FROM ALL OVER THE MARITIME PROVINCES

Saturday, Nov. 18.

The season has opened brightly for the younger social element as already there have been several entertainments to which only the unmarried set and their chaperones have been invited. Also it is hinted at, that there are numerous events of the same kind scheduled to take place in the near future. First on the programme is the dance next Thursday evening at the Golf Club for Miss Farquhar, of Halifax, given by her hostess, Miss Daphne Crosby, of Germain street. Then the assemblies are almost due, the first of which will take place on the second Thusday in December at the Keith assembly rooms. These dances, which are anxiously looked forward to by the younger smart set, increase in popularity with each succeeding year. The fact that only a limited number of invitations are issued by the committee in charge, adds greatly to their attractiveness. This year the managing committee consists of Mr. Hugh Mackay, Mr John Taylor and Mr. Malcolm McAvity. The chaperones will be Mrs. Inches, Mrs. F. E. Sayre, Mrs. Harold C. Schofield, Mrs. Malcolm Mackay, Mrs. Esson.

Although an important theatrical event, the appearance of Miss Grace George at the Opera House this week was also a brilliant society occasion, inasmuch as almost everyone of social prominence was present on one of the two evenings of her performances in the city. Wednesday night Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Sayre, Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Skinner, Miss Edith Skinner, Mrs. H. B. Robinson and Mrs. Arthur Bowman occupied boxes. Next evening the box holders were Mr. and Mrs. Skinner, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Skinner and Mr. Gordon Kerr. Miss Grace wore two very chic gowns in her impersonation of the dependent Emeline Vieary, the first being of ivory crepe meteor embroidered in old blue. The other was of pale blue charmeuse satin and was extremely simple in design, but of exquisite proportions.

Mrs. Widder is the guest of her brother, Mr. George Wetmore, and Mrs. Wetmore, Summer stret.

Mrs. John M. Robinson, Mrs. H. B. Robinson and Mrs. J. Lee Day will be hostess at a ladies' luncheon next Tuesday at the L. M. Club house.

Mrs. A. Pierce Crocket, King Square, will entertain at a tea on Wednesday afternoon, Nov. 22nd, and at bridge on Thursday, the 23rd inst.

At the Golf Club on Thursday evening Miss Lellie Raymond and her brother, Mr. Kenneth Raymond, gave one of the most delightful dances of the autumn season. The floor was in excellent condition for dancing and the music furnished by Jones' orchestra was exceptionally good; also the supper was delicious, everything in fact combined to make the occasion one of pure delight. In the long reception room where the guests assembled, the mantles were banked with ferns and scrlet geraniums and the same bright flowers formed the centre piece on the supper table. Mrs. Gordon Sancton, who chaperoned the party was beautifully gowned in black lace over satin and carried crimson roses. Miss Lillie Raymond, the young hostess, was charming in blue silk veiled with ninon and she carried a sheaf of pink roses. The bride, Mrs. Roland Skinner, was present, wearing a pretty blue silk costume trimmed with pearl ornaments and knotted silk fringe. Other guests were Miss Alice L. Fairweather, Miss Ethel McAvity, Miss Norah Robinson, Miss Jean Trueman, Miss Janie Stone, Miss Kathleen Trueman, Miss Daphne Crosby, Miss Mary MacLaren, Miss Jennetta Bridges, Miss Farquhar, Halifax; Miss Bessie Foster, Miss Vera MacLauchlen, Miss Margaret McAvity, Miss Mabel McAvity, Miss Winnie Raymond, Miss Mary L. Harrison, Miss Marjorie Lee, Miss Audrey Bullock, Miss Helen Wetmore, Miss Alice Green, Miss Helen McAvenney, Miss Vivien Barnes, Miss Helen Church, Miss Portia McKenzie, Miss Dorothy Purdy, Miss Lydie Kimball, Miss Kathleen Gillis, Miss Kathleen McInerney, Miss Cook, Miss Edith Magee, Mr. Cyrus Inches, Mr. Malcolm McAvity, Mr. F. Taylor, Mr. J. G. Harrison, Mr. Malcolm Mackay, Mr. Harold Ellis, Mr. F. Keator, Mr. Colin Mackay, Mr. Allan Thomas, Mr. F. Crosby, Mr. Douglas W. Clinch, Mr. Douglas McLeod, Mr. Gordon Kerr, Mr. Bert Church, Mr. D'Arcy, Mr. Lewis, Mr. W. Church, Mr. Campbell Mackay, Mr. Barton Wetmore, Mr. Harold Crookshank, Mr. John Sayre, Mr. Arthur Rankine, Mr. George Morrisey, Mr. Reynolds, Mr. D. Barnes, Mr. Jack Pugsley, Mr. Harold Peters, Mr. J. Belyea.

Major J. H. Kaye and Mrs. Kaye are expected in town this noon from Halifax and will be guests at Miss Kaye's, Peel street, for two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Fowler, Mecklenburg street, are visiting in New York.

