244 TO SIT IN FEDERAL HOUSE

Redistribution of Constituencies Will Add Nine Members.

Prairie Provinces To Send Eleven More To House of Commons.

OTTAWA, June 29.—(By Canadian Press).—There will be 244 members in the House of Commons after the next redistribution, according to the revised population figures for Canada which have been given out by the Dominion bureau of statistics. This is an increase of five members over the present house. The distribution of the members among the provinces in the present house and after redistribution will compare as follows, on the basis of these figures:

Province	New House	Present House
Quebec	65	65
Nova Scotia	14	16
New Brunswick	11	11
Prince Edward Island	4	4
Ontario	81	82
Manitoba	17	15
Saskatchewan	21	16
Alberta	16	12
British Columbia	14	13
Yukon	1	1

The chief increases in membership are, as was expected, in the prairie provinces, which will send eleven more members to parliament after redistribution than they do now. The decreases are in Nova Scotia and Ontario.

Spurns Peerage as Honors Are Of "No Concern to An Old Man"

LONDON, June 29.—(Canadian Press Cable).—At the end of a long speech in the House of Lords today, dealing with the conferment of king's birthday honors generally and the case of Sir Joseph Robinson's peerage in particular the lord chancellor, Lord Birkenhead said Sir Joseph had written a letter to the prime minister declining the proffered peerage. The lord chancellor read the letter, which was as follows:

"I have read with surprise the discussion which took place in the House of Lords upon the proposed offer of a peerage to myself. I have not, as you know, in any way sought the suggested honor. It is now some sixty years since I commenced as a pioneer the task of building industries in South Africa. I am now a very old man, to whom honors and dignities can no longer be matters of much concern.

"I should be sorry if any honor conferred upon me were the occasion for such ill-feeling as was manifested in the House of Lords yesterday, and though I deeply appreciate the honor which has been suggested I should wish, if I may without discourtesy to yourself and without impropriety, to beg His Majesty's permission to decline the proposal."

RAISE WAGES OF TORONTO TYPOS

TORONTO, June 29.—An increase of $3 a week is secured by the printers employed by the Toronto newspapers, under an agreement signed up this afternoon after several weeks' negotiation. The agreement, which will run for two years and nine months, or until March 31, 1925, makes the scale $43.50 per week for employees of morning papers, and $41 for those on the evening papers. The latter also secure a reduction of one and a half hours in the work week, which will now consist of 46½ hours instead of 48, while the morning paper men remain on the 45-hour week basis. The other conditions remain the same as those called for under the old agreement.

GRIP LEFT BEHIND LEADS TO ARREST

Brantford Police Notified To Await Claimant of Luggage From Byron.

When Claude Poulton wrote from Brantford to acquaintances at the Byron Sanatorium asking them to send along his grip, as he might need it again, Middlesex County constables were just discussing among themselves his possible whereabouts. Not long since they relate, Poulton journeyed out Byron way with a chance companion, who believed that he might be instrumental in obtaining suitable employment for him. Taking up residence at the sanatorium, the constables state, Poulton remained but a brief period with his new-found friends, departing unostentatiously with his comrade's valuable watch and certain Masonic jewels.

Assigned to the case, county police reclaimed the latter articles from a local pawnbroker, following which ensued a country-wide inquiry with but little success for the departed one. Naturally enough Constable William Fifield moved with alacrity when informed of the Brantford message and directed that the luggage be forwarded by Dominion Express, incidentally wiring the police authorities of Brantford to be in attendance when Poulton called Thursday morning. They were.

Arraigned before Squire W. H. Chittick in county police court Thursday afternoon, the prisoner was remanded until July 6 for trial.

WILL SPEED "CLEAN-UP" DEAL.

TORONTO, June 29.—Premier E. C. Drury told a deputation of impatient North Torontonians today at the Parliament Buildings that he saw no reason now why the "clean-up" deal should not be finally consummated in a few days.

