POOR DOCUMENT

MC 2033

ray, Mrs. Jas. White, Miss Busby, Moncton.

Mrs. Woodbury, of Boston, who is visiting her parents at Shemogue, was the guest this week of Mrs. Eric Robidoux

Mr. Silas McCully, of Sussex, was at Shediac Cape during the week.

SACKVILLE.

Sackville, Sept. 9.—Mrs. F. B. Black was hostess on Thursday afternoon at a second very successful tea. Mrs. H. M. Wood was in charge of the dining room and was assisted b Miss Lou Ford and Miss Ogden. Among some of those present were Mrs. Borden, Mrs. Andrews, Mrs. Hunton, Mrs. Secord, Mrs. Wm. Ogden, Mrs. Humphrey Pickard, Mrs. George Wry, Mrs. George Ford, Mrs. Fred Thompson, Mrs. Ernest Wheaten, Mrs. Bliss Fawcett, Mrs. Fred George, Miss Margaret George and Miss Lockhart.

Mr. Frank McKenzie and his family, who have been temporarily housed in Hibbert Black's house on Main street, are now occupying the cosy cottage at Middle Sackville belonging to Mr. S. F. James.

A little daughter gladdened the home recently of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Harris.

On Friday of last week Mrs. Woodford Turner, Weldon street, was hostess at an informal tea at which the following were present: Mrs. Jonal. Cole, Mrs. James Dixon, Mrs. Elizabeth Avard, Mrs. William Harrison, Mrs. Thos. Dixon, Mrs. Thos. Hart, Mrs. Simpson, Mrs. Stephen Atkinson, Mrs. John Johnson, Mrs. McCord, Mrs. Lucas, Mrs. Adams and Mrs. Carter.

Mrs. Kennard and her daughter Julia, who have spent the summer with Sackville friends, left on Tuesday for their home in Portland, Me.

Mr. Percy Fawcett and bride, of Springhill, spent Monday in town receiving congratulations from hosts of friends.

Miss Blanche McLeod and Miss Isla Fawcett spent Saturday in Amherst.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ryan are attending the exhibition in Toronto.

Miss Marion Cutten spent a few days last week in Sackville, the guest of her aunt, Mrs. F. C. McCready. Miss Cutten left yesterday for her home in Boston.

Mrs. Lewis McKenzie and her two sons, Ray and Winsor, who have been summering in Sackville, left Tuesday for their home in Dorchester (Mass.); they were accompanied by Miss Helen McKenzie.

Mr. and Mrs. Job Sears are rejoicing over the arrival of a baby girl in their home.

Mr. and Mrs. William Fawcett attended the funeral of Mrs. Fawcett's mother, Mrs. Bishop, in Dover, on Thursday.

Miss Daisy Estabrooks left on Friday for Quebec, where she has accepted a position in one of the colleges.

Mr. Allister Cameron is spending his vacation in Sydney.

Miss Amy McLeod and her sister, who have been spending the summer with Mr. and Mrs. Robt. McLeod, of Point de Bute, left on Tuesday for their home in Newark, N. J.

Dr. Calkin and Mrs. Calkin, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ryan, Mr. Cedric Ryan, Miss Catherine Ryan and Mr. C. W. Fawcett attended the Ryan-Palmer wedding on Thursday at Dorchester.

Miss Gladys Dixon entertained her Sunday school classmates pleasantly on Friday afternoon from 4 until 7. Miss Dixon was assisted by Miss Hilda Marshall.

Mrs. Charles Fawcett, of Tidnish, N. S., was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. James Wheaten on Saturday.

Mrs. Hunton and family have returned from Cape Tormentire.

Friends of Mr. Daniel will regret to learn that he is again confined to the house.

On Friday afternoon Miss Lena Fawcett, of Upper Sackville, was hostess at an enjoyable sewing party, which was given in honor of her aunt, Mrs. Craig, of Maine. There were present: Mrs. Bliss Fawcett, Mrs. W. Fawcett, Mrs. Thos. Wheaten, Mrs. Fred George, Mrs. W. B. Fawcett, Mrs. Fletcher George, Mrs. Ernest Wheaten, Mrs. Fred Thompson, Mrs. Lawson Smith, Mrs. Wesley Wheaten, Mrs. Walter Tingley, Mrs. Louis Fawcett, Mrs. Scurr, the Misses Campbell, Miss Ethel Barnes, Miss Flo Estabrooks and Miss Margaret George.

Mrs. Ayer, of Petitcodiac, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Thos. Marshall, Allison avenue.

Miss Bertie Hicks, of Upper Sackville, is visiting friends in Halifax.

Miss Norma Kinnear, of Moncton, was the week-end guest of Mr. and Mrs. Josiah Anderson.

Mrs. Lewis McKenzie and her niece, Miss Helen McKenzie, spent Wednesday in Amherst.

