GREENWICH

A large number of our residents went to Wolfville last Tuesday evening with their coupons, each one hoping to win a money prize, but only one in this community won, it being the good fortune of one of our High School girls, Miss Minnie Bishop, to have a coupon that won for her one of the five dollars. Congratulations!

Mr. W. R. Ward, our teacher, was again hastily summoned to his home in Kingston last Thursday afternoon owing to the serious illness of his mother, who passed away on Saturday. Mr. Ward returned to resume his duties on Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Gordon Simpson having supplied at our school during his absence, Much true sympathy of his friends here is expressed for Mr. Ward in his sad bereavement.

Mrs. Brenton L. Merry and two little sons, who were guests at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. Andrew Pearson, left on Friday morning to return home to Bear River station, accompanied by her mother, who returned home Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. T. A. Pearson and two daughters, Misses Esther and Annie, and accompanied by Mr. Aleck Andrew, motored to Kingston on Sunday, where they visited relatives, returning in the evening.

Dr. Simeon Spidle, one of the professors at Acadia College, Wolfville, preached here on Sunday afternoon as Dr. DeWolfe, who was expected, was not able to be present on account of illness. A most splendid sermon was well enjoyed by all present. Next Sunday the Junior choir will have charge of the music and it is expected that Dr. Hemmeon will occupy the pulpit; he having been absent on vacation.

On Sunday a band of Gypsies, consisting of five large automobile parties, arrived in the place, taking possession of a place near the station where they pitched tents and remained until Monday afternoon, when they left, going down east. We understand they were from Vermont, U. S. A. Noticeable among them was one or two huge, savage looking dogs and a large number of children, and, as usual, a "fortune-teller".

A number from here motored over to Port Williams on Monday afternoon to attend the funeral of Miss Ella Wood, held at the Baptist church. The deceased lady was a cousin of one of our residents, Mrs. Lewis Forsythe.

We understand friends who have heard from the family of Mr. and Mrs. Hazen Bishop, who recently left us to make their home in New Jersey, U. S. A., say that they all like their new home and place of location in Vineland very much.

The writer secured the names of our school pupils who won prizes at the recent annual Exhibition of the schools held at Port Williams, being as follows:—Nellie Bishop, Lorna Bishop, Lovitt Bishop, Laura Forsythe, Lloyde Forsythe, Wendall Hennigar, Dean Hennigar, Frederick Harvey, James Lockhart, Thelma Lockhart, Frederick Pulsifer, Jennie Pulsifer, Judson Pulsifer, Charlie Pulsifer, Ivan Patterson, Margaret Schofield, Waldo Schofield, Robert VanBuskirk, Lawrence VanBuskirk, Laura Walsh. These pupils carried off 21 first prizes, 17 second prizes and 7 third prizes. One little girl, Jennie Pulsifer, who won the highest in prizes, won $4.00 altogether. Mention should be made of her map of Nova Scotia, showing the extent of the hydro-electric plants. We understand it was finely done, winning the first prize which was $2.00. Another pupil of our school, Lovitt Bishop, won second prize, $1.00, on his map of the same subject, these making very interesting maps also being of good information. Total amount of prize money won by our school, we were told, was $22.50, none of our High School pupils taking any part this year. We hope for still more interest next year and good luck.

CHILDREN'S AID SOCIETY HOLDS MEETING AT BERWICK

A meeting of the "Children's Aid Society of Kings County" was held on Tuesday evening at the Baptist church, Berwick. The object of the meeting was to make better known the work that is being done by the organization and to create a greater interest in this work on the part of the people of the county. Organized thirteen years ago this is the first time that the Children's Aid Society, which has its headquarters in Wolfville, has held a meeting elsewhere.

Those who attended from here were President Davidson, Secretary-Treasurer Patriquin, H. Stairs, agent, Dr. Hiscock, of Acadia University, and Miss Harry, V.O.N. The evening was not an especially pleasant one yet the attendance was fairly large considering the busy season. Those present from Berwick included Rev. Mr. Allaby, pastor of the church, and Mrs. Allaby, Rev. Mr. Hockin, of the United church, Mayor Parker and a goodly number of interested men and women.

