FROM ALL OVER THE MARITIME PROVINCES

REXTON

Rexton, N. B., Sept. 18—Miss Hazel E. Winter, superior of Women's Institutes at Fredericton, and Miss Imogene Jonah, of Sussex, graduate in domestic science, conducted a meeting in the public hall here Wednesday evening.

George Lawson, of Main River, has returned home from the Moncton hospital, where he had one hand amputated and another operated upon on account of cancer from which he has been suffering for some time. Although Mr. Lawson is eighty-four years of age, he stood the operation well and is feeling much better.

Grear Jardine, who has been very ill at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Jardine, is quite recovered from an attack of appendicitis.

The death occurred at St. Charles last week, of Onesime Doucett, who for many years resided here. He was eighty-four years of age.

Mrs. A. B. Carson and little sons Kenneth and Stuart, returned home from St. John Saturday.

Mrs. Oswald Smith, who for some years resided here, but who now is a resident of Campbellton, is at present the guest of Mrs. John A. Cameron.

Bruce Clark returned home Saturday from Maine for a few days' visit.

Alexander McGregor and daughter, Miss Margaret, returned Saturday from a visit to St. John friends.

Miss Gertie Murray, of Campbellton, is visiting Miss Nellie Lanigan and Mrs. Dobson.

Miss Frances Lanigan, of Shives Athol, is visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Keady Lanigan.

Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Nordin arrived yesterday from Newcastle in their yacht.

ROTHESAY

Rothesay, Sept. 17—On Friday evening, in the Presbyterian church hall, Rev. J. A. MacKeigan, of St. John, told of his experiences in Europe after was had been proclaimed between England and Germany. The attendance was large and a silver collection taken in aid of the local Red Cross Society funds.

Rev. J. A. MacKeigan and Mrs. MacKeigan motored from the city and return, being dinner guests of Mrs. G. Herbert Flood.

Yesterday, Wednesday, Mr. and Mrs. F. Caverhill Jones and sons returned to their home in St. John, having spent the summer here at their cottage which is now to be occupied by Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Steele.

An enjoyable outing was given the Loving Helpers' Mission Band on Tuesday afternoon by the president, Mrs. J. B. McMurray, who invited the members to tea on the shore. A very happy time was enjoyed.

After a greatly enjoyed visit to Mrs. Philip Palmer at Dorchester, Miss Emma Turnbull has returned home to College Hill.

Hon. William Pugsley is home from Ottawa for a few days' stay.

Lady Tilley and Miss Clements, who have been guests at the Kennedy House, have returned to St. John.

For last week-end, Mrs. George K. McLeod, of St. John, was guest of Mrs. Walter E. Foster.

Miss Sharpe, of Montreal, is here visiting Mrs. Hibbard, College Hill.

Due to arrive at New York this week are Miss Katherin Bell and Miss Nan Brock, who have been traveling in Great Britain. Miss Bell will remain in Boston and Miss Brock is coming home.

All day guests of Mrs. Fred. A. Foster on Tuesday were Mrs. George F. Matthew, her two little granddaughters, Miss Elsie Estabrooks, of St. John, and little Miss Katherine Lambord, of New York.

Miss Hooper spent last week-end with Mrs. S. T. Hall, St. John.

Mrs. and Miss Barbour, of St. John, were on Monday guests of Mrs. Thomas Bell.

On Tuesday Mrs. John H. Thomson left for Amherst to attend the meeting of the Presbyterian Woman's Missionary Societies. She is to return home today.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter A. Harrison have given up the cottage occupied by them here during several summers and is guest of her mother, Mrs. John H. Thomson. Mrs. Harrison, on Friday, will leave on a visit to her brother, Mr. Royden Thomson, and wife, at Winnipeg and will be accompanied by their two children, Betty and Archie. Master Jack Thomson left last week to attend school in Toronto.

On Tuesday afternoon Miss Bayard and Mrs. Sherwood Skinner, of St. John, were among Rothesay friends.

The suburban home here of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Tilley has been taken by Dr. Peters and family, who will occupy it during the fall and winter months.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Allison, Miss Annie Puddington and Miss Domville came home on Monday from Long Island, where they spent a few days at Mr. Harry Puddington's camp. Another party, at the men's camp on the island, including Rev. W. R. Hibbard, Mr. Cooper, Mr. J. H. A. L. Fairweather and Mr. Frank West, are also home.

Cards announcing the marriage at Ottawa of Miss Edith Muriel Armstrong, daughter of Mr. E. J. Armstrong, to Mr. Robert William Hawker, on Sept. 4, have been received here, where the bride has many friends, having with her parents spent many summers at Fair Vale before removing to Ottawa. Mr. and Mrs. Hawker are at home, 40 Summer street, St. John.