On Tuesday afternoon, Mrs. Fred Doncaster entertained in honor of her daughter Anna's ninth birthday. Covers were laid for twenty little misses.

Miss Blanch McLeod leaves today for St. John, where she will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. T. Flood.

Miss Isla Fawcett leaves today for Toronto, where she will attend Havergal college.

Tuesday afternoon, Miss Margaret George gave a thimble party to a large number of her friends and a very pleasant time was enjoyed over their work, culminating in a dainty six o'clock tea.

Mrs. Humphrey, of Sussex; Mrs. McKay, of Moncton, and Mrs. Alonzo McCully, of Bathurst, are visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Fawcett, Upper Sackville. JUSTINA.

MONCTON

Moncton, Sept 10.—Mr. and Mrs. H. A. McCully have returned from Dorchester, where they were guests at the Ryan-Palmer wedding.

Rev. W. B. Sisam, rector of St. Georges church has returned from a six weeks' trip to England. Mrs. Sisam and child have also returned from Halifax, where they have been spending the summer with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Bishop, of Worcester (Mass.), are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Shepherdson.

Mrs. E. S. Scott has returned from a week's visit at Richibucto.

Miss Mary Steeves is spending a few days with friends in Halifax.

Mrs. J. A. Flett and children have returned from Sydney, where they were the guests for some weeks of Mrs. Flett's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Hillson.

Mr. and Mrs. George Moore have gone on a two weeks' holiday trip to Toronto and Montreal.

Mr. Gordon Bowser, of the Royal Bank of Canada staff, has returned from a trip to Boston.

Miss Jessie Ford, of Sackville, is visiting friends in town.

Mr. Charles Webb is spending a few days in Fredericton.

Miss Jean Kempton has returned to her home in Liverpool after a pleasant stay in town, the guest of Miss Sadie Dobson.

Mrs. P. D. Ayer has returned from a lengthy visit to her old home at Sackville, where she was the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Hill. Mrs. Hill accompanied her daughter, and will be in town for a few days.

Mr. C. E. Cole is spending a few days in Halifax.

Mrs. J. S. Boyd has returned from P. E. Island, where she has been spending some time with friends.

Mr. R. N. Wyse is in Toronto attending the exhibition.

Mr. J. A. Flett is away on a fishing trip at Campbellton.

Mrs. George Nixon and daughter, Miss Charlotte, are spending a week with friends in Montreal.

Mr. R. H. Kinnear is attending the Halifax exhibition.

Mrs. Alfred Greig, of Sydney Mines, is spending some days in town, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Jones.

Dr. A. H. Bourque, of Boston, is spending some time with his brother, Dr. L. N. Bourque.

Mr. Frank Boggis, of Charlottetown, spent Saturday in the city en route to Toronto.

Mrs. J. W. Wortman and daughter, Miss Bessie, have returned from a trip to Charlottetown.

Miss Helen Creighton left on Monday for her home in Halifax after a pleasant visit with Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Fraser.

Mr. Shepherdson has resigned his position as manager of the Empire Business College and with Mrs. Shepherdson intends shortly to remove to Worcester (Mass.), to reside.

Mr. W. C. Knight is away on a two weeks' holiday trip to Martha's Vineyard.

Mrs. Millett, of St. John, spent part of the week in the city.

The Misses Nellie and Myrna Forbes are spending a week in Halifax, taking in the exhibition.

Mr. J. T. Hawke, editor of the Transcript, returned on Saturday from a three months' trip on the Continent.

The Misses Wall, of Campbellton, are the guests of Mrs. John M. Clarke.

Mrs. H. A. McCullough, of St. John, spent part of the week with friends in town.

Mrs. Fred Storey and children, of Boston, are spending some time with relatives in the city.

The Misses Cora and Delta Milton, of Salisbury, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar McKee.

Mr. A. E. McSweeney has returned from a trip to Toronto, where he was taking in the exhibition.

Miss Josie Goodall, of Middleton (N. S., is among the week's visitors.

Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Douglas, of Amherst, spent part of the week in town.

Mrs. J. Edington has returned from Buctouche, where she has been spending the summer.

The Misses Esther and Marjorie Blair have returned to their home in Cambridge (Mass.) after a pleasant visit with their cousins, the Misses Fitzpatrick.

Capt. J. W. Carter, of Salisbury, spent Saturday in town.

Mrs. R. L. Botsford's many friends are glad to know she has nearly recovered from the effects of her recent accident and is able to be around again.

Mrs. J. S. Marnie and little daughter, of St. John, are in town, the guests of Dr. and Mrs. C. T. Purdy.

Mrs. John Etherington, of Shelburne, and Mrs. Sevigne, of Boston, arrived in the city on Saturday to spend some time with their mother, Mrs. William Elliott.

