SPORTS AT THE ISLAND

The Amateur Aquatic Association Have a Brilliant Day With Much Sport.

LARGE TURN OUT OF FASHIONABLES.

Everything Goes Off Well and the Program Is Put Thru with Promptness and Despatch.

Notwithstanding the threatening weather during the morning, the 13th annual regatta of the Island Amateur Aquatic Association was most successfully held on Saturday afternoon on Long Pond, Centre Island. The events were numerous, and were all keenly contested, the entries in each being large.

The crowd that watched the regatta was one of the most fashionable and largest that ever graced this popular annual event. Long Pond, on which the regatta was held, was studded with sailboats and canoes, presenting a pretty scene. In fact, one of the Argonaut oarsmen, who was present, said it reminded him of Henley, only on a much smaller scale.

The afternoon's sports were carried off in a most praiseworthy manner, much credit being due to the energetic officers, who have worked all season to make the affair the success it undoubtedly was. This is one of the few occasions in the history of the association that the program has been fully completed on Saturday afternoon.

TRILLION'S STEEPLECHASE.

Wood Pigeon Second and The Bachelor Third in Feature Exent at Saratoga.

SPECIFIC WAS BID UP TO $1000.

Favorites Win at Highland Park and They Fail at Windsor—Summaries and Entries.

Saratoga, Aug. 18.—At the races to-day the fields proved too large for Starter Caldwell's patience and he failed to get them off on even terms in the first and fourth races. The steeplechase handicap over the long course was the most interesting race of the day and for the first two miles the field kept in close order and it looked like anybody's race. The last time around, however, Brazil, on Trillion, let out a few wraps and led down the back stretch by half a dozen lengths. Cousin Jess was sent in hot pursuit of him, but, taking the last obstacle but three in faulty fashion, Tell, Mr. Smith, who was riding his own horse, George Keene, and was close behind at the time, was forced to pull up, his mount stumbling, throwing Smith over his head. This left Trillion in front by a good margin, and, altho for a time it looked as the Wood Pigeon would catch him, the latter was too tired to give battle and Trillion won handily by six lengths, with Wood Pigeon ten lengths in front of The Bachelor. Monahan, who rode Cousin Jess, fractured his collar bone. After Specific had won the 7-furlong selling, he was bid up. Entered to be sold for $300, his price was raised to $1000 in a single bid by a representative of Will Wallace, whose horse, High Jinks, had run second. Charles Hill, Specific's owner, retained him with the usual $5 advance. Jockey Tiny Williams made his first appearance since his suspension of over a year ago and, riding a clever race on The Jade in the opening event, won by a head on the post. Summaries:

Wingham Owner's Coup.

Judge Smith says in The Buffalo Courier: Our Canadian friends cut a huge watermelon at Salamanca the past week, by winning the 2.20 pace with Harold H., a son of Roadmaster, out of a Rooker mare. There was a large field of starters and the owner of nearly every pacer was backing his horse to the limit. It was one of the best betting races in the Lake Erie circuit. At least four pacers had shown trial miles below 2.13, and how could they lose? Among the cracks were: Walter Wilkes, an Ohio hummer; Rosebud, owned by John E. Du Bois of Du Bois, Pa.; Pure Gold, driven by Al Mann of Youngstown, O.; Ezka, a sweet daughter of Lumps, and Harold H., the pacing sensation of Wingham, Ont., owned by Mr. John E. Swartz, and driven by Mr. Proctor, a Canadian star in the sulky. All told there were 10 starters, and excitement was at high tide. The story of the race is very short. Harold H. sailed away from the bunch in the first heat like a scared Chinaman of Pekin with the combined forces of all the great nations at his heels, and never stopped racing until he had three straight heats to his credit. It was all over so quickly that the combined pacing brigade couldn't tell how it happened. The surprised talent stood still and gapped at that Canuck fellow, and then fell in a Salamanca swoon! Our Canadian friends hired a wagon to cart away the silver, and never so much as winked.

Speaking of Friday night's bout at New York, The Herald said: Tim Callahan, the Philadelphia feather-weight, who is after Terry McGovern's scalp, received the decision over Eddie Gardner after 15 rounds of fierce fighting at the Broadway Athletic Club last night, when Gardner's second threw up the sponge. Callahan, altho the winner, was badly battered about the face and body. Gardner presented a pitiable sight, his left eye was almost closed and blood flowed freely from a deep gash over his nose as he left the ring. They were scheduled to fight 25 rounds, and it was announced that the winner would be matched to fight McGovern. Callahan was a two-to-one favorite, and it was even money that Gardner would not go ten rounds.

THE SWIMMING CHAMPIONSHIPS

Toronto Club's Sixth Annual Tournament Was a Splendid Success.

The Toronto Swimming Club's sixth annual tournament on Saturday afternoon was a splendid success. Notwithstanding the heavy shower in the early part of the afternoon, a large, enthusiastic and well-informed crowd of swimming admirers was present. The first race was one for the city of Toronto championship, of 100 yards, it was won by A. Firth, a former holder of the title, in grand style. In the diving, both neat and fancy, was seen some of the best diving ever witnessed in Toronto. In the neat dive, C. S. Norris and A. Firth tied twice for first. Norris won in the dive off. In the fancy diving was seen diving in all its varied forms, plunging, headers, high, back and front flips, also some very humorous diving. C. S. Norris also won this, his dive from the 30 foot tower was very good. In the boys' race, Willie Wells won a good hard race. This was followed by a 50-yards scratch, which was an exciting race, right from the start. A. Firth was first to finish, closely followed by Sheridan and Goode. The club handicap of 100 yards had 14 starters, two heats and a final. J. Wilson and L. Browne each finished first in a heat. In the final Wilson won by a long margin, but it was a grand race for the next best places, with the scratch men well up. An exhibition water polo match was played, which proved immensely interesting. The egg and spoon race was a novelty. Ten started. Each contestant had to swim up and down in front of the club house, holding a spoon in his mouth with an egg in it; this proved easy for Wynn Jones, who won with room to spare. Next followed an exhibition of the life saving class, under the direction of A. L. Cochrane. Rescue drill, releasing from clutch of a drowning person, resuscitation by the Sylvester methods, eight men going thru the methods and practices first on the land, then in the water. This interesting and very instructive event was highly appreciated by the onlookers. The last event was perhaps the most exciting one of the day, a team relay race, in which the long men were pitted against the short men. The long men won by half a lap. The D'Alesandro Orchestra rendered selections during the intervals between the events. The president, Mr. H. A. Yuille, presented the prizes with a few appropriate words and replies.

At Worcester—The first game in the double-header went to Worcester in the 12th inning. Montreal played an up-hill game and tied the score in the 9th. Kittredge's double, with two men out in the 12th won for Worcester. The second game ended in a wrangle. In place of Egan, McFarland and Raidy were the umpires, and in the last half of the sixth inning McFarlan, who was officiating on balls, called the game off because of darkness. Worcester had tied the score in the first half of the inning, but by the league rules, the score went back to the first inning, in which gave Montreal the game. Score, first game:
