & Bartram, acting for W. C. Fox of Fox & Ross, mining brokers, issued a writ against W. G. Trethewey for specific performance of an alleged verbal agreement entered into whereby Mr. Bartram, acting for Mr. Fox, was to have some of the stock of the Trethewey Mine at market value. An injunction restraining Mr. Trethewey from disposing of any more of the stock, and "a caution" to prevent any change in ownership of the property is also filed.

Shortly after the understanding, Fox claims that the stock jumped from $1.50 to $2 per share, and when the money was ready at the lower price Trethewey did not want to carry out his verbal contract.

Last night Mr. Trethewey said that no contract of that nature had ever been entered into.

"I'll make someone smart for this before I am thru," he said. "I do not know why men should take such an action as that. I don't wish to say anything about it just now. There was never any contract between Mr. Bartram and myself. Every broker in town knows perfectly well that I have repeatedly refused to give any options on some people who imagine they have an option, but I don't purpose being humbugged by anyone in that direction."

PRAYER LEADS TO DEATH.

Mrs. Sprouse Stumbles Over Kneeling Husband, Breaks Her Neck.

Waukomis, Okla., Oct. 8.—Philip Sprouse and his wife spent last evening with friends, and returning home, prepared to retire. With her baby in her arms Mrs. Sprouse started for the kitchen to lock up. While passing thru the darkened sleeping room she did not see her husband kneeling in prayer at the bedside. She stumbled over his feet, and, in trying to save the baby from injury, struck her head against a washstand as she fell, breaking her neck and dying almost instantly.

Food Gets Them in Trouble.

It's a leg of beef that has caused woe to Robert Gibson, who has had woe before. The charge is that he attempted to purloin the cows leg shortly before midnight from the premises of Wm. Beard, who runs the Star restaurant, King and Jarvis-street. The bad act was frustrated by detection. Gibson, after a chase, was captured by P. C. Riley, who put him away.

Arthur Mitchell, who says he lives at the Corin House, had tea at the Coronation Hotel last night. He did not pay for the meal, and was arrested by P. C. Lennan on a charge of stealing a knife and fork.
