The Young Gentleman

Is very particular about his Suit.

Dozens of fine looking Young Men were here every day last week buying their Fall Suits, and more will come this week, for the word seems to have gone round that this store is the place to get Young Men's Clothing.

Young Men are even a little fussy and cranky about what they wear.

It's all right, too, for a good appearance means a lot to a Young Fellow sometimes; may even be his chief asset; it pays to look well.

We Make a Specialty of Young Men's Clothes.

Our styles have snap and go in them. Cheviots, Scotches and Fancy mixtures, in Single and Double-Breasted styles, $7.50, $8.50, $10 up to $18 for the Suit. Send the Young Man in to see what he can see.

Ninety-First Regiment Has to Gather Up the $10,000 Subscribed for Uniforms.

J. R. MOODIE IS DOWN FOR $2000

Recruits Did Their First Serious Work Last Night and Officers Are Pleased.

Hamilton, Sept. 28.—(Special.)—The next move the officers of the 91st Highland Regiment have to make is to gather up the $10,000 that will be needed for uniforms. The subscription lists are in circulation now. J. R. Moodie, honorary lieutenant-colonel, has put his name down for $2000, and Lieut.-Col. Logie is angling for several other large subscriptions. The recruits did their first serious work to-night, and the officers are very much pleased with the kind of men who have enlisted.

City Fathers Meet.

The City Fathers did a great deal of talking and little business at their meeting to-night. The by-law defining the duties of Supt. Anstey and Storekeeper McAndrew was laid over. Some of the aldermen charged that this was a scheme to prevent Mr. McAndrew from getting the increase of salary recommended by the Fire and Water Committee. It was agreed that the committees interested should get together and talk over the proposition to place the street cleaning, watering and scavenger service under the Board of Works. The Hamilton and Caledonia Railway Company wants to lay its tracks on Augusta and O'Reilly-streets, but the residents are protesting vigorously. The company objected to an alternate route suggested by the City Engineer and the Finance Committee was asked to bring in a recommendation on the subject. The claims made for damages by several citizens on account of the closing up of Robert-street were turned down.

Woman a Bad Actor.

Mrs. John Cunningham, a Buffalo woman, made things lively at No. 3 Police Station to-night. She was arrested as a drunk, and after being landed in the cells shied a cup at the matron and broke a window. Terence Scott, the younger, was locked up on the charge of trouncing Terence, the elder. James Ferguson was also taken into custody on a charge of assault. Sam Garrity is the complainant.

Magistrate vs. Crown Attorney.

Crown Attorney Crerar and Police Magistrate Jelfs got into another tangle this morning. The magistrate told Mr. Crerar that he had no right to appear in a case at Police Court except at His Worship's request. What caused the trouble was a case in which three young fellows were charged with flagging a T., H. & B. train and uncoupling two cars, an indictable offence on which they elected to be tried by the magistrate. The accused were defended by George S. Kerr and D'Arcy Tate appered for the Railway Company. When Mr. Crerar attempted to cross-examine a witness, the magistrate told him he was forcing himself into the case, and informed him that it was a case where the Crown officer's fees might be saved. Mr. Crerar withdrew from the court room. One of the trio charged, William Filman, was found guilty, and was fined $50 and costs. Rowley Histed confessed he stole running shoes, sweaters and boxing gloves from Y.M.C.A. lockers. He was allowed to go with sentence deferred. C. J. Shaver, the insurance agent, who stole $53, was also given another chance.

Happenings.

Rev. J. H. Hazlewood, pastor of Wesley Church, said in his sermon last night that it pained him to learn that the Daughters of the Empire sold cigarettes at their Made-in-Canada Exhibition. Chief Smith's plan of watching some of the alleged gambling dens, with a view to reporting the names of the frequenters to their employers and parents, appears to have been a success. He has closed some of them in this way.

CANADA'S PREFERENCE.

Effect on British Carpet Trade—Many Opinions Expressed.

(Canadian Associated Press Cable.)

London, Sept. 28.—At a meeting of the Kidderminster Chamber of Commerce yesterday replies were read from leading members of the chamber on the effect of the tariff on the carpet and yarn trades. To one question: Has the Canadian preference materially affected trade with the Dominion? it was stated that British manufacturers derived very little benefit, as when the preference came into operation Canada commenced seriously the manufacture of carpets and had there been no preference trade probably would have decreased. Four carpet manufacturers agreed that trade had benefited by Canada's preference. A yarn spinner replied that weaving manufactures in the British colonies were in their infancy, but most advanced in Canada. Canada's preference was a benefit to trade.

