and people round him. In this he has been unsuccessful, as a delegate has arrived at Kafr-el Dwar in the persons of Butras-Pasha and a deputation, with a proposal for surrender. What are the conditions is not yet known, but it is expected that nothing short of unconditional surrender will be accepted. It is known that the missive sent here declares the "unfeigned loyalty" of the inhabitants of the Khedive. Meanwhile both Arabi and Toulba Pashas are now prisoners. No details have as yet been made public, but it is known that the Prefect of the Palace arrested Arabi. From the fact that Toulba Pasha decided to hold a conference in the autumn to inaugurate a national movement, in to inaugurate a national movement, in which the various movements will be con-solidated upon a platform of national self-government, the abolition of landlordism, the promotion of home industries, the rights that the Prefect of the Palace arrested Arabi. THE DELEGATION FROM CAIRO THE DELEGATION FROM CAIRO was composed of Butras Bey, Reauf Pasha, and Ali Pasha. Its members pre-sented to the Khedive on the part of the inhabitants of Cairo an address pleading loyalty and submission. They were dele-gated to present the address at the meet-ing yesterday attended by several high functionaries, Notables and Ulemas, includ-ing the Sheikh el-Edwi, hitherto a staunch partizan of Arabi. Butras Bey teld the Khedive that the rebel force at Tel-el-Kebir at the time of the attack consisted of 30,000 regulars, 7,000 Bedouins, and 3,000 volunteers. The first news of the battle that reached Cairo reported a great Egyptian victory, FALL OF ARABI BEY. The Egyptian War is likely at an end at least so far as Arabi Bey is concerned. at least so far as Arabi Bey is concerned. His position at Tel-el-Kebir was attacked by Gen. Wolsely on the 13th inst. and car-ried with little difficulty. Arabi himself, betrayed by one of his own staff is now a prisoner and will likely experience little favor especially if the massacres in Alex-andria can in any way be attributable to him. We glean the following from the despatches: The next news of the battle that reached Cairo reported a great Egyptian victory, and when subsequently it was announced that Arabi was on his way to Cairo, it was rumored that he bore with him Admiral despatches The Egyptian position at Tel-el-Kebir

The Egyptian position at refer Reon was far less strongly fortified than was supposed. Arabi's sharp-shooters, before the flight of the garrison, stood well out from the works and shot down many of the English officers. In loss of officers the Seymour's head. The people of Cairo had never heard of General Wolseley, and had never heard of General Wolseley, and imagined that Admiral Seymour com-manded our troops. The troops are still ordered to be on the qui vive, as, with such a treacherous and fanatical population, a fresh explo-sion could be easily caused. The sentries are still doubled end the streets patrolled by armed soldiar and the military nolice British suffered most. Lieut. Gordon killed three Egyptian officers with his

BEHAVIOUR OF ARABI'S TROOPS The black Soudan troops on the Egypt-ian side fought pluckily. Arabi's artil-lery was well served, but the pure Egypt-ian regiments behaved very cowardly. The first fire of the Egyptians was very wild. With daylight the enemy's fire im-proved, and fell on the British like a hail-storm. Many men fell, but not a second did the British stop. On the south the en-emy stood a few minutes longer, but the appearance of the British cavalry on their right hastened their movements. In a few moments one rushing stream of fugit-ives was making for Zagazig, flying out of all their entrenchments. A little later Macpherson's Indian brigade burst upon the flying foe from the south, and the rout was complete. The artillery coming up at a gallop, unlimbered, and spent shot confusion. The cavalry had got right round the enemy's flanks before the fight of guns captured are greater than first mentioned. It is believed A DEATH BLOW has been given to Arabi. A Pleasant and Profitable Day's Doings at St. Thomas.

