COAL MERCHANTS ELECT

Several Londoners on Executive of Canadian Association.

Toronto, June 15.—At the seventh annual convention of the Canadian Retail Coal Association, held at the King Edward Hotel last evening the following officers were elected: President, J. M. Peregrine, Hamilton; vice-president, J. K. McLaughlan, Owen Sound; secretary-treasurer, R. J. Webster, London; directors, J. C. Hay, of Listowel; J. M. Daly, London; R. Blair, of Woodstock; E. Brown, of Port Hope; F. Mann, of Brantford; D. B. Jacques, Toronto, and W. Heaman, of London.

Mr. Arthur M. Hull, of Chicago, in an address, pointed out that the retail coal merchants throughout the country were doing much for the consuming public in taking the lead in many centres to secure correct weight ordinances. Organization, he said, was a wonderful aid towards helping one another. Constant effort should be made by the retail coal merchant to gather facts on the costs of handling and selling coal at retail, in order that he may be able to set his prices so as to derive a fair margin of profit.

The 200 odd delegates from all parts of Ontario were welcomed to the city by Falls today and will be entertained at Acting Mayor Spence.

The association will visit Niagara dinner by the anthracite coal producers.