Lord Strathcona, proposing the health of the Lord Mayor and city corporation at a luncheon of the city sheriffs assured his hearers that if the Montreal Congress were not all agreed on some points they were unanimous to do all in their power to uphold the dignity and honor of the empire.

The Standard's criticism of J. S. Willison's "Laurier and Liberal Party," article, says it is free alike from ordinary trivialities of personal biography and from partisan rancor.

It has been arranged that the agents general of the colonies shall wait on Mr. Chamberlain for the purpose of formal leave-taking before his finally leaving office.

QUIRK SUIT SETTLED.

London Guarantee Co. Will Pay Policy on Murdered Man.

Brantford, Sept. 28.—The most important case at the Fall Assizes before Mr. Justice Britton to-day was Quirk v. London Guarantee Co. Mrs. Quirk sued to recover the amount of the policy on her late husband, James Quirk, who was found in a dying condition at an early hour of the morning of Monday, March 24, 1902, at the foot of a ladder in the stable of the Commercial Hotel. Quirk was insured for $12,000 in three companies. All three refused to pay the insurance to Mrs. Quirk, who entered suit against the companies. About a month ago the Excelsior Life and Ocean Accident companies settled for nearly the whole amount of their policies. The London Guarantee Co., which carried $5000, refused to pay, and the case was on the docket for to-day.

A settlement was reached before the case was called. The figures were not given out.

Fergus Beat Orillia.

Tottenham, Sept. 28.—The Orillia-Fergus game to-day was one of the finest games on record. It was fast every moment of the match, and, while at times the play was a little rough, Referee Waghorne, as usual, was strict and impartial. About a dozen men were penalized. Twenty-five hundred people were present, 500 coming by Fergus special and 700 followers were with the Orillia boys. Considerable money changed hands, mostly in even bets. Fergus were slight favorites in the betting. They lined up as follows:

Fergus—Clarke, Graham, goal; Clarke, Bergin, Brownridge, Groves, Murtin, Grassley, Curtis, Haymore.

Several Killed in Wreck.

Chattanooga, Tenn., Sept. 28.—Cincinnati Southern passenger train No. 2, leaving Chattanooga at 10 a.m., was derailed to-day near Glenmary. The engineer and several members of the crew were killed.

Mrs. James Klock Dead.

Ottawa, Sept. 28.—Mrs. Jas. Klock of Aylmer, Que., aged 71 years, died to-night of injuries sustained in an accident at Shawville last week. She was visiting her son, Dr. Klock, and on starting to go down stairs she tripped and fell headforemost.

SOO POLICE AND MILITIA BATTLED WITH 1000 MEN

they went from room to room. They raced from end to end of the big building. Steel engravings of priceless value, rosewood desks and costly chandeliers was broken into bits, the interior resembling more a stable than a modern business office. One half drunken man rushed from the door as the cry of troops was heard with a big picture frame around his neck, from which he had torn a costly painting. This was the way vandals went thru the administration building of the big Clergue works.

MOB FACED SOLDIERS.

And they were not scared by the appearance of soldiers. Half a block away the command was given to load and make ready to fire. The mob stood its ground without wavering. It had reached enormous proportions. There were 1000 present. The men marched up and the sullen crowd opened to let them pass, hurling stones on the rear line. One daring leader struck one of the guards over the back with an umbrella as he passed. A shout of applause greeted the attack, and those who knew a thing or two got ready for fight, but the order was not given to fire. Then the troops took possession and the mob swarmed around again.

FOOD WHAT THEY WANTED.

Magistrate Quibbell stepped out again with the Riot Act in his hand. He delivered an address to the men before reading the act, in which he said the company could not pay the men, but had set aside the big white house for them to sleep in and would feed them at the International Hotel. This put the men in good spirits, and they gave three cheers for the King with right good grace. Still they did not give way when the troops made ready to fire. Their failure encouraged them and a big sawyer, coatless and hatless, and with the rope and rock with which he had been helping sack the building still in his hand, sprung up on a box and declared the men were hungry and had been treated like dogs and he for one would as soon be shot dead as starved to death. The men yelled approvingly.

