WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 9.—A bill for the annexation of Canada to the United States was introduced in Congress Thursday night by Amos J. Cummings, member of Congress from New York, and a member of the staff of the New York Sun.

The bill provided mainly as follows:

The Dominion of Canada shall, if the people of the said Dominion do make proper application therefor, with the consent and approval of the Government of Great Britain, be admitted into the union by virtue of this act, on an equal footing with existing States.

New states to be formed out of the Dominion of Canada with suitable and exact boundaries and with representatives in Congress, such as the population of each State shall warrant, according to the present appointments of representation.

As soon as the terms and conditions of such admission and the cession of the remaining territory of the said Dominion to the United States by the Government of said Dominion shall be completed by the two Governments, the sum of $250,000 shall be, and the same is hereby appropriated, to defray the expenses of missions and negotiations to fix and agree upon the terms of said admission and cession, either by treaty, to be submitted to the Senate, or by articles to be submitted to the two Houses of Congress as the President may direct.

That until said Dominion of Canada shall be admitted into the Union, in pursuance of this act, there shall be commercial union between the said Dominion and the United States, and that no import duties or other taxes shall be levied by the United States on the products of said Dominion coming into the United States, or on manufactures made of materials admitted free by both countries; provided that the said Dominion admit the products of the United States into said Dominion on reciprocal terms.
