SAILING IN A LIGHT BREEZE.

TORONTO'S ANNUAL L.Y.R.A. RACES IN MILD WEATHER.

Winners of Class Events—Vreda Defeats Onward—Condor Has a Walk-over—Rosedale and Brampton Play an Exciting Game of Cricket—General Sporting News and Gossip.

The annual regatta of the Royal Canadian Yacht Club was sailed yesterday under the auspices of the Lake Yacht Racing Association.

The wind was very light at the start and did not freshen much all day.

The course for first, 46 and 40-foot classes was: Start from Exhibition Wharf buoy, thence to bell-buoy, thence five miles to to windward, return twice, finishing off Exhibition, all buoys to be left to starboard except the finishing one. The course for the 35, 30 and 25-foot classes was the same as above, but only once round from the bell to lake buoys. The 21-foot course was the usual R.C.Y.C. one.

All the yachts were late in starting, owing to the light weather, and the wind having hauled a trifle more to the south. Every boat except Vedette overstood the lake buoy on the first round.

Nothing eventful occurred in the race except that the Onward carried away the goose neck of her spinaker boom. The winners are:

1st Class—Vreda 1st, Onward 2nd.
46-foot Class—Condor (sole entry).
40-foot Class—Zelma 1st, Aggie 2nd, Dinah 3rd.
35-foot Class—Vision 1st, Cyprus 2nd.
30-foot Class—Vedette 1st, Erma 2nd, Nadia 3rd.

Queen Mab's Tough Luck.

NEW YORK, July 11.—The Clyde English racing cutter Queen Mab, consigned to Percy Chubb of this city, has arrived in Brooklyn, from Bermuda, in tow. She was almost a total wreck above decks, having encountered a hurricane on the morning of June 20, and it will take some time to repair her.

ROSEDALE AT BRAMPTON.

An Exciting Match Results in Favor of the City Eleven By Two Runs.

Rosedale cricketers visited Brampton yesterday and won a two-innings game by two runs. J. E. Martin and Forrester were the only bowlers along and they performed creditable work under the circumstances. Rosedale won the toss and knocked together 89, Forrester and Martin being the only respectable contributors. Brampton followed with 77, Anderson, Thauburn, Atkinson and Thredgold getting into doubles. Rosedale's next brought 87, Bowbanks coming to the rescue with 41. Forrester again went into doubles, Brampton wanted 93 to tie, and the finish was most exciting. The homesters' last wicket fell just before time and they had just 91. Stevens, Graham and Thauburn hit well for their runs. Score:

Cricket Notes.

Aurora and Toronto play an all-day match to-day on the University Lawn.

It is said that the Toronto Cricket Club have decided to engage Anderson, the professional, who has been on trial.

An extraordinary cricket score reported from Eastbourne, Eng. In a match with Old Town the East End went first to the bat and not one of the players scored, but two byes were obtained. Old Town then went in and compiled 102 runs without losing a wicket, winning the match by 10 wickets and 100 runs.

A Novel Six-Day Race.

A novel six-day race has been arranged in New York, in which Gus Becto wagers $1000 that he can produce three horses who can walk more miles in six days than John Hughes can cover in 142 hours, go-as-you-please style. According to the conditions Hughes is to be allowed the inside and to always have the right of way. Becto is to only produce three horses; one is to walk three days, the second three days and the third to be used when the others are resting or being fed. The stakes are to be $1000 and Richard K. Fox is to be final stakeholder. The stakes, with 65 per cent. of the gate, are to go to the winner. The race is to take place in September, either in New York or Newark. Hughes and Becto are to select the judges and William E. Harding is to be the referee. Hughes believes the horses cannot walk over 550 miles, providing they hold out, and he claims he can beat that record.

Dyment's King Joe Is Dead.

HAMILTON, July 11.—John Dyment's racehorse, King Joe, died last night. He was running in the field, broke his leg and had to be destroyed. King Joe is a province bred and will be remembered as a strongly-tipped candidate during the winter for the last Queen's Plate. But he went wrong, spraining his shoulder while training at Orkney and died a maiden.

The Queen's Yearlings.

The sale of the Queen's yearling at Hampton Court attracted an exceptionally large number of people to the stud farm, which has of late years been the birthplace of two winners of the Oaks and the Leger, and one winner of the Derby. They were a moderate lot, taken all round. The 28 yearlings brought an average of $1000. For three there were no bids, and seven sold for a few dollars. The highest price was $4550, paid by Sir James Miller for a colt by Bend Or, dam Recovery. In the La Fleche year the average price was $3950.

Notwithstanding his arrangement to fight Mitchell in December the announcement was made in Chicago Monday that Corbett and Jackson will meet in November for a fight to the finish.

HERR VON BISMARCK

Entertains Some Important People And Drinks Old William's Health.

BERLIN, July 11.—Prince Bismarck entertained at luncheon in Friedrichsruhe yesterday 40 secretaries of German chambers of commerce. In responding to the toast of his health, he said that he could bear a great many demonstrations of affection, as he was burdened with a heavy load in hatred. In conclusion, he called upon the company to drink in silence to the memory of Emperor William I., "that ruler who was loved ever in the recollection of the people as a model of magnanimity, honor and gratitude."

