LOCAL AND OTHER ITEMS

ALL SAINTS.

THE Michaelmas term of the Supreme Court opens on Tuesday next.

THE summer time table on the Island Railway will continue in force until December 4th.

THE Carroll arrived from Boston yesterday afternoon. She had a large cargo of flour and twenty passengers.

A LARGE and enthusiastic meeting, to consider the advisability of starting a cheese factory, was held Monday at Tignish. The speakers were Senator Howlan and Dairy Supt. Dillon.

THE October number of the Collegium is brighter and spicier than ever. The number contains a likeness of His Grace Archbishop O'Brien accompanied by a well written biographical sketch.

THE residence of Mr. Donald Carr, Freeland, Lot 11, was destroyed by fire one day last week. Most of the furniture was saved. The fire was caused by a defective flue. The building was insured for $600.

THE passengers to Boston Thursday by the Worcester were:—John Gunn, Fred Gotel, John Murphy, M T Burns, J P Young, Mrs Young, M F Cow, Mrs Cow, Mrs P McLean, Alfred Ferguson, Miss Dingwell, Miss Currie, May McIntyre, Mrs P Shea.

THE Teachers' Institute of this city has decided upon taking up the study of Physology and Psychology. Dr. Dewey will deliver the lectures on Physology and Prof. Robertson, as often as convenient, those on Psychology. Clarke Murray's work on Psychology will be the text book used.

THE Boys' Branch of the League of the Cross has purchased the instruments of the Summerside Brass band, together with all the music books and stands. There are eleven instruments, and all were received here safely on Monday night. The price paid was $125. Good for the boys.

In the County Court at St. Andrews, N. B., Friday, a man named Camary was found guilty of poisoning cattle, and was sentenced to 14 years in Dorchester penitentiary. An order was also made by the court for judgment to the owner of the cattle of $600 to be recovered from the property owned by prisoner.

A TELEGRAM received here last week stated that the ore in the Cliff silver mine, at Minerals, Montana, in which Mr. S. F. Hodgson, late of the P. E. Island Railway, and several other Charlottetonians are interested, is panning out well. A vein five feet thick has been struck and is being developed with success.

THE output of the Nova Scotia coal mines for the nine months of the present year reach two million tons. The output for the Cumberland mines was 403,500 tons; Pictou mines, 375,000 tons; Cape Breton mines, 904,000 tons, a total increase of 229,000 tons over the corresponding period last year. The Whitney syndicate mines increased their output 111,000 tons during the nine months.

HARVEY MOSS, employed at Bradford's mills, Tremont, N. S., met with a terrible accident at that place on Wednesday. While working at one of the edging tables he slipped and fell against a saw, his right arm coming in contact with it, severing the arm just below the elbow. Before the lower portion the arm fell it came in contact again with the saw, and three of the fingers were cut completely off and two others were left barely hanging on.

THE firm of Goldberg, Gellar & Co, of Halifax are at swords' points as to how the business shall be conducted, and in all probability the firm will be dissolved. The senior member of the firm advertised an auction of goods but at the appointed hour the other two members of the firm appeared with their solicitor to prevent the sale. Goldberg has the capital and Gellar and Abraham the business experience, but the latter are strict Jews and insist upon having the shop closed on Saturday, the Jewish sabbath.

THE trotting horses Parkside and Westham arrived home to Summerside on Friday evening. After the animals landed from on the Northumberland a complimentary address was read Mr. W. A. Brennan, Parkside's owner, by Stipendiary McQuarrie, and a handsome rug, worth $25, the gift of the citizens of Summerside, placed upon the speedy son of Clay by Mr. Richard Hunt. Mr. Brennan made an appropriate reply to these expressions of favor and good will on the part of his fellow citizens. Cheers were also given for Parkside, and his efficient driver and trainer, Mr. James Houghton.

MESSRS. Rhodes, Curry & Co., of Amherst, have been awarded the contract to build the iceboat and life boat house at Cape Tormentine. The structure is to be thirty feet square, two stories, and will be erected near the new pier at that point. In the future passengers to the Island by the iceboats will be saved the two mile drive to Cape Jourimain to take the boats but will embark as soon as they arrive by the train and will shorten the journey by at least an hour. For summer traffic a freight shed is to be built at the slip on the pier and a fence or guard 100 feet long and 4 feet high along the exposed side of the pier will protect passengers who are landing on the other side from the water.—Sackville Post.