Mr. Mordaunt Benson, of the Bank of Montreal staff, has returned from Chatham, where he was spending his vacation at his old home.

Mrs. James Dustan and child have returned from Shediac, where they have been spending the summer with Mrs. Dustan's parents, Rev. and Mrs. Penna.

Mrs. W. C. Hunter, of Sussex, is visiting relatives in the city.

Mr. W. G. Montgomery, of the Bank of Montreal staff, has been transferred to St. Johns (Newfoundland), and left for that place on Tuesday by maritime express. Mr. Montgomery has been residing in Moncton about three years, and in that time has made a large number of friends, who sincerely regret his departure and wish him success in his new home. A private picnic in his honor was held in the grounds of the Kill Kare Club house at Point du Chene on Monday, which proved a most enjoyable affair.

Mr. and Mrs. Hopper are spending a week in Shediac, the guests of Mrs. John Cooper.

Mr. Andrew Mackasey, of Halifax, spent the holiday at his old home in the city.

Miss Mae Wilkinson has returned from Newcastle, where she has been visiting relatives for a few weeks.

Mr. James Doyle returned on Saturday from a six weeks' trip to England. Mr. Doyle travelled with the Rev. W. W. Weeks, of Springfield (Mass.), a former resident of this city.

Miss Elizabeth Powell is sepnding some time in Richibucto, the guest of her sister, Mrs. George Hutchinson.

Mr. J. Herbert Knight, Bachelor of Music, formerly organist at Holy Trinity church, Scarboro (Eng.), has arrived in the city to take charge of the organ of the Central Methodist church. Mr. Knight playing at both services on Sunday created a very favorable impression. At the evening service Mr. Rhodes, of London (Eng.), favored the large audience with a bass solo, "The Better Land."

Mrs. F. W. Sumner left on Tuesday's Maritime express for Windsor where she is placing her daughter, Miss Marjorie, at the Edgehill Ladies' College.

Mrs. H. S. Bell has returned from Shediac where she has been for some weeks, the guest of Mrs. D. Harper.

Mrs. L. Somers is spending a couple of weeks with friends in Toronto.

At the Moncton golf links on Saturday afternoon a large crowd was in attendance. Tea was served by Mrs. E. A. Harris, assisted by Miss Viola Flanagan and Miss Winnie Girvan.

Mr. George Trenholm, of Dartmouth, spent the holiday at his old home in town.

Mrs. J. B. Toombs and children have gone to Hamilton on a visit to relatives.

Mrs. J. P. Clark is spending a couple of weeks at Hopewell Hill, the guest of Mrs. W. McGorman.

A very quiet but pretty wedding took place at the residence of Mr. E. N. Lockhart, on Tuesday when his daughter, Miss Alva Lena, was united in marriage with Mr. Jasper Webber Steeves, of this city. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. James Strothard, pastor of the Central Methodist church. The bride, who was unattended, was gowned in white silk and carried a bouquet of sweet peas and maiden hair fern. After luncheon the happy couple left on a trip to Boston and New York. The bride's travelling suit was of blue with hat to match. A number of valuable gifts were received which testified to the popularity of both bride and groom.

Canon Pentreath, formerly rector of St. George's church, but now residing in Vancouver (B. C.), is visiting friends in town.

Mrs. Harvey Copp, of Sackville, is spending some time with her daughter, Mrs. George Wilson.

Miss Grace Busby has returned from Shediac, where she has been spending some weeks visiting friends.

Mrs. George Clarke has gone to Halifax to attend the exhibition.

Miss Lena Bray, of Shediac, spent part of the week in town.

Miss Kate Wyseman, of Newcastle, is visiting friends in the city.

Miss Fairweather is spending a few days in Sackville, the guest of Miss Hattie Bartlett.

Mr. A. C. Chapman and family have returned from Cape Brule where they have been spending the summer.

Mrs. W. A. McDougall, has gone to Halifax to visit friends.

Miss Gallagher, of St. John, is the guest of her cousin, Miss Agnes Hogan.

Miss Tessie Madans, of Glace Bay, is spending a few days in town, the guest of Mrs. John Little.

Miss Bessie Seaman is in Halifax taking in the exhibition.

Miss Bessie Stenhouse, of Dartmouth, has returned to town and intends to at once resume her kindergarten class.

Mr. R. C. Dunbar has returned to his home in Guelph (Ont.), after enjoying a couple of weeks' holiday, the guest of his sister, Mrs. A. E. Williams.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnston Thompson, of Boston, are the guests of Mrs. Thompson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Brown.