The annual R. C. picnic at St. Thomas,

The annual R. C. picnic at St. Thomas, on Wednesday, was a pleasing and success-ful event. The 7th Band, of London, furnished the excellent music for which they are famous. Owing to the threaten-ing state of the weather all the games on the programme were not got off, but those which filled, were well contested. The 100 yards race resulted as follows: 1st, J. Malone, 82; 2nd, H. McMullen, $1. In the base ball match the Maple Leafs beat the Fries by a score of 16 to 3. Potatoes the Eries by a score of 16 to 3. The events of the day were the contests for the gold watch and gold-headed cane. The following young ladies were the candidates to contest for the gold watch:

candidates to contest for the gold watch: Miss Theresa Hughson and Miss Annie Salter, St. Thomas; Miss Annie Casey, Southwold; and Miss Mary Brady, West-minster. Miss Casey scored as high as 1,099 votes; Miss Salter, 1,198; Miss Hughson, 1,347; Miss Brady crowned the list with 1,765, and won the prize. The contest for the gold-headed cane was the next event. Conductor A. W. Martin, of the C. S. R., and conductor D. Stewart, of the G. W. R., were the con-testants, the former being the lucky man. The cane netted $100.

The cane netted $100. About $1,000 will be realized from the picnic, and Father McKeon is to be congratulated on its success.

Sir Garnet Wolseley's official despatch to the war Office says: "We struck camp at Kassasin Lock last evening and bivouacked on a high ridge above the camp until 1.30 this evening. We then advanced upon the very extensive, very strongly fortified position held by Arabi strongly fortified position held by Arabi Bey with 20,000 regulars, of whom 2,500 were cavalry, with 70 guns and 6,000 Bedouins and irregulars. My force was about 11,000 bayonets, 2,000 sabres, 60 guns. To have attacked so strong a posi-tion by daylight with the troops I could place in the field would have entailed very great loss. I resolved, therefore, to at-tack before day-break, marching the six miles that intervened between my camp and the enemy's position in darkness. miles that intervened between my camp and the enemy's position in darkness. The cavalry and two batteries of horse artillery on the right had orders to sweep round the enemy's line at daybreak. The first division of the second brigade under Graham, supported by the Foot Guards, under the Duke of Connaught, seven batteries of artillery, numbering 42 guns, with the supporting brigade, then the second division of the Highland brigade leading the Indian contingent, these on the south side of the canal, with the naval brigade on the railway, advanced. Great emulation was displayed by the regiments to be first in the enemy's works. All to be first in the enemy's works. An went at them straight, the Royal Irish particularly distinguishing itself by its dash and the manner in which it closed with the enemy. All the enemy's works do not yet know exactly the number of guns captured, but the number is consider-able. Several trains, with immerse out guns captured, but the number is consider-able. Several trains, with immense quan-tities of supplies, were captured. The enemy ran away in thousands, throwing away their arms when overtaken by our cavalry. Their loss is very great. Gen-eral Willis slightly and Colonel Richardson severely wounded. Major Colville and Lieutenants Midwood and Somerville, of the Highland Light Infantry, were killed. Of the Black Watch, Lieut. McNeill was killed and Cantains Cumberland and Fox eral Willis slightly and Colonel Richardson severely wounded. Major Colville and Lieutenants Midwood and Somerville, of the Highland Light Infantry, were killed. Of the Black Watch, Lieut. McNeill was killed and Captains Cumberland and Fox wounded. General Alison's aide-de-camp, Capt. Hutton, was wounded. Col. Stirling Capt. Hutton, was wounded. Col. Stirling and the surgeon of the Coldstream Guards were wounded. Col. Balfour, of the Grenadier Guards, wounded in the leg, and a color-sergeant killed. The cavalry is now on its march to Belbeis, and the Is now on its march to Beibeis, and the Indian contingent on its way to Zazaig, to be followed this evening by the High-land Brigade. Three lieutenants of the Cameron Highlanders were wounded. The canal is cut in some places, but the railway is intact. It has been discovered that Racheb Pasha and Ali Fehmy Pasha were wounded in the engagement on Saturday.