On Saturday afternoon Mrs. E. S. Carter and Miss Carter were hostesses at a bridge and sewing party, about forty guests being present. Delicious refreshments were served. Miss Carter has just returned from a trip abroad.

Miss Grace Ayer and Miss Jessie Fraser, who are summering at Gondola Point, were guests of Miss Beard, College Hill, part of Friday and Saturday.

A party of friends were delightfully entertained with a sail up the Kennebecasis river and lunch on board the yacht Dahinda on Thursday. Mr. Malcolm Mackay, jr., being the host. The party motored from St. John and returned with Mr. John A. Pugsley. Those enjoying the trip included Mrs. W. Malcolm Mackay, Miss Mary MacLaren, Miss Kathleen Sturdee, Miss Whittaker, Miss Daphne Crosby, Miss Simpson (Halifax), Mr. J. A. Pugsley, Mr. Chas. Whitman (Halifax), Mr. Malcolm Mackay, Mr. Rae Mackay, Mr. Darrel Peters, Mr. Carrol Cudlip.

Mr. and Mrs. Blanchet and children came home on Monday from Duck Cove, where they spent about two weeks.

Among those at the Kennedy House on Tuesday were Mrs. Simeon Jones and son Ronald, who is a student at Rothesay College this term; also Miss Burchill, of Nelson, who came with her sister and brother on their return to Netherwood and the college.

Miss Bessie Friel, of St. Mary's, has been here visiting her cousins, the Misses Coffey, and the Misses Ballentine.

Mrs. Thomas Walker and Mrs. Lord were guests of Mrs. James F. Robertson at Karsalie on Monday.

For the week-end Miss Hattie McMurray, of St. John, was guest of Mrs. J. H. Henderson.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Foster and family closed their cottage here on Tuesday and returned to their St. John residence.

A few days were very pleasantly spent by Miss Hooper with Mrs. James Manchester, Fairville, last week.

Miss Hudson sailed on Tuesday for England, to reside there.

Mrs. W. F. Harrison spent Wednesday here with Mrs. Walter A. Harrison.

Mrs. S. T. Hall, of St. John, was guest of Miss Dorothy Purdy on Tuesday.

After spending a few days at Rothesay, guests of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Thomson, Mr. and Mrs. Moorman, of Halifax, left for home on Friday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Clark, of Arlington (Mass.), have been visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Robertson.

Miss Helen Roberts left for Sackville on Wednesday to be gone a month.

Among the new pupils at Netherwood is Miss Dorothy Trueman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Trueman, of Winnipeg, formerly of St. John.

Miss Pauline Jenkins, of St. John, is guest of her friend, Miss Royce Carter, Fair Vale.

SACKVILLE

Sackville, Sept. 17—Mrs. M. E. Nichols and family, who have been spending the summer in town, guests at Government House, left this week for their home in Montreal.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Fawcett, Mrs. Thorne and Mr. Stewart Fawcett are enjoying a motor trip to Campbellton and ponts along the Noth Shore.

Mrs. C. W. Cahil and Miss Carrie Cahill left on Tuesday for Moncton to attend the wedding of Miss Addie Weldon which took place yesterday.

Miss Hattie Stewart leaves tomorrow on a trip to Toronto.

Miss Jen Richardson returned last evening from a pleasant trip spent in Toronto, Niagara Falls and Hamilton.

Miss Roberts, of St. John, is visiting in town, guest of Mrs. Charles Stewart.

Mrs. John Robinson, of Vancouver, is visiting friends in Charlottetown (P. E. I.)

Miss Lucy Sterns, who has been spending several weeks in town, guest of Miss Maude Robson, left on Tuesday for her home in Winchester (Mass.)

Mrs. McIntyre, of Sussex, is visiting in town, guest of Mrs. H. H. Woodworth.

Miss Edith Keith, if Boston, is visiting in town, guest of Mrs. Charles Pickard.

Miss Emma Duncan returned last evening from a delightful trip spent in Toronto and Niagara Falls.

Mrs. Gronlund and daughter, of St. John, arrived in town a few days ago to take up their abode in Sackville for the coming year. They will occupy Mrs. B. A. Trites' home on York street.

Mrs. John W. Livingston, of Shediac, was the guest of her sister, Mrs. H. W. Snow, last week.

