AT OSGOODE HALL.

The Legal Fight Between the Express Companies Adjourned for a Week—Weston's Cow Case is a Funny One.

In the cases of Johnston against the Express Companies, before Mr. Justice Rose, it was agreed between the parties that the case against the Dominion Express Company should go to trial before Mr. Justice Rose on next Friday week. The other case is to abide such trial. In the meantime the plaintiffs are paying the companies the full charges they ask, under agreement to refund if the decision is against them. Thus, when the plaintiffs ship a hamper, for which the charge is 30 cents, and it happens to contain six different parcels, a payment is made of $1.80. The plaintiffs contend that common carriers are not at liberty to distinguish between customers, and if they carry a 100-pound package for one they must do so for others.

THE SALE OF A FARM.

Several cases were disposed of at the non-jury sittings. In Gregg v. Halsted, the plaintiff recovered judgment for $234 and costs. The plaintiff purchased a farm from defendants, who sold under the power of sale in a first mortgage, and the plaintiff paid off the second mortgage of $234, the defendants assuring her that the wife of the mortgagor had barred her dower in the second mortgage. In this they were mistaken, and the wife, claiming her dower, the plaintiff brought this action to recover the money paid under mistake of fact.

Johnston v. Henderson was not concluded. The plaintiff wants $1000 damages because he says the defendants wrongfully sold chattels over which he had a valid mortgage.

WESTON'S CASE IS FUNNY.

Before the Divisional Court, counsel for the defendant in Reg. v. Ryan obtained a rule nisi to quash the summary conviction of the defendant by the famous Magistrate at Toronto Junction, for driving a cow on a sidewalk in the Village of Weston. The ground for the granting of the rule was that the evidence showed that there was not a sidewalk in the village at the place where the cow was driven, and, therefore, while there was no ground to support the cow, there was none to support the conviction.

Judgment was reserved by the same court in the case of Reg. v. Lorraine on the defendant's motion to quash his conviction by Police Magistrate at Toronto for selling a lottery ticket contrary to sec. 205, C.C. The ticket was sold for the benefit of the Society of Arts of Canada, and the defendant contends that he is excepted from liability by the express terms of another section in such a laudable act, and also that there was not a disposition of any "property" within sec. 205.

McIntyre & Wardwell (John J. Dixon) send the following despatch to their branch office in Toronto:

Strength of the stock market to-day seemed due in the main to covering of shorts by room traders. It is difficult to discover anything but an entirely professional interest in speculation. The bullish sentiment has undoubtedly been made by the better political news, coupled with the fact that money was a little easier at 5 to 6 per cent., and also that further gold imports are announced and that exchange rates tend to weaken. The quotation for demand sterling to-day was about $4.84. It is announced that £160,0000 gold has been taken from the Bank of England for shipment to the United States. Calls on gold were quoted ¼ to ⅜ per cent. and cash gold is 5-16 to ⅜ per cent. premium. The advance of over 5 per cent. in Tobacco was the conspicuous feature of the day, and gains of 2 per cent. and over made by Sugar, Chicago Gas, Leather pref. and Illinois Steel. The railroad list made gains of 1 to 2 per cent. The market closed dull but strong in tone. Government bonds advanced ¼ to ¾ per cent.

CHICAGO GOSSIP.

Henry A. King & Co., 12 King-street east, received the following despatch today from Chicago:

The wheat market opened with a boom this morning. Cables were higher and good demand from San Francisco for shipment to Calcutta was the main cause of the strength. Also reported two full cargoes have been purchased for Australian trade, but details are not known. The trade bought freely under the belief that prices will advance still further. On the strength of export demand, spot wheat has advanced and continues strong. There is a strong undertone to this market, and offerings in the pit are becoming scarcer day after day. The outside trade is becoming more prominent each day and there will no doubt be a large increase in outside orders, resulting in a much further advance. We feel safe in predicting 75c for Dec. wheat. Bradstreet's showed the world's increase at 6,307,000 bushels. Liverpool cables closed firm, 1¾d advance.

Corn and Oats—Shared in the advance to-day. A good trade was reported. Cash demand good. Receipts of corn were 1094 cars and oats 649 cars.

Provisions—Prices ruled higher to-day on all articles, pork selling at $8.50 for Dec., lard $4.82, and ribs $4.27. Receipts were about as estimated, 20,000, with 35,000 for to-morrow. Offerings were moderate. Packers bought freely. Values, however, fell away sharply on heavy realizing and closed a shade under opening prices.

McIntyre & Wardwell (John J. Dixon) send the following despatch to their branch office in Toronto:

Wheat—The crowd were excited this morning over news of more wheat sold to Calcutta and further information that the Australian crop was in bad condition. This with higher cables gave us a strong opening at cent and a half over yesterday's close, and shorts covered freely. During the session there were several spurts, but longs were heavy realizers, and the market closed rather easy, although 1 cent higher than yesterday's close. Receipts in the Northwest 1433 cars, about the same as last year and about 150 more than same day last week. Primary receipts 1,540,000 bushels, against 1,285,000 bushels same day in 1895. No export business done here and only five loads taken at seaboard. We think some reaction likely, but still market seems to gain strength every day.

Provisions—Opened strong and higher on lighter receipts of hogs than expected. Commission houses had good buying orders. Prices advanced sharply. Swift & Co. and John Cudahy then sold freely, market breaking 30 cents on pork and 15 cents on ribs. Western packers bought Jan. ribs and lard. Market closed weak at the decline.
