This Paper One Year.	Farm Journal nearly 5 Years

PAY UP AND GET BOTH PAPERS AT PRICE OF ONE.

We want to get 500 new subscribers to THE ADVANCE, and are going to do it if we can; we therefore continue our arrangement with the Farm Journal a short time longer by which we can send THE ADVANCE and the Farm Journal the remainder of 1900 and all of 1901, 1902, 1903 and 1904, both for $1.00 paid in advance. And we make the same offer to all old subscribers who will pay all arrearages and one year in advance.

Miramichi and the North Shore, etc.

GET THE reliable KENDRICKS.

SAWING:—The Lynch Mill, at Chatham Head, began sawing for the season on Tuesday.

FOR PAINS and Lameness use KENDRICK'S LINIMENT.

THE ICE left the Miramichi opposite Chatham on Monday.

THERE ARE OTHERS but only one Kendrick's Liniment, the greatest modern household remedy. For all Pains, Lameness, Swellings get Kendrick's,

CONGRATULATIONS to Mr. V. A. Danville and bride. They are expected to arrive home tomorrow.

MOTHERS, DO NOT FAIL TO SEE that you obtain the original and genuine McLean's Vegetable Worm Syrup—safe, pleasant, and effectual at all times. At all reliable dealers. Do not be deceived, obtain the reliable McLean's Vegetable Worm Syrup.

THE BARQUE reported to be in the ice off Escuminac last week turns out to have been a sealing steamer.

PERSONAL:—Mr. Charles Mitchell, of Medicine Hat, was in town this week and his many old friends were delighted to see him.

NEW BUSINESS:—Mr. Harry Strang has estabihed himself in business in the Oddfellows Hall store on Duke Street, nearly opposite the Canada House. He is in general groceries, flour and feed.

FOR COUGH, horse ail, stoppage and fever use the GRANGER CONDITION POWDERS. A genuine Condition Powder, Blood Purifier and Tonic. The Granger is guaranteed superior to many so called Condition Powders in small and large packages.

THE STEAMERS are late in getting out from their winter quarters this season. The ice is out but they are not. The Nelson and ferry steamer ought to be on their routes. Bestir yourselves, Messrs. directors.

RED CHEEKS and bright eyes are often, alas, signs of lung disease. Better secure the beauty of true health by using Adamson's Botanic Cough Balsam for all lung troubles. 25c. all Druggists.

ABOUT AGAIN:—We were glad to welcome to the ADVANCE sanctum on Monday the veteran newspaper worker, Mr. J. J. Pierce, who has been confined to his house for two months with grippe and its after-effects, but is convalescing slowly.

OH DEAR! Mr. Watt is in tears over the poor town of Chatham having a Mayor who, he pretends to think, is disqualified, and he publishes a letter expressing his fear that contracts which this awful Mayor may sign will be binding on the town but not on the contractors. Don's be so continuously absurd, Mr. Watt.

FOR THE HOTEL DIEU:—St. Michael's C. T. A. Society's dramatic and musical performers gave a reproduction of their St. Patrick's programme in Masonic Hall, Chatham, on Thursday evening last, in aid of the Hotel Dieu. The different members acquitted themselves well, although the house was not so very large as on the former occasion.

NEARLY one hundred thousand copies of the Biggle Books have been sold. No. 1 is about horses. No. 2 treats of berries of all kinds. No. 3 is a poultry book—a gem. No. 4 tells all about cows and dairying, while No. 5 is the most comprehensive book on swine yet printed. Price of each, 50 cents. Address Wilmer Atkinson Co., Philadelphia.

MUSICAL:—On Sunday next Mr. H. C. Wilson, late of Toronto, will preside at the organ in St. Mary's chapel. It is quite probable that Mr. Wilson will locate in Chatham, teaching Voice Culture, Piano and Organ; he comes to our town well recommended as a musician and teacher. Those desiring instruction in music will do well to interview him; he can be found at Mr. M. S. Benson's, Henderson street.

MIRAMICHI MARBLE WORKS:—Now is the time to place your orders for cemetery work and avoid the spring rush. We have now on hand and coming one of the largest stocks of marble and granite monuments, headstones and tablets ever shown on the north shore, all from the latest designs and worked from the best material the market can produce. Call and get our prices. They are right.

