A PARIS SENSATION.

London, Oct. 8.—The Paris correspondent of the Times says: "President Faure's chef has resigned on account of irritation at the president ordering the Elysee banquet from a caterer."

BRITISH TRADE INCREASING.

London, Oct. 8.—The returns issued by the Board of Trade for September show an increase in imports £2,490,000, and an increase in exports of £340,000 during that month, as compared with those for September, 1895.

YOUNG DE LESSEPS DEAD.

Paris, Oct. 8.—Victor De Lesseps, son of the late Ferdinand De Lesseps, the world's famous engineer, protector and diplomat, died yesterday, aged 43 years. It was given out that his death was caused by an accidental fall in a staircase, but it is rumored that it was really a case of suicide.

ANARCHY IN MADAGASCAR.

London, Oct. 8.—Madagascar is reported in a complete state of anarchy. Sixteen Europeans and three Americans were killed between June and July, and since that time the road has been completely closed. In reality, the French conquest is only official. They have secured the Hova Queen and the Government, two hundred miles from the nearest port; but the independent and semi-independent tribes living in the fastness of the mountains and forests, practically inaccessible to European troops, have it all their own way and defy their French masters to suppress them.

EARLY SETTLEMENT EXPECTED.

London, Oct. 8.—The story cabled from Washington to the effect that Great Britain has made further concessions amounting to a complete surrender of her claims regarding Venezuela, is pronounced absolutely untrue, and it is added that negotiations regarding Venezuela will be resumed upon the return of Sir Julian Pauncefote, the British ambassador to Washington, with the instructions of the Marquis of Salisbury in the case.

Regarding the treaty of general arbitration which has been so widely discussed, negotiations will be resumed upon the return of Sir Julian Pauncefote to Washington. At the same time a very sanguine feeling prevails, the Government has every expectation of an early and satisfactory settlement of the matters in dispute, and it is said that the next message of President Cleveland to Congress and the next Queen's speech at the opening of Parliament will announce a settlement of both questions.

BANK OF ENGLAND.

London, Oct. 8.—The weekly statement of the Bank of England, issued today, shows the following changes as compared with the previous account: Total reserve, decrease, $1,009,000; circulation, increase, $136,000 bullion, decrease, $872,999; other securities, decrease, $1,897,000. Other deposits, increase, $537,000; public deposits, decrease, $940,000; notes reserve, decreased, $1,007,000; Government securities, increase, $1,994,000. The proportion of the Bank of England's reserve to liability which last year was 52.14 per cent, is now 50.67 per cent.

CABLE NOTES.

"TRILBY'S" CREATOR DEAD

Du Maurier, the Artist-Novelist, Passes Away.

London, Oct. 8.—George Du Maurier, the artist-novelist, author of "Trilby," who had been critically ill from heart disease for some time past, died at 2:30 o'clock this morning. His end was painless, and he passed away surrounded by friends.

The illness of Du Maurier was pathetic in the extreme. For days he had been hovering between life and death, at intervals conversing with his friends regarding his work. Upon one occasion a friend at the dying man's bedside referred to the success of "Trilby" as a book and as a play, whereupon Du Maurier replied: "Yes, it has been successful, but the popularity has killed me at last."

One of Du Maurier's friends, who was present at his death, said: "He died almost as tragically as Svengali. At the zenith of Trilby's fame Svengali became a victim of heart disease, and Du Maurier has gone the same way. At the zenith of his popularity the author has succumbed to the heart trouble from which he always suffered, which suffering was accentuated by the constant succession of exciting incidents in which the closing few months of his life were spent. Checks rained upon him as his old heart trouble increased. This, complicated by an affection of the lungs, took him off."

A PRETTY SIGHT

Visit of the Czar and Czarina to the Theatre Francaise.