Miss Kathleen Fawcett was the hostess at a very pleasant at home on Wednesday afternoon. She was assisted in serving by Mrs. W. M. Scun and Miss Cladie Smith. After luncheon was served a variety shower was tendered Miss Margaret Harper, who is to be one of the principals in an interesting event at an early date. Among those present were Mrs. Milton Hicks, Mrs. William Campbell, Mrs. Price, Mrs. George R. Campbell, Mrs. William Morice, Mrs. J. W. S. Black, Mrs. C. F. Ayer, Mrs. F. Morton, Mrs. Merrit Babcock, Misses Alice and Mary Campbell, Misses Maggie and Kate Morice, Miss Laura Silliker, Miss Lida Estabrooks, Miss Margaret Harper, Miss Viva Snowdon, Miss Muriel Harper, Miss Helen Smith, Miss Alice Smith, Miss Norma Crane, Miss Marjorie Ayer, Miss Alice Ayer, Miss Laura Beal, Mrs. F. Fawcett, Mrs. William Scun and Miss Cladie Smith.

Miss Marjori Sumner and Miss Margaret Price, of Moncton, spent a couple of days in town last week, guests of Mrs. Herbert M. Wood.

Miss Daisy Estabrooks left last week for Montreal.

Mrs. E. R. Hart left last week for Ottawa, where she will visit friends.

Colonel and Mrs. Bedford Harper announce the engagement of their daughter, Margaret Antoinette to Mr. Douglas J. Mair, of Vancouver (B. C.) The marriage will take place on Sept. 22.

Miss Simpson, York street, is spending a few weeks in Prince Edward Island.

Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Walker and two children, who have been spending these last few years in the west passed through Sackville Saturday to their old home in Truro. Mrs. Walker was formerly Miss Snowdon, of Sackville.

Mrs. C. Fred Ayer was hostess at a delightful verrandah tea on Tuesday. Among those present were Mrs. G. R. Campbell, Mrs. Norman Beveridge (Dryden, Ont.), Miss Lida Estabrooks (Ottawa), Misses Katherine Fawcett, Muriel Harper, Marjorie Ayer, Alice Ayer, and Jean Morton (Bridgewater, Me.)

DORCHESTER

Dorchester, Sept. 16—Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Tait returned on Saturday from a week's visit in St. John, where they attended the exhibition.

Miss McMann, who has been spending her vacation at her home in Charlottetown, returned to resume her duties on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Teed, who spent the past week the guests of Mrs. M. G. Teed, have returned to their home in St. John.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Harmon Curtis, who has been guests of Mrs. Curtis' sister, Mrs. James Friel, left on Monday for their home in Newton Centre (Mass.)

Miss Sterns, of Boston, who spent a few weeks the guest of her aunt, Mrs. John Palmer, and cousin, Miss Mina Palmer, has returned to her home.

Mrs. W. D. Douglas, who spent a few days in town the guest of Mrs. J. H. Hickman, has returned to her home in Amherst.

Mrs. Frank C. Dickie and little daughter are spending some time in Truro (N. S.), guests of Mr. and Mrs. M. Dickie.

Mr. and Mrs. Williams, who spent several days the guests of Mrs. C. L. Hanington, returned last week to their home in Moncton.

Mrs. Arthur Houghton, of Boston, who has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Houghton, left on Tuesday for Moncton to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Baird.

The Misses Carter, who have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Hickman, left last week for their home in Montreal.

Mrs. C. S. Hickman entertained a few of her friends very pleasantly at auction bridge on Thursday afternoon last. Amon gthose present were Mrs. A. V. Smith, Mrs. James Friel, Mrs. R. W. Hewson, Mrs. G. B. Ryan (Paris), Mrs. Somers (Moncton), Mrs. J. H. Hickman, Mrs. A. B. Pipes, Mrs. Teed, Mrs. Payzant.

Mrs. Somers, of Moncton, is the guest of Mrs. D. L. Hanington this week.

Miss Grace Bowes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Bowes, left on Thursday for Richmond (Va.), where she has been appointed instructor in mathematics and science in Hartstor Memorial School.

Mrs. A. E. Oulton received word last week from her son, Mr. T. Edwin Oulton, saying that he had enlisted with the British Columbia contingent and was at Valcartier camp. Mr. Oulton has been in British Columbia for the past ten years, where he has been engaged in the lumber business.

The W. A. of Trinity church met on Tuesday at the home of Miss Gilbert and Mrs. Outhouse.

Miss Lyda Pipes, who has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Pipes, has returned to her home in Amherst.

Mrs. A. E. Oulton received word on Saturday of the death of her brother-in-law, the late Mr. Charles H. Oulton, of Philadelphia.

Mrs. A. D. Richard left on Friday last for Quebec, accompanied by her sons, Adrian and Fred, who will resume their studies there.

Miss Mabel Tingley is visiting her cousin, Mrs. Bliss Anderson, in Sackville.

Miss Jennie Palmer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Palmer, left on Monday for Middleton (N. S.), where she will be the guest of Rev. and Mrs. S. S. Poole for a few weeks, then leaves for Boston, where she will train for a nurse.