Mrs. William Downie was hostess at tea at her residence, Coburg street, on Thursday afternoon. It was a very smart and enjoyable function. In the drawing room, where Mrs. Downie received her guests, she was gowned very handsomely in pearl grey brocaded silk piped with coral and wore coral jewelry. Mrs. Kuhring, sister of the hostess, who conducted the guests to the dining room, was gowned in black and white silk, lace yoke and sleeves, and wore turquoise jewels. In the dining room the daintily appointed tea table was decorated with scarlet geraniums, the mahogany table having handsome centre piece of rennaisance lace, small cut glass vases held scarlet geraniums. Presiding at the table were Mrs. George Coster, gowned in chiffon cloth over white satin, black hat trimmed with silver tissue, and steel ornaments, and Mrs. Silas Alward, in pearl grey striped silk and satin with Persian trimmings, black hat with black and white plumes. The teas were served by Mrs. Alfred Morrisey, who wore ivory voile trimmed with oriental lace. Those who assisted with the refreshments were Miss Edith Skinner, who wore old rose satin, black picture hat, with ostrich plumes; Miss Alice Walker, blue and white silk, black hat with feather; Mrs. George Mahon, pink broadcloth piped with black, large white hat with white plumes; Mrs. Fred. Daniel, navy blue chiffon and broadcloth, large black picture hat; Miss Fenety, white cloth gown with embroidered chiffon bodice. Among the guests were Mrs. James Dever, Mrs. George F. Smith, Mrs. J. Morris Robinson, Mrs. F. E. Sayre, Miss Mollie Robinson, Mrs. J. H. Thomson, Miss Currie, Mrs. Thomas McAvity, Mrs. Frank Fairweather, Mrs. J. A. McAvity, Miss Ethel McAvity, Mrs. Inches, Mrs. D. Carleton Clinch, Mrs. George Wetmore, Mrs. Widder, Mrs. Keator, Mrs. George Hegan, Miss Hegan, Mrs. Simeon Jones, Mrs. A. M. Bouillon, Mrs. Percy Robinson, Mrs. Freeman Lake, Mrs. Daniel Mullin, Mrs. L. R. Harrison, Mrs. James Jack, Mrs. Frank Allison, Mrs. Steeves, Mrs. Murray MacLaren, Mrs. J. S. MacLaren, Mrs. DeSoyres, Mrs. H. B. Robinson, Mrs. James F. Robertson, Mrs. E. A. Smith, Mrs. Harold C. Schofield, Mrs. W. H. Harrison, Miss Lou Girvan, Mrs. Charles McDonald, Mrs. Andrew Jack.

In Trinity church on Thursday afternoon, in the presence of relatives and friends of the family, the Rev. R. A. Armstrong, rector of the church, christened the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Beverly R. Armstrong, Pitt street, giving her the name of Amy Louisa Beverly Armstrong. Her friends wish for her a long and happy life.

At 74 Mecklenburg street, on Nov. 15, the stork visited Mr. and Mrs. Ralph N. Robertson—(a son).

Mrs. Donald C. Malcolm received for the first time since her marriage at her residence, 50 Coburg street, on Wednesday and Thursday of this week. In the drawing room the flowers were white chrysanthemums. Mrs. Malcolm was beautifully gowned in white dresden silk veiled in ninon de soie and trimmed with pearl embroidery and fringe, ornaments pearls. Receiving with the bride on Wednesday was Mrs. George Bishop, who wore heliotrope silk, trimmed with satin of a darker shade, lace yoke and sleeves. Black hat with ostrich plumes. On one of the days Mrs. Malcolm, Sr., assisted in receiving and was gowned in black satin and lace, with black toque, having feather trimmings. In the dining room the color scheme was crimson, the centre decoration of the tea table consisting of ferns and red carnations and silver candelabra held red wax candles with crimson shades. Presiding were Mrs. F. W. Bonnell, who wore black lace over satin, black hat with black and white plumes, and Miss Eliza Hegan, gowned in heliotrope silk trimmed with point lace and pearl and silver passmenterie, lace yoke, black hat with ostrich feathers. Mrs. Bliss Smith ushered and wore blue silk with lace garnitures, black hat with aigrettes. Waitresses, including both days, were Mrs. Ralph Bonnell, pink charmeuse satin, black and pink hat; Mrs. Henry Wallace, white cloth, white hat with gold trimmings; Miss Bessie Nobles, blue silk with lace garnitures, black hat with fancy feathers; Miss Georgie Collins, tan silk with lace yoke and sleeves, hat to match; Miss Grace Finley, maize silk brocade, black hat with touches of gold; Miss Edna Simonds, blue silk with net yoke and sleeves, black beaver hat with feathers. Little Miss Nan Coleman was charmingly gowned in white and pink.

