LAST NOTICE!

WE must be plain to those patrons of the Chronicle, who have read for years and paid nothing. We would say that, unless an arrangement be made before the 20th day of June next their Accounts will be put, without discrimination, into the hands of an Attorney for Collection. To those who have partially paid, but are yet deep in arrears, we shall require an arrangement, and so much of the balance as can be conveniently liquidated.—To those of our real friends, who have paid, and intend to pay, after returning them our sincere thanks, we beg to solicit (if convenient) what may be due by them, as in consequence of our having heavy payments to make, we are more than usually pressed for means to meet contingencies. We dislike, if it were possible to avoid it, pressing our friends, but as Shakspeare has it, "our poverty but not our will consents," and this must be our apology.

All persons having Accounts against the former Firm, are again called upon to present them for settlement, as it is absolutely necessary that in future a new system shall be adopted, that of PAYING and being PAID.