JOHN H. LAWLOR & CO.

BODY AND MIND are to be benefited this, Thursday, evening in Masonic Hall, Chatham, when the affinities existing between beans and music, readings and refreshments, recitations and ice-cream, singing and home-made candy, are to be demonstrated amid the most pleasant social surroundings. The Young People's Society of St. Andrew's church have the matter in charge, and it is needless to say that their entertainment will be well worth patronising.

A Memorial.

A handsome memorial brass in memory of the late Mrs. Alex. Williston was placed in the Church of St. John the Evangelist, Bay du Vin, this Easter. Several of her friends, both among the clergy and laity, united in erecting this tablet. The words of one of them well express the feelings of all. "The Church militant has lost a faithful member. A more devoted and a truer woman to the Church would be hard to find. She is reaping the fruits of her faithfulness. I consider it a privilege to subscribe to a memorial to so good a woman."

The brass would have been in its place much sooner if it had not been for the failure of the firm to whom the work was first entrusted to fulfil their contract. In the words, however, of another of her friends:—"Sometimes memorials are long delayed, but when remembered, years after, it seems almost a greater tribute to the loving remembrance of old friends." The work was done by the Pritchard Andrews Company, of Ottawa, and is very satisfactory.

To Our Readers.

The ADVANCE will be obliged to its numerous readers if they will enable us to make reference in our local columns to matters and events in which they are interested, or may think their friends may be. This they can do by giving the information in person at the office or writing to us about it. Many things proper to be noticed in the ADVANCE'S columns do not appear therein, simply because our attention is not called to them by those who would like to see reference to them in the paper, but have omitted to do their part in making them known. Come, therefore, or write and tell us your local news.

Death of Mrs. H. R. Emmerson.

Mrs. Emmerson, wife of Hon. Henry R. Emmerson, M. P. for Westmorland, died at her residence, Dorchester, Sunday morning. About five weeks ago she was taken ill with apoplexy while sitting in Dr. Sangster's dental chair, Sackville. She recovered sufficiently to enable her to make a short visit with friends in Halifax, but on Tuesday night last was suddenly stricken with a relapse and remained in an unconscious state until she passed away. Doctors Mitchell and Doherty were in attendance, and she was visited by Dr. Holden of St. John.

Mrs. Emmerson was forty-seven years of age and the only daughter of the late Mr. C. B. Record, of Moncton. Her mother, Mrs. Record, one brother, Mr. Edward Record, of Boston, four daughters, Misses Ethel, Emily, Bernice and Marion, and one son, Henry R., survive. All were present when death occurred. Mrs. Emmerson was an active member of the Baptist church and foremost in Sabbath school work, and in her removal Dorchester deeply mourns the loss of a most estimable lady.

The Reward Still Unclaimed.

When Polson & Co., Kingston, offered the tempting reward of $1,000 for a case of Catarrh, Bronchitis, Asthma or Throat Irritation that could not be cured by Catarrhozone, many expected that it would soon be claimed. We are advised however, that Catarrhozone has given such universal satisfaction that no one has been able to make the claim. This explodes the theory that these diseases are incurable, for even the worst cases yield to Catarrhozone; it cures them everywhere. Cures by the inhalation of medicated air which is breathed right into the lungs, bronchial tubes and nasal passages. Catarrhozone is pleasant and safe to use; quick to relieve; guaranteed to cure. Price $1.00, small size 25c., at all druggists. Sold by C. P. Hickey.

Newcastle Civic Election.

Newcastle is to be congratulated on the unanimity of its people in giving encouragement to the members of its council who, as a whole, were so energetic last year in improving the appearance of the town as well as carefully managing its financial affairs. The Advocate says:—

The nominations for Mayor and Aldermen closed Friday afternoon and as there were only the required number of nominations to make up the board the Town Clerk announced them duly elected.

They are as follows:

MAYOR,
D. Morrison.

ALDERMEN,
A. Ritchie,
W. A. Hickson,
P. Hennessy,
G. A Lounsbury,
H. Williston,
Geo. Stables,
J. H. Phinney,
F. L Pedolin.

With the exception of F. L. Pedolin, who takes the place vacated by Major Maltby, all have served one year and during that time succeeded in gaining the entire confidence of the people.

The Hotel Sandwich.