A quiet wedding was solemnized in the West End Baptist church at 9 o'clock on Wednesday morning, when Mr. D. S. Robertson, of this city, was united in marriage with Miss Bertha Lewis, youngest daughter of the late Mr. W. J. Lewis. The ceremony was performed by the pastor of the church, Rev. E. B. McLatchy. The bride wore a pretty gown of white cashmere with baby Irish lace and carried a bouquet of sweet peas. She was attended by her niece, Miss May Bishop, of Calgary, who was gowned in cream nun's veiling. After luncheon the happy couple left for Halifax on their wedding trip and, on their return, will reside in town.

Miss Clara Oulton and Miss Ethel Keith have gone to St. John to spend a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. William returned on Wednesday from the upper provinces, where they have been spending a month with friends.

A very enjoyable concert was given in the basement of St. John's church on Wednesday evening, in honor of Miss Beatrice Crandall, who has been for some time soprano soloist in that church. Miss Crandall was heard in several solos. Mrs. Irvine Malcolm contributed a reading, Mr. Cassin a violin solo, and Mrs. Fred Crandall, Mrs. H. L. Thompson, Miss Jean Crandall and Mr. T. Stenhouse made up the balance of the programme, which was much enjoyed by the large audience present.

Mr. J. McD. Cooke left on Thursday for Elmsdale (N. S.), to visit relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Tiffin are spending the week in Montreal in order to be present at the wedding of their daughter, which shortly takes place to Mr. Emile Schlanter.

Mrs. C. Purdy entertained a large number of little folk on Thursday afternoon, in honor of little Miss Mary Marnie, of St. John, who, with her mother, is Mrs. Purdy's guest.

Mr. John Walker, of the Royal Bank of Canada staff, spent part of the week in Sackville.

Mrs. Percy Higgins received for the first time since her marriage on Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. L. H. Higgins assisted her daughter-in-law in receiving her many callers. The bride wore her wedding costume of white satin with lace. Mrs. L. H. Higgins wore a pretty gown of old rose silk with lace trimmings. Mrs. F. J. White and Mrs. Fred Crandall presided in the tea room, assisted by Miss Grace Williams, Miss Fannie Taylor and Miss Grace Harris. Mrs. White wore a cream lace blouse with black silk skirt, Mrs. Crandall a black and white costume, Miss Williams was in pink, and Miss Taylor and Miss Harris in white.

Mr. F. W. Sumner is recovering nicely from his recent accident and expects shortly to be around again.

Many friends heard with sincere regret of the death of Mr. H. A. Whitney, which took place in the Royal Victoria hospital, Montreal, where Mr. Whitney had gone for treatment. The funeral was on Saturday and many friends were in attendance to show the last mark of respect.

Miss Margaret Lea, of Boston, has arrived on a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Lea.

Mrs. John Boyd, of Malden (Mass.), is the guest of her sister, Mrs. William Trites.

Mrs. J. L. Trites has returned to her home in Salisbury after a nice visit with Mrs. W. A. McDougall.

Moncton, N. B., Sept. 13.—Claude Day, age fourteen years, son of Gordon Day, met with a serious accident Saturday afternoon. He fell from a tree, breaking both arms. The lad was playing with companions in the woods climbing trees.

Bonds representing $15,000 of the debt on the Moncton First Baptist church were burned at the close of the service in that church this evening in the presence of a large congregation. The ceremony was participated in by several members of the church who took a leading part in the forward movement. Those touching the light to the bond were, Erasmus Steeves, Chas. Fairweather and David Steeves. This is the first result of the movement begun some months ago to wipe the debt off the church. The balance of the bonds are to be burned soon.

Edward H. McKeever, a well known barber and son of Bernard McKeever, is to be married Tuesday to Miss Stella May McNeil, of St. John, the ceremony to take place in St. John the Baptist church.

Olive Legere, of St. Mary's, Kent Co., while returning home from Moncton last Friday night, was the victim of a bad runaway accident. In going down a steep hill at Irishtown the neck yoke broke and the horses attached to the heavy express ran away. Legere jumped and sustained a broken leg and dislocated ankle besides being otherwise shaken up.

FREDERICTON

Fredericton, Sept. 11.—Mrs. J. L. Currie, of Cambridge (Mass.), who has been spending the summer in St. John, is visiting friends here.

Mrs. John Robinson has gone to St. Andrews to spend a few weeks at her cottage there.

Mrs. H. G. C. Ketchum and the Misses Stopford have returned from Tidnish, N. S., where they were spending the summer.

Mrs. L. W. Sherman gave a pleasant bridge on Wednesday evening, three tables, when Mrs. Gilley, of Oklahoma City, was guest of honor. Mrs. J. W. McCready was prize winner. At midnight a dainty supper was served.

Miss Hazel Palmer has returned from a pleasant visit of several weeks with friends at Shediac.

Rev. W. H. McLeod is here from Halifax and is the guest of the Rev. J. H. McDonald at the Baptist parsonage, Mr. McLeod was a former assistant pastor of Mr. McDonald's.

