ALBERT C. SMITH PROMINENT F'TON MAN, DIED LAST NIGHT.

Fredericton, April 24.—Albert C. Smith, president of the Smith Foundry Company, died here tonight, aged 34 years, leaving his wife, one child and one brother, Harry, ex-warden of York County. Mr. Smith was one of the most prominent citizens of this city and was well known all over the province. He had been suffering from a breakdown brought on by over work and at the fire in their plant a short time ago he got wet and took cold which developed into typhoid pneumonia from which he died. He and his brother were nephews of the late Walter McFarlane and on his death took over his business and put up a new plant and added a garage. He was mechanical superintendent of the plant as well as president of the company. Mr. Smith was only 34 years of age and was well known as an athlete and football player. He was a member of the Masonic and other orders and will be much missed in the community.

BAD COLD? TAKE "CASCARETS" FOR BOWELS TONIGHT

They're fine! Liven your liver and bowels and clear your head.

No headache, sour stomach bad cold or constipation by morning.

Get a 10-cent box.

Colds—whether in the head or any part of the body—are quickly overcome by urging the liver to action and keeping the bowels free of poison. Take Cascarets tonight and you will wake up with a clear head and your cold will be gone. Cascarets work while you sleep; they cleanse and regulate the stomach, remove the sour, undigested food and foul gases; take the excess bile from the liver and carry off the constipated waste matter and poison from the bowels.

Remember the quickest way to get rid of colds is one or two Cascarets at night to cleanse the system. Get a 10-cent box at any drug store. Don't forget the children. They relish this Candy Cathartic and it is often all that is needed to drive a cold from their little systems.

VON DER GOLTZ' RIGHT HAND MAN FLED TO ITALY

Said to be Fighting on Trentino Front—Important Point Settled in Probe Into Alleged Plot.

New York, April 24—Evidence presented here today before the federal grand jury investigating the alleged plot to destroy the Welland Canal established, according to federal authorities, that Captain Franz Von Papen's former office at sixty Wall street, was not a branch of the German embassy when Wolfe Von Igel was arrested there on April 18, and papers claimed by the German ambassador were seized. The papers are now in the custody of the department of justice in Washington.

Attorney-General Gregory and the local prosecuting officers insisted that the former office of Von Papen was not German territory. The state department announced that the return of the papers rested on this point. It also had an important bearing, it was said on the status of Von Igel, whose release the German ambassador demanded, representing that he became a member of the embassy staff in December, 1915.

Assistant United States Attorney Roger Wood, in charge of the prosecution, is understood to be confident that as a result of today's testimony, Von Igel will have to stand trial and that the papers will not be returned.

Arthur A. Hassell, agent for the building at sixty Wall street, testifying before the grand jury, it was said, identified the leases for Von Papen's office. On the lease was the signature of Wolfe Von Igel as lessee. Swearing before a notary public Von Igel stated in the document that the rooms are to be used by him as an advertising agent and for no other purpose.

Von Igel's own sworn statement, federal officers here assert, denies the claim of the American ambassador that Von Igel was a member of his staff and that the rooms were a part of the German embassy.

Agents of the department of justice announced tonight that they had received positive information that Constantino Covani, one of the five indicted for complicity in the alleged plot to blow up the Welland Canal, escaped to Italy and joined a regiment, now fighting on the Trentino front.

Federal investigators declared Covani was "the right hand man" of Horst Von Der Goltz, whose "confession" resulted in the arrests of Von Igel and Captain Hans Tauscher.

CLAIMS HE SAW JAP TROOPS AT MARSEILLES

New York, April 24.—Fred Cozzens, an importer of this city, asserted on his arrival here today aboard the French liner Rochambeau that he had witnessed the entraining at Marseilles two weeks ago of a force of Japanese soldiers, 200 strong. He said that he was positive that the troops were Japanese uniforms but had no knowledge as to whether they were a part of a stronger force. It was at Marseilles that Russian troops landed last Thursday but no information has been received in cable despatches as to the presence of Japanese soldiers.

ROTARY CLUB DISCUSSED QUESTION OF GOOD ROADS

Good roads was the subject under discussion at the meeting of the Rotary Club yesterday and a resolution was adopted urging the construction of a state road from the Maine border to the Nova Scotia border. Special emphasis was laid on the fact that such a road would bring a big tourist traffic.

John A. Bovard gave a very interesting talk on concrete roads, their cost, the method of building, and lasting qualities.

City Engineer Hatfield dwelt briefly on the need of an engineering and maintenance staff, with patrols, and the great need of drainage for roads.

Com. Russell spoke briefly and Mr. Marr told of being mired four miles from the city and having to get a team to haul him out of the mud.

H. L. Ganter presided and there was a large attendance.

RADICAL WING OF LABOR PARTY AGAINST GENERAL CONSCRIPTION

Such Measure Bound to be Disastrous to Country Despite Military Outcome, Labor Leader Says.

New York, April 24.—A news agency despatch from Newcastle, England, today says the radical wing of the Labor party under no circumstances will assist the government in a policy of general conscription, President F. W. Jowett declared at the annual conference of the Independent Labor party here today.

