A DAY IN THE SPORTING WORLD

BIERBAUER RETURNS AND LONDON WINS

"Looey's" Good Influence Seems to Rejuvenate Tecumsehs.

HOWICK KNOCKED OUT

Ten Runs Scored in the First Five Rounds—Silcox Goes Route.

A pretty fair article of what Yanks are pleased to term Uncle Sam's national gambol was presented at Tecumseh Park on Saturday afternoon, when London and St. Thomas hooked up in their farewell fracas, and the 1,500 or so local fans went home rejoicing because the Tecumsehs grabbed the heavy end of an 11 to 6 score.

It was one of those heavy-hitting, pyrotechnic exhibitions with the St. Thomas team performing aviation stunts at frequent intervals. In fact the intervals became so frequent that for the first five innings, Jo-Jo Keenan's bunch of near-pennant winners amassed a total of ten runs, managing to get at least one in each inning.

The only apparent reason for St. Thomas being in the game at all, was that somebody had to chase the hits that the locals insisted upon laying down where nobody happened to be, and even the fans got tired of seeing such a slaughter. The first chapter of the conflict brought a pained expression over the faces of the local bugs, and all kinds of dire imaginings of what was going to happen the Keenan squad began to take form, but appearances are oftimes deceiving, and thus it turned out.

Saints Start Strong.

St. Thomas started the doings by piling in two runs in such a sudden manner that it almost took the fans' breath away.

Gurney had been an easy out, but Forgue received a charity with the compliments of Mr. Silcox, who undertook the slab work for the local chirpers. Forgue then showed his appreciation by sneaking safely down to second. Wilde beat out a slow one to Brant, and went down to second on the first ball pitched, McWhirter throwing to catch Forgue at third, but the ball went out to Kyle instead, and Forgue counted, while Wilde reached third. Wright singled, and Wilde romped home. Kopp was an easy out.

London butted into the score column in the first, when Kyle beat out a hit to Forgue, stole second and third, and came in on Barrett's sacrifice fly. In the second, St. Thomas was shut out, but the Cockneys added a couple more.

Bierbauer Returns.

Lane singled and Bierbauer, who was making his initial appearance since the injury to his hand, laid down a nice bunt and beat it out. Wilde threw to catch Lane, but the ball got away from Forgue, and Lane proceeded on to third.

Bierbauer stole second, and Nichols went out. McWhirter hit to Forgue, who threw to catch Lane at the plate, but the throw was bad, and Lane and Bierbauer counted. Silcox and Kyle fanned. St. Thomas went out in one, two, three order in the third, and then the real storm broke. Keenan hit a fluke two-bagger over Graney's head. Barrett waited out four of Howick's bad ones, and Brant complicated affairs by beating out a slow hit to Forgue. Lane walked, and Keenan came in without any effort. Bierbauer rescued Barrett with a single, and Nichols, not to be outdone, swatted the pill to the left field fence for two bases, Brant and Lane ambling home.

Howick Derricked.

At this stage of the siesta, Chaucer Elliott rather painfully realized that the Cockneys were mingling with Mr. Howick's benders with a familiarity that breeds no respect. Therefore Mr. Howick was relieved of all further responsibility, and "Silence" Conley, sometimes referred to as "Dummy," was trotted out to assume the obligations. McWhirter flied to Graney and Bierbauer scored on the throw-in. Silcox also flied to Graney, and Kyle did likewise. After that St. Thomas had no chance. They did manage to score one in the fourth, but just to show how useless it was, London came back in the same inning with one more, and as a further reminder tallied another in the fifth. St. Thomas added three more before the game was over, while London counted one more.

Louie Some Fielder.

As a kind of apology for the manner in which they had sewed up the game in the first three innings, and thus depriving the fans of any real excitement, the local squad began to pull off some sensational plays, "Looey" Bierbauer, in right field, featuring in this, with a pretty one-handed stab of Gurney's hit to deep right.

It was labelled for a homer if Bierbauer had not made a great run and jump into the air and brought it down with one hand. Barrett also pulled off some nice catches, and whenever the ball was hit in his direction one of the fans opined "Down a well," and, sure enough, Barrett would gobble it up as if nothing was so easy. And then, Hamilton released him because he couldn't field. Some more of Knotty Lee's judgment.

Bobby Covers Up.

McWhirter has taken to wearing shinpads. His knees were getting in the way of too many foul tips, and as Bob does not want to occupy a ward in the home for helpless cripples, he decided on the pads.

Forgue and Wide, of St. Thomas, made two lightning-fast double plays, but Forgue got in wrong with the crowd by his constant kicking at Strowger's decisions. Even at that, Forgue was not far out—not half as far out as Strowger was.

Silcox pitched fairly good ball, and received good support. After the third inning he did not need to exert himself. Howick started off bad, and kept on getting worse until he was yanked in the third. Conley, who took his place, was pretty effective, but the game was packed away by that time, so that the Keenan Krew eased up a trifle and did not make any great effort to run up a score.

BRANTFORD CELEBRATES SEASON'S CONCLUSION

Red Sox Defeat Guelph Twice in Last Battles of 1911 at Brantford.

Brantford, Sept. 10.—Brantford closed the first season of the Canadian League games here on Saturday in a blaze of glory by taking two games from Guelph, which were stoutly contested. As far as Brantford is concerned, its future on the Canadian map of organized baseball is assured. The season here has been a financial success, in spite of the fact that the club was not a contender in the race.

The Red Sox won the first game Saturday, 5 to 3, Tasker being unhittable in all but two innings. Mason was no enigma, Barry featuring the proceedings with three two-baggers. The scores:

First game—		R.	H.	E.
Brantford	301 100 00*—	5	9	1
Guelph	000 000 210—	3	6	1

Batteries—Tasker and Lamond; Mason and Hilton.