Rev. Dr. Taylor is the guest of the Rev. A. A. Rideout.

Mrs. Howard Shaw entertained a number of the young friends of her daughter, Miss Irma, on Wednesday afternoon, from four to six, in honor of Miss Irma's birthday.

Miss Addie Robinson is visiting friends in Halifax.

Mrs. Massie was one of the hostesses of the week and on Saturday evening entertained at cards.

Mrs. Mersereau, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Wm. Scott, returned to her home at Doaktown on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Art. Gibson are spending a couple of weeks visiting Toronto and Montreal.

Mrs. R. H. McGrath has cards out for an "At Home" for tomorrow, Friday, afternoon, from four to six.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Fraser Winslow spent a few days at Westfield Beach this week with friends.

Mrs. Chas. W. Hall is this evening entertaining at a card party and has invitations out for a tea for tomorrow afternoon.

Miss Smith, of Antigonish, N. S., is visiting her niece, Mrs. E. A. Allen, at "Garden Creek."

Mrs. John Palmer and daughter, Mrs. W. McLellan, left this morning for Boston.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Lee Babbitt have returned from a pleasant visit of three weeks spent at St. Andrews.

Miss Valerie Steeves left on Tuesday for Edgehill, N. S., where she will attend the ladies' college.

Mrs. Davenport, of Boston, is visiting Mrs. Chas. W. Hall.

Judge Gregory and Miss Gregory returned this evening from a ten days stay at Dorchester.

Mr. and Mrs. Oxley are visiting Mrs. Oxley's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. N. Babbitt.

Mrs. McLearn has returned from a visit to the North Shore.

Mrs. Barbour is visiting in Toronto.

Mrs. J. S. Armstrong is the guest of her sister, Mrs. F. P. Robinson.

CHATHAM

Chatham, N. B., Sept. 10.—Mrs. William Dick entertained on Monday evening in honor of her sister, Mrs. Sanson, of Calgary, bridge was indulged in and about midnight a dainty supper was served. Those present were Mrs. Sanson, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Rawlings, Miss Frances Snowball, Miss Lillian Snowball, Miss Margaret Beveridge, Miss Bertie Pierce, Dr. Styner (Philadelphia), Mr. W. G. Fisher, Mr. A. W. B. Little.

Mr. and Mrs. John J. Benson, of Pictou, Ont., are the guests of Mrs. Benson's sister, Mrs. George E. Fisher, Woodburn.

Miss Edythe Winslow, of St. John, is visiting Mrs. Warren C. Winslow, Henderson street.

Mrs. James F. Connors has returned from St. John and Fredericton, after having spent two weeks with friends.

Miss Ida Haviland, who has been spending the summer with relatives here, returned to Boston Saturday.

Mrs. Warren C. Winslow entertained at bridge on Friday evening in honor of Miss Edythe Winslow, of St. John, who is her guest. The affair was a small but extremely enjoyable one as all Mrs. Winslow's functions are. Among those present were Miss Winslow, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Macleod, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick M. Tweedie, Mrs. James G. Miller, Miss Gillespie, Miss Bertie Pierce, Mr. A. W. B. Little and Mr. William Park (Newcastle).

Master Fred Morrison, the young son of Mr. and Mrs. James Morrison, was run over on Saturday and quite severely hurt about the body and his left hand badly crushed. Dr. W. S. Loggie is attending the little fellow and hopes to save the fingers.

Mrs. H. B. McDonald's friends are pleased to see her out again after her recent illness.

Miss Lella P. Jardine, of Napan, will go to Mount Allison this week to study music.

Miss May Des Brisay, of Newcastle, spent last week with friends here.

Mr. Benjamin Murdoch left on Wednesday for Quebec, where he will enter upon a three years' course in the Grand Seminary prior to entering the priesthood. Mr. Murdoch is the eldest son of Mr. R. A. Murdoch and one of Chatham's most popular young men.

Miss Grace Matthews, of Alberton (P. E. I.), is the guest of her cousin, Miss Barbara Matthews, Church street.

Miss Kate Maher returned to New York on Tuesday. While here Miss Maher was the guest of her sister, Mrs. B. M. Moran.

Miss Jessie McDonald left last week for Boston, where she will resume her musical studies at the New England Conservatory.

Lieut. Governor Tweedie returned from Fredericton on Friday.

Mr. Alexander Thompson and Mr. Charles Allan, of Fredericton, who have been the guests of Mr. Thompson's aunt, Mrs. J. B. Snowball, returned home on Tuesday.

Mr. Huntley Morrison, of the Bank of Montreal at Moncton, spent Sunday in Chatham, the guest of his aunt, Mrs. J. D. B. F. Mackenzie.

