Application to Parliament

Notice is hereby given that an application will be made by the Corporation of the City of London to the Legislature of the Province of Ontario, at its present session, for an Act:

1. To amend Section 12 of "The City of London Act, 1909," by striking out the words, "22nd day of December in each year unless that day should be a Sunday, and then on the following day," and substituting therefor "Monday in the month of November, which will be two weeks prior to the first Monday in the month of December in each year," and by striking out at the end of the said section the words, "day of January following, unless that day should be a Sunday, and then on the following day," and substituting therefor the words "Monday in December in each year."

2. The effect of the above amendment, if made, will be to change the date of the nomination meeting from the 22nd days of December in each year (unless that day should be a Sunday, and then on the following day), to the Monday in the month of November, which will be two weeks prior to the first Monday in the month of December in each year, and the date of the election from the first day of January (unless that day should be a Sunday, and then on the following day), to the Monday in the month of November, which will be two weeks prior to the first Monday in the month of December in each year.

DATED at London, Ontario, this Twenty-second day of February, A.D. 1921.

S. BAKER,
53-tf City Clerk.

APPLICATION TO PARLIAMENT

Notice is hereby given that an application will be made by the Corporation of the City of London to the Legislature of the Province of Ontario, at its present Session, for an Act:

1. To authorize and carry into effect certain changes in the civic government of the City of London, in the following particulars:

(1) After the 31st day of December, A.D., 1921, the provisions of sections 1 to 8, inclusive of this act, shall apply to the Municipal Corporation of the City of London, and in so far as the provisions of this act shall alter, vary or change the provisions of the Municipal Act, the Public Parks Act, the Public Libraries Act, 1920, the London Waterworks Act, and amending Acts, the City of London Acts, or any of them, or any other Act in respect of the civic government within the City of London, the provisions of this Act shall prevail.

(2) For the year 1922, and thereafter, the Council of the Corporation of the City of London shall be composed of a mayor and eight commissioners, and the said commissioners shall be elected by a general vote of the municipal electors of the said city. Of the said eight commissioners, the four commissioners who shall obtain the highest number of votes at the election held for the year 1922 shall hold office for a term of two years, and the four commissioners who shall obtain the next highest number of votes shall hold office for a term of one year; and in each year thereafter four of the said eight commissioners shall be elected by a general vote of the said electors, and shall hold office for a term of two years: provided, that in the event of the election by acclamation of all the commissioners for the year 1922, the four commissioners having the highest assessment in the City of London, according to the last revised assessment roll, shall hold office for a term of two years, and each of the four commissioners having the next highest assessment as aforesaid, shall hold office for a term of one year.

(3) The mayor shall be elected by a general vote of the said electors for the term of two years.

(4) In the event of the death, resignation or removal from office for any cause under the provisions of the Municipal Act of any commissioner, during his term of office, the candidate at the last preceding election having the next highest number of votes shall be declared and elected a commissioner of the council for the unexpired term of the person so dying, resigning or being removed from office; provided, that in case of the candidates at the last preceding election having been elected by acclamation, or there was a tie vote, the vacancy so created shall be filled by the election of another commissioner by the council for the unexpired term of office of the said commissioner so dying, resigning or being removed from office.

(5) Upon the organization of the Council, the Public Library Board, the Public Utilities Commission of the City of London, the Board of Health and the Hospital Trust shall be dissolved, and the said several boards shall have no further authority or powers in respect of the utilities, works and commissions, powers or duties heretofore under their charge, respectively, under any Act of the Province of Ontario, but any officer or employee employed by any of the said boards in or about the construction or management of the said utilities shall be continued in office until removed by the council, unless his engagement sooner terminates.

(6) The Council of the Corporation of the City of London shall have the powers authorized by the Municipal Act, the Public Libraries Act, 1920, an Act respecting the General Hospital of the City of London and amending Acts, The Public Health Act and all other Acts relating thereto, the London Waterworks Act and amending Acts, the City of London Acts, and the several Utilities Acts.

(7) The commissioners and council to be elected for the year 1922, in the manner aforesaid, and thereafter shall possess and exercise all the powers and rights of the said council and commissions in section 6 hereof mentioned.

