As Quickly as Water Dissolves Sugar

About the Time It Takes For a Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablet to Work on the Food and Bring Relief.

TRIAL PACKAGE SENT FREE.

There is no long wait between the time you take a Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablet and the feeling of relief it will bring to an overloaded stomach. It gets busy in a jiffy, and quickly sets things to rights in that tired and disordered stomach. It goes right at the work of digesting the food it finds lodged there, and in no time at all has things on the move—the gases cease forming, the breath is sweetened, the coating on the tongue disappears, and you are no longer conscious that you even have a stomach.

That is one of the chief recommendations for Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets—that they don't take forever to accomplish the purpose for which you need them. It is just as if you put an extra stomach or two to work when yours needed help. You can't continually overload your stomach and expect it to always smile. It is going to get rebellious and sulky after awhile and refuse to go on being driven to do double work. You must rest it occasionally—not by starving and thereby weakening yourself physically—but by using a Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablet to do the work of digesting your food.

These Tablets contain all the active elements of the natural stomach juices, and will alone and unaided digest food just the same as the gastric juices. And nothing could be more harmless than these tablets. They do not affect the system in any way—do not cure any ailment except as they digest food. Use them freely.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are sold by all druggists everywhere. Price, 50 cents per box. A trial package will be sent if you will write F. A. Stuart Company, 150 Stuart building, Marshall, Mich.

BOARD OF TRADE FOR THEDFORD

Thedford, March 24. — A board of trade has been organized in Thedford with the following officers: President, Asa Rumford; vice-president, T. H. Parkinson; secretary-treasurer, Dr. A. J. Grant; directors, Messrs. R. McKenzie, W. N. Ironside, W. S. Rogers, E. Coultis, J. R. Woodhall, G. H. Powell, and F. A. Jennings. Thedford is situated in the heart of the much-talked-of Lambton fruit belt, and an active campaign is on foot to bring the merits of the district before the public.

A BELOVED QUEEN

Elizabeth of Belgium Sends Girls to Hospital.

Brussels, March 23.—There is great rejoicing now that Queen Elizabeth has recovered sufficiently from her long and serious illness to go away for a change of air and scene, and an act of charity which she performed on the eve of her departure has endeared her still more to her people.

When she had arranged to leave Belgium for her convalescence she bethought herself of those sick women who on going out of hospitals have no means of taking a rest or holiday to complete their cure, and she accordingly gave orders that 70 young women and girls should be sent on leaving the hospitals where they had been treated to the convalescent home in La Hulpe, near Brussels, she personally to bear all the expenses of their stay.

MONTREAL BLACKHANDER SENTENCED TO DEATH

Franceso Creola to Die for the Murder of a Fellow Countryman.

Montreal, March 24.—With the composure of an ancient stoic, a former citizen of Italy yesterday afternoon heard and accepted without flinching the intimation that he is to pay the extreme penalty of the law for having taken the life of a fellow-countryman nearly a year ago.

"Have you any reason to advance why sentence of death should not be passed upon you?" was the question put by Justice Lavergne to Franceso Creola, alias Greola, who had been found guilty of murder.

Answering through the interpreter, the condemned man replied:

"Seeing that such is the decision of the learned judge, there is nothing for me to do but to meet death."

Sentence was then imposed by Judge Lavergne, who assumed the official cap while pronouncing it, fixing the date of the execution for May 26. Creola remained quite unmoved as he heard the sentence.

The crime of which Creola is found guilty was committed on the night of April 24 last in a house in Richmond Lane. Guiseppe Chine, the victim, who was stabbed by Creola for apparently no reason, said in his ante-mortem statement that Creola had frequently pestered him for money.

GREY TO BE ASKED TO DISSOLVE COMMONS

Toronto, March 24.—Toronto Conservatives have called a public meeting for next Thursday, when they will draw up a petition asking Earl Grey to dissolve parliament in order to bring on an election, and thus block passage of the reciprocity agreement.

NATIONAL BANK CLOSED.

Oneonta, N. Y., March 22. — "The First National Bank of this city closed its doors today. The following notice appeared on the door: "By order of the board of directors this bank has today suspended business. (Signed), Comptroller of the Currency Benjamin Higgins, National Bank Examiner."

Famous Athletes Use Zam-Buk

Mr. Sim Vaughan, trainer of the Hamilton Tigers Football Team, and admittedly one of Canada's finest trainers, says of Zam-Buk: "In my estimation it is the finest healing balm obtainable, and no athletic institution, or no athlete, should be without it. I say this after fifteen years' experience as a trainer of athletes, and after experimenting with nearly all known embrocations."

The above opinion is shared by such well-known athletes as Sherring, of Hamilton, Longboat, the All Blacks, of New Zealand, and all the leading football organizations of England. For sprains, cuts, abrasions, stiffness, rheumatism, and as an all-round embrocation and balm Zam-Buk is unequalled. All druggists and stores at 50 cents box.

EWART ONCE MORE CRITICIZES GREY

Declares Governor-General Is Too Imperialistic.

FOR MOST CANADIANS

Considers That the Earl in Advocating Overseas Clubs Is Acting Against Sentiment of Majority of Canadians.

Ottawa, March 24.—John S. Ewart, K.C., is out with a statement in reply to the criticisms of his attack upon Earl Grey for his advocacy of the ideas of the Overseas Club in Canada. He says in part:

"I join most sincerely in the general laudation of Lord Grey. In many ways his activities have brought to us valuable and permanent benefits. We owe him much; but, unfortunately, with reference to a matter of most vital importance in our national life, he has assumed an attitude of opposition to the opinions of a very large number (I believe a large majority) of our people. Under those circumstances somebody must speak out, however disagreeable the task.

