consul, by whose direction a survey was held, which recommended that holes be bored in the deck, and water poured in, and that a sufficient number of men be hired to go on with the work.

The hatches having been opened by order of the surveyors, and one bale of cotton taken out, there issued forth such a dense volume of smoke, that the hatches were again ordered to be closed, and an opening made at the stern of the vessel below water mark, so as to fill the hold with water. All which was done, and at the same time water continued to be poured from the deck.

During these operations, the sails were unbent and the vessel unrigged, and on the evening of the 21st it was supposed that the fire was nearly put out, but in the afternoon the flames burst through the deck, and it was entirely owing to the prompt assistance from the French man-of-war that the fire was mastered.

It broke out again, with greater violence, at 2 P. M. when the assistance from the same vessel was increased to some 120 men, who worked the greater part of the night, and succeeded in saving the vessel.

This day part of the cotton was handed out and put in stows, and the openings made in the stern and sides stopped again and preparations made to pump out the water in the hold.

The cargo will have to be handed and the damaged part sold on the spot.—N. Y. Com. Adv.

DR. LE SAGE'S specific for secret maladies, or Gonorrhea Eradicator.—The above remedy for the most distressing disease incident to the human race, originated from the enlightened mind of the eminent Le Sage, the promulgation and success of which throughout the kingdoms of France and Italy, has, of late years, added such high honor to the highly honored name of the inventor. This composition unites safety with efficacy. And the disease, whether in the form of Gonnorhea or Gleet, is eradicated by the use of it, with certainty and success, and the sufferer is restored to his usual health without delay or inconvenience. Tens of thousand Parisians will accede to the truth of these remarks, and it is confidently offered to those afflicted as the best and surest remedy for the above mentioned loathsome disorder. Of all the reputed specifics for this affection which for years past have deluged the continent of Europe, Le Sage's medicine alone has been esteemed worthy of general confidence, and has been, and is, eagerly sought after by all who are anxious to be cured without the sacrifice of property. The secret has hitherto been confined to France and Italy. It is particularly recommended to sea-faring men as containing no portion of mercury, whereby so many have been disabled from service on board ships.

ANODYNE LINIMENT.—Owing to the numerous imitations of this medicine that are in circulation, the genuine will hereafter be signed on the outside of the bottle by "Nathaniel Howard," the Proprietor, in his own hand writing.

This Liniment has been used for upwards of 20 years, and proved to have been an effectual remedy in a multitude of painful affections, such as Chronic Rheumatism, Sprains, Bruises, Cramps, stiffness of the Joints, sore Throats, &c. It has given perfect satisfaction to all those who have used it, and needs only to be tried to be universally esteemed.

Directions—After shaking the bottle, rub it frightfully on the part affected for fifteen minutes, three times a day and apply flannel.