DANIEL MCINNIS, of Waycocomagh C. B., who is now in the hands of the law, is, if all reports be true, a very bad one. The store of Hart & Co. was burglarized and a valuable horse stolen. The horse was subsequently found in a field disembowled. The animal's throat was cut, the eye gouged out, and 27 stabs were visible on the left side. McInnis, learning that he was suspected, gave himself up to a magistrate. He has been committed for trial. McIntosh was arrested also on the charge of stealing a horse in the same way belonging to A McArthur. He was caught in the act but managed to make his escape. Six horses, the property of various persons, have been found dead. Three were disembowled and others [illegible] with a pitchfork and knife.

CORRESPONDENCE.

To the Editor of the Herald:

DEAR SIR,—For justification of myself I deem it my duty to say something with reference to my letters which appeared in the columns of the HERALD.

When I first wrote on Oct. 4th, my sole intention was to confine my writings to the public acts of public men. I defy the most painstaking critic to show where I overstepped the boundry lines of the above rule. My conduct in writing I hold to be the privilege to which every free born British subject is entitled. I was attacked for this and driven off the road, when I found it necessary to use the same weapons as those I saw in the hands of my assailants, and I think with good effect, for after searching over the last issue of the Patriot I find that they are as silent as an oyster. Yes they are silent in the press but busy with their tongues. I will notice but one of their vaporings, which is as follows: "The road was christened before that d—— fool done it." Why do they not say this in writing? They know their man, and also know that he is both able and willing to defend himself. The assertion of the better half, who says "I am beneath notice," would have sounded far better before the issue of the Patriot of the 12th ult. I have no great desire to bandy words with the combination. Although it may afford much amusement, it is certainly not creditable. It is rich to hear some of the combination exclaim "If I would write!" I know every one of them who is capable of writing. A man who cannot read, cannot write, therefore such egotistical exclamations should be left to those who can.

It is asserted that I have assistants. They have gone so far as to name one as my assistant who cannot write. While I must thank the people for their kind words, I must thank the man who goes around for the manner in which they have manifested their approbation of my manly defence, I must deny the charge of having an assistant. It is I and I alone who is responsible for what appears over my signature of LIBERAL.

Johnston's River, Oct 30th 1893.

To the Editor of the Herald.

SIR,—I am sorry to have to trespass upon your space or to be compelled to waste so much valuable time in penning you this communication. But truth and justice sometimes demand that we inconvenience ourselves.

In your issues of October 4th and 18th, letters signed "Liberal" appear, the statements contained in which are absolutely without a shadow of truth. My object in now writing you is not to enter upon a refutation of the statements made in those screeds, but merely to state that the author of the communications is one Jim McNally. Nothing further is necessary to prove the falsity of the charges. I might adopt the method of the above named wayo it not that I scorn to indulge in slander. I consider that the mere mention of the name of your correspondent is sufficient answer to his statements, and besides I do not believe in throwing water on a drowned rat.

CHARLIE.

(As the question at issue between our correspondents has dwindled down to mere personal matter, and a continuation of the debate will be of no public interest, we have decided to close our columns against all further reference to the matter.—ED HERALD).

WEDDING BELLS.

St. James' Church, Egmont Bay, was at 9 o'clock, Monday morning, the scene of another of those happy events, in which all evince such a lively interest. The event on this occasion was the marriage of Miss Marianne, eldest daughter of J. O. Arsenault, Esq., M P P., Egmont Bay to Dr. Andrew Gallant, of the same place. The ceremony was performed by Rev. S. J Arsenault, C. S. C., of St. Joseph's College, Memramcook, N. B., brother of the bride, assisted by Rev S Boudreault, rector of St. James, and Rev A Cormier, C S C. of St. Joseph's College. Besides the above named clergymen there were also present in the sanctuary Revs J A Macdonald, P P of Miscouche, J P McGrath, P P of Fifteen Point, and G M LeBlanc of St Joseph's College. The bridesmaid was Miss Jacqueline Arsenault sister of the bride, while Mr Sylvere J Arsenault supported the groom.

The bride was beautifully attired in cream cashmere, trimmed with cream satin and lace, and wore a veil and orange blossoms. The bridesmaid wore cream serge, with pale green velvet trimmings, and hat to match.

After the ceremony the happy couple repaired to the home of the bride's father, where a sumptuous wedding dinner was served. There were about one hundred friends and relatives of the contracting parties present, besides the clergymen above mentioned. The bride was the recipient of over fifty presents, some of which are of beautiful and exquisite design.

Dr. and Mrs Gallant came to this city by the express Monday evening, and the following morning left via Summerside on a brief wedding tour through the neighboring Provinces.

The HERALD extends congratulations, and wishes the popular young disciple of Esculapius and his fair bride long years of wedded life.