Mrs. A. P. Pipes entertained a few friends very pleasantly on Monday afternoon at auction. Those were Mrs. G. B. Ryan (Paris), Mrs. A. V. Smith, Mrs. Teed, Mrs. James Friel, Mrs. Hewson, Mrs. M. G. Teed, Mrs. Somers (Moncton.)

Mr. W. A. K. McQueen and party motored to Sackville and Amherst this afternoon and spent the day with friends.

SHEDIAC

Shediac, N. B., Sept. 17—Miss Evangeline Melanson has returned home from spending a few weeks with friends in Richibucto.

Miss Isla Fawcett, Moncton, who has been spending the summer in town with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Avard, recently left for Mt. Allison Ladies' College.

Miss Eleanor Tait has returned to Mt. Allison after enjoying the holidays at her home in Shediac.

Miss M. Beal, of Shediac Cape, is visiting relatives in Boston.

Master Russell Smith, who has been at his home in town for the past summer holidays has returned to his studies at Rothesay.

Mrs. J. G. Vanwart, of Calgary, arrived in Shediac recently to visit her sister, Mrs. G. A. White.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Webster were among those spending some days this week at Valcartier. Mrs. Webster returned home on Wednesday.

Judge Russell and Mrs. Russell, accompanied by Miss Margaret Evans, are visiting friends in Newcastle.

Miss Edna Cormier has returned home from an enjoyable trip to Rimouski, where she was the guest of her sister, Mrs. Charles Garon.

Mr. and Mrs. G. McWilliams and family returned this week to Moncton after spending the summer at their cottage at the beach.

Miss Nina Dickie, of New York, is the guest of Miss Ella MacEncrowe.

Miss Eula Welling, graduate nurse, who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Welling, at the Cape, returned recently to Boston.

Messrs. A. H. Hanington and C. S. Hanington, of St. John, were in town this week attending the funeral of the late Mr. Archibald Murray, who died on Saturday morning last, at his home, Shediac Cape, in the ninety-ninth year of his age. Deceased, who had been in failing health for some time past was one of the Cape's oldest inhabitants, and most highly esteemed b yall. Interment took place in St. Martins in the Wood cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. James Lamb and family have returned to Sussex after spending the season at their cottage in town.

Miss Frances Burt, graduate nurse, Newton (Mass.), who is visiting her parents, Rev. A. F. and Mrs. Burt, has returned to the Cape from a few days pleasantly spent in Moncton the guest of her friend, Miss MacGowan. Miss Burt was accompanied to Moncton by her guest, Miss Cunningham, of Boston, who is also spending a few weeks at The Rectory.

Mrs. G. Blair and the Misses Weldon were in Moncton on Wednesday, guests at the Weldon-Crichton wedding.

The community was extremely sorry on Saturday morning last to learn of the death of Mrs. Charles Cooke, of this town, after a lingering illness of some months. Deceased, who was in her fifty-second year, was highly esteemed throughout Shediac. She leaves, besides her husband, a family of nine—five daughters and four sons. Interment took place on Monday afternoon in Greenwood cemetery. The funeral service at the house was conducted by Rev. Mr. Hopkins, pastor of the Baptist church, assisted by Rev. Mr. Livingston, of Knox Presbyterian church and Mr. Rider, student pastor to the Baptist church.

Mr. Allan Tait is returning to Sackville this week to continue his studies at Mt. Allison Academy.

A wedding of interest to Shediac people occurred in Memramcook on Monday of this week, when Mr. N. Leger of this town was united in marriage to Miss J. M. Landry, daughter of Mr. J. Landry, of Memramcook. Mr. Paul Robidoux, of Shediac, supported the groom. Upon their return from a honeymoon trip to Quebec and Montreal, Mr. and Mrs. Leger will reside in Shediac.

Dr. Antoine Cormier, son of Mrs. Cormier, of this town, was recently married in Moncton to Miss Alvina Melanson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. Melanson, of that city. The happy couple left on a bridal trip to Bosto nand New York and upon their return will reside in Moncton.

Mrs. H. W. Murray entertained a few friends at bridge on Wednesday evening of this week.

MONCTON

Moncton, Sept. 17—The golf tea at the Moncton links on Saturday afternoon, was in charge of Mrs. C. A. Hayes, Mrs. F. J. White, Mrs. C. W. Robinson and Mrs. Ira Davis. A large number were on the links and enjoyed the hospitality of these ladies.

Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Trites, of Campbellton, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Somers.

Mrs. L. H. Somers is spending a week in Dorchester, the guest of Mrs. D. L. Hanington.

