Ther. 46°, Bar. 29.65. The ice at the Platon gave way last night, and was the last obstruction in the navigation between this and Montreal. It is probable that by to-morrow afternoon the channel will be sufficiently clear to admit of a steamer passing. A great many of the goods by the Great Britain were landed last Saturday.

PETERSBURGH, April 22.—Advices from Vera Cruz to the 5th states, that rumors were received that the Cholera was prevailing to a considerable extent in the city of Mexico, and that the natives were generally carried off soon after being attacked. Congress was still in Session. Marciaconde, President of the Commission for defining the boundaries between the United States and Mexico, had returned to the city of Mexico, and will finish his labors in November next. El Monrebem nominates Don Maramna Agista as a candidate for the Presidency. Assassinations at the Capital were of frequent occurrence. Among those killed were Senor Ferandez and Don Kanedo, Deputy to Congress, who was stabbed in thirty places while lying in bed.

ST. LOUIS, April 22.—The Jury in the case of Montesque were unable to agree to a verdict, and were discharged on Saturday.—From the New Orleans Bulletin—Further details of Mexican news.—On Good Friday, there was a destructive fire in one of the quarters of the city. The wind blew a hurricane all day. Charges had been preferred before one of the Legislatures of Coahuila, against the Governor of that State, for tyranny, illegal exactions, and usurpation of power.

NEW YORK, April 22—2½, P. M.

It is raining and stormy.

The New Orleans Picayune states that the steamers Fashion and W. Noble recently came in collision at Milliken's Bend, by which they were injured so much, that there is but little hope that either will be saved. No lives were lost.

WASHINGTON, April 22.—John C. Calhoun's remains left this morning at 9 o'clock for Columbia, (S. C.,) where they will be interred. The cortege was composed of the Committe appointed by the Senate, and sixty-five Carolinians. They will reach Richmond to-night, and remain there till morning.

NEW YORK, April 23—2½, P. M.

The correspondent of the Courier and Enquirer, writing from Washington, states that the Nicaragua Treaty with England has been concluded and officially signed. He speaks of it as being highly favorable to the United States. He says it liberates every part of Central America from British dominion, and re-establishes the Monroe doctrine. It secures the construction of the Ship Canal. It admits all other Nations to the use of the Canal. It secures the protection of Great Britain over all other routes to the Pacific. It was sent to the Senate yesterday, read, and referred to Congress.

The SENATE was engaged throughout yesterday discussing a Resolution, offered by Mr. Benton, instructing the Committee of "Thirteen" to whom Mr. Clay's and M