Miss Murdock, who has been visiting Mrs. A. B. Carson in Richibucto, returned home on Thursday of last week.

Mrs. Harold C. Schofield entertained informally at tea last Friday for Mrs. Blanchard, of P. E. Island. Mrs. Inches presided at the tea table, which was prettily decorated with chrysanthemums. Assisting with the refreshments were Mrs. W. Henry Harrison and Miss Mary L. Harrison. Others present were Lady Tilley, Mrs. Hugh McLean, Mrs. J. Morris Robinson, Mrs. James F. Robertson, Mrs. James Jack, Mrs. Andrew Jack, Miss Ada Bayard.

Miss Mollie Robinson arrived home from Montreal and Quebec on Thursday.

Mrs. Andrew Jack gave an enjoyable informal tea this week at her residence, Garden street. Among those present were Mrs. Morris Hazen, Miss Lilian Hazen, Mrs. de Soyres, Mrs. Murray MacLaren, Mrs. Boies deVeber, Mrs. Inches, Mrs. Frank Allison, Mrs. J. Morris Robinson, Mrs. James F. Robertson, Mrs. Kuhring, Mrs. J. S. MacLaren, Mrs. Wm. deVeber, Mrs. Shives, Miss Mills, Miss Bayard, Mrs. Herbert Schofield, Miss Huntley, Mrs. George Hegan, Mrs. William Hazen. Mrs. James Jack presided at the prettily appointed tea table and was assisted by Miss Marjorie Lee and Miss Dorothy Jack.

Mr. and Mrs. George Carvill and Miss Margaret Carvill are guests at Mrs. Steeves, Wellington row, until the Carvill Hall apartment house is ready for occupation, which, it is expected, will be about the middle of December.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald McAvity have returned after an extended bridal trip which included some of the larger cities of upper Canada and the United States. They are at their apartments in Chipman hill.

Miss Teed, Hazen street, will give an informal bridge at her residence, on Monday evening.

Mrs. Vassie and her daughter, Mrs. W. E. Foster, left Tuesday evening for New York and elsewhere. Miss Bessie Foster is the guest of her brother, Mr. Walter Foster.

Mrs. Charles Randolph, of Fredericton, was the guest of Miss Mabel Thomson, Sydney street, this week.

The annual meeting of the Badminton Club was held on Wednesday. The following officers were elected: President, Mr. J. G. Harrison; secretary-treasurer, Mr. Harold N. Stetson; managing committee, Mr. Hugh MacKay, Mr. J. C. Belyea, Mr. F. W. Fraser, and Mr. Cyrus W. Inches. The ladies committee are Mrs. Harold C. Schofield, Mrs. J. Royden Thomson, Mrs. W. Henry Harrison, Mrs. Simeon A. Jones, Mrs. W. A. Harrison, Miss Jean Trueman, Miss Elise McLean, Miss Sara Hare.

Captain Cowie, of Halifax, is the guest of his brother, Mr. Gordon Cowie, Elliott row.

The parishioners of Trinity church were given the opportunity of meeting Rev. Percy Coulthurst, the new curate, at a conversazione which was held on Thursday evening in the church school room. There was music and refreshments, altogether it was a most sociable and pleasant affair.

The Thistle Curling Club held its semi-annual meeting on Thursday evening. Plans for the season were considered.

Lady Fraser will address the members of the Women's Canadian Club next Monday afternoon at 3.30 o'clock, in the Natural History Society rooms; subject, Ladies of the Zenana Behind the Purdah. No doubt the lecture will be of very great interest, as Lady Fraser resided in India for a long time, and is therefore particularly well qualified to deal with matters pertaining to the east.

Her Royal Highness the Duchess of Connaught has graciously consented to be honorary president of the W. A. A. of Canada.

Colonel H. H. McLean and Miss Elise McLean left here for Ottawa Tuesday evening.

Judge McLeod, who is a patient at the private hospital, suffering from pneumonia, is progressing towards recovery.

Mrs. J. Douglas Hazen, Misses Katie and Frances Hazen left for Ottawa Tuesday evening.

Senator and Mrs. J. V. Ellis went to Ottawa Monday to be present at the opening of parliament.

The Keith assembly rooms have been redecorated in green tapestry and garnet effect.

Mrs. G. F. Scovil lectured Thursday afternoon before the Ladies' Association of the Natural History Society, on Canterbury Cathedral.

At a meeting of the St. Andrew's Society Tuesday evening, it was decided to give a dinner in the Royal hotel on Thursday evening, Nov. 30, instead of the usual Scottish evening. This will cause some disappointment among the younger folk.

The St. John Graduate Nurses' Association intend holding a sale at the Keith assembly rooms, Dec. 7, in aid of the nurses' sick benefit fund. Afterwards a dance will be held, also in the assembly rooms.

