POETRY.

A CHILD'S VISION.

O cradle me on thy knee Mamma
And sing me the holy strain
That soothed me to rest as so fondly you pres'd
My tear moistened cheek to your soft beating breast
For I dreamed of events as I slumbered there last
That I fain would dream over again.

Twas the day sister Jane was entombed Mamma
And while bathed by the tears you did weep
O come Mamma thy look with glistening eye
Again gaze in my face till the moistened cheek
And sooth me again with the same low sigh
Till you lull me as then fast asleep.

For I dreamed such a heavenly dream Mamma
That day as I lay on your knee
I had passed to a clime where were beings divine
Who in regions of glory eternally shine
And the world I would give if the world were mine
Again all their glories to see.

I dreamed that we roamed in a wood Mamma
And when tired we sat under a tree
A Butterfly at my side I saw fluttering in pride
Which I followed and chased through the whole forest wide
Till the night it came on and I wanted a guide
And I knew not then what I should do.

My heart had sickened with terror Mamma
I lonely sat weeping for thee
But a sweet maid was there who appeared in the air
And flung back the curls of her soft auburn hair
And said "come dearest Fanny with me."

Her smile vanished every alarm Mamma
And softly she bore me away
We entered the gloom of a wide lofty tomb
Passed darkly and sadly through many a room
Till the light flashed at last from a region of bloom
With a sky of perpetual day.

Sweet heavenly forms were there Mamma
Enthroned in the regions of light
My soul was amazed as around me I gazed
And I panted to join in the songs which they raised
To the glory of God and the lamb whom they praise
In that land of eternal delights.

But O what a beauteous throng Mamma
Of heavenly babes came to me
With accents as mild as they welcomed and smiled
And wondered to meet with an earth born child
They rejoiced that from sorrow and pain now exiled
I with them ever happy should be.

Then I met with the heavenly host Mamma
With the seraphs and cherubims fair
In my glorious dress with the heavenly press
I saw saints and Martyrs escaped from distress
All untinctured by sorrow or care.

Remember when my sister Jane Mamma
In her coffin lay ghostly and fair
When you gazed on the wreck with a heart like to break
And a torrent of love which Papa could not check
Till clasped to your breast and your face in my neck
You had bathed me in many a tear.

But now she is happy in Heaven Mamma
In that country a stranger to care
And your tears you had dried nor so bitterly cried
Though they laid lovely Jane in the grave when she died
Had you witnessed the glory which I have espied
For my sweet lovely sister was there.

And there was a feeble old man Mamma
That one night came so late to our door
When the tempest was loud like to perish he stood
Inhumanly thrust from the door of the proud
He died and his mantle was used for a shroud
Ere the watch of the midnight was o'er.

Recollect what burden of woe Mamma
And heavy each long drawn sigh
How wild was his stare on Papa's easy chair
While the rain it dropped down from his locks of grey hair
As fast as the tear of unspeakable care
Escaped from his dim glazing eye.

Remember the heavenward look Mamma
Which flushes through the trembling tear
As faltering he told I was driven to the cold
When for shelter I prayed at the barren stronghold
They turned me adrift to the storm and the cold
Till a shelter you granted me here.

Well he was in happiness too Mamma
And remembered and welcome me too
He was clothed in white O so lovely and bright
He seemed as if silvered all over with light
And he helped me to mount through the regions of light
And so kindly he asked me for you.

EDITORIAL LIFE.—But few ever think of the labor devolving upon an editor—one who is faithful to his high calling. It is not what is printed, that makes a paper valuable. Capt. Maryatt evinced a proper appreciation of an editorial life when he wrote the following remarks: "I know how a periodical will wear down one's existence. In itself it appears nothing; the labor is not manifest, nor is it the labor, it is the continual attention it requires. Your life becomes, as it were, the publication. One day's paper is no sooner corrected, than on comes another. It is the stone of Sisyphus, an endless repetition of toil, and constant weight upon the intellect and spirits, demanding all the exertion of your faculties, at the same time that you are compelled to the severest drudgery. To write for a paper is very well, but to credit one is to condemn yourself to slavery.

