NEW YORK, Sept. 24.

New Orleans despatches of to-day say it is generally understood that the leaders of the late riots will be indicted, and leading business men assert that if such a course be carried out they will be unable to restrain younger men from violence.

It is stated that the White Leagues last night voted not to submit to any such persecutions.

Kellogg last night telegraphed the Attorney General that if the troops were withdrawn there might be rioting at any moment, and not end till Kellogg and all his people were either killed or driven from the State.

Three war vessels arrived below New Orleans last night.

The White League is said to be spreading through other States.

LONDON, Sept. 25.

Members of the Austrian polar expedition declare explorations in the direction of the North Pole hopeless of satisfactory results, and that reports of the existence of an open Polor Sea are untrue.

The Carlists have suffered a serious defeat in Province of Biscay.

NEW YORK, Sept. 25.

RAILWAY DISASTERS—KILLED AND WOUNDED.

By a collision of trains, Wednesday night, on the Parkersburg branch of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, 10 persons were injured. A mail agent was burned to death in a postal car, the contents of which, together with a baggage car, were destroyed, and the trains nearly demolished.

A south bound train of six cars, on the Selma, Rome and Dalton Railroad, went through a bridge, falling sixty feet. The engineer, fireman and several others were killed. Nearly all the passengers were wounded, many dangerously. Among the killed is Wm. Boyd, ex-Judge of the State Supreme Court of Alabama.

OTTAWA, Sept. 24.

Compton's dismissal from the position of Dominion Arbitrator has been decided on, and Elliot is to be appointed in his stead.

In Toronto, to-day, the Liberal-Conservative Convention adopted a platform, embracing: Economy in Crown Timber; Public competition for Government contracts; opposing the policy of an Attorney General advising the Lieut. Governor to reserve judgment on bills passed by legislature; opposing the granting of special privileges to creeds or nationality; condemning the independence or separation policy, and advocating British connection; condemning the Reciprocity Treaty. Over five hundred delegates were present. Hon. Jos. Skead, of Ottawa, was elected President.

In Montreal, a rumor is afloat that a brother of a Minister in the Dominion Cabinet has been awarded a large contract for dredging without tenders being called, and that the scows of the Harbor Commission have been placed at his disposal.

Jodoin, member for Chamblay, "Grit," has been unseated. He will be tried on personal charges.

Hon. Alex. Mackenzie has gone to Toronto to consult with Blake and Brown on a most important despatch from the Colonial Secretary, to the effect that England will support British Columbia in the demand for the fulfillment of the terms so far as practicable.

Mr. Thos. Cook, of London, the celebrated organizer of European tours, expresses the indignation of an honest Briton at the "blarsted extortion" of the Union Pacific Railroad Company. "Why," says Mr. Cook, "I can take a party from New York, through Great Britain, France, Germany and Italy to Naples for less money than I can convey the same party from New York to the Yosemite Valley in California."

"Hi, Swipsey, have yer had eny of that er strawbully shirt cake at McGulligan's yet?" shouted a bootblack to a newsboy on Clark street on yesterday afternoon. The youngster shook his head and said: "But, I'm goin' to clam-chowder myself to-night on a quarter what an old rooster gave me for holdin' his hoss, while he went into Jake's. Strawberries ain't nothin' to k-lems; they ain't."—Chicago Times.

THE ILLUSTRATED LIBRARY —OF— POETRY AND SONG!

Edited by

DR. J. G. HOLLAND,

Author of "Kathrina," "Bitter Sweet," etc:

FAVORITE SONG is a royal octave volume of over 700 PAGES, printed in the best style of the art, on the finest tinted paper, and illustrated with 125 thoroughly dainty and delicate engravings, FROM ORIGINAL DESIGNS, by the most eminent artists, together with fac similes of the original autograph copies of (20) famous poems.

The illustrations are numerous and exquisitely wrought. What can be more beautiful than the one which reflects the enchanting spot where—

"Maud Muller, on a summer's day,
Raked the meadows sweet with hay;"

One of those lovely New England landscapes, which the engraver has represented in outlines as beautiful and artistic as the song it adorns.

Conspicuous, also, for its rare beauty, is the illustration accompanying the "Song of the Brook," where the streamlet, dashing beneath the rustic bridge, goes chattering

"Overstony ways,
In little sharps and trebles."
* * * * * *
"Till last by Philip's farm it flows,
To join the brimming river."

Altogether, this is one of the most charming and elegant books ever issued by the American press—a fitting gift for lover or friend; an attractive ornament for the parlor table; a valuable addition to any family library.