Paris, Oct. 8.—The Czar and Czarina and President and Mme. Faure, after dinner yesterday, drove to the Theater Francaise, arriving at 10 o'clock to attend the gala performance. Following the playing of the Russian Anthem by the orchestra the curtain rose and revealed all of the artists of the Comedie Francaise with red cloaks, grouped around the busts of Moliere, Corneille, and Raccine, while M. Mounet-Sully read a complimentary ode in which occurred the words, "It is from the North that hope comes to us today." The reading was received with loud applause, Mesdames Bartet, Reichenberg and Baretta also read similar addresses. The performance of De Musset's "Caprice" and selections from "Le Cid" and "Les Femmes Savantes" terminated at midnight with the playing by the band of the "Marseillaise."

THE LIBERAL LEADERSHIP

Rosebery Resigns — His Reasons — Harcourt the Coming Man—Press Comment.

London, Oct. 8.—Lord Rosebery has written a letter to Thomas Edward Ellis, M.P., and first whip of the Liberals, resigning the leadership of the party. The reason given for his lordship's resignation is that he disagrees with Mr. Gladstone and other leading Liberals regarding the proper policy to be adopted in the eastern question. Lord Rosebery's letter is dated at his seat, Dalmeny Park, Linlithgowshire, Oct. 6. In the communication his lordship says:

"The recent course of events makes it necessary to clear the air. I find myself in apparent difference with a considerable mass of the Liberal party on the eastern question, and in some conflict with the opinion of Mr. Gladstone, who must necessarily always exercise matchless authority with the party, while scarcely from any quarter do I receive explicit support. This situation, except as regards Mr. Gladstone, is not altogether new, but in saying this I complain of no one, and regret only that I should appear to divide the energies and try the faith of the Liberals. The question, however, is above and beyond personal considerations, and when I speak, which I do this week, I must speak my mind without reference to party. Under those circumstances it is best for the party and for myself that I speak not as a leader, but as a free man. Consequently, I beg to notify you that the leadership of the party, so far as I am concerned, is vacant, and that I resume my liberty of action. I can feel only the deepest gratitude and regret at parting from you and those like you who have given me such loyal co-operation under circumstances so difficult."

PRESS COMMENT.

The Daily News, Liberal, commenting on the Earl of Rosebery's withdrawal, says: Lord Rosebery has allowed himself to be maneuvered out of the leadership. Before he can be asked to resume the position he must be accorded a vote of confidence by his colleagues and party. The step taken by his lordship is a very grave and lamentable one. It is Mr. Gladstone's return to the field that has been the immediate and perhaps the inevitable cause. Mr. Gladstone's enunciated policy in favor of Great Britain's single-handed action in the east, regardless of consequences, conflicts with the principles to which Lord Rosebery has adhered. In the present crisis Mr. Gladstone certainly has not got the whole nation nor the whole party behind him in that policy. The News argues that though Mr. Gladstone explained that he spoke as a private citizen, he cannot divest himself of the glamor of his old position, and the matchless authority which he exercised in the party, and that, therefore, when he intervened in practical politics in a sense out of harmony with the declarations of the recognized leader of the party, he made the latter's position very difficult. The paper concludes by saying that apart from the consideration of his age and health, the fit and proper course is for Mr. Gladstone to return to the leadership of his party. If he is ready for this, assuredly everybody will acquiesce. Otherwise, Lord Rosebery holds the field and must be reelected. His lordship has altogether exaggerated and misconceived the opposition to him.

The Daily Chronicle, which has always opposed Lord Rosebery's leadership, contends that the general tone of the Liberal policy, as regards the east, is not represented by Lord Rosebery. The Chronicle pays a high tribute to his honesty, and states that it recognizes his high qualities, etc., but accepts his decision. The paper adds that the immediate duty of the Liberals and Radicals is clear, Sir William Vernon Harcourt should succeed Lord Rosebery by unquestioned and unquestionable right of service. The article concludes with an expression of joy at the prospect of coherence, which opens for the first time since Mr. Gladstone's retirement.

The Conservative press contends that Lord Rosebery's resignation will increase the division in the ranks of the party. All of the papers pay tribute to the strength of his foreign policy.

The Times says it will not be necessary to appeal to the party to select a new leader. Sir William Vernon Harcourt is already in possession as undisputed chief in the House of Commons.