The members of the St. Vincent's Alumnae met for their annual meeting in the St. Vincent de Paul's rooms, Waterloo street. Miss Florence O'Regan was elected president.

Several gentlemen from St. John were sworn in attorneys-at-law at Fredericton this week, among whom were Mr. R. M. Rive, Mr. J. F. Teed, Mr. Bruce S. Robb, Mr. C. H. McLean and Mr. H. A. Porter.

Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Hazen were in Montreal this week.

Miss Elizabeth Furlong, who was expected home from Dorchester (Mass.) this week, has been detained on account of the illness, of pleuro-pneumonia, of her brother-in-law, Mr. Harold Coleman, of Dorchester.

Judge Longley and Miss Longley, of Halifax, are in South Carolina.

Mr. Lawrence MacLaren is spending a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. MacLaren, Paddock street.

Miss Elsie Estabrooks, Mount Pleasant, has returned home after visiting friends on the River St. John.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Snowball, of Chatham, were guests in the city this week, at the Royal.

Mrs. Timothy Warren Anglin, of New York, is the guest of her son, Judge Anglin, and Mrs. Anglin in Ottawa.

Mr. Clarence Carrigan, U. S. vice-consul, has returned to St. John for a short stay.

Miss Minnie Millett left for Boston yesterday to visit relatives there.

Mr. and Mrs. Sherwood Skinner, formerly of this city, have taken rooms at the Roxborough, Ottawa, for the winter.

Mrs. Roy F. Potts received at the home of the groom's mother, 176 1-2 Duke street, on Thursday afternoon and evening. The bride looked dainty in her wedding dress of white silk with pearl trimmings. She was assisted by Mrs. F. L. Potts, gowned in grey with silver trimmings. Mrs. (Dr.) Neve, Mrs. S. L. Kerr, Miss Lilian Clark, and Miss Nita Carritte waited on the guests. Little Miss Audrey Kerr tended on the door very gracefully.

ROTHESAY

Rothesay, Nov. 16—The monthly meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary was held on Monday afternoon at the home of the president, Mrs. Daniel. Mrs. David Robertson and Miss Brock had charge of the programme, which was most interesting, those taking part being Mrs. Robertson, Miss Brock, Miss L. Currie, Mrs. J. L. Robinson, Mrs. Hibbard and Miss Thomson.

Senator Domville left on Monday for Ottawa.

A large number of the friends of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. A. L. Fairweather were at St. Paul's church on Saturday afternoon attending the christening of their baby daughter, Hanlin Lee.

Miss Annie Lynch, of Annapolis (N. S.), who has been guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Henderson for several weeks, left for home on Saturday.

Mrs. David D. Robertson has returned from St. John, where she was guest of Mrs. J. Morris Robinson, Queen square. Mrs. Robertson and daughters expect to spend the winter in Halifax.

Mrs. T. Sherman Peters, of Gagetown, has been here visiting her sister, Mrs. Ludlow Robinson, leaving for home this week.

Miss Yandall, of Bellisle, spent last week with Mrs. A. M. Saunders, Fair Vale. Miss Yandall was for many years resident here, moving away last spring.

Mrs. E. S. Carter is enjoying a few days in St. John with her sister, Miss Fenety, of Fredericton, who is in the city.

Rev. A. W. Daniel, Mrs. Daniel, Mr. B. C. B. Boyd and Rev. R. W. Hibbard returned from Fredericton at the weekend.

Mr. Gordon Gilbert, ill with typhoid fever, has passed the crisis and his many friends are hoping for a speedy recovery.

Mrs. R. E. Puddington and Miss Puddington came home on Friday after a pleasant visit to Boston.

Mrs. Harvey Morton, of Trinidad, was guest of Mrs. John H. Thomson on Tuesday.

The Ladies' Sewing Society were entertained at the home of Mrs. W. J. Starr on Friday afternoon and tomorrow will be guests of Mrs. A. W. Daniel.

Miss Isabel Earle is spending a few days with her cousins, the Misses Earle, Union street, St. John.

Mr. Longley has recovered from a recent indisposition and is about again.

Rev. John Lennox, of Norton, spent part of Friday in Rothesay, guest of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Chisholm.

Miss Alice Cole, who has been visiting her sister at Sackville, has returned home

Mrs. G. E. E. Nichol, of Halifax, is here visiting her mother and sisters, Mrs. D. D. Robertson and the Misses Robertson.

Miss Katie Hazen and Mr. Hugh Mackay were visitors from the city on Sunday.

Mr. Schaefer returned home this week from Shediac.

CHATHAM

Chatham, N. B., Nov. 16—Mrs. A. H. Marquis entertained very enjoyably yesterday afternoon in honor of Mrs. George Wood. A large number of guests were present at the function, which took the form of an afternoon tea.

Mrs. T. I. Byrne was hostess at an enjoyable five hundred party last evening.