Mrs. Charles E. Oake and the Misses Oak, who have been spending the summer in Chatham, returned to Bangor this week.

Mrs. John T. Kane has returned from a pleasant visit with St. John friends.

Mrs. Charles Whitney, of Lunenburg (N. S.), is the guest of Mrs. G. J. Sproul.

Mrs. James G. Miller and Miss Gillespie spent Monday at Loggieville, the guest of Mrs. Frank P. Loggie.

Miss Bertie Pierce entertained at euchre on Tuesday afternoon at her home, King street, in honor of Mrs. Henry Rawlings, of New York, and Miss Edythe Winslow, of St. John. The affair was small, but very enjoyable. Miss Winslow was also the guest of honor at an informal luncheon on Monday given by Miss Snowball.

Mrs. Volckman was hostess at a very enjoyable musicale on Friday evening. Among those present were:—Mr. and Mrs. William Dick, Mr. James and Miss Beveridge, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Snowball, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Scott Peacock.

Miss Gladys Dawson has gone to Charlottetown, having accepted a position as teacher in one of the public schools there.

Miss Ruby Miller, of Millerton, who has been the guest of her aunt, Mrs. James Miller, Water street, returned home on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. David Sadler visited Newcastle friends on Monday.

Mr. E. C. S. Messervey left on Saturday for Halifax, where he spent the holiday at his home.

Mrs. John Sinclair and her daughter, Miss Sinclair, went to Moncton on Saturday.

Rev. J. Morris MacLean returned from Strathlorne, C. B., on Saturday, after having spent the past five weeks there.

Miss Mary Williston went to St. John on Saturday where she will visit relatives.

Mrs. John Shireff and her daughter, Mrs. Richardson, who have been spending the summer at the "Touraine," left for Ottawa on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. James Vanstone have returned after having had a pleasant visit in Boston and St. John.

Miss Nellie P. Goggin was hostess at a small but very enjoyable bridge on Friday evening.

Mrs. J. Russel McKnight was the guest of her mother, Mrsfl Ingram, at Newcastle last week.

Mrs. McIntyre who has been the guest of her cousin, Miss Ullock, Queen street, returned to her home in St. John on Saturday.

Mrs. W.P. Eaton, Mrs. C. P. Hickey and Mrs. R. D. Hanson had charge of the tennis tea this week.

Mrs. W. C. McLean, of Newcastle, visited Chatham friends on Wednesday.

Mrs. Marion Hepburn visited relatives in Harcourt last week.

Miss Viney Miller returned to St. John on Saturday after a pleasant visit with friends in Chatham.

Much sympathy is being expressed for the family of Mr. James Edgar, whose death took place very suddenly on Saturday afternoon. Besides his wife, Mr. Edgar leaves a family of nine children, five sons and four daughters. The daughters are Mrs. Henderson, wife of Rev. Duncan Henderson, Mrs. D. P. MacLachlan, wife of Mayor MacLachlan, and the Misses Minnie, Bertie and Lynda. The sons are Andrew, Joseph, Gordon and Norman.

Mrs. P. J. Barry is visiting St. John friends.

Mrs. Richard Davis, of Magnolia, Mass., was the guest of Mrs. W. J. Connors last week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Forrest went to Tabusintac on Saturday.

Miss Marion Morrison's many friends are pleased to see her in Chatham again. While here she will be the guest of her uncle, Mr. Alexander McKay. Miss Morrison holds a responsible position in the Western General Hospital at Montreal.

Mrs. Horace W. Cole, of St. John, is the guest of Mrs. Frank P. Loggie, Loggieville.

Miss Laula Smith spent a few days this week at her home in Rexton.

Lieutenant Governor Tweedie and Mrs. Tweedie left this week for Toronto.

Miss Edythe Winslow, who has been the guest of Mrs. W. C. Winslow, left on Tuesday to visit relatives in Fredericton.

Miss Margaret Irving, of Newcastle, and Miss Mungey, of Amherst, spent a few days this week with Chatham friends.

Mrs. George McLean is visiting friends at Burnt Church.

Mrs. May Whitney has returned to her home in Philadelphia, after having spent the summer with her parents at Bartibogue.

Miss Sophia Benson has returned from Newfoundland where she has been the guest for some time of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Anderson.

Mr. Eastwood, of Toronto, who has been visiting Colonel and Mrs. McCulley, has returned home.

Mr. James Waddleton, of New York, is visiting his old home here.

Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Curll have returned from Halifax, where they were taking in the exhibition.

Mr. and Mrs. McDonald, of Montreal, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Fisher, Woodburn.

Mrs. J. P. King and Miss Jessie Miller chaperoned the younger crowd at a most enjoyable picnic at Pount Aux Car on Labor Day. Among those present were Miss King, Miss Miller, Miss Florence Hocken, Miss Grace Morrison, Miss Lillian Fisher, Miss Rae Loggie, the Misses Mary and Edythe Winslow, and Messrs. Leigh Loggie, Don and Jack Beveridge, Rex Rideout, Mr. Matheson, Bert Murdock and Jack Loggie.