The Berlin correspondent of The Times says of Bismarck's speech Sunday before the excursionists from Lippe: This remarkable speech has attracted much attention. Most newspapers confine themselves to the obvious contrast between Bismarck's present theories and former practices. It is a singular coincidence that he should have addressed his remarks to subjects of a prince who, many years ago, resented an attempt at undue interference on the part of the central government with the bluff protest, in popular dialect—Bismarck has naught to say in the matter.

MEXICANS AND YAQUIS FIGHT.

The Indians Outnumber the Troops and Compel Them to Retreat.

NEW YORK, July 11.—A special to The Times from Hermosille, Mexico, says: A courier arrived here to-day from Yaqui Indian country, bringing official information of a desperate battle between the Yaquis and a troop of Mexican cavalry commanded by Lieut. Benito Rocha, one of the bravest officers of the army. In a fight Lieut. Rocha was killed. The force of Indians outnumbered the soldiers two to one and the latter were compelled to retreat. The fight took place yesterday in a remote section of the Sierra Madra Mountains, this state. No report has been received here as to the number killed and wounded on either side.

JONES BENT ON VENGEANCE.

He Will Shoot the Indian Murderers Despite Their Reprieve.

CADDO, I.T., July 11.—Governor Jones has returned home after attending the special session of the council in regard to the shooting of the nine condemned Choctaws who have been reprieved by the National Government. He says they will be shot or he will call out every member of his militia to accomplish that end.

ANOTHER GONE.

Jerry O'Donnell of Cronin Fame Dead at Calumet.

HOUGHTON, Mich., July 11.—Jerry O'Donnell was to have been married at Calumet last Thursday, but at the time set for the ceremony a requiem mass was being sung for him. He died very suddenly. O'Donnell will be remembered as the man who was sent to the penitentiary for three years for trying to bribe the jury in the Cronin case at Chicago.

Burglary at Hespeler.

HESPELER, July 11.—Four young men, one of whom is said to be Henry Clark of Guelph, broke into Tom Hunt's Hotel and stole 300 cigars, a quantity of liquor and eatables, after which they took a horse and rig from his stable and drove away. No trace has been found other than that the animal was recovered in Berlin.

MARRIED A GAINST HIS WILL.

A Detroiter Married at the Muzzle of a Londoner's Pistol.

DETROIT, July 11.—John Pendergast, jr., who was married to Fannie Naven by Justice Phelan last Saturday, the girl's brother, Patrick Naven, and Naven's gun being the only witness, is a printer, 23 years old. The girl is 21. Her brother is about 27 and is a brakeman on the Grand Trunk. The Navens live in London, Ont., but the girl has been working in Detroit as a house servant for several months past. Pendergast used to live in London himself, and knew the Naven family there. Naven and his sister, now Mrs. Pendergast, could not be found to-day, but Pendergast gave this account of the affair:

"It was a clear case of force, and I'm going to see a lawyer about having the marriage set aside. It isn't a legal marriage in the first place. Both Bishop Foley and Judge Phelan told me no marriage is valid when a man is frightened into it with a gun. In the second place I haven't any love for the girl and don't want her for a wife. She and her brother Pat say I got her in trouble. I don't believe she is in trouble, and anyhow if she is I'm not responsible. She's a good little girl as far as I know, and I'm sorry, but the trouble is she is dead gone on me. Why she told Bishoy Foley that she would follow me to the end of the world.

"I never met her brother Pat until he came to my boarding house Saturday afternoon. He was trembling with excitement and introduced himself by pointing his gun straight at me and telling me to get my hat and coat and come along and marry his sister. I said, 'Don't get so excited, old boy,' and he said, 'I'm not excited, but if you want to live you just get your hat and coat.' He had me on the nip, you see, with the gun, and I said: 'Well, let us go over and have a talk with the girl.' I tried to slip out into the hall and get my own gun, which was in another coat pocket, but he evidently suspected something and wouldn't let me get out of his way from him. If I had got my gun you can gamble there would have been no marriage. There would have been shooting first.

"Bishop Foley wouldn't marry us because I said I wasn't willing and that I was being forced. He asked me why I didn't run away if I didn't want to marry the girl, and I told him I didn't have any reason to, as I wasn't to blame if the girl was in trouble. Her brother talked again of shooting when I said this. Bishop Foley told us to go and see Fr. Savage. I live in Fr. Savage's parish. We didn't fare any better there. Fr. Savage refused to marry us, and so we went to Judge Phelan's court. The judge joined us all right. Did I pay him? Well, I should say not! If he got any money Naven gave it to him. I broke away from them just after the marriage and I haven't seen either the girl or her brother since. I don't want to see them.

Canadian Hay For France.

MONTREAL, July 11.—The bark Marlborough has been chartered out of this port to take a cargo of hay to Havre at 55 shillings. This is the first charter of the kind ever made in Canada, and is made possible by the shortage in the French hay crop. Prices of hay are advancing rapidly in this province, although this is in a great measure due to speculation among exporters.

Wilfully Smashed the Window

As Nightwatchman Pollock was going his round at 10.45 last night, he saw a man deliberately throw a stone through the plate glass front of the Dominion Shoe Co.'s store, King and George-streets. Pollock grabbed the man and handed him over to P. C. McDonald. At the station the prisoner gave his name as Fred Hunter of Duchess-street. The window is valued at $75.