Mrs. N. McIntyre, who has been the guest of Miss Ullock, has returned to St. John.

Miss Staples has returned after a month's visit with friends in Boston.

Mrs. W. Stewart Benson and children, of Prince Rupert (B. C.), is visiting her parents, Lieutenant-Governor and Mrs. Tweedie.

Mr. and Mrs. V. A. Danville went to St. John on Monday.

Mrs. F. E. Neale was hostess on Thursday afternoon at a very pleasant dummy whist. There were five tables and the prize winners proved to be Miss Dick and Mrs. J. P. Wood. A number of ladies joined the party at the tea hour.

The Bridge Club held its weekly meeting last evening, when Miss Fraser was the hostess. A more than usually enjoyable evening was enjoyed by all.

Rev. George Wood and Mrs. Wood have moved into the newly renovated and repainted St. Andrew's manse.

The Misses Clara and Ethel Ross spent Sunday in Douglastown, the guests of Miss Dorothy McKenzie.

Mrs. A. W. Watters has returned from a pleasant visit with friends in Sackville.

Mrs. A. G. Dickson, of Napan, visited Mrs. F. W. Russell, Loggieville, on Thursday and Friday. Mrs. Melbourne Russell of Chatham, was also a guest last week. On Friday afternoon from 3 to 5 and on Monday evening Mrs. Russell entertained very pleasantly a number of guests.

Miss Harper has returned to Sackville after a pleasant visit with friends here.

Mrs. J. Y. Merserau is visiting at Loggieville, the guest of Mrs. Robert Dunbar.

Miss Greta Godfrey is visiting friends in Sackville.

Mrs. G. H. Lounsbury has returned from Dalhousie, where she was called by the serious illness of her mother, Mrs. Lamkie. The latter is now very much improved and accompanied her daughter to Chatham.

SHEDIAC

Shediac, N. B., Nov. 16—Miss Hilda Tait left on Saturday of last week on a visit to friends in St. John.

Mrs. T. Milner, of Boston, who recently disposed of her property at Shediac Cape, where formerly she lived, is this week the guest of her sister, Mrs. Irving.

Miss Gretchen Harper is ill with typhoid fever at her home.

Mr. Woodford Avard has been spending a few days on Prince Edward Island.

Mrs. J. McFadzen has returned to Sussex from a visit to friends in town.

Mrs. H. S. Bell, of Moncton, was the guest for a few days last week of her sister, Mrs. D. S. Harper.

Judge Landry, of Dorchester, was the guest recently of his sister, Mrs. Leger.

Mrs. F. Smith and little son, of Moncton, visited Shediac relatives during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Sumner, Miss E. Price and Miss Webster enjoyed an auto trip to Shediac last week, where they attended the goose supper given by the ladies of the Anglican church in the basement of the Presbyterian church.

Mrs. Chas. Pickard, of Sackville, was the guest recently of Mrs. A. J. Webster.

Mrs. J. Wortman is the guest this week of relatives in St. John.

Miss Beatrice LeBlanc, who has been visiting relatives in Lynn, was called home on Tuesday of this week owing to the death of her mother, Mrs. Pacific LeBlanc, who had been ill for some time past, and on Sunday afternoon passed away.

Rev. Harry Somers, of Moncton, has been engaged to hold fortnightly service in the town Presbyterian church. Mr. Somers was in Shediac on Sunday last.

BORDER TOWNS

St. Stephen, N. B., Nov. 15—Mrs. Frank Sharpe entertained very pleasantly twice last week for the pleasure of her guest, Mrs. Pallen, of Chatham. On Wednesday evening she gave a very pleasant bridge party at which Mrs. Gilbert W. Ganong won the first prize, and Mrs. M. L. Young the second. On Wednesday afternoon Mrs. Sharpe was again hostess to the thimble party. There were a number of ladies present and the afternoon was an extremely enjoyable one. At the tea hour dainty refreshments were served. Mrs. Sharpe was assisted in serving by Mrs. Frederick Waterson and Mrs. George Ensor.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Richardson drove to St. Andrews and return on Friday.

Mrs. F. E. Rose entertained quietly at tea on Wednesday evening a small party of intimate friends.

Mrs. James McBride on Tuesday evening of last week entertained at her home the members of the Woman's Auxiliary of Christ church. Miss Jones, a lady who has spent several years in India in missionary work, was a special guest, and gave a most vivid and interesting account of her work among the women in that foreign country. At the close of the evening, dainty refreshments were served by the Misses McBride.

Mrs. McLean, of St. John, has been a recent guest of Mrs. W. R. Carson.

Mrs. Fred McCullough left on Monday evening for Toronto to enter a sanitarium for medical treatment.

Miss Nettie Harison, who has been visiting in Woodstock, has returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. Otis Bailey have closed their home at Hinckley Hill and will reside at the St. Croix Hotel during the winter months.

Miss Blanche Green has returned from Attleboro (Mass.)

