Mr. Hobbs, M.P.P.

Some one has suggested that Mr. T. S. Hobbs, M. P. P. for this city, should enter the lists as a candidate for the seat in the Ontario Cabinet rendered vacant by the death of Hon. Mr. Balfour. The member for London has been a success in his own business, and it is reasonable to suppose that were he called upon to enter the Government he would make a good executive officer. But Ministers are not generally chosen from the list of those who are but recently sent to the House, and Mr. Hobbs, like others, can afford to wait. We have reasons for stating, however, that he does not aspire to Ministerial honors, but is contented to serve his constituents as a private member. Mr. Hobbs does not seek personal honor or preferment, and if he can advance the interests of London he is fully compensated for his services. His first aim is to have the construction of the new Normal School for the West begun in this city during his term of office, and he is losing no opportunity to advocate that most necessary public improvement.

Topics of Today.

Typhoid fever is increasing in Toronto. There are 53 cases in the hospital. Bad water has its effects.

An Ottawa correspondent says that Mr. M. C. Cameron is after the scalp of Capt. A. W. McGregor, of the Government steamer Bayfield, who, he alleges, has, for the past fifteen years been an active canvasser for the Conservatives. Mr. Cameron will ask if Capt. McGregor got leave from Parliament. Mr. Cameron is also after Capt. Dunn of the cruiser Petrel, who, he says, conveyed voters to Owen Sound on that vessel. This kind of offensive partisanship ought certainly to be met by the new Administration.

Rev. Dr. Burns, of Hamilton, was pressed very hard to go to Ireland as a delegate to the home rule convention. While expressing the strongest sympathies with the objects of the international gathering, Dr. Burns was forced to decline, as he could not possibly leave his college duties. This is to be regretted. Dr. Burns would have made a great impression in Ireland.

London, Aug. 21.—A dispatch from Berlin says that the powers have agreed upon the adoption of a policy which will compel Turkey to grant autonomy to Crete.

EUGENIE'S WILL.

London, Aug. 21.—A dispatch from Paris says that it is stated that the will of ex-Empress Eugenie, drawn recently, favors her namesake Eugenie, daughter of the late Prince Henry of Battenberg and Princess Beatrice.

ON FIRE FOR TEN DAYS.

London, Aug. 21.—The steamer Fort Salisbury, which left port on July 24, bound for Table Bay, Cape Colony, has returned, landing her passengers safely. The boat has been on fire for the past ten days. The crew by heroic efforts succeeded in keeping the fire under control.

ANOTHER AFRICAN DIFFICULTY.

Brussels, Aug. 21.—The Soir says that Baron Dhanish, commanding a strong force, has taken the offensive against the Mahdists in the Upper Congo. It is added that the situation causes the greatest anxiety in regard to the security of the Congo Free State, and it is predicted that serious political difficulties may arise.

JOHN DALY'S CONDITION.

London, Aug. 21.—John Daly looked feeble when he was released, and it is said that while in jail he was subject to fits of temper and excitement. When he was taken to the hospital he refused to eat until force was employed to feed him. This was continued until it was intimated to him that he would be released at an early date.

SIMS REEVES.

London, Aug. 21.—Mr. Sims Reeves is now on his way to the Cape, where he is to sing in a series of concerts. According to his certificate of baptism, which differs from the various dates given in the musical dictionaries, Mr. Sims Reeves was born on Sept. 26, 1818. He will thus begin his seventy-ninth year as a vocalist in South Africa. The public appearance of a professional singer at such an age is quite unprecedented.

SPAIN BUYS THE BOAT.

Madrid, Aug. 21.—The Italian courts having decided against Argentina's claims of the right to purchase the war vessels recently reported to have been sold by Italy to the Argentine republic. Spain will, therefore purchase the cruiser Garibaldi.

The Garibaldi was built at Genoa, and is said to be the most perfect cruiser afloat so far as armament and detailed construction is concerned.

It is estimated that the Cuban war is costing Spain $300,000 daily.

GEN. LAURIE COMING TO CANADA.

London, Aug. 21.—Gen. John Wimburn Laurie, M. P., will sail in the Allan Line steamer Parisian from Liverpool for Montreal. He is going to Ottawa in connection with the plan for the establishment of a new line of fast mail steamers, and also to discuss the question of extending the naval reserve system to the colonies. Gen. Laurie, who is a Conservative, sits in the House of Commons for Pembroke and West Haverford district.

A SERIOUS CHARGE.

London, Aug. 21.—Mr. T. P. O'Connor's Sun today publishes a column sensational account of the condition of John Daly, the Irish political prisoner, who was released from Portland Prison yesterday afternoon. It says: "Without forestalling what Daly will eventually divulge relative to his treatment, it is certain he will be able to prove that the Irish dynamiters have been subjected to indignities and punishment that the vilest criminals in her Majesty's prisons have escaped."