THE three-year old trotting stallion Promoter, 2 31¼, owned by W S McKie, of city, and J M Johnson, of St. John, was taken to the latter place on Monday.

"AN ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure." Such at least seems the opinion of hundreds of our prudent ladies who are supplying themselves with Fur Goods early in the season. Messrs Beer Bros report that their sales are away ahead of last year. This speaks volumes for the quality and low price of their goods.

WHILE two men named Embree and Tead were loading a car of bark at Westworth station N. S. Saturday morning, the car suddenly tipped over and rolled down the mountain, a distance of 80 feet, carrying both men with it. Embree sustained very serious injuries and Tead is badly hurt. The accident was caused by the men loading one side of the car first, and this, together with a strong wind that prevailed, caused the car to tip over.

DIED.

At Marshfield, on the 30th ult, James, son of the late Alexander Robertson, Esq, aged 55 years.

At Black Brook, Oct. 23rd, of hemorrhage of the lungs, George Whelan, of Moncton, in his 20th year.

At Pinette, Belfast, on the 4th ult, Flora A., aged 27 years, daughter of Chas. and Catherine McWilliams.

At Flat River, on the 26th inst., Angus McLeod, in the 69th year of his age, leaving a widow, two sons and three daughters to mourn their loss.

In this city on October 26th, Alfred F. Tomlins, in the 60th year of his age. He was a native of Surry, England, and came to this Province in 1870.

At Grand River, Lot 14, on October 20th, after three years illness, of salt rheum, Angus H. McLellan, in the 35 year of his age, leaving a sorrowful father and mother, five brothers and three sisters to mourn the loss of an obedient son and affectionate brother.

MARKET NOTES.

The Halifax Critic says: The provision market hold steady. Pork is in good demand and lard and smoked meats move fairly well. At Chicago provisions are very firm, but the demand has been small and business for export has been almost nothing. In Boston pork and lard are in fair request, with little change in the position of the local market.

The cables report the British markets better, but shippers are so thoroughly disgusted that it would require a much greater advance to induce them to assume a hopeful mood. The past few weeks have been simply ruinous, and even at present advance there is no money in the business. The shipments are keeping up remarkably well, owing solely to the large supply of ranche cattle coming forward. There have been more Northwest and Manitoba cattle shipped this season than ever before, and there are still a large number to come. The shipments to date show a decrease of 14,671 cattle and 14,740 sheep. The falling off in the shipments of cattle is due almost entirely to the stoppage of the stocker trade, 18,291 store cattle having been shipped last season up to October 21, while there have only been 25 cattle weighing less than 1,000 pounds, exported this season. This falling off in the shipments means that the Canadian farmers will receive about one-half a million dollars less for cattle this year than they did last season.

The St. John Sun says: Eggs continue very scarce. Beef is easy and light quarters have sold as low as 5c this week. Apples are high, and the schooners lying in market slip have a brisk trade. The Bangor news of Wednesday says:

"The Bangor produce market has been well supplied during the past week and trade has been fairly brisk. Eggs are worth 23 to 24 cents, a few small lots have sold at 25, but 24 is the cash price for the best of near by stock. Butter is selling at 25 to 27 cents for fair to good dairies; potatoes are worth anywhere from 35 to 45 cents. Some of the late planted stock show signs of rot. Yellow eye beans are worth $2 to 2.10. Apples are selling at $1.50 to $2 25 for fair to good autumn fruit. W. S. Carr & Co report no change in barrel pork, which still sells at $21. Hams remain at 11½c, fresh ribs at 11c; tierce lard is at 10½c, while smoked shoulders are off half a cent to 10c. Hay is selling at $15 to $17.50 for best loose; straw, $6 to $7.

The barkentine Eroma, Capt. Neilson, cleared for Bridgewater, England, Saturday, with a cargo of 24,515 bushels of oats, shipped by her owners, Peake Bros. & Co.

All the steamboats and merchants warehouses at Indiantown are filled with potatoes, and now is the time to lay in a winter's stock. They are being sold at Indiantown at from 80 cents to $1.25 per bbl, and probably in a few days will be still lower in price. The river boats bring down from 600 to 800 barrels a day.—St. John Telegraph.

The steamer Colla cleared Monday for Hamilton, Bermuda, with the following cargo: From Alberton, 326 bbls. and 1675 bags potatoes, 251 bags white and 344 bags black oats, 7 horses and 68 sheep. From Charlottetown:—25 horses and 217 bags potatoes.

There is no export inquiry for hay at Montreal at present. Loose hay sells there at $7.50 to $9.50 and baled from $10 to $10.50.