How dear to our hearts are the things of our childhood, as fond recollection presents them to view. The relics of past generations still linger along with the modern, the strange and the new. The oldest of all is the dry hotel sandwich, its dust-covered sides still held firmly with glue; its battered old top so suggestive of granite, and the dark strip of ham that our forefathers knew. The ages may pass and the dynasties crumble; the earth may dissolve in a whirlwind of flame; the sky may roll up as a scroll and then vanish, but the old hotel sandwich is ever the same. The hoary old sandwich, the petrified sandwich, the pliocene sandwich is ever the same.

Each Sunday its place is an honored one surely, for thousands rush up and demand it in view. They sit 'round the table where still it reposes, and gaze at the sandwich our forefathers knew. Though parched dry with thirst and all craving refreshment (a liquid refreshment forbidden by law), they most reverentially wait on the sandwich, the time-honored sandwich that past ages saw. While stern police rules call for dinners of courses, or lost semicolons make laws void or lame, our old friend the sandwich is not at all bashful. The chances are, still, it will stay in the game. The hoary old sandwich, the petrified sandwich, the pliocene sandwich is ever the same.—Boston Advertiser.

To Cure a Corn in Twenty-Four Hours.

There is no lack of so-called cures for corns. The vegetable, animal, and mineral kingdoms have been ransacked for cures. It is a simple matter to remove corns without pain, for if you will go to any druggist or medicine dealer and buy a bottle of Putnam's Painless Corn and Wart Extractor and apply it as directed the thing is done. Get "Putnam's," and no other. Sold by C. P. Hickey.

Sayings. Wise and Otherwise, From Mr. Bassett's Speeches.

Mr. Bassett evidently did not like association with the editor of the Commercial, after the names of some of his nominors were published in the World. At Monday night's meeting he said:

They say the editor of the Commercial brought me out. It's as false as hell.

I've a right to come out, and you've not got to be an astrologer, to be able to take the sun, or read the stars to do the duties of an alderman.

A man may be an able merchant, but go the wrong way at the Council board.

If I hadn't a cold you could hear me in Newcastle.

We've got to spend $110,000—The contractor 'll come here and bring a lot of Italians and they'll go down to some of your shops and buy a few brogans and a little salt pork and biscuit, and when the job's done leave the place and take the whole caboodle of the money with them.

I say give our work to our own men.

When they wanted to buy the electric light outfit, they should have brought a first class electrician here from the United States and put him on his oath to tell what it was worth—I wouldn't believe him unless he was on his oath—and when they bought they should have bought the whole shooting match.

Let it be economically and not sore biles on the public.

There was a rumor that John Bassett didn't know how to read. I didn't come from McGill, but I can set down and read and cipher. I got that from one who can't tell how high his power can go.

I said to the other candidates if you don't pound me I'll not pound you.

The man who would take his fellow man's franchise would steal the Lord's Supper and go back for the table-cloth.

Some of these fellows go to Boston or New York, or some other big city and see the luxtrys they have there and then come home and want them here. We don't want the luxtrys of Boston and the other big cities for we can't afford it.

There's too many sore bile officers in the town from abroad and lots don't pay their taxes, and get off, while our own men are taxed and if they don't pay they're taken by the wizzen and shoved in.

Watt and Snowball got good education, but when I was 12 years old I had to put a pad on my shoulder and carry deals, and then go to work in the woods, but I learned something and if I go to the council I'll be able to do as well as any of them, for I'm a natural born detective and I'll protect your interests.

As far as the water works, an expert told me there would be no profit in them. But there are bad smells about town and the water may help to carry them off and save sickness coming, and then if there was a fire in the west end or one in the east end and the wind was east, you could put your hose on the stand pipes at the corners and even the women could work it.

I heard Murray and Burr had said something about me, but they have told me they didn't. Them that talk scandal are like the reptiles away down over the cliff in the valley where they are writhing among themselves in their slime, while decent people pass along on the top of the cliff and look down upon them and care nothing for them.

Mr. Bassett's parting shot was a double-barrelled one, aimed at both the ratepayers and the aldermen-at-large-elect. He said: "Clinkers are better for swine than pearls." Thus we infer that it is Mr. Bassett's view that the successful candidates are clinkers, the people swine and he, a pearl.