LORD RUSSELL'S SPEECH

London, Aug. 21.—The afternoon newspapers praise the address of Baron Russell of Killowen, the Lord Chief Justice, to the American Bar Association at Saratoga, N. Y. The Pall Mall Gazette says:

"We know that behind the sentiments of Lord Russell are the sentiments of the whole of one nation, and behind the enthusiastic cheers of his audience the whole of another. His magnificent speech will go far to cement the mutual good will still more firmly."

SAFETY OF THE FRAM.

Christiana, Aug. 21.—Dr. Nansen's Arctic exploring ship Fram, which he left embedded in the ice, early in January, 1895, in about latitude 83 degrees north, in order to explore the sea north of the route he proposed to follow, eventually reaching 86:15 north, has arrived at Skjervo, province of Tromsoe. Capt. Sverdrup, her commander, reported all well on board.

The Fram called at Dane's Island on Aug. 14 and saw Prof. Andree, who was still waiting for a favorable wind in order to enable him to attempt his balloon trip across the Arctic regions.

Capt. Sverdrup, shortly after his arrival, sent the following telegram to Dr. Nansen: "Fram arrived safely. All well on board. Leaves at once for Tromsoe. Welcome home."

Dr. Nansen replied to this message as follows: "A thousand times welcome to you and all. Hurrah for the Fram."

The Fram left Skjervo yesterday morning on her way to Tromsoe, where Dr. Nansen will meet her.

NO FIGHT.

No Possibility of War Between Great Britain and the Transvaal.

Pretoria, Aug. 21.—President Kruger, of the Transvaal Republic, in an interview, declared that the stories attributing hostile intentions on the part of the Transvaal are absolute inventions spread by people who were angry because England and the Transvaal could not be pushed into a war with each other. In conclusion, he expressed the opinion that war between the Transvaal Republic and Great Britain will never take place.

Dr. W. J. Leyds, the Secretary of State for the Transvaal Republic, in an interview just published expresses similar sentiments. He denies all the rumors of recent troubles between the two countries, and the assertion that the Transvaal has negotiated a treaty with a foreign country in contravention of the Anglo-Boer convention. In conclusion, he declared that the Transvaal Republic is doing its best to secure complete harmony all round.

A Plucky Missionary

Penetrates the Congo Where Whites Had Never Trod.

Discovery of a Large Lake—A Giant Beetle—Sad Death of the Explorer's Wife.

Liverpool, Aug. 21.—Dr. Snyder, an American missionary in the employ of the Southern Presbyterian Mission Board, has just arrived here after four years' absence in the Congo region of Africa. He penetrated a thousand miles into the interior, exploring regions never before visted by white men. He claims to have discovered a new lake of the first magnitude.

Dr. Snyder first ascended the Congo River to Luabo. He then traveled up the Congo River a three days' journey, to a point where he first learned of the lake. It was a magnificent body of water, located on the opposite side of the Congo River, from the town of Luabo. The lake was not visible to the naked eye from the Congo River bank on account of the hills and dense forests. Dr. Snyder was not able to discover the outlet, but it is believed that it is connected with the Congo River, in some manner, by an underground stream. Dr. Snyder decided to honor the Southern Presbyterian Board of Missions by naming the lake after the president of that organization.

Mrs. Snyder accompanied her husband on the perilous journey, and they traveled through vast stretches of wilderness. In many instances Dr. Snyder and his wife were regarded by the blacks as superior beings, while everywhere their visit attracted the greatest curiosity among the natives. Mrs. Snyder passed through the hardships of the trip to the interior without difficulty, but died at Leopardsville, on the return journey, having contracted a miasmatic fever in the regions of the Lower Congo.

The missionary brought many objects of interests back with him. One of the things that has attracted most attention is a beetle, eighteen inches long, on acount of its peculiar shape, Dr. Snyder terms it "the walking-stick beetle."

During his stay at Luabo several tribes combined against the Belgians, who dominate the Lower Congo region. The Belgians bravely defended the town against the natives, though the blacks at one time occupied a portion of Luabo. Dr. Snyder himself barricaded a house in which he was living. He was not able to leave the house for several days on account of proximity of the warlike natives.

SIR JOHN MILLAIS' FUNERAL.

Distinguished Pall-Bearers—The Queen Sends a Wreath.

London, Aug. 21.—The funeral of Sir John Millais, the late president of the Royal Academy, who died on Thursday last, took place yesterday at St. Paul's Cathedral. The route from the residence of the deceased to Burlington House, and from there to St. Paul's Cathedral, was lined by immense crowds of people.

The pall-bearers were Lord Rosebery, Marquis of Granby, Lord Wolseley, Sir Henry Irving, Sir George Reid, president of the Royal Scottish Academy of Painting, etc.; Lord Carlisle, William Holman Hunt, and Philip Hermogenes Calderon.

