ENGLAND'S GATHERING.

[DEDICATED TO THE MEMBERS OF THE NATIONAL CLUB.]

Englishmen! up! the hour is come,
'Tis your country's voice that calls you,
For God, for your Bible, truth, freedom, home!
Up! up! are the words beside you.
All too long have ye idly lain,
While the sons were round you spreading;
Up! or your children's blood shall stain
The soil that your foot is treading.

Oh! do ye not see you "shadowy hand?"
Your Church!—will ye not defend her?
Protestant! can ye tamely stand
And your dearest rights surrender?—
Oh! think on the Martyrs' blood that flow'd
In the sacred cause of freedom;
Think on the Martyr-fires that glow'd,
And then—think who decreed them.

Up! up! quite! rise all as one,
Up, if your hands you'd sever;
Quit ye like men, and the work is done!
Sleep on, and their fate for ever.
Remember, it is for God's own word,—
Speak out, as ye love or fear it,
A nation's voice! oh, it will be heard,
And your Rulers they must hear it.

Oh, heed not party, where dupes and knaves
Will betray, as they have betray'd, you;
Look to yourselves, or live on, the slaves
Which they, and yourselves, have made you.
It is written "Put not in man your trust,
"Not in Princes,—they shall fail you;
"Trust ye in God, when your cause is just,
"For he can, and he will, avert you."

Choose men who but one straight path have trod,
Whose deeds and whose lives have shown it;
Who know no fear but the fear of God,
And are not ashamed to own it.
Say, 'are ye send them forth to make
The laws that henceforth shall sway us,—
"One only pledge would we have you take,
"And it is,—That you'll not betray us.'

Say,—"Tell ye this to the powers that be:
"Rome, once with her grasp has crush'd us,
"But never again!—we will live free
"In the one pure faith that saves us.
"Take what ye list, take land, take gold,
"Take all, if the State shall need it;
"But, the Bible!—that, to the death, we'll hold,
"For, our sons' sons, they will read it.

"Do this,—and a reason'd Realm's applause
"Shall be yours, though its Rulers fail you;
"Do it not! and the guilt of a ruined cause
"Shall even in death, assail you."
Then up, in the name of God! up all,—
Up now, for your country's aliars!
A Nation's curse for a Nation's fall
Shall cling to the slave that falters.

REMOVAL.

THE Subscriber has removed his PIANO FORTE MANUFACTORY to the Premises in Prince Wm. street, situate between the Commercial Bank and the Bank of British North America.
The Subscriber, having enlarged his establishment, will shortly have on hand a variety of Instruments, which, for equality and purity of tone, he flatters himself that ladies and gentlemen (Pianists) will pronounce satisfactory, and which he can safely warrant to stand the climate. He begs, also, to invite the attention of the public to the celebrated IRON FRAMED PIANOS manufactured by him, which he recommends as possessing decided advantages over other Instruments, both for increased durability, and remaining unaffected by the frequent changes of the weather.
The public are respectfully invited to call and examine.
☞ PIANO-FORTES Tuned, Repaired, Exchanged and Let on the most reasonable terms.
References given to gentlemen of the highest respectability, by whom he has been patronized.

TRIUMPHANT SUCCESS OF
Buchan's Hungarian Balsam of Life,
THE GREAT ENGLISH REMEDY FOR
Colds, Coughs, Asthma, and Consumption.

THE most celebrated and infallible remedy for Cold, Cough, Asthma, and every form of Pulmonary Consumption, is the HUNGARIAN BALSAM OF LIFE, discovered by that eminent medical chemist, Dr. Buchan, of London, England, and extensively known as the 'Great English Remedy.'
It has been tested for upwards of seven years in Great Britain and on the continent of Europe, where it is universally considered the great and only remedy for this awful malady, and is now introduced to the public under the immediate superintendence of the inventor. Within three years it has been distributed from Maine to Florida, and from Canada to Wisconsin, and its effects are every where alike astonishing and triumphant.
As a preventive medicine, and an antidote to the consumptive tendencies of the climate, it is invaluable. As a remedy for severe and obstinate coughs, Inflammation of the Lungs, croup, &c. it is unrivaled. But the Proprietor is so confident of the merit of this great remedy, in the worst forms of consumption, that he prefers to have it used by the DYING INVALID, rather than by persons afflicted with some simple and less dangerous disorder of the throat and lungs:—this may seem strong language, but it is the result of experience in thousands of cases, sustained by the most intelligent and unimpeachable testimony. It is not pronounced an infallible remedy in all cases, but it is THE MOST INFALLIBLE remedy known to the civilized world. It is the best preventive of hereditary consumption—it is the best defender against the influences of climate—it is the best remedy for incipient consumption—and it is the great and only remedy for that fearful softening of the lungs—inflammation of the membrane, and tuberculous decay, which are the last effects of that dreadful scourge, and which are erroneously supposed to be beyond the reach of medical aid:—the agent or proprietors of other medicines dare not claim for their preparations a power like this: they know that in no case have such effects been produced:—the grand object and purpose of the common 'remedies' is simply to give relief—not to cure: this is easily done by an intelligent Physician or Druggist; but while dallying with these delusive compounds, the patient rapidly declines, and every day places him farther and farther beyond the reach of hope.
Such is not the case with the Hungarian Balsam. It is always salutary in its effects—never injurious. It is not an opiate—it is not a tonic—it is not a mere expectorant. It is not intended to lull the invalid into a fatal security. It is a great remedy—a great healing and curative compound; the great and only remedy which medical science and skill has yet produced for the treatment of this hitherto unconquerable malady. It is in fact the best remedy in the world!

[From the John Bull, newspaper, London.]
There is certainly some mysterious and occult virtue in the famous "Hungarian Balsam of Life," which the medical faculty are unable to discover, or Dr. Buchan would not be permitted for so many years to enjoy the magnificent monopoly of the treatment and cure of Consumption in Great Britain. No satisfactory analysis of this famous compound has ever, to our knowledge, been offered to the public.
