covering by shorts. While it looks as though it would take something entirely new to advance the market much, we would not advise going short.

McIntyre & Wardwell (John J. Dixon) received the following despatch to-day from their branch office in Chicago:

Trade in wheat to-day was very light, and the market seemed to have an easier tone, although it had several rallies. Closing was quiet at ¼c decline. The rallies were caused by damage reports from Michigan and Indiana and samples of Hessian fly infested wheat from Michigan were shown on the floor to-day. Reports, while not so numerous, all claimed considerable damage. Prospects of colder weather was also a factor in early strength. Outside trade, however, in spite of the bullish character of the crop news, does not give the market the slightest support, and local traders have taken the initiative so frequently with such barren results that they seem to be growing more conservative in their operations on the long side. Foreign markets still maintain their indifferent attitude and do not buy any cash wheat from us nor seem to be at all active in futures. The rains were again very general, the Northwest still crying too much of it. We think that a certain set of traders here are selling wheat short quite freely, and would not be surprised at a quick upturn in the near future.

Provisions opened higher on 4000 hogs less than expected, and higher prices for same. At the advance packers sold moderately, causing an easier feeling. Later Hately bought September ribs and lard freely. John Cudahy's brokers bought a few lots of July pork. The market closed firm at the highest prices of the day.

TENDERS.

TRENT CANAL.

Notice to Manufacturers of and Dealers in Portland Cement.

SEALED TENDERS, addressed to the undersigned, and endorsed "Tenders for Portland Cement," will be received at this office up to noon on Friday, 29th May, 1896, for the supply and delivery of 14,000 barrels, or any portion thereof, of Portland cement.

Specifications and forms of tender can be obtained by the parties tendering at the office of the Chief Engineer of Railways and Canals, Ottawa.

In the case of firms, there must be attached the actual signatures of the full name, the nature of the occupation, and place of residence of each member of the same; and, further, an accepted bank cheque for 5 per cent. of the total amount tendered for must accompany the tender. This accepted cheque must be endorsed over to the Minister of Railways and Canals, and will be forfeited if the party tendering declines entering into contract for the work at the rates and on the terms stated in the offer submitted.

The accepted cheque thus sent in will be returned to the respective parties whose tenders are not accepted.

This department does not, however, bind itself to accept the lowest or any tender.

By order. J. H. BALDERSON, Secretary.

Department of Railways and Canals, Ottawa, May 7, 1896.

ST. LAWRENCE CANALS

IROQUOIS DIVISION.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS.

SEALED TENDERS addressed to the undersigned, and endorsed "Tender for the St. Lawrence Canals," will be received at this office until noon on Friday, 12th June, 1896, for the diversion, deepening and enlargement of the Iroquois Canal.

Plans and specifications of the work can be seen at the office of the Chief Engineer of the Department of Railways and Canals at Ottawa, and at the Superintending Engineer's Office, at Cornwall, where forms of tender can be obtained on and after Monday, 18th May, 1896.

In cases of firms there must be attached the actual signatures of the full names and nature of the occupation and place of residence of each member of the same; and, further, an accepted bank cheque for the sum of $15,000 must accompany the tender; this accepted cheque must be endorsed over to the Minister of Railways and Canals, and will be forfeited if the party tendering declines entering into contract for the work at the rates and on the terms stated in the offer submitted. The accepted cheque thus sent in will be returned to the respective parties whose tenders are not accepted.

The lowest or any tender not necessarily accepted.

By order. J. H. BALDERSON, Secretary.

Department of Railways and Canals, Ottawa, May 9, 1896.

AN AWFUL CYCLONE

Swept Over Sherman, Texas, and Laid It Waste.

SIXTY DEAD BODIES PICKED UP

Awaiting Identification in the Public Buildings.

It was but the Work of Two or Three Minutes, but the Devastation is Complete—Rubbish Heaps Where Handsome Buildings Stood—Searching Parties Found Bodies of Dead Children in Trees—A Gruesome Sight—Hundreds of Houses Blown Away.

Dallas, Texas, May 15.—A cyclone struck Sherman, Texas, at 4.30 this afternoon, killing many people and doing great damage. The number dead is reported to be from fifty to one hundred. It is said the cyclone struck the ball park while a game was in progress and that several of the players and many spectators were killed. All the telegraph wires to Sherman have been down since 4.30.

Sherman, Texas, May 15.—A terrific cyclone struck this city at 4.30 this afternoon, killing many people and doing great damage to property. The number of people killed is not known, but it is reported all the way from 15 to 75. There is much excitement, and great confusion, and it will be very late and probably morning before the list can be obtained.

A Gruesome Sight.

Denison, Texas, May 15.—The city of Sherman was visited by the worst cyclone in the history of North Texas about five o'clock this evening. The path of the destroyer was 150 yards wide. It struck the city at the west end of Post Oak Creek and swept in a westerly direction for several blocks and then spread and spent its force. The track of the cyclone is a gruesome sight, the devastation being complete, and houses, trees, fences and everything in its pathway destroyed. The loss of life will probably reach 100, with as many more bruised and wounded. The City Hall and store room, formerly occupied by S. G. Holmes, have been turned into temporary hospitals, and 18 bruised, mangled and mutilated bodies are awaiting identification.

Fifty Dead Bodies.

At Sherman by 9 o'clock fifty dead bodies had been brought in and placed in public buildings, and searching parties are out for more.

The unidentified dead are being taken to the Court House. Gray's Hill and Fairview were both badly damaged and the cyclone passed directly west of the North Texas Female College, barely missing it. E. E. Sayles, a deliveryman, drove down Houston-avenue directly after the cyclone. He stated that he saw at least seven men, women and children lying alongside the avenue dead and many wounded. The devastation in spots where the cyclone was the worst is complete. Trees were stripped of their foliage in some places while in others they are uprooted. Houses are in some instances entirely gone and in others only a pile of rubbish marks the place where they stood. Capt. Ely's fine residence was blown to pieces. His wife and two children were at home, but fortunately escaped without serious injury. Not a thing remains to mark the spot where only a few hours of Capt. Burgess. His family was absent from the house at the time.

Mayor Tone's Account.

Mayor Tone of Denison, who was in Sherman during the storm, gives the following account of the cyclone: "I was on the Court House Square about 5 o'clock, and heard a roaring wind coming from the south. The next thing I knew, the air was thick with mud and small specks resembling ashes. The cyclone did not strike the Court House or jail, but followed up Post Oak Creek. The roaring did not continue over two or three minutes. During all this time it rained hard. In about five minutes rumors began to spread that many lives had been lost, and the reports grew worse and worse as time passed. By 9 o'clock 50 bodies had been brought into the public buildings, and searching parties are out for more.

The dead children have been found in trees, under leveled houses and in Post Oak Creek. An iron bridge over Post Oak Creek was twisted into scrap iron."

Prof. and Mrs. Kohler were both badly injured. Six children of J. B. Irwin are all badly hurt. Dr. Michael was caught in the storm and badly hurt. Dr. Sadler left for the south part of the town just before the storm, and as nothing has been heard from him, it is feared that he was killed.

Mrs. James Davis and Mrs. John Feids, who lived south of the town, were both killed. It is feared that the destruction in that part of the country is serious. A mass-meeting was held to-night at the Court House in Sherman to devise means to relieve the distressed.

Hundreds of homes are blown away.

Sixty-Six Bodies.

Forty-eight of the dead have been identified. Eighteen unidentified dead are at the City Hall. The seriously injured make a long list and many of them are probably fatally hurt.

Powderly Gets a Verdict.

Philadelphia, May 15.—A verdict was rendered to-day in the Common Pleas Court against James R. Sovereign, General Master Workman, and the General Executive Board of the Knights of Labor for $4,225.73 in favor of Terrence V. Powderly, who claimed that amount as the balance due him for services as Master Workman of the order. The suit had been pending since Sovereign succeeded Powderly as head of the order.

Drank Benzine and Died.

London, Ont., May 15.—The youngest child of Alek. Drennan, 1057 Brydges-street, got hold of a bottle containing benzine and drank the contents. She died in great agony a few hours later.

Degree of M.D.—T. W. G. McKay, M.B.

MUST DECLARE THEMSELVES.

Candidates Will be Asked to Pledge Themselves to Prohibition.

The temperance organizations of the city were well represented at the meeting last night in Temperance Hall to decide on the course of action to be adopted by prohibitionists in the approaching Federal elections. Mr. J. J. Maclaren, Q.C., was in the chair and F. S. Spence acted as secretary.