Mrs. G. O. Stratton and Miss Kate Storm were joint hostesses on Friday evening at the former's home at a variety shower in honor of Miss Sadie Bass. The rooms were nicely decorated for the occasion. The gifts were arranged in a small wheelbarrow trimmed with flowers, which was wheeled in and presented to Miss Bass by Master Maurice Stratton. The evening was spent very pleasantly and at its close refreshments were served. Miss Bass has gone to the West, where she will shortly be one of the principals in an interesting event.

Mrs. S. H. Steeves and little son have returned from Vancouver, where they have been spending the summer with relatives.

Miss Annie Steeves has gone to Cincinnati, Ohio, to attend the university.

Mrs. R. Sherman and Miss Maud Steeves, of New York, are the guests of Mrs. J. M. O. Steeves.

Mr. R. Clark, for many years manager of the Bank of Montreal in this city, has retired and left on Friday for Scotland, where he will reside.

Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Stenhouse are spending the week with friends in Halifax.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Bass announce the engagement of their daughter, Sara Cleone to Mr. John Eddy, of Lethbridge, Alberta.

Hon. C. H. LaBillois, of Dalhousie, is the guest of his daughter, Mrs. William Lennox.

Mrs. Andrew Brooks and daughter, who have been the guests of Mrs. Peter Bannerman, have returned to their home at Newcastle.

Miss Jean Gamblin, of Sussex, is spending a few days with Mrs. William D. Elliott.

The Misses Annie Whalen and Margaret McGraw, of Newcastle, are the guests of friends in the city.

Mrs. E. W. Miller has returned from Toronto, where she has been spending several weeks with friends.

Mr. J. S. Magee and family have returned from Point du Chene, where they have been spending the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. George A. Wilson have returned from a trip to Grand Falls.

Rev. Canon Sisam has returned from Summerside, where he was the guest of Mr. A. C. Saunders for a few days.

Mrs. J. A. MacNaughton and children are spending a week at Albert with Mrs. MacNaughton's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Atkinson.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Watts, who have been the guests of Mr. F. H. Jones, have returned to St. John.

Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Jones have returned from Shediac Cape, where they have been spending the summer.

Miss Bessie McBeath has returned from St. John, where she was attending the exhibition.

Miss Ella Crue has arrived from Worcester (Mass.), and will spend a few weeks at her former home.

Mrs. Killam and daughter, Miss Florence, are spending a few days in Petitcodiac, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. D. Allison Jonah.

Miss Freda Davidson, who has been visiting relatives in the city, has returned to her home in Campbellton.

Mrs. A. E. Williams held an at home on Friday afternoon in honor of her sister-in-law, Mrs. R. C. Dunbar, of Orillia (Ont.)

The Misses Ethel and Hazel Murray, of Campbellton, are the guests of friends in the city.

Rev. George E. Whitehouse and Mrs. Whitehouse, of Washington, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Gross.

Miss Lena McLean, of Campbellton, is the guest of friends in the city.

Mrs. C. T. Purdy held an at home Friday afternoon for the members of St. John's Presbyterian church congregation in honor of Mrs. T. P. Drumm, wife of the new minister of St. John's church. Mrs. Purdy was assisted by the officers of the Woman's Missionary Society. A large number were in attendance.

Mr. H. G. Gorbell has returned from Toronto, accompanied by Mrs. Gorbell and little daughter, who have been spending the summer with relatives in the west.

Mrs. George C. Peters entertained a few friends Friday afternoon in honor of Mrs. W. A. Cowperthwaite, of Winnipeg, who has been the guest of Mrs. G. W. Maddison for a few days.

Mrs. Patrick Gallagher went to St. John Saturday to spend the week-end with relatives. Mrs. Gallagher was accompanied by her son, Mr. Justin Gallagher, who is returning to Boston to take his senior year at Trifts Dental College. Dr. F. C. Thomson, who has been spending the summer at his home in the city, has also returned to resume his studies at the same college.

Mrs. Robert Sample has returned from Sackville, where she has been spending the past two weeks with her sister, Mrs. Samuel Taylor.

Mrs. M. Davidson and Miss Davidson, of Charlottetown (P. E. I.), are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Bell.

Mrs. George McSweeney and daughter, Miss Dorothy, entertained about thirty of their friends at a dance Friday evening in honor of their guests, Mr. and Mrs. Lefurgey and Miss Brennan, of Summerside (P. E. I.)

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Dunbar, of Orillia (Ont.), are the guests of Mr. Dunbar's sister, Mrs. A. E. Williams.

Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Calkin, who have been spending a month with relatives, have returned to their home at Somerville (Mass.)

Mrs. F. R. Cole and Mrs. A. Phelan are the guests of relatives in Amherst.

The Misses Emma Sangster and Marjorie McCarthy have returned to Sackville to resume their studies at the Ladies' College.

