Poetry.

NO SURRENDER.

Ever constant, ever true,
Let the word be, No Surrender!
Boldly dare and greatly do,
This shall bring us bravely through,
No Surrender, No Surrender!
And though Fortune's smiles be few,
Hope is always springing new,
Still inspiring me and you
With a magic—No Surrender.

Nail the colors to the mast,
Shouting gladly, No Surrender!
Troubles near are all but past—
Serve them as you did the last,
No Surrender, No Surrender!
Though the skies be overcast,
And upon the sleety blast
Disappointments gather fast,
Beat them off with No Surrender!

Constant and courageous still
Mind the word is No Surrender!
Battle, though it be up hill,
Stagger not at seeming ill,
No Surrender, No Surrender!
Hope—and thus your hope fulfil—
There's a way when there's a will,
And the way all cares to kill
Is to give them—No Surrender!

A DELICATE STOMACH.

Mrs. Louisa Platt, better known perhaps by the nom de plume of Mrs. Bell Smith, who is now travelling in Europe, in one of her recent letters to the National Era, says that during the voyage from New York to Havre, in the steamer Franklin, she had a state-room full of odd creatures near her, who slept all day, which of course made them miserably wakeful during the night, and gave them time for the practice of various melodies, among which the whooping cough seemed to be the favorite. One morning she heard the Yankee steward inquiring kindly as to the health of one of the ladies, who was forever complaining of a seventeen-year headache. She responded despairingly:

'Oh, ver bed. All ze night I vas more seck zan avair. Ze head, ze back, ze limbs, so bad I cannot tell.'

'Would you like to have some breakfast, madam?'

'Don't know—ver sick wiz ze sea mal. Vo ave you?'

'Get you anything nice, madam?'

'Ave you ze beefsteak?'

'Yes, madam.'

'I take ze beefsteak. Ave you ze mouton-chop—ze potate—ze tomates—wiz ze cafe and hot cake?'

'Anything else you would like to have, madam?'

'Ah, mon dieu! I cannot tell; I ver indispose. Stop, Garcon, after a leetle bit, bring ze lobstair, cowcumber, and ze oil!'

Finding a Way Out.—Few of our cavalry officers would be stopped by a fence; but for this they are not indebted to what they learn in the riding-school, but to their being accustomed to ride across country. All foreign cavalry practice at the leaping-bar; yet their officers, when they meet with a wall or a gate, are pounded. I remembered a very amusing instance of this. During some manoeuvres in Italy, an Austrian general with his staff got amongst some of his side-camps to look for an outlet. They peered over the stone wall, rode about, but could find no opening. An Englishman in the Imperial service, mounted on a good English horse, formed part of the staff, and the general, turning to him, said, "Mr. W——k, kindly see if you can find way out of this place." Mr W——k, a Yorkshireman and a good rider, went straight at the wall, cleared it, and whilst doing so, turned in his saddle, and touching his cap, said, "This way, sir." I need not add, that his way did not quite suit the remainder of the party.—Nolan's Cavalry Remount Horses.

Five from Five—I happened to be in a schoolroom one day, while a class of very small boys and girls were reciting a lesson in arithmetic. It was about their first lesson. "Five from five leaves how many?" asked the teacher of a little girl of some "six years old." After a moment's reflection, she answered "Five." "How do you make that out?" said the teacher. Holding her little hands out towards him, she said, "Here are five fingers on my right hand, and here are five on the other. Now, if I take the five fingers on my left hand away from the five on my right, won't five remain?" The teacher was, as we say in this region, "stumped," and was obliged to "knock under."—The Knickerbocker.

The Renowned Remedy!

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT.

A MOST ASTONISHING CURE OF SCROFULOUS ULCERS.—A CASE CERTIFIED BY THE MAYOR OF BOSTON.

Copy of a Letter from J. Noble, Esq., Mayor of Boston, Lincolnshire.

To Professor Holloway.

Dear Sir,—Mrs Sarah Dixon, of Liquorpond-st., Boston, has this day deposed before me that for a considerable period she was severely afflicted with Scrofulous Sores and Ulcers in her arms, feet, legs, and other parts of her body; and although the first of medical advice was obtained, at the cost of a large sum of money, she obtained no abatement of suffering, but gradually grew worse.

Being recommended by a friend to try your Ointment, she procured a small pot, and a box of the Pills, and before that was all used, symptoms of amendment appeared. By persevering with the medicines for a short time longer, according to the directions, and strictly adhering to your rules as to diet, &c., she was perfectly cured, and now enjoys the best of health.

I remain, Dear Sir, yours truly,
August 12th, 1852. (Signed) J. NOBLE.

AN EXTRAORDINARY AND RAPID CURE OF ERYSIPELAS IN THE LEG, AFTER MEDICAL AID HAD FAILED.

Copy of a Letter from Mrs. Elizabeth Yeates, of the Post Office, Aldwick Road, near Bagnor, Sussex, dated Jan. 12th. 1853.

To Professor Holloway.

Sir,—I suffered for a considerable period from a severe attack of Erysipelas, which at length settled in my leg, and resisted all medical treatment. My sufferings were very great, and I quite despaired of any permanent amendment, when I was advised to have recourse to your Ointment and Pills. I did so without delay, and am happy to say, the result was eminently successful, for they effected a radical cure of my leg, and restored me to the enjoyment of health. I shall ever speak with the utmost confidence of your medicines, and have recommended them to others in this neighborhood, similarly afflicted, who derived equal benefit.