On the recommendation of the Executive of the Toronto Prohibition Union, it was decided to submit to the various candidates for the House of Commons a series of questions bearing on prohibition. The list of questions as presented by the union comprise enquiries regarding the candidate's personal standing as a prohibitionist or otherwise; his intention to vote for or against prohibitory measures, and his willingness, failing the passage of direct prohibition, to submit the question to a popular vote.

The questions were approved, although the one referring to a plebiscite was not passed without a good deal of opposition, many of the delegates holding that it offered a loophole by which candidates might evade the direct question. Finally, after much discussion, the clause was approved, and it was decided to send to each candidate a copy of the questions, asking for a written reply, by which the prohibitionists are to be governed in casting their ballots.

It is probable that a mass meeting of temperance people will be called to receive the replies of candidates to the questions submitted, and possibly to arrange to place candidates in the field wherever the requisite nominees do not answer satisfactorily.

OUR VAST COUNTRY.

What the Latest Maps of Canada Will Show.

GREAT AREAS HAVE BEEN DIVIDED

New Quarantine Regulations Go Into Force

All Horses Must Be Inspected By a Duly Authorized Inspector Before Exportation—Diseased American Animals Will Be Watched—Sir James Grant Loses the Conservative Nomination at Ottawa—General Topics From the Canadian Capital.

Ottawa, May 15.—(Special.)—The next official map of the Dominion of Canada will show a marked change in the divisions of our great northern territory. Heretofore the entire Hudson's Bay, and stretching away to the shores of the Arctic Ocean, has been variously designated or altogether unmarked by a distinctive appellation of any sort. The new maps will show the whole of the far north regularly subdivided into districts. Their names are Ungava, Franklin, Mackenzie and Yukon. Ungava includes all the district between Hudson Bay and the Arctic Ocean with the exception of the narrow coast line known as Labrador. Franklin includes the great group of islands, small continents some of them, north of Hudson Straits and lying between the 60th and 125th degree of west longitude. West of this again is Mackenzie district, taking in the mainland country between the northern limit of Athabasca and the Arctic Sea and lying between the 100th meridian of longitude and a line about 500 miles west of and parallel to the Mackenzie River. Yukon includes the district enclosed between the latter line and the northern boundary of British Columbia, the eastern boundary of Alaska and the Arctic Ocean. In his forthcoming year book, George Johnson, the Dominion Statistician, devotes a chapter to delimitation of these boundaries and descriptions of the vast territory they enclose, and he has added to his table of areas of provinces a computation of the surface of these newly named districts, which serves adequately to demonstrate their immensity. It will show that while Ontario contains 222,000 square miles, Quebec 228,000 square miles and British Columbia 383,000 square miles, the district of Keewatin is estimated in area at 282,000, Ungava 358,000, Franklin 300,000, Mackenzie 538,000 and Yukon 95,000 square miles. There is thus no unnamed territory now left in British North America from the St. Lawrence River to the N. P., otherwise known as North Pole.

New Quarantine Regulations.

Dr. McEachran, Dominion veterinary inspector, is in Ottawa, engaged with the Deputy Minister of Agriculture revising and perfecting the regulations governing the quarantine of foreign cattle entering Canada either in transit or by importation. In accordance with his recommendations important changes have been made in the rules. These have been rendered more stringent in the case of transit animals. A circular sent to the several ports establishes the following regulations in regard to horses from the United States shipped from Canadian ports for Europe:

"No horses shall be permitted to be placed on board any steamship or other vessel for exportation at any Canadian port until they have been inspected by a duly authorized inspector at such port, and certified by him to be free from contagious diseases; such inspection to be made within 24 hours of embarkation."

New regulations also provide other safeguards against the shipment of diseased American horses from Canadian ports. For instance, a certain time is to be allowed to lapse between the arrival and the inspection of the animals, and each horse, duly inspected, is to be marked with the letters "V.R." These precautions seem to render impossible the shipment from this country of any but healthy stock.

Militia General Orders.

The militia general orders contain official notice of the appointment of Major F. L. Lessard, Royal Canadian Dragoons, to be inspector of cavalry in addition to his present duties.

Lieut.-Cols. Maunsell and Otter have been appointed inspectors of infantry in addition to their present duties in the Royal Regiment of Canadian Infantry.