Cramps Are Like Burglars,

they come unexpected, and when they are least welcome. Be armed with a one minute cure for cramps and keep Polson's Nerviline handy; it acts instantaneously. Nerviline's anodyne power is unique, for its composition expresses the highest medical progress of the age. Polson's Nerviline is a true comfort in the family for in all derangements of the stomach and bowels it is an absolute specific. Nerviline has five times greater medicinal value than any other remedy and is sold in large 25 cent bottles. Try it. Sold by C. P. Hickey, Chatham.

Civic Election.

The nominations for Mayor and aldermen of Chatham took place on Friday last at the Town Clerk's office. It was not known until some time during that day that the bill sent to the legislature from the Town Council made an important change in the qualification of aldermanic candidates, by requiring that they must have been assessed on at least four hundred dollars of both real and personal property, instead of either real or personal, or both as heretofore required. The Town Council did not, by any vote or open action ask for the change, while the town solicitor, Mr. Winslow, repudiated any responsibility for it. Ald. Watt, who was chairman of the committee which it is said practically sent the bill to Fredericton, has, we understand, also disavowed any responsibility, on his part, for it. The fact remains, however, that the change in the qualification was made in Chatham and the bill as printed in the World office here, of which the Town Clerk is foreman, contained the change. The legislature passed the bill in this respect, just as it was forwarded for enactment. The change was, of course, made in Chatham, either fraudulantly or through gross carelessness, and it was only by the assessors coming to the rescue of several candidates by squaring their assessment record with the new act, within a quarter of an hour of the time for closing nominations on Friday, that they were enabled to offer.

The nominations were as follows:

For Mayor,	W. B. Snowball, Geo. Watt.
For Aldermen at large,	M. S. Hocken, Robert Murray, Jas. Nicol, Wm. Wyse, John Bassett.
For Aldermen Queens's Ward,	James Maher, W. L. T. Weldon.
Ditto for King's Ward,	R. A. Murdoch.
" Wellington "	Michl. Morris.
" Duke's "	Andrew McIntosh.

Geo. Watt was nominated for Mayor by W. S. Loggie, Alex. McKinnon, Warren C. Winslow, D. P. MacLachlan and H. McKendy.

William B. Snowball was nominated for Mayor by J. T. Rundle (for Wm. Richards & Co., Ltd.), M. S. Hocken, John McDonald & Co., Robt. Murray, Alex. Burr, J. M. Ruddock, Jas. D. Johnston, Angus Ulleck, Edward Burke, C. P. Hickey, A. S. Hay, J. Ken Brown, J. S. Irving, A. Robinson, Geo. Hildebrand, R. A. Lawlor, S. D. Heckbert, C. Warmunde, M. M. Goggin, Richard D. Walsh, Wm. N. Walsh, A. J. Loggie, A. Simmons, W. J. Loggie, F. M. Tweedie, L. J. Tweedie.

The following nominations were made for aldermen:

Queen's Ward—Jas. F. Maher, by Warren C. Winslow, Andrew McIntosh, R. Flanagan, R. A. Murdoch, B. M. Moran, H. E. Strang, Donald Fraser, James Hackett.

W. L. T. Weldon by W. H. MacLachlan, James Vanstone, W. J. Mowatt, Wm. Wyse, E. N. Lobban, W. D. McLoon.

King's Ward—R A. Murdoch by A. J. Loggie, James F. Maher, J. R. McKenzie, James Nicol, W. J. Mowatt, Alex. Brown, Geo. Hildebrand.

Wellington Ward—Michael Morris, by J. T. Rundle, Wm. Luke, R. A. Lawlor, F. M. Tweedie R A. Snowball, D. G. Smith, W. J. Loggie, Alex. Burr.

Duke's Ward—Andrew McIntosh, by Roger Flanagan, Warren C. Winslow, Alex. Burr, M. M. Goggin, Wm. J. Connors, Michael Keoughan.

Aldermen at large—Wm. Wyse, by Jas. Desmond, Jas. Hickey, D. P. MacLachlan, Jas. Flood, F. M. Tweedie, J. Arch. Haviland, Edward Burke, W. D. McLoon.

James Nicol, by W. S. Loggie, Edward Burke, R. A. Lawlor, E. Johnson, J. S. Johnson, S. McLoon, S. J. Doyle, R. A. Murdoch.