I am, Sir, your obliged and faithful servant,
(Signed) ELIZABETH YEATES.

A DREADFULLY DISEASED ANCLE CURED AFTER BEING GIVEN UP BY THE FACULTY AT MALTA AND PORTSMOUTH HOSPITALS

The following important communication has been forwarded to Professor Holloway for publication, by Mr B. Dixon, Chemist, King-st., Norwich.

Copy of a Letter from Captain Smith of Great Yarmouth, dated January 19th, 1853.

To Mr. Dixon.

Dear Sir,—I send you the particulars of a cure effected by Professor Holloway's invaluable medicines: Mr. John Walton, late in Her Majesty's Service, in the British Fleet at Malta, had a very bad ulcerated ancle, and after having been in the Malta Hospital for six months, was sent to England as an invalid to Portsmouth Hospital, where he remained an inmate four months, there, as at Malta, refusing to have the limb amputated, he was turned out incurable. He then came to Yarmouth, and was under a medical gentleman for about three months, but his ancle became so much worse, that all hope was lost. At this period, by my advice, he tried Holloway's Ointment and Pills, which by unremitted application, healed all the ulcers, and restored him to perfect health and strength.

I remain, Dear Sir, yours very truly,
(Signed) JOHN SMITH.
Albert Hotel, Great Yarmouth.

SURPRISING CURE OF A BAD BREAST, NERVOUS DEBILITY, AND GENERAL ILL-HEALTH.

Copy of a Letter from Mr. T. F. Ker, Chemist, &c. Lower Moss-Lane, Manchester, dated February 12th, 1853.

To Professor Holloway.

Dear Sir,—I have great pleasure in forwarding to you the particulars of a very extraordinary cure of a bad breast, effected solely by the use of your celebrated Ointment and Pills. Mrs. Martha Bell, of Pitt-street, in this town, had been for a considerable time labouring under nervous debility, loss of appetite, and general ill health, occasioned by ulcerated wounds in the breast. She had had much experience in the use of all the known remedies for the cure of ulcers, but without any beneficial result, in fact she had nearly lost all faith and hope of a cure being effected. In this distressing and painful condition of body and mind, she was persuaded to have recourse to your invaluable Ointment and Pills, which she immediately did, and in the course of a very short time the effect produced was most astonishing; her appetite was speedily improved, the sores and ulcers in the breast gradually healed, and the nervous excitement of her system was wholly removed.

I remain, Dear Sir, yours faithfully,
T. FORSTER KER.

The Pills should be used conjointly with the Ointment in most of the following cases:

Bad Legs	Chapped hands	Piles
Bad Breasts	Corns (Soft)	Rheumatism

The Subscriber having been appointed Agent to the above Company for New-Brunswick, begs to announce that he is prepared to receive Proposals for FIRE AND LIFE ASSURANCE. The large Capital of the Company, and the number and influence of its Proprietors, enable it to rank with the most eligible Offices, either in America or Europe, with respect to the advantages offered to the Public.

FIRE BRANCH.

Persons assured by this Company are not subject to any covenants or calls to make good losses which may happen to themselves or other, nor do they depend upon an uncertain fund or contribution, the Capital Stock of this Company being an unquestionable security to the Assured in case of Loss or Damage by Fire.

LIFE BRANCH.

In addition to the more customary methods of Insurance, the Company likewise Assures Live on any of the following contingencies:—

For the term of One Year, Seven Years, or any other definite period.

For the whole continuance of Life.—The Premiums to cease, after a limited number of Annual Payments,

For Two Joint Lives.—The sum assured to be paid on the death of either.

On the longest of Two or Three Lives.—The sum assured to be payable at the death of the last survivor; or,

The Survivorships.—To secure the payment of the sum assured, if a life A die before another life B.

For a sum to be payable at age 60, or at death.

Premiums on Credit.—A portion of the Premiums may remain on Credit. Assurances may be effected in various ways, not enumerated, to meet the convenience of parties.

The important advantages afforded by the Company in the Life Branch will include the following viz:—

The Guarantee of an ample Capital, and Exemption of the Assured from liability of Partnership.

Moderate Premiums.

J. RUSSELL SPALDING'S ROSE MARY AND CASTOR OIL

IS decidedly the nicest and best toilet article in the world for the Hair. The ablest chemists who have examined it testify that as an agent for preserving the Hair and promoting its growth it surpasses any other article.

After a long series of experiments, Mr. SPALDING succeeded, by an intricate process, in freeing the Castor Oil used in this preparation from its peculiar odor and all greasiness, and in blending it with the ROSEMARY, &c., in such a manner as to form the cheapest and best OIL OR WASH ever made, for which all who desire to preserve a good head of Hair until late in life, will be grateful.

The Sale of the Article has been Immense!

And its Success Astonishing—Use it if you wish.

1st. To beautify the hair.
2d. To curl the hair elegantly.
3d. To remove dandruff effectually.
4th. To restore the hair to bald heads.
5th. To give the whiskers a beautiful appearance.
6th. To prevent the hair from falling off.
7th. To cure all diseases of the scalp.
8th. To dress false hair richly.
9th. To cure the headache.
10th. To kill hair eaters.
11th. To keep the hair from turning
12th. To dress children's hair beautifully, and lay the foundation for a good head of hair.
13th. If you do not wish to grease and soil the bonnet, cap, hat, pillow, and everything coming in contact with the hair, use SPALDING'S ROSEMARY, and be sure to get the Genuine of the manufacturer and proprietor.