"Such an adventure is bound to be disastrous to the country, regardless of the military outcome," said Jowett. "If we find at the end of the war that militarism is responsible for a situation where skilled workers are brought down to the level of unskilled, where women's labor has cheapened men's, where a capitalistic war of privateering has enriched the employing classes and consolidated their power, then the war will be followed by an industrial strife and more privations."

NO DECISION YET REGARDING COAL BARONS' PROPOSAL

New York, April 24.—After an all day discussion of the operators compromise proposal to the demands of the coal miners for an eight hour day, 20 per cent. increase in wages and recognition of their union, the joint sub-committee of anthracite operators and miners announced tonight that no definite decision had been reached.

INTERNED SHIPS AT BOSTON ARE WELL WATCHED

Better to Keep Them Tied Up to Wharves Instead of Moving to Outer Harbor, Collector Billings Says.

Boston, April 24.—A report that the German steamers in port here were planning to move to an anchorage in the outer harbor, instead of remaining at wharves where they are now tied was forwarded from Washington today to Collector of Customs Billings by Assistant Secretary of the Treasury Newton.

The collector said he would make a negative reply, no information of any contemplated change having come to his attention. In today's mail the collector found a letter from Mayor Curley requesting that the refugee steamers be moved from their present berths to the stream, "to avoid danger to lives and property in the event of the ships being destroyed if war were declared."

Later today Collector Billings notified the treasury department he could learn of no intended change by the German vessels. He also transmitted the mayor's request with the statement that he did not agree as to the expediency of transferring them at this time. The present location of the refugee steamers, he added, "puts them under absolute espionage."

TRIESTE BOMBED BY ITALIAN AVIATORS

Berlin, April 24, via Sayville—The Austrian city of Trieste has been raided by a squadron of seven Italian aeroplanes, bombs dropped from which killed nine persons, wounded five and destroyed a monastery.

The official statement follows:

"Western front: The artillery along the entire front has shown greater activity than during the past few days. Successful German patrol operations took place at several points.

"South of St. Eloi British detachments were repulsed.

"In the Meuse sector minor French hand grenade attacks yesterday against our forest positions northeast of Avocourt were repulsed.

"Weak enemy advances during the night to the east of Dead Man's Hill failed.

"A strong attack in the neighborhood of Thiaumont farm broke down completely in front of our lines.

"A British biplane was put out of action after an aerial engagement east of Arras. Its occupants, consisting of officers, were captured.

"Eastern and Balkan fronts: There is nothing to report."

No causalties were caused by the recent aeroplane attack on the outskirts of Sofia. A telegram from that city to the Overseas News Agency says: One school and one house were damaged by the explosion of two large bombs dropped from the aeroplanes.

"The flier at the same time," the message continues, "dropped proclamations in which the capture of Erzerum by the Russians was announced. This caused amusement, inasmuch as Bulgaria is perfectly informed about Erzerum."

Nerves Were So Upset Could Not Endure Noise

Neuralgic Headaches and Extreme Nervousness Caused Keenest Suffering—Lasting Cure by Use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

Once the nervous system gets run down everything seems to tend to make it worse. You worry over your condition, are unable to get the required rest and sleep, noises excite and irritate you and the future is most discouraging.

The nervous system does not get the proper nourishment from the food you eat, so you must have something also to lift you out of the run-down condition. You may find that your experience coincides with the writer of this letter and be encouraged to put Dr. Chase's Nerve Food to the test.

You will make no mistake in employing this food cure, for, acting as it does hand in hand with Nature, it is bound to do you good.

Mrs. Jas. Jensen, Gwynne, Alta., writes: "About ten years ago I was troubled with severe attacks of neuralgia and nervousness, and was for several months so bad that I could not get a night's rest. I used several medicines recommended by the druggist. My doctor also prescribed, but nothing he gave me brought any relief. Instead I got worse and worse until I could scarcely do anything or bear the least bit of noise. My nerves were all upset.

"My husband read about Dr. Chase's Nerve Food and got me some. Although I had no faith in it, I began its use, and after a few doses began to sleep well and the neuralgia left me entirely. I used six more boxes and have never had any troubles from neuralgia or the nerves since.

"This is to certify that I know Mrs. Jensen and believe this statement to be true and correct. Fred Freeman, J.P."

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, 50 cents a box, 6 for $2.50, all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Limited, Toronto.

EXTRADITION WARRANT FOR HARRY NEWTON

Conspirator Arraigned Before U. S. Commission on Warrant Sworn Out by British Consul General of New York.

New York, April 24.—Harry L. Newton, a former munitions worker, arrested here last week and arraigned in police court on charges of bringing explosives from Canada, of conspiring to kill J. P. Morgan and to blow up the federal building, was today arraigned before a United States commissioner on an extradition warrant sworn out by the British consul general, charging him with the theft of a shell from a munitions plant at St. Catharines.

He was held without bail for examination next week.

Newton had in the police court been exonerated of all other charges except that of conspiring to kill the banker, upon which he was held on Saturday on the strength of an affidavit containing the charge made by detectives. Newton's counsel today declared that his client was being persecuted. Newton himself asserted that the charge of stealing the munitions shell was baseless. He declared that it was an empty shell, defective, and that he had purchased it for $2 as a souvenir.