John Cameron Maclean, second lieutenant of the York Rangers; Douglas Howard McDougall, second lieutenant of the 48th Highlanders.

The 43rd Battalion Ahead.

The long delayed returns of efficiency from No. 1 Military District were received at the Militia Department yesterday and will be promulgated in the militia generals orders of next week. It is understood that these additional returns make no change in the relative position of the 43rd Battalion, which still stands in the lead of all the infantry battalions inspected during the drill season of 1895.

The Sale of Timber on Indian Lands.

For the sake of uniformity the regulations respecting the sale of timber on Indian lands in Ontario and Quebec have been made applicable to the whole of the Dominion with the exception of British Columbia.

Customs Decisions.

The Board of Customs has concluded its May sitting and the decisions arrived at will shortly be promulgated officially. These will include a number of rulings on intricate questions of customs ratings.

F. E. Kilvert, acting commissioner of customs, expects to be relieved of his departmental duties next week, when he will return to his post of collector at Hamilton. His successor, John McDougall, will arrive from Picton in a few days to assume charge of the office of commissioner at Ottawa.

Sir James Let Out.

The Conservative convention, under the presidency of Charles Magee, tonight nominated candidates to contest the city in the party interests. As English candidates, Sir James Grant, ex-M.P., and Hiram Robinson, receiving 6 in nomination, Robinson receiving 120 votes to 64 for Grant. Ald. Champagne and ex-Mayor Durocher went to the convention as French candidates, Mr. Champagne securing 109 votes to 68 for Durocher. The nominations of Robinson and Champagne were made unanimous. Resolutions were adopted approving the party platform as laid down in Sir Charles Tupper's manifesto.

THE SULTAN TAKES ACTION.

The Enforced Conversion of Christians to Islamism Must be Stopped.

Constantinople, May 15.—As a result of the vigorous action of the foreign Ambassadors and Ministers the Porte has ordered that the enforced conversion of Christian to Islamism at Birediik be stopped. The Sultan has ordered the withdrawal of the local troops at that place and the substitution of regular troops, and has also decreed that a commission proceed at once from Marash to Birediik to arrange for the rebuilding of the mosque and the Christian church, which were destroyed in the recent disturbances at that place, and remain there until confidence in future order is completely restored.

NAT BOYD WILL RUN AGAIN.

He Has a Patron as Well as a Liberal to Fight This Time.

Winnipeg, May 15.—(Special)—The Macdoanld Conservatives met at Portage-la-Prairie to-day to select a candidate for the constituency in opposition to Rutherford, Liberal, and Braithwaite, Patron. Nat Boyd was the unanimous selection.

To-night a mass meeting was held, at which Hon. Hugh John Macdonald, Minister of the Interior; R. P. Roblin, and other Conservatives, delivered speeches. The convention was most enthusiastic, delegates being present from all parts of the riding.

MR. LOUNT WILL RUN.

If the Convention Endorses Him He Will Oppose Mr. Cockburn in Centre Toronto—The Young Men Satisfied.

Mr. G. R. R. Cockburn will have for an opponent in Centre Toronto, Mr. Wm. Lount, Q.C. At least, Mr. Lount will in all probability be the nominee of the Liberal convention to be held in Temperance Hall on Monday evening next.

The committee of the Reform Association, which has been looking for a candidate for some time, last night interviewed Mr. Lount, and that gentleman, it is understood, signified his willingness to represent his party in the contest.

It is stated that even the Young Liberals, who have been kicking against other names suggested by the Liberal executive, will support Mr. Lount. The likelihood now is that Mr. Lount's will be the only name seriously considered by the convention.

VESSELS COME TO GRIEF.

Owing to the Collapse of a Caisson at Hull the Dry Dock is Damaged.

London, May 15.—A serious accident occurred to the new dock at Hull this morning which involved a loss of upwards of £10,000. The dock was virtually completed, and a caisson had been fixed at its entrance with the object of preventing the water flowing in. The caisson collapsed at high tide, and the tide water flowing in from the old dock forced the vessels in the new dock adrift. The flow of water was so strong that none of the vessels could be controlled and their violent contact with one another soon reduced them to a mass of wreckage.

ONE THING LACKING.

This Notice Intended to Supply the Necessary Publicity—Big Day in Hats.