GUARD THE MAGAZINE.

He would not move, and the troops could shoot him, but they would have to drag his body away, for he would not. This energetic resistance put new spirit into the ragging band, but few stones were thrown. No shots were fired, tho evidently the mob was ready to use firearms for several had them in their hands and others carried them exposed to view in their pockets. Major Elliott passed around taking names for prosecution, but they taunted him and threatened to burn the building under his nose. A detail of soldiers were rushed to THE POWDER MAGAZINE, WHICH THE RIOTERS THREATENED TO REACH AND BLOW UP THE TOWN. They appear determined to burn and loot the city.

SULLENNESS AT NIGHT.

This is the story of the wildest day in the history of the Canadian Soo. To-night the situation is thoroly alarming, but up to a late hour nothing worse than a small incendiary fire has developed to confirm the fears. A vigilant committee, composed of two dozen of the leading citizens, are supplementing the efforts of the soldiers and constabulary. These gentlemen, heavily armed and secretly located, are at different points in the outskirts, more especially around the lumber yards. Here is the source of greatest danger, and word has gone forth that the deadline is the lumber district. Any man found wandering there will be shot on sight notice. The vigilance committee consider this of supreme importance.

REVOLVERS ON VIEW.

Others guard the railway bridges and boat landing, to turn back any Yankee turbulent characters who may seek to aid the local disturbers. Revolvers are displayed with the utmost indifference by the citizens. In the banks, revolvers are conspicuously placed around the desks, and the city is a walking arsenal. At the big International Hotel, owned by the syndicate, the most warlike preparations have been made. The rioters have boasted that the big fire-storey structure would be blown up or burned before morning. Guests took a hasty departure this afternoon, and a detail of soldiers, ten special police and armed employes of the steel mill have taken their places.

GRIM GLEAM OF BAYONETS.

The gleam of bayonets is everywhere and a password is necessary in approaching the hostelry in any direction. The lights are out and Manager Skinner admits the outlook is not cheerful. At each exit and ingress persons are warned of danger of being shot. The troops have their service guns, full cartridge belts and storm coats. Special police, with big white ribbons pinned to their coats, on which is printed in black letters "SPECIAL POLICE" are everywhere. Each has a big revolver, a piece of ax handle for a club, and a threatening appearance. On the street you are constantly halted and commanded to explain. This does not apply to the roaming bands of rioters in such strength as to make it necessary to shoot to establish order.

BANDS PARADE STREETS.

Here and there bands of fifty and a hundred are marching, whooping, yelling and swearing they will put the whole town "on the bum." The authorities have decided that the line of militia thrown around the centres of attack are too weak to cope with the mob and will wait until more troops arrive before putting in effective and sterner measures. Around the works of the syndicate the situation is ripe for bloodshed. The troops are formed in skirmish line and keep out all comers in that section. The rioters may parade the town, but not the works. The young men are having their first was experience, and handling loaded guns in the dark, surrounded by a mob that has already demonstrated what it can and will do. It is not calculated to strengthen the nerves of the boy troopers.

FEEDING THE RIOTERS.

There are all the elements of more serious disturbances in the surrounding conditions. Half a mile from the skirmish line of soldiers is the so-called White Building of the Consolidated Company, where some five hundred of the more turbulent characters are housed to-night. Great loads of bread, huge cans of milk and hunks of cheese supplied by the joint order of the syndicate and the city, were fed the men for the evening meal. By flickering lights to-night they are holding hurrah meetings, their own orators praising them for their shortlived prowess as established to-day.

SPLENDOR FOR VANDALS.

Seventy-five meals were served the more orderly rioters at the International to-night, and the very men who had played football with the beautiful rosewood desks of President Shields a few hours before had their feet under the mahogany of the aristocratic hostelry devouring spring lambs and dainty bits from the Haverland china of the fine property of the company to-night. TO-MORROW WILL BRING A CLOUD TO THE SPIRITS OF THESE RIOTERS' DREAMS, HOWEVER, FOR THOSE WHO DO NOT ACCEPT IMMEDIATE OFFERS OF WORK WILL BE HELD TO A STRICT ACCOUNT AS SOON AS ENOUGH TROOPS GET IN TO SURROUND THE WHITE HOUSE. This is the one brief silver as a lining for one of the blackest clouds that have ever swept over this section of Canada. If the 2000 discharged men who have passed thru the city to secure work elsewhere had been thrown n the town and the whole had joined forces with the disturbers now here, the result may be better imagined than described.

