BULLISH REPORT AT CHICAGO CAUSE OF MATERIAL UPTURNS

Close in Corn Is Strong — Broadening Out of Demand For Futures.

CHICAGO, June 18.—Bullish crop reports as to oats and wheat led to material upturns today in the corn market. The close was strong, 1¾c to 2⅜c net higher, with July, $1.79⅞ to $1.79½, and September, $1.69½ to $1.69¾. Oats finished at 1¾c to 2⅜c advance, and provisions, up 2½c to 25c.

All the symptoms of a crop scare developed regarding oats, reports from parts of the southwest and a good deal of Iowa and Illinois telling of the plant heading short, and of widespread need of rain. As usual under such conditions, the reports were much magnified in the minds of some of the traders, and were given further stress by advices from other territory that spring wheat was late, and that forcing weather was essential. Corn was quick to show sympathy with the higher prices which were commanded by oats as a result of anxious buying. Before the day ended, shippers and industries resumed active competition for cash corn, and there was simultaneous broadening out of the demand for futures. Country offerings were not large.

Business in oats took on large proportions. Scantiness of receipts added to the bullish sentiment due to fear of crop damage.

Provisions, although dull, were firmer with grain and hogs.