"In the nature of their aspirations for the political future of their country, Canadians have always been sharply and fundamentally divided. Imperialists and Nationalists (although not until later years known by those names) have striven towards opposite goals, and they have never failed easily to recognize one another. In former times Canadian governors were at liberty to take sides, and they almost always did so, usually with the imperialists. It is my contention that we are now living under a constitutional monarchy; that our King most properly maintains an attitude of strict neutrality with regard to all subjects of political dispute; that our governors ought to observe the same rule of conduct; and (with proper respects) that Lord Grey has transgressed.

The Imperial Bonds.

"The imperial bonds have always been under attack, and almost every Canadian Government since 1842 (and some prior to that time) has contributed to their disappearance. Our emancipation from imperial control is most creditable and its history is a most stimulating study. If I had my way that history would be taught in our schools. The names of its leading men and their work ought to be known to everyone of us. Courage and pertinacity of high order were essential requisites during the earlier phases of the fight. Thanks to the earlier patriots, we have now little more to do than to hold what we have got.

"Regretting the disappearance of the old bonds, imperialists are endeavoring to forge new ones. They propose 'imperial federation,' 'imperial council,' imperial anything which will return us, as junior partners or minority councillors, to the subordination from which we have escaped. They are appealing to one another for a plan. No one can supply it. And, meanwhile, strenuous efforts are being made to educate people in 'imperial idea,' and to combat the rapidly rising aspiration of the Canadian people for national existence. I believe that a large majority of Canadians are utterly sick of being 'colonials' with wigwams somewhere in the 'overseas.'

"Upon various occasions his excellency has publicly advocated imperial federation. His language upon two of these occasions has been officially reported, and may be seen in the records of the Canadian Clubs of Toronto (1906), and Ottawa (1909).

"Upon various occasions, notably at Halifax and St. John, in August, 1907, and at Calgary, in 1909, his excellency warmly urged the usual argument for contributions to the British navy; that in the spirit of sympathy and self-sacrifice, the United Kingdom paid the whole cost of imperial defence that Canada profited by the expenditure, but did not share in it; that the United Kingdom 'the overburdened mother' could not indefinitely stand the strain, and that Canada as soon as she was able, ought to take its part in imperial defence.

"My allegation that the British Government does not sympathize with the imperialistic views of Lord Grey requires no proof. He is an enthusiastic imperialist. 'Little Englanders' is the title frequently flung by imperialists at the most effective British Government of recent years."

AN ORANGE PROTEST

N. B. Grand Lodge Say Church Is Interfering With Marriage Laws.

St. Stephen, N. B., March 24. The Orange Grand Lodge of New Brunswick finished its session at an early hour this morning. Rev. B. H. Thomas, chaplain of Dorchester Penitentiary, was elected grand master.

The following resolution was passed: "That this Grand Lodge of New Brunswick, now in session in the town of St. Stephen, unanimously register a protest against the unlawful and priestly interference with the marriage laws of Canada, and against their disturbing interference with the homes of the British subject as aforesaid, and that we urge upon all loyal subjects to write and demand that our Legislature enact a special law which will make it a criminal offence for any priest or bishop of the Roman Catholic Church, or any minister of any denomination, who, in the exercise of their duties, disturb the peace of families or seek to annoy any British subject in the full exercise of his civil right, or from doing that which the laws of Canada permit him to do, under a fine or imprisonment."

MANAGER BOBBY WALLACE.

For years shortstop on the St. Louis team, Roderick Wallace is this year manager of the Browns, vice Jack O'Connor, resigned. Wallace may be the man to wake up the Browns and put them in the running, although the task is a momentous one, and enough to discourage anyone. If Wallace should happen to get the Browns in the running it will be a great feather in his cap, while if he fails he will only do what several others have succeeded in doing.

NO SEALS CAUGHT.

Halifax, March 23.—A dispatch from the Magdelene Islands says: "There have been no seals caught, and the prospects for any this spring are very poor."

HARROWING IN WEST.

Redvers, Sask., March 23. — James Walton began spring work by harrowing today. The land is in good shape.

Woman's Tailor-Built Suits at Lowest Cost

The ever-changing fashion year after year reminds us of the necessity of providing oneself with all that is new at the turn of the season. A woman's last Spring Suit (unlike a man's) even unharmed by use, cannot be counted on for another season so far as style is concerned. What is desired this season is the slender, straight lines, flat shoulders, short coat and narrow skirt and sundry minor details of the 1911 fashions.

Suits as Illustrated $12.50

To the woman who wishes to practice economy, it must be a matter of satisfaction to know that a Suit embodying all the newest details of fashion can be had at so small a price as $12.50. # The Fashion Store For Men

Nothing antique in our Men's Store, even the price is half or thereabouts. No price would tempt us to purchase out-of-date styles. The windows reflect the character of the store, and we would just ask you to note the class of Men's Clothes we are showing in our Richmond street windows, and also to note the prices. The natural conclusion you will arrive at will be that somebody is selling clothing too dear, or we are selling clothing too cheap. The old way of merchandising was to get full regular prices at the beginning of the season, no matter at what price advantage the goods were bought, and reduce prices when the season was practically over. Some stick to this idea, but we are satisfied (even we do sell clothes too cheap) to give our customers the same advantage in buying as are given to us, no difference, whether it is the beginning, middle or end of the season.
