There is a moral attached to autumn scenes; leaves falling like our years bowing fading like hours, clouds fleeting by like our illusions, light diminishing like our intelligence, and the sun growing colder like our affections. —Cnatcaurband.

There is one wish ruling over all mankind; and it is a wish which is never, in any single instance granted. Each man wishes to be his own master. It is a boy's beatific vision, and it remains the grown up man's ruling passion to the last. But the fact is, life is a service; the only question is, "Whom will we serve?"—Father Faber.

CHURCH OF ST. CLAIR, ASSISI

St. Paul's Friary (Graymoo) Garrison, N. Y. LETTER OF THE EDITOR OF THE LAMP Rev. Father Editor—May I ask a place in your columns for the enclosed letter of His Eminence, Cardinal Falconio, our former Apostolic Delegate, and also a few lines of my own by way of introduction?

It was seven hundred years ago last Palm Sunday when St. Francis of Assisi clothed St. Clare in the Religious Habit and in honor of this Seventh Centenary of so historic an event the Mother Abbess of the Poor Clares of Assisi made an appeal to the Catholics of the whole world to restore to its former glory the church which was erected in Assisi some time after the death of St. Clare as a monument to that valiant woman whom one of the Popes entitled "The Duchess of Poverty and the Princess of the Poor." Last winter the Editor of The Lamp received from the Mother Abbess, Sister Carmela Cherubina Reattelli a letter in which she said:

"In Italy all are occupied with the war. In France all the Religious are continually driven away and very few have sent any response to our circular. We have about 4,000 lire ($1,200) and the least sum necessary for restoring the church is 20,000 lire ($6,000). We have made a beginning in the work of restoration but we cannot continue for lack of funds so you see I am forced to make an appeal to the Catholics of America. Will you not address to them an appeal on our behalf and I hope that you will be the man in which we will have a strong help to restore our Basilica?"

"I have been thinking from the living Successor of St. Peter, the Pope, to all the Catholics of the world, and I have seen the Restoration Fund has at the present writing reached something over 20,000 lire ($6,000). Now that the Holy See has raised the church of St. Clare to the rank of a Basilica Minor placing it under the protection of His Eminence, Cardinal Falconio, and in addition His Holiness has sent His Apostolic Delegate to Assisi to contribute to the Restoration of this noble church, I have great confidence that the remaining $2,000 will be quickly subscribed.

For every $1,000 sent to her through The Lamp the Mother Abbess has promised to have said one hundred Masses and the names of all contributors are being recorded in a book which is to be bound in red morocco and is to be kept beside the body of St. Clare so that the nuns may constantly pray for the benefactors enrolled therein. All offerings addressed to The Lamp for this glorious object will be promptly acknowledged and forwarded.

WHISKY HOLDS ITS VICTIMS Until Released by Wonderful Samaria Prescription

Liquor sets up inflammation and irritation of the stomach and weakens the nerves. The steady or periodical (sore) drinker is often forced to drink even against his will by his unnatural physical condition.

Samaria Prescription stops the craving, steadies the nerves, builds up the general health and makes drink actually distasteful and nauseous. It is tasteless and colorless and can be given with or without the knowledge of the patient.

Thousands of Canadian homes have been saved from misery and disgrace by the same devoted wife, mother or daughter through this wonderful Canadian remedy. The money formerly wasted in drink has restored happiness, home comforts, education and respect to the families formerly in want and despair.

Read the following, one of the numerous unsolicited testimonials received: "I never can repay you for your remedy. It is worth more than life to me. My husband has been offered liquor several times, but would not touch it. He said it had no charm for him now. May God's choice blessings ever rest on you and yours as my prayers ever will.
