The following is taken from Shipping Illustrated, and refers to the late G. W. Crossman of the firm of Crossman and Sielcken, one of the large exporters from this port, who somely remembered his employes in his death:

"The will of the late George W. Crossman, of the firm of Crossman & Sielcken, commission merchants, leaves $1,000,000 to his partner, Mr. Herman Sielcken. Eight of his employes receive $10,000 each. They are John H. Royall, James W. Smith, George V. Kirkpatrick, Thorlief Nielsen, Charles A. Thrackmorton, Thomas W. Marler, Henry Abbott and James D. Boyd. Mr. Crossman also left $10,000 to his bookkeeper, John Sorenson. Three men are named for $5,000 each—Teitjon Weitling, John H. Budehnan and Harry West. For $2,500 each are named B. A. Cuthbert, A. W. Tedinger, Thomas E. Maher, Thomas Kiernan, Michael T. Donnelly, Charles E. Dyke, and Luiz da Cavalho. Every other employe who has been with the firm for three consecutive years prior to Mr. Crossman's death also receives $1,000. The firm's business will be continued by Mr. Sielcken."

Don't Diet Yourself TO DEATH TO CURE DYSPEPSIA OR INDIGESTION. IT ISN'T NECESSARY.

While it is necessary for the dyspeptic to abstain from rich, greasy, highly seasoned food, it is useless and injurious to deprive the sufferer of a full supply of good nutritious food sufficient for the needs of the body.

Weakening the body will never remove dyspepsia, on the contrary, all efforts should be to maintain and increase the strength.

Burdock Blood Bitters will increase the strength, and at the same time enables one to partake of all the wholesome food required, without fear of any unpleasant after results.

Miss Martha A. Brooks, Gagetown, N.B., writes:—"I have been troubled with indigestion for more than seven years, have tried several doctors and different medicines, claiming the power to cure, but all without success. Having heard of the many cures effected by Burdock Blood Bitters, I decided to give it a trial. I have taken only one bottle, and that one has done me more good than all the other medicines I have used. My appetite, which was very poor, is now good, and I can eat most everything without any disagreeable feelings."

IN THE COURTS

PROBATE COURT.

Estate of Elizabeth F. MacNeill, widow. Deceased died intestate, leaving her surviving two daughters, Stella M., wife of Edward F. McKeever of Moncton, barber, and Ethel W. McNeill of St. John, spinster, and one son, George E. MacNeill of Quebec, clerk. On the petition of these three, Ethel W. McNeill is appointed administratrix. No real estate. Personal estate $1,900. Messrs. MacRae, Sinclair and Macrae, proctors.

Estate of Daniel O'Hara, ship carpenter. Deceased dies intestate in July, 1896. His wife predeceased him. He had eleven children, of whom two died before him without issue. The surviving children are Charles H., Martha M., Susan and William, all of St. John; Daniel, of Moss Glen; Margaret P. and Sarah A., of New York, and Thomas J., of Sydney, Cape Breton, and Elizabeth, since deceased. On the petition of those resident here the above named Martha M. O'Hara is appointed administratrix. No real estate. Leasehold on Camden street, valued at $900. Leonard A. Conlon, proctor.

Will Not Sprinkle Streets.

After serious consideration of the proposition to sprinkle bare stretches in the streets so as to make continuous sledding, Com. Agar has decided not to try it. The recorder advised against the idea, as the city might be held responsible for a condition that it had created, if horses slipped on the sprinkled places and injured themselves.

"CASCARETS" FOR A SICK, SOUR STOMACH

Sluggish Bowels Cause Gases, Sourness and Food Fermentation.

That awful sourness, belching of acid and foul gases; that pain in the pit of the stomach, the heartburn, nervousness, nausea, bloating after eating, feeling of fullness, dizziness and sick headache, means a disordered stomach, which cannot be regulated until you remove the cause. It isn't your stomach's fault. Your stomach is as good as any.

Try Cascarets; they immediately cleanse and regulate the stomach, remove the sour, undigested and fermenting food and foul gases; take the excess bile from the liver and carry off the constipated waste matter and poison from the intestines and bowels. Then your stomach trouble is ended. A Cascaret tonight will straighten you out by morning—a 10-cent box from any drug store will keep your stomach sweet; liver and bowels regular for months. Don't forget the children—their little insides need a good, gentle cleansing, too.