NICHOLAS NOT WELL.

Bad French Cooking Said to Have Upset the Czar.

London, Oct. 8.—The St. James Gazette publishes a dispatch from Paris saying that the performance at the opera Tuesday evening terminated abruptly in the middle of the ballet, owing to the illness of the Czar, which it is said, was occasioned by the bad cooking at the Elysee Palace.

cooking at the Elysee Palace. His Majesty complained of feeling ill after the banquet at the Elysee Palace, and was obliged to lie down for an hour before going to the opera. Those who occupied seats near the Czar and Czarina at the opera observed that both looked very much fatigued and worn out.

The Paris Eclair mentions the fact of the Czar's illness at the opera performance by saying that his Majesty was slightly indisposed, as a result of fatigue, the day having been one of great exaction and excitement to him.

UNCLE SAM MAY INSIST

That the Cruiser Bancroft Shall Pass the Dardanelles.

Constantinople, Oct. 8.—While the Porte has refused to admit the United States cruiser Bancroft through the Dardanelles, as well as the guardships of Greece and Holland, which countries also proposed to have a ship stationed in the Bosphorus, the United States Government is not known to have presented through its minister, Mr. Terrell, a formal demand for the passage of the Bancroft or any other United States warship through the straits.

The exact ground upon which the Turkish Government takes its stand in this case is not stated, but it is known in official circles there that Russia has objected to the presence in the Bosphorus of United States, Grecian or Dutch guardships.

It is believed that Mr. Terrell, about a month ago, sent an urgent request to Washington for a United States war vessel. It is further intimated that the United States Government will insist, by force, if necessary, upon the presence of the Bancroft in the Bosphorus, taking the ground that such a step would not be an unfriendly act to Turkey, in view of all the circumstances of the case, and that the protection of the lives and property of American citizens made it necessary.

IRISH COMMENTS

On the Resignation of Lord Rosebery—"Didn't Get a Chance."

Dublin, Oct. 8.—Among the Dillonites there is a general resentment at the fact that Lord Rosebery has resigned the leadership of the Liberal party without consulting them. The Independent says that he did so "without a thought for home rule," and adds: "If Sir William Harcourt succeeds him, the condition of Irish affairs will be worse than ever. Harcourt can never be trusted by Irishmen."

The Star, touching upon the resignation of Lord Rosebery, remarks: "Lord Rosebery's fall was dramatic and tragic. The hand which raised him up pulled him down. One result of Lord Rosebery's reign is that it may be predicted that the Liberals will never again be led by a peer."

Mr. T. P. O'Connor, in the Sun, says: "The truth is that Lord Rosebery never had a chance. He made many mistakes, and his language on the Irish question was especially open to grave disapproval. But all the same, he did not get a chance. The situation is grave. If Mr. Gladstone's return is impossible, if popular opinion will not form for Lord Rosebery to return, the choice must lie between Harcourt and Morley. My preference is for Morley, as he is more intimately associated with home rule."

VIVISECTED HIS WIFE.

Cold-Blooded Murder by a Physician in Chicago.

Chicago, Oct. 8.—Dr. Carl F. Nitz, a German physician, vivisected his wife and then killed himself yesterday afternoon. The murder of the woman was done in the most cold-blooded manner.

As shown by notes that were found after his death, Nitz sat by the woman's side watching her die slowly, and now and then, to note the effect of another wound, he would stab his knife into her again. He carefully noted all the symptoms of the woman's approaching death, wrote them down, and then shot himself.

"KWEEN KARNATION."

A Scene of Beauty—Kansas City's Annual Flower Parade.

Kansas City, Mo., Oct. 8.—Forty blocks of flower-covered vehicles, many of them occupied by handsome women, passed through the streets yesterday, constituting the annual flower parade. "Kween Karnation," surrounded by a court of beautiful young women, rode on a flower-bedecked barge, and following her came a long line of equippages of all descriptions, literally covered with flowers.

Twenty bands were distributed through the parade, and thousands of people lined the streets.