ANDOVER

Andover, N. B., Sept. 10.—Mr. Harold Petley, who has been spending a few days with his parents in the village, left on Monday for Montreal, accompanied by his father.

Mrs. N. J. Wootten is visiting friends and relatives in Halifax, N. S.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Bolton are spending their vacation in Toronto.

Miss Stothard, who has been the guest of Miss Beatrice Willing for several weeks, returned to her home on Monday.

Miss Nellie Tibbitts returned on Thursday from a visit with friends in St. John.

Miss Mary Wiley entertained a few young ladies informally at the tea hour on Thursday last.

Rev. J. J. McCaskell was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Tibbitts on Friday.

The friends of Miss Jessie Walker will be sorry to hear of her illness with typhoid fever. Miss Sadie Tibbitts is the nurse in charge.

A very pleasant dance was given in Beveridge's Hall on Friday evening by the young men of the village. Knowly's orchestra furnished music and a very pleasant evening was spent.

Mr. and Mrs. Bull and Mr. and Mrs. Ward and children are the guests of Mrs. D. R. Bedell.

Miss Greer, of Fredericton is nursing Mrs. F. H. Wentworth, who is ill of typhoid fever.

Mr. H. H. Pickett spent Labor Day at his old home in Hillandale, returning Tuesday accompanied by his son Gordon.

Miss Mary Watson returned from St. John on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Justus Pickett, of Kingston, are the guests of Mrs. Lewis Pickett, Hillandale.

Mrs. Wiley and sons David and Donald, spent Labor Day with friends in Florenceville.

Mr. H. H. Tibbetts and Mr. Fitzgerald enjoyed a day's fishing at Dead Water this week.

Mr. Hugh Reed, of St. John, with his two cousins, the Misses Breenan, spent Labor Day at his old home, St. Elmo.

Mr. Oron Allen, St. John, West, is the guest of his cousin, Mrs. Wiley.

Miss May Holt, of Presque Isle, is the guest of Miss Laura Hopkins, of Aroostook Junction.

Miss Rema Evans, Grand Falls, is a guest of Miss Louise Curry.

Mr. Hiram Murphy and son Ray returned on Tuesday from the West.

Mr. Hermon Turner, of the Bank of Montreal, Fredericton, is spending his vacation at his home.

Mr. Dot Wallace, Woodstock, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Waite.

Mr. Ruel, St. John, is supplying for Mr. Bolton as manager of the Bank of Montreal during Mr. Bolton's vacation.

Miss Pearl Waite returned on Wednesday from Woodstock, where she has been camping with friends on Skiff Lake.

DORCHESTER

Dorchester, Sept. 10.—Mr. and Mrs. Gesner Kerr, who were guests of Mrs. D. L. Hanington for a few weeks, have returned to their home in Westfield (N. J.).

Miss Ella Tait, of St. John, is visiting in town, the guest of Mrs. James Friel.

Mrs. H. R. McCully returned to her home in Amherst on Saturday, after a week spent in town at the home of Mrs. H. W. Palmer.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Wilbur spent Sunday last in Baie Verte with friends.

Hon. Justice Hanington returned home last Friday after a three months' trip spent in England and elsewhere.

Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Hooper, who have been spending two weeks in town with Mrs. Hooper's mother, Mrs. M. B. Palmer, returned on Saturday to their home in Newark.

Miss Emily Emmerson spent Tuesday in Moncton.

Mr. Harrison Curtis, of Boston, arrived in town on Saturday, leaving again on Monday, accompanied by his wife and two children, who have been spending the summer in town at the Windsor hotel.

Judge Gregory has been in town for the past ten days attending court. He was accompanied by his daughter, Miss Gregory.

Mrs. D. K. Hanington was in Amherst on Wednesday of this week.

Rev. Mr. Quinn and Mrs. Quinn, of Westmorland, were in town on Wednesday.

Mrs. Symmes, of Niagara, who has been the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Charles S. Hickman, for several weeks, returned to her home this week.

Miss Mary Palmer has returned to her home in Amherst after visiting her father, Mr. Edward C. Palmer, for a few weeks.

Mrs. A. B. Tait and children, who have been spending the summer with Mrs. M. B. Palmer, returned to New York City today. They were accompanied by Dr. G. H. Palmer, who was in town for two weeks.

Mrs. Armstrong and Miss Holt are visiting their sister, Mrs. A. D. Richard.

Mr. Pugsley and daughter, Mrs. Roland Robb, of Amherst, visited town on Tuesday in their automobile.