(8) In the event of the Parliament of Canada passing an Act to amend an Act respecting the London and Port Stanley Railway Company, 4-5, Geo. V., chapter 96, by repealing sections 5, 6 and 7 of the said Act, and conferring upon the Council of the Corporation of the City of London the powers, authorities and duties which are, by sections 5, 6 and 9 of the said Act, conferred upon the London Railway Commission, the Council of the Corporation of the City of London shall have authority to pass a bylaw to repeal Bylaw Number 4476 and Bylaw Number 4496, set out in Schedule "B" to the City of London Act, 1914, and immediately after the passing of the said bylaw the Council of the Corporation of the City of London shall have the whole management and control of the making, completion, equipment, operation, alteration and maintenance of the London and Port Stanley Railway, for and as agents of the said corporation, and the said council shall have all the powers necessary to enable them to make, complete, equip, operate, alter, maintain and manage the said railway, and also all the powers which may be granted to the said the Corporation of the City of London from time to time.

Dated at London, Ontario, this Seventeenth day of February, A.D., 1921.

S. BAKER,
Mch 3 City Clerk.

MRS. ELIZABETH KENT, MacDONALD COLLEGE.

DINING-ROOM DECORATION.

The wall paper for the dining-room should be chosen with reference to the floor covering, the window space and lighting, the furniture and the papers of the rooms opening from the dining-room. For a sunny room, a quiet shade of the cool colors, grey, green or blue, may be used; for a northern exposure, a warmer color, buff or gold, verging toward orange, is better. Solid red is warm, even hot, sometimes, but can hardly be used unless there is relief from it in unusual wood paneling and hangings to soften it. It is almost never good for a dining-room. Red, however, is a good auxiliary color, and a row of crimson geraniums in the window is almost as good as an open fire. Wall paper is a background, ordinarily, and should be unobtrusive in design, as well as color, not a glaring pattern upon which no picture can be hung, and from which the eye has no refuge in the room.

Curtains do more to make or mar a room than any other one detail. They should frame, not conceal, the outlook, soften, not shut out the light of the room, and harmonize quietly with its walls and floor. Every room is a problem by itself, but generally curtains in the dining-room should be simple, straight and easily washed, for cleanliness here is almost as important as in the kitchen.

Plate rails belong in the dining-room, and nowhere else. They should not be so high as to draw the eyes to the ceiling, and should never be crowded with pieces of all sorts of wares. A few good plates and jugs, harmonizing or contrasting well with one another, add greatly to the charm of a room. It is well to be reminded by the beautiful work of other days and lands, of our place in the world, and good pottery does this better for us than anything else.

THORNDALE GOLDEN WEDDING.

Mr. and Mrs. Roger Dunn of West Nissouri Township celebrated their golden wedding anniversary on February 24. They were the recipients of many congratulations and two very handsome easy chairs, the gifts of the family.

KILWORTH PRESENTATION.

On Tuesday evening sixty neighbors and friends met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Bourne, Kilworth, and had a most enjoyable time in music and games. Mr. and Mrs. James Bourne, who are a newly wedded couple, were presented with a set of dishes, the gift of the congregation and those of the Methodist Church, Kilworth, the address being read by the organist, Miss Faye Kilbourne, while Albert Kilbourne made the presentation.

CAYUGA W. I.

The regular February meeting of the Cayuga Women's Institute took the form of a social evening and was held in Humphrey's Hall on Thursday evening. About one hundred and fifty were in attendance, and the proceeds amounted to over $20. This sum was given to the Children's Aid Society of the county. A fine program was rendered by Mrs. Humphrey, Mrs. H. Hoshal, Mrs. Grant Campbell, Miss Ruth Clement and little Miss Blanch Humphrey, and a most interesting address given by Mr. Bilger of the Children's Aid Society. He dwelt chiefly on the subject of children in neglected homes and impressed upon his hearers the need of a proper shelter for such unfortunates. At the close of the lecture twenty-seven tables were filled with euchre players, the prizes being won by Miss Carruthers, Miss Parsons and Mr. Carter. At the close of the contest the members of the institute served dainty refreshments.

LISTOWEL WOMAN HONORED.

