SIR WILFRID AT ST. LIN

St. Lin, Que., Aug. 8—Revisiting the home of his boyhood in the quaint old village of St. Lin, nestling in the shelter of the Laurentians, Sir Wilfrid Laurier on Saturday received from an assemblage of over 5,000 people a welcome worthy of the occasion, and in response gave the great gathering an address characteristic of the old chief, who for over fifty years of public life has devoted his energy and ability to promoting in Canada and in the empire the principles of justice, tolerance and liberty.

THE WEALTHY SHIRKERS.

St. Croix Courier:—Just considering this war from a purely local standpoint, one is inclined to wonder if the brave boys from this town who have volunteered for service and are now serving have been justified in what they have done. One has paid for his devotion to country with his life, the utmost sacrifice that he could make. And those who will profit most if it so be that Britain wins, and suffer most if it so be that the enemy wins, the men who have of this world's goods, show not enough interest in the strife to attend a public meeting called to consider the matter of providing protection on the battlefields for those who have gone to fight for the perpetuation of their liberties and of their very homes.

They are as silent as though they thought that they could carry with them, when they pass from the haunts of men, enough wealth to insure for them some front seat in the kingdom that is to come. But they, like all others, will pass out as naked as they entered, and it might well be that some of what has been gathered should be now used to preserve, while preservation is still worth while, the conditions under which they have prospered and under which they may hope that those who must profit by their past endeavors may continue in conditions that have been their favored lot.

United States sympathy for Canada was mentioned by Rev. C. W. Dockrill, of Brooklyn (N. H.), who preached at the Congregational church, St. John, last evening. He is in the city visiting his brother, R. H. Dockrill.

Many a Business Man who is careful to protect himself in money matters, is careless about health—his most valuable asset.

For many, tea or coffee drinking silently undermines health, because each cup contains from 1 1-2 to 3 grains of the cumulative, harmful drug, caffeine.

Five to six grains of caffeine will kill a rabbit or a cat, and repeated daily will cripple a man.

How cripple a man? The caffeine, little by little, causes hardening of the arteries and premature old age, showing more in some than in others.

Some of symptoms of caffeine poisoning are headache, nervousness, biliousness, heart flutter, sleeplessness at night, and "fag" after reaction of the drug in the daytime.

The way to avoid all tea and coffee troubles is to leave both tea and coffee alone and use
