A young man named John Eitzgerald of St. John's fell polis District will be held in the Wesleyan overboard from a schooner, bound from that port to Round Harbor, a short time ago and at 9 o'clock, A. M. was drowned. On Friday last, a young man named Smith, of Bishop's Cove was drowned in attempting to jump into a boat in that neighborhood. Reports from the Labrador fisheries are more encouraging than heretofore this season. The schaoner Sunbeam arrived at St. John's. from Cadiz, last week having on board the captain and crew of the bark Frank Lovitt, of Yarmouth, Nova Scotia. The "Village Belle," John Antle, Master, left Brigus for the Seal Fishery in the Month of March last, and has not since been heard of.
It is teared that the whole crew numbering eighteen men, bave perished.

The Windsor Mail records a desperate and bloody fight between two brothers named Fogarty, at Still Water, Hants. They were drunk. One of them stabbed the other with a knife, while the one stabbed inflicted a fearful wound on his assailant with an axe.

ENCOUNTER WITH THREE BEARS .- As D. were fishing in a skiff on Meddybemps Lake a day or two ago, they observed a large bear and two cubs swimming across the lake. The men immediately pursued them, and succeeded in capturing the two cubs. The old bear became very ferocious, and once or twice almost succeeded in getting into the skiff, in which case nothing could have saved it from upsetting or the men from decemning. They managed, howthe men from drowning. They managed, how-ever, to keep her back by a free use of their oars, with which they belaboured her, and at last she relinquished the fight, and the occupants of the skiff, with the two cubs, reached the shore in safety.