Friday evening about forty women met at the home of Mrs. Joseph Fair to honor Miss Edmunds of Smiths Falls, who had formerly spent twenty-six years in Listowel. She was presented with a handsome electric table lamp and a bouquet of daffodils, the presentation being made by Mrs. (Dr.) Hazen. The evening was spent in music and games.

ELMA PRESENTATION.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Cleland of Elma, who are leaving for Wallace next month, were pleasantly surprised recently, when over a hundred of their neighbors gathered at their home and presented them with a beautiful pair of easy chairs. The presentation was made by T. Sproule and Adam Park on behalf of those present.

HYDE PARK W. I.

The February meeting of the Woman's Institute, which was held recently at the home of Miss MacLachlan, was a decided success. Although the weather was stormy and the roads heavy, the members of the institute, with their friends, gathered in goodly numbers, filling the spacious rooms to their full capacity to enjoy the excellent address of Miss Emily Guest, government speaker, from Toronto, whose subject was "Progress in the Institutes" and "Helping Our Boys and Girls to Find Their Life Work."

At this meeting a short discussion was held on the question as to whether the members were willing to contribute clothing to the Dr. Grenfell Mission. It was moved that two quilts be made at the March meeting, which will be held in the Presbyterian school room.

Miss Guest began her talk by referring to her first visit to Hyde Park in June, 1910, when she organized the Hyde Park branch of the Woman's Institute, which since it was organized has prospered, the members realizing more fully as the years go by that it is the only organization which enables all women to meet on common ground and exchange thoughts and ideas.

The audience was greatly interested in a vivid description, given by the speaker, of how the ladies in Scotland conduct a community meeting.

In the evening a joint meeting of the Woman's Institute and the U. F. O. was held at the rectory, and in the absence of the U. F. O. president, Mrs. Herbert, president of the W. I., presided.

Mr. Barber of Grosshill, Ont., U. F. O. organizer, and Miss Guest were the speakers for the evening.

Mr. Barber was the first speaker called, and in a brief address on the subject, "How to Improve the Farmers' Club," he suggested that the members should devote more attention to the literary side of the meeting, having frequent debating contests, etc. He said that in this way the farmer would become more interested and familiar with the questions of the day, which would tend to broaden his ideas and make him a better citizen.

Miss Guest choose for her subject, "Home-Making." In closing this, her second excellent and instructive talk, the speaker made the statement that there were over 900 Woman's Institutes in Ontario.

HARRISON M. C.

The regular monthly meeting of the Harrison Mission Circle was held recently at the home of Miss Jean Oliver with a splendid attendance, the president, Mrs. Sandy being in the chair. Those taking part in the program were: Miss E. Pinnegar, Miss N. Capstick, Mrs. R. Jelly, and Miss G. Ware.

At the close of the meeting, dainty refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Misses Eva Finch, Amy Hunter, Mrs. L. Crockett and Mrs. F. Hunt.

On Friday evening, the Excelsior Bible Class held a banquet in the basement of the Methodist Church, there being about 100 present. A very pleasant evening was spent in games and contests.

At the February meeting of the Women's Missionary Auxiliary of the Methodist Church, Mrs. W. B. Lane was presented with a life membership certificate. The address was read by Mrs. J. Wilson, after which the pastor, Rev. S. J. Thompson spoke of the excellent services of Mrs. Lane to the auxiliary.

PRINCETON BRIDE SURPRISED.

About 150 friends of Mr. and Mrs. William Given, who were recently married, met at the home of Mrs. Annie Kipp, the bride's mother, and surprised them with a miscellaneous shower of silverware, house linen, china, etc. The evening was spent in cards, followed by a varied program supplied by the guests. After supper, the Minnette Orchestra furnished music and dancing was enjoyed until the wee sma' hours. It is interesting to note that the same performers in the Minnette Orchestra played for dancing at the wedding of the bride's parents.

Cynthia Grey's Mail-Box

Let us be kind;
The way is long and lonely,
And human hearts are asking for this blessing only
That we may be kind.

For Betty Brown.

Dear Miss Grey,—I have been a silent reader of your Mail-Box for some time, and have thought of writing and sending things from time to time, but neglected to do so; but as I was ironing I stopped to look through the Mail-Box, and saw where Betty Brown was asking ofr a Dutch romper pattern. As I had just ironed a pair which our little girl has grown out of, I am sending them, as they are rather hard to cut a pattern off, and I am in a hurry. I have several sweet little romper patterns, and if any one of the Boxites would wish any why I will leave my address with Miss Grey, and they can write me direct. H. N. D.