Miss Lillian Gross has returned from Hillsboro, where she spent a month with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Forsythe and little daughter, who have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Peters, have returned to their home in Boston.

Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Fryers have returned from a trip to the Canadian west.

Miss Clara Adams, of Campbellton, is spending a few weeks with Rev. T. P. and Mrs. Drumm.

Messrs. W. J. Edington and Russell McLean have returned to Fredericton to resume their studies at the U. N. B.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Lefurgey and Miss Dorothy Brennan, who have been the guests of Mrs. George McSweeney, have returned to Summerside.

Miss Marion Black, who is taking a course in nursing at Boston, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Pearson.

The Misses Mabel and Annie Card, who have been spending a week with friends in the city, have returned to their home in Dorchester.

Mrs. Roy Harrington has gone to Amherst to visit at the home of Mrs. David McPherson.

Mrs. L. H. Higgins and Mrs. P. A. MacGowan have returned from a trip to Quebec.

Miss Florence Currie, of Campbellton, is in the city for a few days, the guest of Miss Gertrude McLellan.

Mrs. Alex. McPherson has gone to Fredericton to spend some time with relatives.

Miss Laura Newman, who has been the guest of her mother, Mrs. R. L. Botsford, during the summer, has returned to Toronto.

Mrs. J. S. Flaglor, of St. John, is spending a few days with her sister, Mrs. O. J. McCully.

A wedding of much local interest took place at 6 o'clock Monday morning in St. Bernard's church, when Miss Alvina Melanson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Simon Melanson, became the bride of Dr. A. J. Cormier, of this city, but formerly of Shediac. Rev. Father Cormier performed the ceremony in the presence of the immediate relatives of the contracting parties. The bride was given away by her father and was unattended. Mr. A. J. Leger supported the groom. After the wedding ceremony the bridal party repaired to the home of the bride's parents, where a breakfast was served. Dr. and Mrs. Cormier left for New York on their wedding trip and will return by way of Toronto and Montreal.

St. Bernard's church was the scene of a very pretty wedding at 9 o'clock Tuesday morning, when Miss Madge Belyea, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Belyea, was united in marriage to Mr. William Mackin, of St. John. Rev. Father Savage performed the ceremony, in the presence of a large number of guests. The bride was given away by her brother, Mr. Holly Belyea, and was gowned in white satin and crepe de chine with Juliet cap and veil, and carried a white prayer book and shower bouquet. Miss Marie Belyea attended her sister, and wore a gown of pale blue chiffon over crepe de chine and black picture hat, and carried a bouquet of pink roses. Mr. William Flaherty, of St. John, supported the groom. At the conclusion of the ceremony the bridal party repaired to the home of the bride, where a wedding breakfast was served. Mr. and Mrs. Mackin left for Boston on their wedding trip and on their return will reside in St. John. The bride's going away gown was of grey cloth with hat of black velvet. The bride received many useful and valuable gifts, and is followed to her new home by the best wishes of many friends.

One of the prettiest wedding of the season was solemnized at high noon Wednesday when Miss Mary Adelaide Weldon, daughter of Mrs. Weldon and the late W. J. Weldon, was united in marriage to Mr. Alex. Crichton. The ceremony took place at the home of the bride and was performed by Rev. Canon Sisam, rector of St. George's church. The rooms were artistically decorated with sweet peas, roses, golden glow and palms. The ceremony took place in an alcove which was banked with ferns and white asters. The dining room decorations were very attractive, the bride's table being profusely adorned with roses and maiden hair fern. The bride's gown was of ivory charmeuse satin with corsage of Venetian lace, which with a Juliet cap with orange blossoms completed a very handsome costume. The bride carried a white prayer book and more a handsome pearl necklace which was the gift of the groom. Miss Daisy Weldon was bridesmaid and was gowned in apricot satin with overdress of pale blue ninon and hat of sapphire blue velvet with pink rose buds and she carried a bouquet of yellow marguerites. Little Miss Nora Whelpley was flower girl and wore a pretty white gown with sash of pink. She also carried a basket of pink and white sweet peas. Mr. Douglas B. Weldon, brother of the bride, supported the groom. The bride was given away by her mother, who wore a beautiful gown of black brocaded satin with touches of heliotrope. Mr. Woodhouse, organist of St. George's church, presided at the piano and rendered Mendelssohn's Wedding March and the bridal chorus from Lohengrin. The groom presented the bridesmaid with a gold bracelet and the flower girl with a ring, and to the groomsman a signet ring. Luncheon was served at the conclusion of the ceremony, after which Mr. and Mrs. Crichton left on a wedding trip to New York. The bride's going away gown was of fawn cloth with blouse of Nell rose chiffon and rose hat. Both bride and groom have many friends in the city who unite in congratulations. Many valuable and handsome gifts were received. On their return from their wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Crichton will reside in Moncton. Amon gthe out of town guests were Mrs. W. G. Smith, Miss Weldon and Mr. Grant Smith, of St. John; Mrs. G. M. Blair, Miss Elizabeth Blair, Miss Mary Weldon and Miss Elsie Weldon, of Shediac; Mrs. C. W. Cahill, Miss Cahill and Mr. Hart, of Sackville.