But one thing is wanting to make to-day the biggest business day in the history of Dineens' hat store, and that is that the people should know of the bargains to be had during the rebuilding sale. With the largest stock the store ever contained, and the necessity for an immediate closing out of the greater part of it staring them in the face, the firm were compelled to reduce prices. In doing so they took no half measures. Nearly every line in hats, and absolutely everything in furs, was marked down to leave the merest shadow of profit, in some cases entirely sacrificing that margin.

To-day the store will be open until 10 o'clock at night, and later if necessary to accommodate purchasers. A full staff of salespeople will be in attendance all day and there will be no lack of attention to visitors. New felt hats arrived this week in several new blocks, all fashionable shades and at all prices; varying in quality but always in the most approved styles and grand value. GOES WITH A CHEER

The Remedial Bill is the Cry in Montreal.

MR. ANGERS' PLAIN STATEMENT

At Sir Charles Tupper's Great Meeting in That City.

If it Takes From Fall Until Spring, the Present Quebec Leader Declares, the Coercive Measure Will be Introduced Into Parliament and Carried Through—The Premier Tendered a Grand Reception at Sohmer Park.

Montreal, May 15.—(Special)—Of all the grand demonstrations ever witnessed in Montreal, that tendered to Sir Charles Tupper was the greatest. The torchlight procession was a magnificent display, and some 7000 people were in line to escort the Prime Minister from the Liberal-Conservative rooms to Sohmer Park, where the meeting was held.

It is admitted that fully 20,000 people were in and around the building, and with the exception of a dozen or so roughs, who were a little noisy at the beginning of the meeting, the immense crowd was quite an orderly one.

Senator Valenciue presided, and on the platform were the Premier, Hon. Messrs. Angers, Taillon, Desjardins, Sir A. P. Caron and over 500 of the leading Conservatives of Montreal and the Province of Quebec.

Although Sir Charles looked in splendid form and his voice was good, there were many thousands who could not hear him, but this mattered not, they saw the Cumberland war horse, and cheered themselves hoarse in his honor.

Sir Charles invited the business men of the metropolis to the Windsor Hall on Saturday evening, where they could listen to him with greater comfort than at this tremendous meeting. He said that although he realized the vastness of Montreal, yet he never believed it possible for such a body of men to be got together at a political assembly. The Prime Minister repeated what he had said at Winnipeg, and amid cheers, defied Hon. Mr. Laurier or any other man to show that he had ever, during the 40 years of his political life, appealed to religious or national prejudices. He declared that this was the prelude of victory, which was sure to come to the Conservative party on June 23 next.

Speeches were made by Hon Messrs. Taillon and Desjardins. The first-named assured the country that the Remedial Bill would be reintroduced and carried through Parliament if it took from fall to spring to do it, a statement that was cheered in the most enthusiastic manner.

WILL WALLACE BE OPPOSED?

The Story Last Night Was That a Straight Government Candidate Would Run in West York Against the Ex-Controller.

The Hon. John Haggart, Minister of Railways and Canals, and the Hon. Dr. Montague, Minister of Agriculture, came up from Ottawa yesterday morning in the private car Cumberland. They spent the day at the Queen's in conference with Robert Birmingham and other party stalwarts, and left again for Ottawa on the evening train. Among those who saw them off were Ald. Scott and Mr. Wm. Laidlaw, Q.C.

The party maintained silence as to the purpose of the Ministers' hurried visit, but it is understood that one of the objects was to discuss the situation in West York.

A gentleman who was in close conference with the Ministers on the station platform just before the train pulled out stated that the Government had practically decided to bring out a straight party candidate to oppose N. Clarke Wallace.

Dr. R. B. Orr, who gave up the returning officership of the riding, is said to be the man selected to stand, but that gentleman refuses to commit himself.

Canadian Manufacturers.

Canadian manufacturers have a reputation for shrewdness; they are keen, hard-headed men of business, and no men insure more largely. Next to commercial men come doctors and clergymen in the practical recognition of the value of life assurance. Like merchants, they are keenly alive to the investment element; but press its moral aspect home to all who come within their influence. The reason is obvious; our spiritual and medical advisers are the first to be appealed to in a case of distress brought about by death. They are the first to devise means for relieving the widow and orphan; and from the difficulty they encounter in securing efficient help, their experience forces them to realize the necessity for every man to make provision for his own family, and not leave them to the tender mercies of the world.