Ans.—Have forwarded pattern to Betty Brown. Thank you for sending it in.

Mona's Opinion.

Dear Cynthia,—Here I come all out of breath. You see I wanted to be first to take advantage of Yanks' offer for the balls of carpet rags. For years I have been wanting a strip for my kitchen, but have been unable to find time to sew them. I will willingly return cost of sending them to me. My address is with Miss Grey. Would also like stocking-foot patern.

Mother Goose, let's cut Lover of Good Sense off of our book of Nursery Rhymes. She is a sequel to "The Old Woman Who Lived in a Shoe." It will have the effect of Ura Kidd's ghost stories, I believe, on little children. Say folks, do you know, if I had so many children that I didn't know what to do, I wouldn't send them to L. of G. Sense—they'd be scared stiff. I'd ask Mother Goose if she would help me out. I believe she would take them on the most wonderful trips—perhaps to the moon, and treat them so kindly they would finally land in heaven. I know by her kind disposition they would not get their mouths washed out unless they absolutely needed it.

I picture a person who likes to quote "Spare the Rod, Etc," as one with a temper, using such a verse as a cloak of justification for spitting spite on the poor little innocents who are not able to retaliate and compelling them to sit still in a corner or away to bed while they take a book and improve their mind or sense.

I smiled, Mother Goose, because you scored one. A quiet and calm disposition instead of a hasty whipping has far more effect. The best of children need correction I know from experience. I, like every other, mother, have the best children in seven counties, but I am like Buster Brown I often yearn for a good strong punishment without doing any injury, and your idea struck me as capital.

Is it really so long ago, Rose of Sharon, since I answered your letter? I've used my last piece of note paper for the Mail-Box. No, I'm not so blue. I'm right in the pink just like Roses. I'll surprise you one day, so smile! and as you smile another smiles, and soon there will be miles of smiles and life's worth while because you smile.

MONA FROM ARIZONA.

P. S.—A shin plaster for S. C. H. fund.

Ans.—Thank you for the mite, Mona. I have forwarded you address and stocking-foot pattern.

The Snake.

Dear Cynthia,—I have just been reading Mother Goose's letter re child training. Her motive was to keep the children clean.

I have a little boy cousin just nine months old and after every meal he holds his little fat fists up to be washed. When they are dried, he turns his face up to get washed, too.

He certainly isn't a nuisance, although he is very lively and keeps one running after him most of the time. Yet I would rather see him bright enough to get into mischief than sickly and ailing.

On bright sunny days we take him out of doors in a sleigh or wagon and he certainly enjoys it.

I suppose the boxites are beginning to yawn now, but really I could write a book about his winning acts.

Now for my request. Would you forward a package of pansy seeds and one package of any other variety you have on hand? Am inclosing mite for S. C. H. I remain, THE SNAKE.

Ans.—Your little cousin must be a sweet baby. I am sorry, but there are no pansy seeds in mail-box, but am forwarding another variety. Thank you for mite.

To Remove Oil of Smoke.

Dear Miss Grey,—I am inclosing a recipe for canning beef, which I cut from the Mail-Box some time ago. If Rosebud will try cream of tartar water on her rug it may remove the oil of smoke. It has proved the one thing needed where linens were concerned. Someone had curtains spoiled in the same way, and I hope she will see this, and that the result will be satisfactory.

There was a request a short time ago for a home-made soap recipe. This is one sent in by A Reader, and cannot be beaten, I think. I am inclosing a few edgings for Mail-Box use, and will send some cosmo seeds. Will you please send me the mitt pattern? Mite is for C. H. F.

T. TEMBARONE.

To Can Beef—Cut raw beef in pieces about two inches square, salt and pepper to taste, and pack in glass jars; allow some fat in each jar; put on new rubbers, and the tops, but do not seal real tight. Have your boiler ready with false bottom in it (a piece of board with a few holes in will do, just so the jars do not set on the bottom of the boiler.) Set your jars in and fill boiler with water to within two or three inches of