Messrs Harry Hall, Hugh Teed, William McQueen and Willie Hickman left today to attend the Rothesay school at Rothesay.

The picnic given by the Dorchester band on Monday evening in the rink was a splendid success and about a hundred and seventy-five dollars was realized for band purposes.

Dr. and Mrs. George B. Ryan, who have been spending their honeymoon in the Upper Canadian cities, are expected to return this week. They will be in town for a few weeks with Mrs. Ryan's father, Mr. H. W. Palmer, after which they will leave for Paris (France), where they will reside.

Mrs C. B. Record is visiting in St. John the guest of her sister, Mrs deWolfe Spurr.

BATHURST.

Bathurst, N. B., Sept. 10.—Hon. Alphonse Turgeon and Mrs. Turgeon, with their two children, are here from Prince Albert to visit O. Turgeon, M. P., and Mrs. Turgeon.

Miss Margaret Duncan is at home from Boston City Hospital for a vacation.

Mrs. J. S. Creighton returned to her home in Woodstock last week after making a visit to friends here.

Miss Minnie Baldwin has gone to Boston to visit friends.

Miss Bessie Bishop has gone to Woodstock to make a visit to Mrs. J. S. Creighton.

Miss Ethel White returned during the week from a visit to friends in St. John.

Mrs. Dallas, of Boston, who has been visiting with friends here, has returned to her home.

Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Veniot have returned from a visit to Moncton friends.

Mrs. J. Taylor, of New York, is making a visit to Bathurst friends.

Mrs. Leger, of Moncton, is a guest of Mrs. P. J. Veniot.

Mr. Fred White, of the Royal Bank, Dalhousie, made a visit to his home people here this week.

Mr. J. Storer, of Campbellton, visited Bathurst this week.

Miss Jessie Carter went to St. John on Tuesday, to be absent about two weeks.

A grand drawing of prizes in connection with the R. C. bazaar, held here on August 25, 26 and 27, will take place in the basement of the church of the S. H. on the evening of the 17th inst. The final result of the bazaar will be announced on that date.

Mr. and Mrs. David Curtin, after a short visit here, returned to their home in Boston on Thursday.

TRURO.

Truro, Sept. 8.—Mrs. Ernest Nickerson, of Shag Harbor, has been spending a few days at the home of her brother, Mr. Matthew Reid. She left to-day for Milford to visit her father before returning to her home.

Mrs. Powers, of Lunenburg, a guest of Mrs. W. P. King, has returned home.

Miss Mary King has been on a short visit to her aunt, Mrs. Edwin King, in Halifax.

Mrs. Isaac Snook, her daughter, Mrs. Arthur Mahon, and her daughter-in-law, Mrs. George Snook, gave quite a large at home on Thursday afternoon.

Miss Emma Theakston, of Halifax, who has been visiting Mrs. C. M. Mack, at the parsonage, went home yesterday morning. Miss Theakston is on the teaching staff of Halifax and spent part of her vacation in New Brunswick.

Miss Margaret Doane left yesterday for Apple River, Cumberland, where she has charge of the advanced department of the school.

Miss Foster, of Bridgetown, is in town, a guest with her brother, Mr. F. W. Foster.

Miss Jennie Fellows, of Bridgetown, spent Sunday with her aunt, Mrs. G. O. Fulton.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Sponagle have returned to town from a pleasant visit at the former's home, West Dublin, N. S.

About a dozen golf players from New Glasgow were in town yesterday for a friendly play with the Truro club. The ladies of the Truro team served luncheon and tea at the club house.

Miss Myrtle Goode, who has been spending her vacation at home, returned to her work as organist and teacher in Sydney last week. Her brother Fred is visiting her for a shore time.

Mr. G. W. McKenzie, B.A., wife and children, arrived in Truro last week from Cape Breton. Mr. McKenzie has been appointed on the teaching staff of the Academy for the classes of Advanced Mathematics and Junior Science.

Mrs. A. E. Hunt and children are visiting Mrs. Hunt's mother, Mrs. Atkinson, in Amherst.

Miss Minnie Barnes and her cousins, Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Wade, spent Sunday in Truro.

Miss Lizzie Smith has been spending a few days with Mrs. F. A. Doane.

Mrs. William Purvis, of Bermuda, who has been a guest with Mrs. D. Gunn, left for New Glasgow on Saturday.

Miss Stevens, a teacher in River Hebert, spent part of last week in Truro.

Captain David Murray and Mrs. Murray have returned from quite an extended visit in England. Part of the time was spent with their son, Prof. Jack Murray, and his wife at a large summer hotel in the West of England.

Miss Emma Smith, of Maitland, and Miss Laura Marchant, of Cornwallis, were in Truro last week en route to Halifax to spend a few days.

Prof. Connolly and wife are having an outing with friends in Port Hood, C. B.

Mrs.