NEWCASTLE

Newcastle, Sept. 16—Miss Marion Bate left last week for Windsor, where she will resume her studies at Edgehill.

Miss Yvonne Buckley, who has been spending the holidays at her home here, returned to Mount St. Vincent, Halifax, last week.

On Thursday and Friday evenings of the past week, Mrs. A. E. Shaw entertained a number of her friends at two most enjoyable sewing parties. The rooms were very prettily decorated with flags and quantities of golden glow and during the evening both instrumental and vocal music added to the evening's entertainment, and just before midnight dainty refreshments were served after which the merry party all joined in the singing of Rule Britiania and the National Anthem. Among those present on Thursday night were Mrs. Osborne Nicholson, Mrs. Fitzmaurice, Mrs. Robert Nicholson, Mrs. John Robinson, Mrs. John W. Miller, Mrs. S. J. McArthur, Mrs. Donald Morrison, Mrs. Cobwin (Boston), Mrs. J. H. Phinney, Mrs. G. Stothart, Mrs. R. H. Gremley, Mrs. Ernest Clark (Boston), Mrs. M. H. McMillan, Mrs. C. C. Hayward, Mrs. H. B. Robertson (St. John), Mrs. Charles Call, Mrs. John McKeen, Miss Hardy (Ottawa), Miss Ella Parker, and on Friday evening those present were Mrs. Richardson, Mrs. G. G. Stothart, Mrs. Henry Ball (Quebec), Mrs Robert Armstrong, Mrs. James Davidson, Mrs. P. Russell, Mrs. Charles Stothart, Mrs. Charles Morrissy, Mrs. E. A. McCurdy, Mrs. Garfield Troy, Miss Stables, Miss Bessie Crocker, Miss Jennie Greneley, Miss Harley, Miss Hennessy, Miss Minnie Ingram, Miss Smithson (Ottawa), Miss Jean Clark (St. John), Miss Payne, Miss Robinson and others.

Miss Parker is the guest of Mrs. F. E. Neale at Oak Point.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen J. Wheeler, of Fredericton, are guests of the former's sisters, Mrs. Dennis Doyle and the Misses Wheeler.

Mrs. Robert Nichoison and two daughters, Misses Dorothy and Nan, left yesterday morning for Halifax, where the latter will attend college.

Dr. Acorn, who has been the guest of Mrs. James Robinson for some weeks past, returned last Friday to her home in Boston.

Miss Bessie Parker, of Millerton, spent several days of the past week in town, the guest of the Misses Stables.

Mrs. Ernest Clark is visiting Campbellton friends this week.

Miss Maud Smallwood, of Harcourt, is the guest of the Misses Smallwood.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Jardine are receiving congratulations on the arrival of a baby son at their home last Friday.

The Sir Max Aitken scholarship prize of $250 for 1914, donated to Harkin's Academy here, has been awarded to Cecil McWilliam. He leaves this week for U. N. B.

Newcastle, Sept. 18—Judge and Mrs. Russell, and Miss Evans, of Shediac, and Mr. and Mrs. Ferdinand Robidoux, M. P., of Richibucto, are visiting in town.

Miss Russell and Mrs. Robert Armstrong are visiting their brother, Samuel Russell, ex-M. P. P., Belleville (Ont.)

Miss Merle Bell returned on Wednesday from Toronto.

Mrs. Wm. Russell is visiting in Toronto.

Mrs. Otty Bailey, of Moncton, visited her niece, Mrs. J. F. R. McMichael, this week.

BORDER TOWNS

St. Stephen, Sept. 16—On Thursday evening Mrs. W. A. Murchie gave a delightful dance at her home in Calais for the pleasure of her daughter, Miss Margaret Murchie, who left last Monday evening to resume her studies at Wellesley College.

Miss Elsie Lawson was hostess at a "tin shower" given at her home last Friday evening in honor of Miss Jean Steadman Haley, whose marriage to Dr. Malcolm Robertson Elliott, of Wolfville (N. S.), takes place on Wednesday, Sept. 23.

On Friday evening the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick McWha, of Winnipeg, was baptized at the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert A. Lauin, by Rev. E. B. Wyllie, of the Presbyterian church, and given the name of John Albert. Mr. and Mrs. McWha have been visiting here during the summer months, and will leave on Friday evening for their home in the West.