Robert Murray, by Geo. Hildebrand, M. S. Hocken, R. A. Lawlor, J. T. Rundle, Alex. Burr, J. D. B. F. Mackenzie, and L. J. Tweedie.

M. S. Hocken by E. Johnson, Thos. Buckley, Robert Murray, S. McLoon, Alex. Burr, Geo. Hildebrand, W. F. Cassidy, W D. McLoon.

John Bassett, by J. D. B. F. Mackenzie, James Vanstone, John H. Flieger, W. D. McLoon, Wm. E. Jardine, James Mills. (shoe maker).

Mayoralty candidate Watt claimed before the town clerk that he was elected by acclamation, as Mr. Snowball was disqualified because he was manager of the Chatham Electric Light Company, which had a contract for lighting the town.

The clerk, after consultation with legal lights present, said there might or might not be something in Mr. Watt's objections, but he would not decide as to their merits, but let the election go on. He announced that he would hold a poll on Tuesday for the election of Mayor, Aldermen at large and an Alderman for Queen's Ward.

Polling took place on Tuesday at the Town Hall. Town clerk Gaynor was returning officer, Messrs. W. Walsh and Arch Haviland polling officers and D. Sadler and T. Kain, Clerks.

The proceedings, both outside around the polling place and inside were harmonious, the best of feeling prevailing between the different candidates and workers.

The result officially declared was as follows:—

FOR MAYOR.

W. B. Snowball	373
Geo. Watt	317

FOR ALDERMEN AT LARGE.

William Wyse	536
M. S. Hocken	485
James Nicol	420
Robert Murray	400
John Bassett	370

ALDERMAN FOR QUEEN'S WARD.

James F. Maher	366
W. L. T. Weldon	295

The council for the current civic year is therefore as follows:—

W. B. Snowball, Mayor.

Wm. Wyse, M. S. Hocken, James Nicol, and Robert Murray—Aldermen at large.

James F. Maher, Alderman for Queen's Ward.

Robert A. Murdoch, Alderman for King's Ward.

Michael Morris, Alderman for Wellington Ward.

Andrew McIntosh, Alderman for Duke's Ward.

The candidates who were present at the close of counting of the ballots spoke briefly from the balcony of the Town Hall to a very large assemblage in the street.

Mayor-elect Snowball, in thanking the electors, referred to his defeat of last year as an aldermanic candidate, but was proud that, this year, they had chosen him as Mayor. He hoped he would be able to assist in carrying out works for the benefit of the town. He thanked those who had worked and voted for him and also those who had not, and hoped that the town's business would be well and economically conducted.

Mr. Watt said he stood defeated by their votes, but he had received the independent vote that could not be bought. Mr. Snowball, with all the influences worked in his favor had only beaten him 59 votes. Had he paid taxes for men it might have been different; he could have rolled up a majority for himself. If the ratepayers could stand the management of the new council it was not his affair. Mr. Snowball might prove a good mayor in matters which did not affect himself. He (Mr. Watt) had appealed to the electors on his record. He wouldn't do a mean thing to get elected. He would not pay anybody's taxes.

Mr. Harris Pallen: "No, but the Pulp Company paid them for you"

Mr. Watt: No, they didn't, Mr. Rundle, and you couldn't beat me if you ran. [Mr. Watt evidently thought Mr. Rundle had made the remark about the pulp mill matter,] but that gentleman had not said a word]

Mr. Watt concluded by thanking the ratepayers who had endeavored to elect him.

Ald. Maher expressed his gratification that the manner in which he had discharged his duties during the last four years had so satisfied the people that they had again returned him. They might depend on his continuing to do his duty.

Ald-elect Wyse was proud of the handsome vote given to him by his fellow citizens. He had a cold, but was afraid, before the election that he was to get a worse one. He was, however, proud to be 125 votes above the lowest man elected with him as alderman at large. It showed that his work had been appreciated and it was a thing to be proud of in his old age. He gave some of his ideas as to how best to promote the welfare of the country and hoped everything would work smoothly in the new council.

Ald-elect Nicol thanked the ratepayers for the handsome vote they had given him. It was a surprise to him, for he hadn't gone out of his way to canvass and was, therefore, afraid that he might not receive enough votes to elect him, but the people evidently desired to have the best men and had chosen him. He would do the best he could in their interests and hoped for their liberal judgment of his acts.