Ven. Archdeacon Newnham returned from Fredericton on Saturday. He was accompanied by Rev. Canon Smithers, who was a guest at Christ Church rectory on Tuesday.

Miss Elsie Lawson entertained very pleasantly a number of friends at her home on Monday evening.

Mrs. A. E. Vessey leaves on Monday next for Boston to spend a fortnight.

Mrs. David F. Maxwell and her granddaughter, Muriel Vessey are going to Phillips (Me.), to visit relatives. They also intend to spend several days at Rumford Falls with Mrs. John McKenzie before they return.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank McKay expect to occupy the McKay homestead on Prince William street at an early date.

Messrs. J. E. Ganong and Wilbur Webb motored to St. Andrews on Sunday to bring Attorney General Grimmer home.

Mrs. Frederick S. Jones, of St. John, is the guest of Mrs. George Daniel.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Eaton and Mr. Frank Wadsworth, of Eastport, have been enjoying a hunting expedition at Tomah.

Miss Florence Boardman entertained friends with bridge on Thursday evening.

Mrs. Fred Jones, of St. John, is the guest of Mrs. George W. Daniel for a month.

ST. GEORGE

St. George, Nov. 16—The ladies of the Thimble Club held their first meeting of the season with Mrs. Chas. Fuller. This week Mrs. T. R. Kent entertained, and on Tuesday evening, the 21st, Mrs. Frank Hibbard has invited the club to her home.

Capt. and Mrs. Chas. Johnston announce the marriage of their second daughter, Miss Grace L. Johnston, to Mr. J. Ward Dick, of High River, Alberta, for Wednesday, Nov. 22.

Senator and Mrs. Gillmor have returned to Montreal.

The ladies of the Mission A. S. of the Baptist church, held a successful social in the vestry on Wednesday evening. Hot coffee and cake were served.

Word has been received announcing the marriage of Miss Josephine Murray, daughter of Mrs. and the late Mr. Hugh Murray, to Mr. Daniel Lacey, of Dysart, Iowa. Miss Murray was one of St. George's most talented young ladies, who after passing a successful examination at the Boston hospital, went to Cedar Rapids, Iowa, to take up her profession. While on a case in Dysart she met Mr. Lally, one of the leading business men of the place, and their marriage took place at St. Joseph's church Thursday morning, Oct. 26. The bride looked very handsome in a gown of white satin with white hat and was attended by her sister, Miss Margaret Murray, who wore a lovely costume of white chiffon over pale pink satin with hat to match. Mr. D. Harrington, cousin of the groom, was groomsman. Rev. Father Sherby conducted the ceremony. Miss Marie Shelley presided at the organ, and Mr. Crosby, of Cedar Rapids, was the soloist. At the conclusion of the ceremony the wedding party were driven to the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Lally, where a reception was held.

Miss Gertrude Dick is in town for the marriage of her brother, Mr. J. Ward Dick.

DORCHESTER

Dorchester, Nov. 15—Hon. A. D. Richard and Mr. Leo Richard are on a trip to Cape Breton this week.

Mr. Inglis Wetmore, of Boston, spent some time n town recently, the guest of his sister, Mrs. James Friel.

Rev. R. A. Robinson returned from Fredericton on Friday where he attended the Anglican Synod.

Miss Elliott and Miss Nelson, of Mount Allison Ladies' College, were week-end guests of Miss Mina Lockhart.

Mrs. C. B. Record has returned from a visit in Boston.

Mr. Watson Carter, of Royal Bank, Amherst, has been spending a part of his holidays in town with friends.

The newly formed young people's bridge club was most pleasantly entertained last Friday evening by Miss Minia Lockhart. Among the members are the following: The Misses S. Kelly, Nina Tait, Muriel Chapman, Aileen Chapman, Ada Palmer, Marie Landry, Josie Oulton, Minia Lockhart, Mabel McDonald and Carmelita Richard, and Messrs. F. C. Dickie, H. G. Palmer, Leo Richard, Cyril Chapman, Will Tait, Cedric McGrath, and Will McQueen. Miss Lockhart also had as her guests Mrs. Gains Fawcett and Messrs Haye and Spicer, of Sackville.

The Misses Bernice and Marion Emmerson left this week for Ottawa to be with their father, Hon. H. R. Emmerson, until Christmas.

Mr. J. W. Y. Smith, of Moncton, was the guest of his mother, Lady Smith, on Moncton.

Mrs. J. F. Teed entertained the Ladies' Bridge Club, of two tables, on Thursday afternoon last.

The funeral of the late Mr. Thomas Colwell, who passed away on Friday last, at the age of eighty-one years, was held on Monday afternoon at 2.30. The service at Trinity church was conducted by the rector, Rev. R. A. Robinson, assisted by Rev. Canon Powell, of Windsor (N. S.), and at the grave by the members of the Masonic lodge.