The cortege was preceded by an open car bearing the coffin and another car piled high with floral wreaths. The floral tributes included a beautiful wreath from Queen Victoria and others from the Prince and Princess of Wales, Princess Louise, the Duke and Duchess of York, the Marquis and Marchioness of Salisbury, Mr. and Mrs. Gladstone, Sir William Vernon Harcourt and Lady Harcourt, the Royal Academy, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Gilbert, Pinero, and many other notabilities at home and abroad.

Upon the arrival of the hearse at the cathedral a military band played a dead march and the pall-bearers proceeded up the broad aisle and placed the coffin on purple-draped trestles, close to the grave, which is beneath the dome. The funeral services were fully choral.

THE STATIONARY ENGINEERS.

Kingston, Ont., Aug. 21.—The election of officers of the Canadian Association of Stationary Engineers resulted as follows: James Devlin, Kingston, was elected president by acclamation; vice-president, E. J. Philp, Toronto; W. F. Chapman, Brockville, secretary; R. E. Pettigrew, Hamilton, treasurer; J. Murphy, Montreal, conductor; door-keeper, Mr. Merrell, Ottawa. The past president was invested with his jewel of office, in the form of a gold shield, suspended from a clasp by a shield.

We have no hesitation in saying that Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Dysentery Cordial is without doubt the best medicine ever introduced for dysentery, diarrhea, cholera, and all summer complaints, sea sickness, etc. It promptly gives relief and never fails to effect a positive cure. Mothers should never be without a bottle when their children are teething.

THE DEAD SECRETARY.

Hon. W. D. Balfour's Remains Will Be Buried at Amherstburg.

Toronto, Aug. 21.—The arrangements for the disposal of Hon. W. D. Balfour's body were yesterday changed. Instead of being interred at St. Catharines, the remains will be laid to rest at Amherstburg in the midst of the people whom he served so well in life.

A brief funeral service was conducted at the Parliament buildings early this morning by Rev. Mr. Wilson, the Presbyterian pastor of the Niagara Falls South section of the Balfour family. The body left the buildings shortly before 7 o'clock, and was placed on a special car attached to the 7:30 C. P. R. express. At Windsor the coffin will be transferred to a steamer, which will convey it to Amherstburg. There the remains will lie at the residence of deceased until Saturday, and then, after a second service, conducted by Mr. Balfour's pastor, Rev. Mr. Nattrass, buried in the town cemetery.

Premier Hardy, Hon. J. M. Gibson, W. A. Charlton, M.L.A., Joseph Tait, ex-M.L.A., Col. Clarke, Clerk of the House, and Dr. Gilmour, ex-M.P.P., were chosen as pall-bearers.

Mr. Hardy not being well, Sergeant-at-Arms Glackmeyer acted in his stead.

The members of the family who accompany the body are: Mr. and Mrs. David Balfour, father and mother of the deceased; Mrs. Balfour, the widow; three sisters of the dead, his eldest son, and Mr. Broadhead, of Grosse Isle, his brother-in-law.

A large contingent of Amherstburg people had arranged to come to Toronto to attend the funeral at St. Catharines, but yesterday they were telegraphed of the alterations made in the programme.

Up in Queen's Park all day yesterday the Union Jack floated at half-mast in honor of the dead, and many called to pay their last respects to the departed, among these being Dr. McMahon, ex-M.P.; Mr. Cowan, the former member for Essex, and Mrs. G. W. Ross. Messages of condolence were received from Lieut.-Gov. Kirkpatrick, Sir Oliver Mowat, Hon. Wilfrid Laurier, Hon. David Mills, Hon. G. W. Ross, Dr. Willoughby, J. P. Whitney, J. L. Haycock, G. F. Marter and others.

Among the floral tokens of regret which surrounded the casket were a handsome wreath from the members of the Ontario Government, bearing the motto, "Our Colleague"; a large wreath of red and white roses from Hon. J. C. Patterson, Lieutenant-Governor of Manitoba, with the legend, "In memory of the old days when we were members of the Essex County Council together"; and a pillow of roses from the people of the dead Minister's own town, inscribed simply "Amherstburg."

Special to The Advertiser.

Toronto, Aug. 21.—Premier Hardy was expected to be one of the pall-bearers at the funeral of the late Provincial Secretary, but a slight illness prevented him, much against his desire, from paying a last tribute to his colleague. A misunderstanding regarding the hour of the services caused many to arrive too late.

Mr. G. F. Marter, M.P.P., and Mr. J. W. St. John, M.P.P., were present, to represent the Opposition in the Ontario House. Mr. Joseph Tait, an ex-member; Librarian Houston and Mr. M. K. Cowan, who sits for the Dominion House for Mr. Balfour's old riding, South Essex, were also among the outsiders who attended. Ald. Lamb, McMurry and Graham represented the city. Hon. Mr. Gibson, Mr. Innes MacIntosh, private secretary to Mr. Balfour; Mr. Wm. Houston and Housekeeper O'Brien accompanied the body to Amherstburg.