CHARGES OF CITIZENS.

Citizens generally charge that to-day's events are the legitimate results of the company's extraordinary course of naming this as a pay day and keeping men waiting here when they know there was no money to be paid, after the officials have steadily for ten days given to the press the most shameful statements, calculated to show the desperate straits of the company and make the employes restless. Mr. Coyne yesterday issued a statement for the press after being urged to do so by the citizens, deprecating the false and damaging reports of affairs at the Soo sent broadcast over the land. It is the irony of fate that the means thru which all the reports gained currency very nearly lost him his life in today's fierce riots. He received a scare that he will not forget in years. MAYOR PLUMMER AND MAJOR ELLIOTT SAID TO-NIGHT THAT ORDER WOULD BE RESTORED, AND THERE WILL BE NO DISTURBANCES TO-MORROW. Apparently they will be able to cope with the mob by that time. Those in jail will not have a hearing for a week. This will make outbreaks to-morrow less likely.

DAY AND NIGHT.

In the meantime the troops on duty must work day and night until relief arrives. They are making mess rooms to-night of the fine office building, which was wrecked to-day. The floors were so covered with rocks and other debris cast in thru the windows by the mob that a force of men had to remove several wagon loads of truck before the soldiers could find room. The fine office fixtures, valued at fifty thousand dollars, are worthless for anything but kindling wood, and to-night the militia are burning the remains in their camp fires. For the present they have about the same face as the rioters, but things will be different to-morrow.

INQUIRY IS DEMANDED.

There is a general disposition now on the part of the citizens to demand government inquiry into the affair, and fix the blame for the manipulation of the Clergue industries in such a manner as to make the affair of to-day possible. A petition will be sent to the House of Commons bearing on this point. The cost to the city for bringing out the soldiers and feeding the rioters will almost exceed the amount of the time checks the men left in the city have against the company. The resentment against the management of the Consolidated Company is keen and will not be wiped out in a day. Business was quite paralyzed, but is expected to pick up to-morrow.

THE ASSURANCE RECEIVED TO-NIGHT FROM THE ONTARIO AND OTTAWA GOVERNMENTS THAT THE WAGES OF ALL THE MEN WILL BE PAID N FULL COMES TOO LATE TO BE OF MATERAL ADVANTAGE IN AVOIDING THE CONSEQUENCES OF MOB LAW. Already plans are forming for the vigorous prosecution of the mob leaders. At the same time there will be carried on an investigation to determine, if possible, how far the men have been goaded to desperation and lawless acts by the unnecessary acts of the company. There is a feeling, well defined, to hold both sides to a strict accountability.

$50,000 DAMAGE DONE.

Experts estimate that the mob damaged property worth fifty thousand dollars to-day. A feature of the flight of employes from the Adam Building was the fearless conduct of the Canadian girls who were inside dodging missiles with the men. One of the young women refused to leave the building, tho in imminent danger of being killed, until she secured her hat, which she did amid a shower of bricks and stones. They climbed out a rear window down a ladder into a boat and were hurried from the scene.

In the tie-up of the International ferry tragic results were narrowly avoided. Five hundred rioters rushed out on the docks and attempted to secure the boats. Failing in this they tried to drag the employes off. A committee was stationed there for the balance of the day to prevent trips being made and the boat was abandoned to avoid trouble. At one time the great crowd threatened the dock with collapse.

RECEIVER APPOINTED.

New Haven, Conn., Sept. 28.—John C. Carruth of Philadelphia, president of the Industrial Trust, Title and Savings Co., was to-day appointed receiver for the Consolidated Lake Superior Company, by Judge Platt, in the United States District Court. His bond was placed at $10,000.

The application for the receivership was presented by Judge Walter C. Noyes, of the firm of Noyes & Brandegee of New London, in behalf of attorneys for certain stockholders of the company. It was set forth in the application that the directors of the company had failed to take up the loan of $5,050,000 of Speyer & Company of New York; that the actual value of the plant is far in excess of the amount of the loan; that the stockholders fear that if a forced sale were allowed they would lose the entire amount of their investment. A receiver was, therefore, asked for, and also a temporary injunction to prevent the sale of the property under foreclosure proceedings.