Miss Vail, of Sussex, will spend some time in town with Lady Smith.

Mrs. Rogers and daughter, of Hopewell Cape, were recent visitors of Dr. and Mrs. McDonald.

Rev. Canon Powell, president of King's College, Windsor (N. S.), was in town on Monday, and in the evening delivered a very able address in connection with the college, in Trinity church Sunday school room.

HAMPTON

Hampton, N. B., Nov. 16—Mrs. Fred Barbour (nee MacMichael) received her friends on Tuesday afternoon, Nov. 14, assisted by Miss Minnie Travis. Mrs. Philip Palmer poured tea and Miss Barbour and Miss Myra Frink waited on the guests.

Mr. Edgar Hicks, son of Mr. William Hicks, formerly of Hampton Village, but now of Paris (Ont.), has been visiting with Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Hicks, of Hampton, and Mr. and Mrs. E. Peters, of Elmdale, Bellisle.

Young Charles Burgess, clerk with R. H. Smith, Hampton Station, was thrown from his bicycle while riding up the Bloomfield road on Sunday morning and received such injuries that he is still confined to the house.

Miss Ella Fowler, who has been confined to the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Myles Fowler, for many weeks, is able to sit up for a portion of every day.

Mrs. Philip Palmer, St. John, spent the week-end with friends at Hampton.

Mrs. R. W. Frink and Miss Myra Frink, St. John, came to Hampton last Saturday and spent the week-end and the early days of this week with friends here.

Master John Humphrey, youngest son of Mrs. F. M. Humphrey, who has been in the General Public Hospital, St. John, for many weeks, under treatment for severe burns received last summer, was brought home last Friday. Although the little fellow is apparently in good health and spirits and the wound on his side is healing, yet that on his arm is still open so that it will be yet some time before a complete recovery is effected.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Walter Holly and Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Bouillon, St. John, were visitors at Hampton last Saturday.

Last Friday evening a large representative meeting of all the evangelical churches of Hampton was held in the Presbyterian church here, and listened to an address by the Rev. M. E. Fletcher, field secretary of the laymen's missionary movement, on the origin, purposes and prospects of the new movement for the evangelization of the world in the present generation. The Rev. Geo. Farquhar, Presbyterian, presided and introduced the speaker; the Rev. Mr. Crowfoot, Anglican, read a portion of scripture; the Rev. Mr. Colwell, Baptist, offered prayer, and the Rev. H. C. Rice, Methodist, pronounced the benediction.

SACKVILLE

Sackville, Nov. 15—Mr. and Mrs. Bliss Fawcett, of Upper Sackville, entertained on Saturday at a very enjoyable turkey dinner in honor of Mrs. Wesley Fawcett's birthday. It was all the more enjoyable as it was a complete surprise to Mrs. Fawcett. The guests were Mrs. Guildford Hicks, Mrs. Albert Fawcett, Mrs. Charles George, Mrs. James Wheaton, Mrs. William Ogden, Mrs. Hiram Read, Mrs. William Hopp (Maine), Mrs. Babcock and Mrs. Reuben Wheaten.

Mrs. C. A. D. Siddall entertained a little party of children on Saturday afternoon in honor of her little daughter Frances' tenth birthday.

Mrs. Athol W. Seaman, of Riverside, is the guest of her parents, Rev. Thomas and Mrs. Marshall.

A Brockton paper says that on Nov. 8 "Mr. and Mrs. Archie Bell celebrated the eleventh anniversary of their marriage on Tuesday evening at their home on Kingham avenue. Music was furnished by O'Connell's orchestra of six pieces, and there were vocal solos by Mrs. Preston Pratt, Mrs. Ernest Gilbert and Mrs. Angus McEachern. Mrs. Fred. Norris rendered piano solos. The guests, who were mostly Sackville friends, were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Seaman, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bowser, Miss Maud Brooks, Miss Nellie Phinney, Miss Marguerite Rogers, Mr. Fred. Seaman, Mr. George Beal, Mr. Bliss Bowser, Mr. George Rogers, Mr. Abner Beal, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Brooks, Mrs. Elizabeth Bell, Miss Hazel Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. George Bell and others." Mr. Bell spent his boyhood days in Sackville, where he has many friends who will wish him many years of continued happiness.

Mr. and Mrs. Rouse, of Washburn (Me.), are visiting Miss Alice Phinney, of Coles Island.

Miss Emme Wry, of Acadia College, has been the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Wry.

Miss Amelia Nelson, of the Ladies' College, is the guest of Miss Ada Fawcett.

Mr. Colin McKenzie has returned from a pleasant visit with friends in St. Stephen.

Mrs. Lewis Avard, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Ivy Avard, of Moncton, has returned home.

Mrs. Janet Menzie, of Stewarton, Kings county, is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. C. C. Avard.