Ald elect Murray said he was not left in the cold this time. He would make no promises additional to those which he had made; he wished to be judged by his conduct of the next twelve months; he would do all he could for the welfare of Chatham, and thanked them for the handsome vote he had received.

Mr. Bassett said he had a bad cold. He was defeated, but only by 30 votes and would run again; some had made bad canvasses against him, but all he had to say was that clinkers were better for swine than pearls,

Mr. Weldon returned his thanks for the support he had received and said that although defeated he was not discouraged. He had been only seven years among the people of Chatham and was proud of the endorsement accorded to him. He had appealed to them only on his own merits, and had no feeling of recrimination over the result. He was in accord with the successful men and hoped they would manage the town's affairs well.

Ald. Morris returned thanks for his election by acclamation.

It is needless to say that all the speakers were well received and cheered. Mayor-elect Snowball's appearance on the balcony was greeted by very enthusiastic cheers and the ringing of the town bell, and the close of his remarks was similarly signalised.

Immediately after the speech-making the new Mayor proceeded to the office of Police Magistrate Jas. F. Connors, who administered to him the oath of office.

THREE PAPERS FOR $1.50.

"World Wide."

A WEEKLY REPRINT OF ARTICLES FROM LEADING JOURNALS AND REVIEWS REFLECTING THE CURRENT THOUGHT OF BOTH HEMISPHERES.

As many of the ablest writers are now engaged in journalism, much writing of the highest quality in matter and style is fugitive, seen only by the readers of each particular newspaper, and by them often lost before it is read. Much of such writing is only of local and very transient import, but much is of more permanent and world wide interest. It is proposed to fill the pages of WORLD WIDE with articles and extracts of this latter class, with occasional selections from notable books and scenes from striking stories. An effort will be made to select the articles each week so that due proportion will be given to the various fields of human interest—to the shifting scenes of the world's great drama, to letters and science and beautiful things.

It was at first intended to publish WORLD WIDE upon fine paper at a higher cost, but recalling the long list of elegant publications which in the past have been started in Canada, only to fail, and reflecting that good taste in literature does not always imply the means to pay for costly journals, and that people of taste can be relied upon to appreciate literary excellence on the plainest sheet, it has been decided to offer WORLD WIDE at the lowest possible price, in order to give all who desire good reading an equal opportunity.

Published weekly. Sixteen pages. Two cents.

75c. per annum, postpaid to any address in Canada or U. S.

25c. additional for delivery in Montreal or to foreign countries.

JOHN DOUGALL & SON, Publishers, Montreal, Canada.

The advantage of combining such publications as WORLD WIDE with the local country paper is obvious, for it places within the reach of subscribers not only the local news, but also a great range of general matter not otherwise available. The publisher of the ADVANCE having made arrangements with the management of WORLD WIDE and continued those with the FARM JOURNAL is able to furnish all three papers to ADVANCE subscribers for $1.50 a year. That is, they will receive THE ADVANCE, WORLD WIDE and FARM JOURNAL for $1.50. Subscribers who have already paid up for the ADVANCE and whose current subscriptions have at least nine months to run, will be placed on the list for all three papers on remitting 50c. to this office.

Chatham, March 11th, 1901.

WE FREELY ACKNOWLEDGE the much of our present standing and reputation is owing to the character and ability of the students of whom it has been our good fortune to have had the training. This year's class is no exception, but is fully up to the standard of former years.

Business and professional men in want of bookkeepers and stenographers are invited to call upon us or write us. No recommendation will be made unless we are sure of giving satisfaction.

No better time for entering than just now.

Eye Talk.

HAVE YOU ANY TROUBLE WITH YOUR EYES?

Perhaps you see well enough at a distance, but your principal difficulty is in reading, especially in the evenings, or that after reading awhile the print runs together, or the eyes water, or it may be you have to stop awhile and close the eyes and rub them before again attempting to read.

Or perhaps your difficulty is in reading or writing or any close work, and you cannot recognize your friends on the street.

Or possibly your vision is not satisfactory for either reading or distance.

In any Case Come
AND LET US
Test Your Eyes,

as we have one of the most complete test cases obtainable and are therefore in a position to test your eyes and fit glasses to both your and our own satisfaction.