WAR.—Who has ever told the evils, and the curses and the crimes of war? Who can describe the horrors of the carnage of battle? Who can pourtray the fiendish passions which reign there? Who can tell the amount of the treasures wasted and the of blood that has flowed, and of the tears that have been shed over the slain? who can register the crimes which war has originated and sustained? If there is anything in which earth, more than any other, resembles hell, it is in its wars. And who, with the heart of a man—of a lover of human happiness—of a hater of carnage and crime—can look but with pity, who can repress his contempt in looking on all the trappings of war—the tinsel—the nodding plumes—even the animating music—designed to cover over the reality of the contemplated murder of fathers, and husbands, and sons?—[Albert Barnes.

BREAD A REMEDY FOR DIARRHŒA.—It has been a long indulged idea that bread baked on Good Friday will continue in a state of preservation for a great number of years, and many in this neighbourhood have bread in their house six, seven, and eight years old; one lady has a cake of bread twelve years old, quite sweet and good, but dry and hard. A small piece of this bread, ground to powder, and mixed with a small quantity of brandy, has proved an unfailing remedy for diarrhœa and pains in the body. Of course any other bread, baked in a similar manner and kept as long, would have the same effect.

Moe's Lightning Press prints 10,000 impressions per hour. A recent improvement upon it, invented by M. Y. Beach, of the New York Sun, strikes of 22,000 in the same time.

Out of 950,000,000 letters posted in the city of London more than 490,000,000 were for circulation in the city. The people of London, have within the past ten years posted more letters than all the people of the United States by 32,000,000. Truly London is a world in itself.

Peace is the evening star of the soul, as virtue is its sun; two are never far apart.

AMERICAN HOUSE,

BOSTON.
RE-ESTABLISHMENT OF THE OLD PLAN OF MANAGEMENT.

LEWIS RICE, Proprietor, respectfully announces that he has resumed the old plan of management as it existed before the recent alteration. Trial of the European system in this Hotel, proves, that although the advantages are great, yet the plan is better adapted for the smaller class of hotels.

The accommodations and conveniences of the House are unsurpassd, and the recent improvements and alterations, for the comfort of guests, have nothing to be desired.

A MEDICAL REVOLUTION!

THE WORLD UNANIMOUS.

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT.

THE GREAT COUNTER IRRITANT!

The virus of disease often makes its way to the internal organs through the pores of the skin. This penetrating Ointment, melting under the hand as it is rubbed in, is absorbed through the same channels, and, reaching the seat of inflammation, promptly and invariably subdues it, whether located in the kidneys, the liver, the lungs, or any other important organ. It penetrates the surface to the interior, through the countless tubes that communicate with the skin as summer rain passes into the fevered earth diffusing its cool and regenerating influence.

SKIN DISEASES & GLANDULAR SWELLINGS.

Every species of exterior irritation is quickly reduced by the anti-inflomatory action of this Ointment, Angry ERUPTIONS, such as SALT RHEUM, ERYSIPELAS, TETTER, RINGWORM, SCALD HEAD, NETTLE RASH, SCABIES (or Itch) &c., die out, to return no more under its application. Hospital experience in all parts of the world proves its infallibility in diseases of the skin, the muscles, the joints and the glands.

ULCERS, SORES, AND TUMORS.

The effect of this unrivaled external remedy upon Scrofula, and other virulent ulcers and sores, is almost miraculous. It first discharges the poison which produces suppuration and proud flesh, and thus the cures which its healing properties afterward complete are safe as well as permanent.

WOUNDS, BRUISES, BURNS, AND SCALDS.

In cases of the fracture of the bones, injuries caused by steam explosions, BRUISES, BURNS, SCALDS, RHEUMATISM, STIFFNESS OF THE JOINTS, and contraction of the sinews, it is employed and warmly recommended by the faculty. This marvellous remedy has been introduced by its inventor in person into all the leading Hospitals of Europe, and no private household should be without it.

UNDENIABLE TESTIMONY.

The Medical Staff of the French and English Armies in the Crimea have officially signed their approval of Holloway's Ointment, as the most reliable dressing for sabre cuts, stabs, and gun-shot wounds. It is also used by the surgeons of the Allied Navies.

Both the Ointment and Pills should be used in the following cases:

Bunions,	Rheumatism,	Sore Throats,
Burns,	Ringworm,	Sores of all kinds
Capped hands,	Salt Rheum,	Sprains,
Chilblains,	Scalds,	Stiff Joints
Fistula,	Skin Diseases	Tetter,
Gout,	Swelled	Ulcers,
Lumbago,	Glands,	Veneral Sores,
Mercurial	Sore Legs,	Wounds of all kinds.
Eurptions,	Sore Breasts,
Piles,	Sore Heads,