A very pretty wedding took place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. D. Dauphinee, Hubbards, when Mr. Harry Trueman Copp, of Baie Verte, and Miss Lena Lione were united in marriage by Rev. J. L. S. Foster, assisted by Rev. A. E. Arnold, brother-in-law of the bride. The bride, who looked very pretty in a gown of blue silk, carried a shower bouquet of ferns and carnations, and was unattended. After the ceremony the company sat down to a sumptuous repast. The bride's traveling suit was of brown broadcloth with brown picture hat. The groom's present to the bride was a gold bracelet. The happy couple left immediately after the ceremony for a trip through Nova Scotia.

The turkey supper held last week in the curling rink by the ladies of St. Paul's Episcopal church, was well attended and the sum of $150 was realized. Those in charge of the supper tables were Mrs. H. E. Fawcett, Mrs. Thomas Estabrooks, Mrs. George McKenzie, Mrs. Fred. Rainnie, Mrs. William Clark and Mrs. Robert Duncan, Mrs. W. A. Simpson and Mrs. D. S. Campbell served the ice cream. Miss Hattie Milner had charge of the candy table, Mrs. R. C. Williams and Mrs. George McCord looked after the refreshment table. A 5 o'clock tea was served the following evening by the same ladies.

ST. ANDREWS

St. Andrews, Nov. 16—Mrs. Frank W. Kennedy held her receptions on Wednesday and Thursday afternoons of last week in the parlors of Kennedy's hotel, Mrs. Edwin A. Cockburn, Mrs. Angus Kennedy and Miss Jennie Kennedy assisting. Mrs. Frank Kennedy wore her wedding gown, a handsome white crepe de chene, on Wednesday, and a pearl grey silk costume, with pink trimmings, on Thursday. Mrs. Cockburn wore a cream voile, Miss Kennedy a blue peau de soie, Mrs. Angus Kennedy a black moire silk. Miss Kennedy served refreshments in the tea room.

Mrs. George Smith has been among Woodstock friends recently, returning on Monday.

Mrs. F. G. Andrews and Mrs. A. K. Gifford entertained at a large and fashionable tea on Saturday afternoon of last week. The drawing room of The Anchorage was artistically decorated with pink and white carnations. In the dining room the prettily appointed table with a centre of very large crimson and white carnations with feathery fern in tall cut glass vase, was presided over by Mrs. G. Babbitt, assisted by Miss Florence Whitlock, Miss Alice Grimmer, Miss Dolly Andrews, Miss Bessie Grimmer, Miss Jessie Main and Miss Hazel Grimmer. The guests, numbering about fifty, included: Mrs. F. H. Grimmer, Mrs. G. D. Grimmer, Mrs. John Simpson, Miss Mary Ross, Mrs. Jennie Clarke, Mrs. E. G. Church, Mrs. M. N. Cockburn, Mrs. T. E. Field, Mrs. E. A. Cockburn, Miss Gwen Jack, Mrs. T. Burton, Mrs. E. Cecil De Wolfe, Mrs. Hobson, Mrs. W. A. Carson, Mrs. Harry Gove, Miss Nellie Mowatt, Miss Maria Bradley, Miss Maud Crisp, Mrs. G. H. Elliott, Miss Belyea (St. John), Mrs. W. W. Wetmore (Boston), Mrs. A. W. Mahon, Mrs. P. G. Hanson, Mrs. T. R. Wren, Mrs. Frank P. Barnard, Mrs. Green (Digby), Miss Margaret Kerr, Mrs. G. H. Lamb, Miss Dorothy Lamb, Mrs. P. P. Russell, Miss Adeline Kerr, Mrs. Arthur Gove, Miss Everitt, Mrs. R. Clarke, Mrs. Frank Kennedy, Miss Jennie Kennedy, Mrs. John Wren, Miss E. L. Stoop, Miss Bessie Wren, Mrs. T. T. Odell, Mrs. E. L. Andrews, Mrs. J. R. Oastler, Mrs. R. E. Armstrong, Miss Bessie Burton, Mrs. Goodwill Douglas, Mrs. H. Owen Rigby, Mrs. George Smith, Mrs. Albert Thompson, Mrs. W. J. Burton, Miss Algar.

Miss M. Byrnes went to St. John Saturday evening to visit her cousin, Miss McGuiggan.

Miss Belyea, of St. John, is visiting at the rectory, the guest of Mrs. G. H. Elliott.

Mr. James Cummings is in Boston this week.

Mrs. Walter Ovendon and little Miss Helen went to Hartford (Conn.) on Tuesday after a visit here with Mrs. Ovendon's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. Stinson.

Mrs. Emma Hewitt returned on Wednesday from Pictou, where she has enjoyed a visit with her daughter.

Miss Ida Graham is spending a vacation in Boston and vicinity among relatives.

Miss E. Byrnes has returned from visiting in St. John.

Mr. T. A. Hartt, M. P., left for