Judge Lynde Harrison, counsel for the company, presented a written statement, which, at his request, was read by Judge Noyes, saying that the company admits the truth of the allegations contained in this complaint, and consents to the appointment of a temporary receiver and to the issuance of an injunction to prevent the sale of the properties and to prevent the issuance of suits against the receiver.

Judge Noyes then suggested the appointment of John C. Carruth as receiver, and it was formally made by the courts. As the company has no assets in this state, it was suggested that the bond should be nominal, further proceedings to be had in New York States.

CLERGUE DREAMING.

New York, Sept. 28.—Charles M. Tweed of Speyer & Co. to-day said: "The action of the Connecticut Court will not interfere with the sale of the securities of the Consolidated Company Oct. 1. The appointment of a receiver places the affairs of the company in the hands of an individual. No arrangement has been made for postponing the sale, and I know nothing of the report that Mr. Clergue has raised the $5,050,000 cashe need to satisfy my claim."

SUFFERED TEN YEARS

FROM KIDNEY TROUBLE, PAIN IN THE BACK AND HIPS.

An Ingersoll Lady's Remarkable Recovery by the Use of Dr. Pitcher's Kidney Tablets.

Do not let any lady who is suffering the miseries of backache and derangement of the kidneys hesitate one moment in procuring Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets. These Tablets are the formula of Dr. Zina Pitcher, the eminent kidney specialist, and have cured hundreds of cases of the severest type of kidney disease which ordinary remedies could not benefit. They are small in size, chocolate-coated, and mild, yet thorough-going in their action—just suited to the requirements of a lady's delicate organism.

Mrs. W. Wallace, whose home is Bellstreet, Ingersoll, Ont., speaks of the benefits she derived from the Tablets as follows:

"For many years, some ten or twelve, I have had a great deal of trouble with my back and kidneys, the pain getting into my left hip. I have doctored and doctored and tried all sorts of kidney remedies, and finally determined to try Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets. I got a bottle from A. E. Gayfer, druggist, and must say they have done me a great deal of good. The pain in my back and hip is gone, the kidney irritation removed, and I sleep well now at night. I am pleased with the Tablets and am glad to recommend them."

Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets are 50 cents a bottle, or three for $1.25 at all druggists or by mail.

sent at any locality shall call out the same or such portion thereof as he considers necessary for the purpose of preventing or suppressing any such actual or anticipated riot or disturbance, when thereunto required in writing by the chairman or custos of the Quarter Sessions of the Peace, or by any three justices of the peace of whom the warden, mayor or other head of the municipality may be one, and he shall obey such instructions as are given him.

Riot Act.

The form of the proclamation is as follows: "Our Sovereign Lord the King chargeth and commandeth all persons, being assembled, immediately to disperse themselves and peaceably to depart to their habitations, or to their lawful business upon the pains contained in the act made in the first year of King George the First, for preventing tumults and riotous assemblies. God Save the King."

The first section of the Riot Act provides that if twelve or more persons, being unlawfully, riotously and tumultuously assembled together and being required by any justice to disperse, shall remain or continue together for one hour after the proclamation, they shall be adjudged felons, and may be subject to the punishment of penal servitude for life or not less than seven years or to imprisonment with or without hard labor, not exceeding three years.

The officer in charge must place himself under the orders of the magistrate, whose duty it will be to request the officer to "take action." The officer would then use his discretion as to the proper means to take to quell the disturbance.

MAYOR'S IGNORANCE.

Ottawa, Sept. 28.—(Special.)—Application was made to the Militia Department to-day for troops to preserve order at the Soo. The Militia Department at once telegraphed the authorities at the Soo, calling their attention to the section of the act which provides that a requisition for troops must be made to the district officer commanding by three magistrates.

The requisition for troops reached the Minister of Militia late this afternoon. It was signed by Mayor Plummer of Sault Ste. Marie and stated briefly that there was rioting in the town, and that troops were required to maintain order. The telegram was directed to the Minister of Militia, who at once turned it over to the department.

It is no secret that officials of the Militia Department are annoyed over the conduct of Mayor Plummer. One of them told The World correspondent to-night that it was incomprehensible that Mayor Plummer should be in ignorance of the simple procedure which requires requisitions for troops to be made to the district officer commanding.

REFUSED TO SEND TRAIN.