The Region of Romance

The Lake of Bays is one of the scenic gems of the Dominion of Canada, which is so richly starred with lovely lakes. It has a shoreline indented in such a manner that it affords constant delights and surprises, and is designated as "the lake of a thousand bays." On sites overlooking these bays have been erected charming cottage homes with, here and there, hotels that are in keeping with their setting of wistful waters and brooding woods. To spend a summer vacation here is to be near to nature in her most fascinating mood. An entire season may be spent in exploring the Lake of Bays and her sister lakes, and you may choose for your excursions, according to personal desire, canoe, sailing craft, motor boat or steamer. There is also the widest choice of vacation pastimes—bathing, golfing, fishing, boating, bowling, tennis, etc. Perfumed by millions of pines, invigorating breezes blow across these lakes, providing a real tonic that is "easy to take." The average altitude is about one thousand feet above sea level. The Lake of Bays is reached through Huntsville on the Grand Trunk, 148 miles north of Toronto. A handsomely illustrated booklet telling you all about this lovely district sent free on application to any Grand Trunk Ticket Agent, or C. E. Horning, D. P. A., Toronto, Ont.

JURORS CONVICT NUKOL OFFICIALS

Hiram F. Slater and Leslie J. Thompson Await Sentence At Toronto.

TORONTO, June 29.—Hiram F. Slater and Leslie J. Thompson were found guilty of conspiracy and with stealing and receiving "a large sum of money" from the Nukol Fuel Co., Ltd., by a jury this afternoon.

Accused were remanded in custody. They will not be sentenced until Monday.

In opening his address Judge Coatsworth complimented the jury for their good nature and attitude throughout the hearing of the case, which had lasted three weeks. His honor also congratulated the crown and defense counsel for their conduct of the case, and said that while all sympathized with Slater in the loss of his eyesight, "we are not entitled to let that sympathy carry us away."

Might Be Good Thing.

One of the impressions made upon his mind during the trial was that Nukol might have been a good thing. "Perhaps it is a good thing, but has been turned by the way it has been handled or the way it has worked out into a colossal blunder—or fraud—perhaps both." One of the misfortunes in this class of case was that the accused were men of previous good reputation and of good family.

After reading the sections of the criminal code bearing on the charges, his honor said there was no doubt both accused were in the position of trustees to the shareholders.

Dealing with the conspiracy charge, he advised the jury to judge of "intent" by the result and to look to the actions of accused.

"I would recommend you to pay greater heed to the written evidence than to verbal testimony where they contradict each other. Written evidence does not change—you have a great mass of written evidence which has not changed since the transactions took place." On the other hand, people testifying three months or a year after certain events might forget all the facts.

"Apply the test of honesty to this case. Want of efficiency, blunder and the making of mistakes is not a crime. If in your judgment they can pass the test of honesty it is your duty to bring in a verdict of not guilty, but if you find they were dishonest towards the shareholders and the public it is your duty to find a verdict accordingly."

LABOR BANS COUNCILLORSHIP.

LONDON, June 29.—(By Canadian Press Cable.)—The conference of the Labor party at Edinburgh today defeated by more than three to one a resolution against laborites accepting privy councillorships.

Neighbors Tend Home As He Joins Wife and Son in Jail.

OTTAWA, June 29.—When John Webster chose to spend three months in Hull jail in lieu of paying a fine of $1,000 and costs for having liquor in his place of business he joined his wife and only son, who are now in jail. Mrs. John Webster was sentenced during the spring to spend six months in jail for a liquor law infraction. The son, Percy, was sent down for three months a few days ago.

Webster was arraigned before Judge Honore Achim, K.C., in Hull this morning. The evidence adduced by Mr. Noel Beauchamp, who prosecuted, was very clear. Webster asked permission to go to his home and lock up his possessions, but the judge remarked that the favor could not legally be granted, so some kind neighbor will have to look after the Webster home until the family leaves jail.

Italian Family Will Erect $10,000 Monument in Kitchener Cemetery

Special to London Advertiser.

KITCHENER, June 29.—The Longo family of this city is erecting a magnificent monument on its plot in the Roman Catholic Cemetery here. The cost of the monument will exceed $10,000. It is the work of a celebrated Italian sculptor.

The first shipment of parts arrived in the city today. Pietro Cragnoline, well-known Italian architect, will be in charge of the erection of the monument. It is of altar design, and will be surmounted by a heroic-sized statue of St. Anthony of Padua, the patron saint of Antonio Longo, who died last year and was buried in the plot.

The Longos came to this city more than a quarter of a century ago, and started in the fruit business with the primitive push cart, selling bananas. Their business grew up by leaps and bounds until now they are numbered among the wealthiest families in Kitchener.
