SPORTS

LOSING WITH TORONTO-LIKE REGULARITY.

The Berlin ball team lost both Saturday and Monday games to Waterloo, as the scores below show.

The Monday game was begun before several thousand people who gradually left the grounds tired. The glaring feature of the game was the umpiring. There were some palpably unjust decisions against the visitors which helped in the run getting and knocked all the spirit out of the boys in grey. Waterloo batted harder, ran bases far superior to Berlin, having 21 stolen bases, and made less errors.

Corelle and Tom McPhail were the stars of the home team.

TRAGEDY AT ORANGEVILLE.

Ottaway Hunter Shoots Gertie Nixon, the Girl He Loved.

He Then Suicided—Both Were Attending the Dominion Day Games at Idylwyld Park—Young Man Was Maddened by Jealousy—Both Left Toronto in the Morning—Miss Nixon May Die.

Orangeville, Ont., July 3.—Maddened by jealousy, Ottaway Hunter, a young man 19 years of age, shot Gertie Nixon yesterday afternoon, and then, pressing the nuzzle of the weapon to his own heart, pulled the trigger and killed himself.

The terrible occurrence took place in Idylwyld Park about 4.30 o'clock in the afternoon. A concourse of nearly 1,000 spectators were intently watching the lacrosse match between the Dufferins and the Tuscarora Indian team.

Two Shots Were Heard

Suddenly the sharp crack of a revolver was heard at the south end of the grounds. A second later the report rang out again, and the horrified crowd saw a young woman and a man stagger and fall to earth almost at the same instant. There was a wild rush for the spot, and a scene of great excitement ensued until the prostrate victims were carried from the grounds.

Hunter died where he fell, and his lifeless body was taken to the Town Hall, where an inquest was held last night.

The other victim was carried to Mrs. Murray's residence near by, where she now lies in a precarious condition, with a bullet lodged in one of her lungs.

Gertie Nixon, the female victim, is the only daughter of Mr. Thomas Nixon of Mono Township. She was 17 years of age and very pretty.

Inf[illegible] of His Victim.

Hunter is a son of the late Isaac Hunter of Caledon. His mother, Mrs. Samuel Montgomery, resides in Orangeville. He appears to have been infatuated of Miss Nixon, but if reports are to be believed, his love was not requited.

The two kept company for some time about a year ago. Her lover, becoming very persistent in his attentions, the young lady tried to get out of his way by going to Toronto last February. There she secured a situation in the T. Eaton store, where she has since been employed. Shortly afterwards Hunter also went to the city, and is said to have been working in the C.P.R. freight sheds.

Both parties came to Orangeville yesterday morning to spend Dominion Day in town. Hunter had dinner at his mother's home, and Miss Nixon wheeled out to Isaac Nicholson's in Mono. She returned to Orangeville in the afternoon, and went to Idylwyld along with some friends.

Was [illegible] the Game.

When the shooting occurred she was standing watching the lacrosse game along with a young man named Nicholson. Hunter stood just behind them for a short time before committing the awful deed.

Witnesses who saw the deed say Hunter stepped up to Miss Nixon, and said: "Are you coming with me? If you don't—I'll shoot."

Miss Nixon turned round and said: "Well, shoot!"

Thereupon Hunter shot Miss Nixon from behind, the bullet entering the spinal column just below the shoulders.

The unfortunate girl is paralyzed from the waist downwards, and Drs. Henry, Clark and Lewis, who have examined her, hold out slight hopes for her recovery.

[illegible] Consciousness.

She remained quite conscious from the first, and to those around her said she could not understand why Hunter had done the awful deed. They had not quarreled openly, nor had he ever threatened her in any way.

Her widowed mother is at her bedside, and by the dead body in the Town Hall sits another heartbroken mother, to whom death has come in its most terrible form.

CHOIR PICNIC.

The Trinity church choir had their annual outing yesterday. One and a half hours after scheduled time the [illegible] furniture wagons—all other rigs in town being too "limited." The choristers inhaled country air and took in such sights as Patterson's Railway, till they arrived at Berlin's Coney Island near the Petrifying Springs. The disciples of Isaac Walton got to work and replenished the fast falling larder. The farmers in the vicinity had a record market day and showed their appreciation in flower bouquets. All kinds of acquatic sports were indulged in and the springs never saw a jollier company. "I'm all alone" was the doleful chord on the outward journey while patriotic airs and "Just One Girl" suited better to the homeward trip not only to the picnickers but also to the embarassing enjoyment of various country swains and their better halves.

A fisherman asks this question; If it takes a man three hours to catch one bass with a certain kind of bait, what kind of bait must he use to catch five bass in three minutes?

Among the many Dominion Day picnics none were more enjoyable than that of the Canadian Order of Foresters, who with their families spent the afternoon at Victoria Park.