In the second game Lefty Smith came right back from his defeat on Friday, and won his game against Schuman 4 to 2. Smith, who goes to the world's champions by the draft route, struck out twelve Leafs, and was only hittable in the first two innings, Schuman getting a home run. Burrill's three-bagger and Courtney's homer gave the home team the lead. Score:

		R.	H.	E.
Brantford		4	9	1
Guelph		2	6	0

Batteries—Smith and Lamond; Schuman and Hilton. Umpire—Johnson.

DONOVAN WINS FOR THE BENGALS

The Detroit Tigers Take Great Twirlers' Battle From the Naps.

BLANDING SHOWS WELL

Youngster Hurls Against Veteran, But Loses Out, 2 to 1, in the Thirteenth.

Detroit, Sept. 11.—For thirteen innings yesterday Bill Donovan, the Tiger veteran, and Fred Blanding, the Detroit youngster with the Naps, battled at Bennett Park. The odds were against the youngster and although he put up one of the gamest exhibitions of mound work at the local park this year, the remarkable performance of the oldtimer resulted in a 2 to 1 victory for the Tigers and the first defeat for the Naps in their last eleven starts.

"PING" HAS GOOD DAY AT CHICAGO

Contributes Three Hits to White Sox Victory Over St. Louis.

Chicago, Sept. 10. — The White Sox came back to the home lot today and trimmed the St. Louis Browns, 8 to 3. Doc White was knocked out of the box by a fierce batting rally in the opening round. Recruit Benz relieved him, and St. Louis only made but three hits the rest of the way, two of them being scratches. The Sox clawed George's slants hard and often. Ping Bodie busted a couple of fences with two doubles and shot off a single besides. The Sox quickly cut down the lead and passed the Browns, and although St. Louis tied the score, Wallace's men were soon put far behind by the consistent clouting of the home team. Score:

CUBS DROP FURTHER BEHIND THE GIANTS

Hoblitzel's Homer Sends Four Tallies Over the Pan in Seventh.

PIRATES ARE BEATEN

St. Louis Cardinals Put One Over On Clark's Buccaneers.

Chicago, Sept. 10.—The Cubs dropped another to the Reds today, 2 to 3, and fell back two games behind the Giants in the pennant race. Hoblitzel won the game for Cincinnati by hitting a homer over the right field fence with the bases full and two out in the seventh inning. One man had counted before Hobby made his swat. Chance yanked Richie after this round. The Reds counted once off Richie in the sixth and clouted home two more off King Cole in the eighth. The Cubs bumped Gasper for four straight hits, one a double with none out in the first, but got only two runs. Doyle made the circuit after singling to open the sixth. Clark batted for Gasper in the seventh and Compton finished out the game, holding the Cubs helpless. Score:

Announcement by Sheriff Does Not Affect Ad's Programme of Training.

Milwaukee, Wis., Sept. 10.—Lightweight Champion Ad Wolgast continued training today for his contest with Packey McFarland in Milwaukee next Friday night, despite the statement of Sheriff William Arlond that he would not permit the contest to be staged.

Matchmaker Frank Mulkern reiterated his statement of last night that there would be no trouble in going through the west with the contest; that the affair would not be a prize fight, but would be a boxing contest, strictly within the law.

Wolgast went through his usual routine, including roadwork, boxing with his trainers and shadow boxing. The champion is in the pink of condition and is said to be three pounds underweight. A large crowd of spectators visited the training quarters and watched the little fellow work.

Matchmaker Mulkern announced tonight that Jack Welch, of San Francisco, has been agreed upon as the referee.

SHAMROCKS LOST TO NATIONALS

The Irishmen Were Beaten by the One-Sided Score of 18 to 1.

Montreal, Sept. 9.—The Nationals had no mercy on the Shamrocks in this afternoon's game, at the Shamrock grounds, and piled up a score of 18 to 1 before the final gong ended the procession. Except for a few minutes just at the start, when the Green Shirts injected a little vim into their attack, they bore little resemblance to a real lacrosse team, and the Frenchmen scored almost at will.

The teams and officials:

Shamrocks—Goal, Clingen; point, Dillon; cover, Rochford; defence, Tobin; Barry and Collgon; centre, Munday; home, George, Quinn and McCarthy; inside, Hyland; outside, McIntyre.

Nationals—Goal, L'Heureux; point, Cattarinich; cover, Gagnon; defence, Decerle, Clement and Lachdelete; centre, Secours; home, Dulude, Gauthier and Pitre; inside; Lamoureux; outside, Boulanne.

Referee—W. McIntyre.

Judge of Play—Roddy Finlayson.

A Double-Header

We advertise a "SQUARE DEAL and MORE" Policy.

You know what a "SQUARE DEAL" is---We all do, even if they are scarce.

Do you know what we mean by "SQUARE DEAL and MORE"?

Here it is---We offer to buy back at full price all goods we sell that prove unsatisfactory. As yet we've had no chance to do so. Now we'll go you one better.

We'll Pay You Double the Price You Paid Us if They Go Wrong.

That's what faith we have in our goods.

That's the "KNOW HOW."

We'll SHOW YOU WE KNOW their value and worth.

This now gives you a chance to "STRAIN" our "SQUARE DEAL and MORE" Policy.

You'll now understand what we mean by "MORE."

It is simply this---If we find a man who is unfair enough to ask for "MORE" than he has coming, WE'LL GIVE IT TO HIM.

There are few of this kind of people on earth, but we'll convert what few there are if they'll make one purchase in this NEW LIVE STORE.

THIS NEW LIVE OAK HALL is simply THE GOOD OLD OAK HALL with a "STIR-UP."

It's been a Square Store for years.

It's more than Square today.
