The Leviathan of the Age!

—ooo—

DAN RICE'S

Museum, Circus, Coliseum, Menagerie

AND

Trained & Educated Animals

A grand combination, which includes

SPALDING & ROGERS'

NORTH AMERICAN CIRCUS,

HENDERSON & RYAN'S

GREAT ZOOLOGICAL INSTITUTE

AND THE

PACIFIC CIRCUS & MENAGERIE

the whole comprising the most complete and extensive quadruple organization ever concentrated in one vast exhibition, and embodying an outlay of nearly

ONE MILLION OF DOLLARS.

—ooo—

During many years of active professional labor it has been an aim on the part of Mr. Rice to consolidate the most attractive elements of his entire company into a variety of exhibitions, in one comprehensive amalgamation. The present conjunction of world-wide fame, talent, and enterprising experience, has enabled him to realize the

DREAM OF A LIFE

in the shape of an unequaled combination he can boldly claim to be the finest, and supply the imagination of the most exacting.

—ooo—

THE MUSEUM

Has ever been the pride of travelling exhibitions, hitherto has been unequaled, and large sums of money being supplied with each succeeding year, the curiosities in art and nature, from recent purchase, will prove especially interesting to the antiquarian, and will blend instruction with amusement to the lovers of art and the wonderful in nature.

Dan Rice's Trained Animals

comprise most interesting features of the exhibition. It has been conceded that, beyond all pretension of rivalry, he is the greatest and most successful trainer in the world. The

HORSE EXCELSIOR,

and no less wonderful steed

DOUGLAS,

together with the almost human intelligence of his

EDUCATED MULES

are examples of this extraordinary power and capacity in developing the instinct of the brute intellect. The school of trained quadrupeds will include

The ELEPHANT EMPRESS,

the largest known animal in the world, and

A MONSTER RHINOCEROS

weighing thirty pounds, the only full grown specimen of the

UNICORN OF HOLY WRIT

ever exhibited in America. This huge beast has been tamed and educated by Dan Rice and will be performed

LOOSE IN THE RING.

—ooo—

The vast collection of Birds and Beasts, which constitutes embodies the rarest and choicest specimens of their kind, and the proprietor is confidently assured that this department alone will fully repay him for the price paid for admission. From the shores of the Tropics; the solemn regions of the Arctic; the far off land of Australia, as well as the more evident countries of Europe and America, have each contributed to the luminous aggregation, a list of which cannot be crowded within the circumscribed limits of an advertisement.

The Aviary and Menagerie,

THE CIRCUS

department has been carried with a view to the production, only, of the choicest novelties of the equestrian and gymnastic schools. Foremost in the ranks are the most celebrated artists of Europe and America have been engaged. In the scenes presented in the circle, nothing of a coarse or medium character will be tolerated, and no single performance of the most exclusive character is to be found promised. The following galaxy of notables are especially worthy of prominent mention:

MLLE LECLERE,
the peerless equestrienne.

MLLE GURR,
the enlisthenic wonder and incomparable trapezist.

MONS. RUDOLPH,
the champion European horseman.

METTA & WILCOX,
the unrivaled gymnasts.

WILLIAM MILES,
the Mercurial equestrian.

DURAN & VILLIERS,
designedly of the Elegant style of horsemanship.

MLLE DESAIX,
the sylphide equestrienne.

THE WATSON BROTHERS,
unequaled in their acrobatic performances.

EDWARD HOLLOWAY,
the greatest leaper and vaulter in existence.

HARRY WILCOX,
voltigeur and gymnast extraordinary.

THE NELSON FAMILY,
the most unique and graceful performers in the world, indeed they are positively unequaled in either hemisphere.

SIGNORS VELLUTI & RAPHAEL,
the Castilian athletes;
and a brilliant array of artists which rank second only to the above unrivaled list of artists.

MR. HARRY GURR,
the amphibious wonder, known as the Man Fish, is also one of the features of this department.

The famous wit and vocalist,
MR. JAMES McGUIRE,
will don the motley and convulse the audience.

—ooo—

THE CAVALCADE

will constitute one of the most exciting pageants ever witnessed in a graded entree to town. The gorgeous Apollonicon chariot and

Forty Horse Team

will be driven and controlled by MAJOR HENRY DERTH,
the champion whip of the world, who will individually handle the ribbons without aid or assistance.

Prof. Edwin Menter's Band

of picked musicians will occupy the chariot and discourse the most attractive music, a cortège of richly mounted

Cavaliers and Demoiselles, Elaborate Chariots, Cars, Carriages and Glittering Paraphernalia
following in magnificent array.

Preface to "The Marlton's," a Strange Story.

A Preface, dear reader should resemble what an overture is at an opera; it should give an idea of the dish (mental) that is to follow. I have half a dozen objects for desiring to publish my memoirs. I wish to leave a Memento of myself to my posterity; I intend to point out as a warning to others, the various rocks and shoals on which I have been wrecked, I intend to give a Birdseye view of the countries I have visited; I purpose sketching some of the strange and interesting characters I have met; and last not least I wish to "put money in my purse."

I am the son of the late Lieut. Col. Marlton of H. B. M. 60th Regiment and was born on the 24th of May 1810, at Port Royal, Jamaica, West Indies, which place I left when six weeks old, visited England, the Cape of Good Hope, touched at St. Helena (immortalized by Napoleon) and returned to England before I was 5 years old. When 16 years of age I married, and when I was 24 years old I had 7 children, the first 10 years of my married life I spent in England; France, Holland and Belgium as a private gentleman, I then found myself in America with my family, for some years I fancied I was a farmer near Goderich, Canada, I then became the Landlord of the "Goderich Hotel" and afterwards the Landlord of the "Kincardine Arms," about this time one of my brothers died in Jamaica and I received 6 of his children. I then became a Forwarder and Commission Merchant &c., for 4 or 5 years. When most of my family were settled in life I visited England for a couple of years and on my return to New York I became a professional actor, I commenced my Theatrical career at the age 50 under P. T. Barnum with whom I remained for 17 months, I was afterwards engaged by his son-in-law Mr. Hurd, I followed this kind of life for 12 years, playing in the Southern and Northern States, Texas and the West Indies. The late Mr. Mcready and P. T. Barnum are two of the principal Dramatic Characters I intend to sketch. General the Hon. R. Bruce, when in Toronto, gave me his written permission to dedicate my forthcoming work to him. By my mother's side I am a descendant of the Duke de Longueville of France who entered Scotland at the time of Wallace. The Longueville family were connected by marriage with the family of Mary Queen of Scots and also with the family of the Bruces, my grand mother who was the "last of the Longuevilles" was buried in the British Cathedral robed in white Satin, Veil, marriage ring on her finger &c., as a "Bride of Heaven," it was the custom for centuries, for all the female branches of the Duke de Logueville's family to be buried in that way. The Public may rest assured that in publishing my autobiography I shall not wound the feelings of man, woman or children. My motto shall be "Nothing extenuate nor ought set down in malice."

E. H. MARLTON.
