Tuesday evening Airlie Camp was opened at Oakville with a satisfactory charter roll, the proceedings being in charge of Col. Campbell, of Milton. Both these camps start under favorable auspices, and promise to prove strong and useful centers of organization.

KNIGHTS OF HONOR.

The average age of applicants entering the order is 39.46 years.

The smallest amount paid into the W. and O. B. fund by a deceased brother was $2 and the largest $1,040.

Total payments up to 1892 have aggregated the enormous sum of $36,740,534 26.

ANCIENT ORDER UNITED WORKMEN.

The A. O. U. W. numbers over 31,000 in New York State, with about 450 lodges.

Ontario sent out a list of deaths on Dec. 1 of 23, and closed the year with thirteen assessments.

The Dakotas had one assessment for January. The net gain for December was 206. The Grand Lodge had on Jan. 1, 1891, 2,266 members; same date, 1892, 3,004 members, an increase of 738 for the year.

Ilderton Lodge, A. O. U. W., is booming the order in their territory, which extends from Hyde Park to Denfield, and from Birr and Arva to Dunorlef and Ivan. It is all to be canvassed before the next meeting, and 25 new members is the expected result.

THE ORANGE ORDER.

The annual meeting of the Grand Orange Lodge of Ontario West will be held in the town of Owen Sound on Tuesday next at 2 o'clock, p.m.

INDEPENDENT ORDER ODDFELLOWS

The annual statement of J. B. King, of Toronto, grand secretary of the Grand Lodge of Ontario, shows that five lodges had been instituted and one resuscitated during 1891, making a total of 238 lodges. The total disbursements had amounted to $140,679 40 and the total receipts to $166,388 85. The funds of the lodge amounted to $727,974 19. The following membership statistics were furnished: Initiated during the year, 1,813; reinstated, 154; admitted by card, 155; total, 2,122. Suspended for cause, 8; suspended for non-payment of dues, 1,024; withdrawn, 259; expelled, 12; died, 123; total, 1,426. Increase, 696. Total membership Dec. 31, 1891, 18,403. Average membership per lodge, 77.32. The Rebecca lodges, 11 in number, had a total membership of 955 and funds amounting to $2,225 86.

Since 1856 the order in Ontario, alone, has paid in sick benefits and relief over $759,000; add to this the $242,537 paid to beneficiaries by the Oddfellows' Relief Association we have the vast sum of $1,001,537 to the credit of the Oddfellows in this jurisdiction. In 1856 in Ontario, with a membership of 605, the relief paid out was $299, rather less than $1 per day, or about 50 cents per member. In 1891, with 18,403 members, the benefits amounted to $64,652 87, a daily average of $177 13, or $3 51 per member.

The new Oddfellows' building in Kingston, Ont., will be ready for occupation about March 1. It will be one of the finest buildings for the purpose in the Province. The building is of red brick, with limestone trimmings, is 66x80 feet, and is four stories high. It is owned by the Kingston Oddfellows' Building Association, in which none but Oddfellows are permitted to own stock.

At the annual meeting of the Covenant Mutual Benefit Association of Illinois last month Dr. Cl. T. Campbell, of London, was elected one of the advisory directors, receiving the entire vote represented at the meeting—over 10,000.

The proposed rearrangement of the Patriarchs Militant in Canada into three regiments does not appear to meet with the approval of many of the chevaliers in this section, and it is reported that the general commanding is not disposed to approve of the plan unless more cantons are speedily organized.

The new hall in Toronto is gradually creeping up. The joists are now on the first story and the second story is making its appearance. If good weather continues the work will go rapidly on, and the Toronto brethren fully expect to be domiciled in their new quarters by the time first stated, July, 1892.

Germany has 53 lodges of Oddfellows, with a membership of nearly 3,000.

Pennsylvania has its 1,026th link attached to its long chain of lodges.

CANADIAN ORDER OF FORESTERS.

The high chief ranger will attend and take part in a concert under the auspices of Court Marthaville at Marthaville on March 30. He will also dedicate a new hall for Court Huron, No. 51, located at Ripley, on March 4. Bro. Towe has alst accepted an invitation to be present at the annual concert to be held on March 10 at Toronto by all the courts in that city. The visits by High Court officers to subordinate courts and their annual meeting have been the means of doing much good. In every instance where the H. C. R. has made visits it will be seen that the courts have increased their membership.

C. M. B. A.

Branch No. 173 was organized at Belle River, Ont., on Feb. 22, by District Deputy John Dugal. The officers elected and installed for the year 1892 are: President, Rev. J. E. Menuier; first vice-president, Pierre Brossoit; second vice-president, Nazaire Mousseau; recording-secretary, P. J. Marentette; assistant recording-secretary, A. Hamel; financial secretary, Nicholas Conway; treasurer, Moise Menard; marshal, Charles Gerard; guard, Leon Derosier; trustees, for one year, Francis Sauve, Jas. McAulife and Ed. Decaire; for two years, Gilbert Ouellette and Jas. L. Reaume; delegates to Grand Council, Rev. J. E. Menuier; substitute, Nicholas Conway.

MASONIC.

The February meeting of the Toronto Past Masters' Association was held on Monday evening, and was largely attended, the keenest interest being manifested in the discussions. The president, W. C. Wilkinson, who was in the chair, referred in feeling terms to the recent death of the grand treasurer, Bro. Edward Mitchell, and a resolution of condolence with his widow was passed. Bro. W. Anderson, city auditor, read an interesting paper entitled "A short criticism on the investure address to the E. A., and the Masonic definition of a square." Both subjects evoked instructive discussion, in which Bros. Menet, Blackwood, Patton Malone, Bennet, O'Hara and others took active part. A number of questions submitted by members were taken up and intelligently handled. Others will be dealt with at the next meeting. Among the leading subjects to be brought forward are "The St. John festivals," "Lodges of instruction," and "Past masters' responsibilities." It is intended that the meeting in May next will be one of special interest.

J. Ross Robertson, grand master of Canada, has been invited to lecture in Winnipeg, and it is expected he will respond.

At the regular meeting of Corinthian Lodge, No. 330, A. F. and A. M., held on Tuesday evening, after the work had been concluded, an adjournment was made to the adjoining room, where a good repast was in waiting. It was the last meeting that the immediate past master, Wor. Bro. J. Metherall, could be in attendance before leaving next week with his family for his new home in British Columbia. He was eulogized by all the visiting brethren and members of the lodge as a tireless worker for the lodge and craft in general. His activity and usefulness have made him deservedly popular as an officer, and his departure is sincerely regretted by all.