The object and aim of the organization were briefly explained, following which the reading of the minutes of the last annual meetingetc. last annual meeting and extracts from the report of the agent brought the activities of the Society pretty well to the attention of those present. A certain amount of routine business was transacted after which brief addresses were given by Dr. Hancock, Rev. Mr. Hockin, Rev. Mr. Allaby, Mayor Parker and others. Mr. Stairs was called upon and gave a number of interesting incidents regarding his work in various parts of the county, which were listened to with close attention, after which the meeting adjourned.

It is the intention of the executive to hold a number of meetings at different centres of the county during the coming months.

REV. ANDERSON ROGERS

The death of Rev. Anderson Rogers, D.D., which occurred at his home at Hopewell, Pictou county, on Friday afternoon of last week, removes one who for many years has been one of the best beloved ministers of the Presbyterian church in this province. Rev. Dr. Rogers was in his seventy-fifth year and was a native of Rogers Hill, Pictou county. His education was received at Pictou Academy, Dalhousie University and Pine Hill College, graduating in Arts and Divinity.

In his student days he for a time ministered to the Presbyterian congregations in Wolfville and Grand Pre, and on subsequent visits to the community was always given a most cordial welcome. His long, successful and varied pastorate was equalled by that of few men in this province. He was minister respectively at Yarmouth, Windsor, New Glasgow, Amherst, Halifax and finally at Antigonish. Five years ago he resigned but has since, when health permitted, been in constant service supplying pulpits where needed. He was elected moderator of the Maritime Synod of the Presbyterian church and was given the honorary degree of Doctor of Divinity by Pine Hill College in 1914.

As a preacher of the evangelical type he was vigorous, original and eloquent in the pulpit and excelled as a pastor where his unfailing kindliness made him a much beloved shepherd of his flock. While all the years of his active ministry were spent in the Presbyterian church, he was a staunch supporter of Church Union although he wisely had no part in the embittered controversy which unfortunately attended the movement, and fully retained the respect and good will of all.

A GYPSY VISITATION

Wolfville had a visit from a band of gypsies on Sunday, although not as in the days of old with many horses and high caravans. The old order changeth, and this time they came in high-powered motor cars, seven in number, loaded with gayly attired but hard-looking occupants and equipped with all the late appliances for comfortable travelling. They camped at Port Williams station and only spent a short time in Wolfville on Sunday and Monday, coming here for supplies.

While the male members of the party enjoyed a brief breathing-spell the females darted here and there telling fortunes for all who would give them the opportunity. The glint of bangles and the waving of red scarfs lent a colorful air to the proceedings. They evidenced a great interest in the monetary belongings of their patrons, and it is hinted that in one case at least a gentleman whose hand was grasped by a siren who predicted for him a long and happy carreer was short five dollars in his cash account at the end of the interview.

In a neighboring town which was visited by the party it is said that a commercial traveller who "tried his luck" was assurred among other things that he was a "good loser" and found later on examing his "roll" which had been entrusted to the gypsy for luck that it had slightly diminished.

The party proceeded eastward, and as it is said that a sucker is born every minute, are probably now carrying on their ministration in other fields.

TOM MIX PICTURES DICK TURPIN'S RIDE

Fox Star Portrays Romantic Old Bandit at Local Theatre

One of the feats accredited to Dick Turpin, the stage robber of England 175 years ago, was a ride of over 150 miles in a night and a half day, the bonny mare, Black Bess, carrying the robber from a point near London to York between evening and noon.

Dick had committed a bold robbery. Knowing that his victim had recognized him he put spurs to the mare and galloped through the night. Arriving at York shortly after noon he strolled to the bowling green where the Lord Mayor and friends were at play. Casually greeting the players, Dick mentioned the hour and impressed it upon all minds.

When arrested he summoned the Lord Mayor. He was cleared because it was ruled that no horse in the world could have traversed that distance in so short a time.

Fired by the tale of Turpin's wonderful career, Tom Mix, the William Fox star, has a magnificent film story of his life and the ride to York is one of the stirring features of the story. This picture, "Dick Turpin", will hsow Tuesday at the Orpheum Theatre—for one night only.