Mrs. J. Douglas Campbell, of Weymouth (N. S.), with her children is expected to arrive here on Tuesday to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Black.

Prof. Upton Hill, of Yale College, accompanied by his mother, Mrs. Alice Hill, are here, guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Hill at the Valley Road Farm.

Mrs. Frederick McWha most pleasantly entertained the members of the Wa-Wa Club on Friday evening last.

Mrs. George J. Clarke, who has spent the past three months in Vancouver is expected to arrive home this week, accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Stuart Lane, and her young son.

Misses Grace and Alice Maxwell entertained a party of St. Andrews friends at dinner at their home, Old Ridge, on Friday last. In the afternoon the party motored back to the shiretown.

Miss Glenna Dinsmore has gone to Sackville to resume her musical studies at Mount Allison.

Mrs. G. Durell Grimmer was in town during the week to visit her invalid mother, Mrs. John F. Grimmer.

Mrs. D. Morris is spending a month in Boston with relatives.

Mrs. E. C. Bates, of Houlton (Me.), is here to spend two weeks with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Deinstadt, and her sister, Mrs. Cecil Killman, of Vancouver (B. C.) The latter leaves for her home the last of the month, after spending the summer here.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas R. Kent and Miss Ethel MacNichol, of St. George, are visiting friends in town.

The marriage of Miss Myra Downes Lord to Mr. Frederick Twist, of Boston, takes place on Monday at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Lincoln Lord, in Calais.

Mrs. Thirlmore Lyford, who has spent the summer here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Duston, left last week for her home in Boston.

Mrs. Perkins, of Ottawa, who has been visiting Mrs. Gilbert W. Ganong, is the guest this week of her niece, Mrs. Albert Hyslip.

Mrs. Jacob DeWitt and young son, of Montreal, is visiting her father, Mr. Henry E. Hill.

Mrs. Frederick Keyes, of Vancouver, has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Edward Keyes.

Miss Phyllis Waterson left on Monday evening for Boston to resume her musical studies at the Conservatory of Music, in that city.

Miss Georgie Young left this week to enter upon her studies at Smith College, Northampton (Mass.)

Mrs. Tomalin, wife of Rev. Mr. Tomalin, rector of Trinity church, is seriously ill from an electric shock while turning on the electric light in her home one evening last week.

Mrs. Isaac Stevens, of Ottawa, has been spending a few days here with her friend, Miss Ada Maxwell.

CAMPBELLTON

Campbellton, Sept. 17—Mrs. Gordon Firth, of Moffats, is in town this week, the guest of Mrs. Peter Gerrard.

Mrs. Thomas Brown, of Toronto, is visiting her sister, Mrs. S. C. Firth.

Miss Eliza Stewart spent part of this week here, the guest of the Misses Lingley.

Mrs. W. W. Doherty left this morning for St. John, where she will visit friends.

Miss Hazel Murray has returned from a trip to St. John and Moncton.

Mr. and Mrs. James W. Patterson left this week to visit friends in Petitcodiac and Moncton.

Miss Lena Graham, of Toronto, is visiting her father, Mr. D. F. Graham.

Miss Ninetta Alexander left Tuesday morning for Halifax, where she will attend Ladies' College.

Miss Isabel Fraser left this morning to visit friends in Sackville.

Miss Hazel Mowat left this week for Sackville to attend Mt. Allison.

Miss Estella McKenzie has returned from a visit with friends in St. John.

Miss Connie Murray left this week for Halifax to attend Ladies' College.

Mr. Gordon Johnson, of St. John, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Wran.

Mrs. H. Pallen, of Sydney, is in town, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. G. McKenzie.

Mrs. R. K. Shives has returned from Prince Edward Island, where she was visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wright.

Miss Frances Fraser left Wednesday morning to spend a couple of weeks in Moncton.

Rev. L. L. McGowan and family, who have been visiting relatives in town, left Wednesday evening en route to Korea, where they are stationed.

Miss E. Henderson has returned from St. John, where she was attending the millinery openings.

Mrs. D. C. Firth left this week for Sackville to attend the wedding of her niece, Miss Margaret Harper, to Mr. Douglas Mair, of Vancouver, which will take place on Tuesday of next week.

A very enjoyable dance was held by the young people in the Masonic Temple on Friday evening. The affair was most enjoyable and well arranged. Chaperoning the young people were Mrs. George F. Miles and Mrs. Allan H. Troy. An orchestra rendered a programme of eighteen dances, with two supper extras. Among those present were Miss Florine Currie, Miss Hazel Lingley, Miss Gladys Keane, Mi