BECOMING FAMOUS.—The Shaw house on the City Road was the scene of another disturbance yesterday. In the afternoon a telephone message came to the police station saying that one woman had murdered another in the Shaw dwelling. Inspector Weatherhead and Sergt. The Shaw woman was trying to put Mrs Coyle out of the house, where she has been boarding, and send her to the almshouse. Mr. Smith, being an amateur mineralogist and geologist, at once felt sure coal must be in the immediate neighborhood, and a little careful search revealed sandstone and shale, also a small quantity of coal. A license to search has been obtained, and boring operations for a good seam will commence at once. A nenclus of a company has been formed.—Bridgetown Monitor.

THE TORRY MURDER.

The Prisoners Committed for Trial Before the Supreme Court which Opens To-morrow Afternoon.

Detective Ring's evidence was about the same as that given at the inquest. When the prisoners were being conveyed to the city he had asked them if they did not know what they were arrested for, and they answered no. He told them you are arrested for stabbing Sammy Torry. Gray said, "I never stabbed anyone in my life." Watts said nothing.

Captain Rawlings told of the finding of the knife upon Gray; and of Watts admission that he had borrowed the knife from Gray before going to Torry's.

Dr. James Christie testified to holding a post mortem examination on the body of Torry.

The magistrate then left the bench, the prisoners were taken down stairs and the crowd dispersed. The prisoners reappeared again in a few minutes, however, and Clerk Henderson read the evidence and information.

After telling the prisoners they had nothing to hope or fear from any promise or inducement which might have been held out, and that anything they would say might be used in evidence against them, asked, "Watts have you anything to say?" Watts replied at once and made and in almost the exact words that he had given to THE GAZETTE reporter the day after the murder.

He said: "We were coming up Brook street Sunday night about 11 o'clock; Samuel Torry came along. He asked Gray for a match and he gave it to him. He then asked him what he thought about the nine hour system for the millmen. Gray told him he thought he was going to get it. He then asked us over to his house. Went through Ann street as far as Falmer's barn. We then stopped and began to talk about the death of Jimmie Duffy, and he said he'd have to go in the house and we'd better go home. We started through the yard to the alley to go up to Main street to go home. Just about the time we were at the foot of the alley Torry was at his own door. Gray said, 'Hold on, and we'll ask Sammy for of drink of water.' We went over, and Gray knocked at Sammy Torry's door. Torry came to the door and Gray asked him would he give him a drink of water. He told him no; there was no water there —to go away to h—l from his door. We knocked at the door again, and Palmer came to the door. They asked for a drink of water. Sammy rushed over to the door and struck Gray and knocked him off the step; I was standing alongside the door, filling my pipe. I made to strike Torry, not thinking about the knife being in my hand. The door was shut and we left for home. Went up on to Main street, stood on the Main street till Phil. Ready came up. When Ready came up, says he, 'That's a nice thing you've done.' I asked him what. He said, 'To stab Sammy Torry. I told him 'I wouldn't for anything stab anyone.' Walked as far as Simonds street corner with Phil Ready; and he went across to the police station and we went down Simonds street, walked slowly up the shore as far as Purvis' mill. Sat down in a shed there where we used to feed the horses at dinner time. Gray went to fill his pipe and asked me had I his knife. He filled the pipe and sat down and had a smoke and we fell asleep there. When we woke up in the morning we went up to the bridge —we were going to come in that way and go to our work. We were arrested on the other side of the railway crossing."

His statement, as taken by the clerk, was then read over to him and he was asked to sign it. He could not write so he made his mark.

When Gray was asked if he had anything to say, he replied: "No! I don't wish to say anything. Not guilty."

When Gray was asked to sign the foregoing he said he could not write and so he, too, made his mark.

Watts said he had never gone to school and never had a chance to.

The prisoners were then committed for trial at the Supreme court. The grand jury will meet tomorrow at 2 o'clock to consider the case.

Summer Resorts.

Excellent boating facilities, good fishing, and charming scenery, combined with a pure and bracing atmosphere, features which are bound to make any place attractive in the summer months. All these attractions are to be found at Grand Bay, Westfield and at other points on the New Brunswick Railway within a short distance of St. John. The low prices of tickets on the railway and the very reasonable charges for board and lodgings at the points named have induced each year a larger number of persons to sojourn there during the warm weather. The popularity of Westfield as a summer resort is already so well known that it is with difficulty accommodation can be secured, unless arrangements are made months in advance. But the rush at Westfield has brought into prominence other points in this vicinity where the visitor can enjoy himself equally well. The New Brunswick railway, through their general passenger agent, Mr. A. J. Heath, have made the following rates for the season. Commencing June 1st three months season ticket, good only for individual whose name it bears, will be sold from St. John to Grand Bay, $10; Ingleside, $12; Riverbank, $13; Westfield, $14; Lingley, $15.

Little Lord Fauntleroy.

Not only a strong but a pleasing contrast to the too frequent style of play is that of "Little Lord Fauntleroy." It is simply a pleasing story, full of pathos and sentiment. Those who have not read Mrs. Burnett's story, if there be any such, will see in the play one of the tenderest little performances ever produced. The story loses nothing in its outlines by being dramatized, and here and there are to be seen touches of tender sentiment and childish simplicity that old theatre-goers will find truly refreshing. There could be no pleasanter diversion for those who are wearied of the plays that fill our stage nowadays than to see "Little Lord Fauntleroy." It is as great treat on the stage as was Mrs. Burnett's novel from the ordinary run of works of fiction—clean and tender and bright. This beautiful play will be presented for the first time in this city under the auspices of Mr. T. H. French, of the Broadway Theatre and Grand Opera House, New York, on Monday evening next, June 2nd. The play will be given on the 3 and 4th as well, and at a Wednesday matinee.

There are two Fauntleroys in the company viz Flossie Ethyl, who is a Canadian by birth, and Georgie Cooper, a little seven year old Californian. Crowded houses will doubtless witness each performance.

PELEE ISLAND CO.'S Grape Juice is invaluable for sickness and as a tonic is unequalled. It is recommended by Physicians, being pure, unadulterated juice of the grape. Our agent, E. G. Scovil, Tea importer, No. 13 North Wharf, can supply our Brands of Grape Juices by the case of one dozen.

Provincial Points.

The Buenos Ayrean, just arived at Halifax, brought 100 immigrants from Newfoundland. People are leaving that island in droves.

Bradford Currier, of Upper Gagetown, caught four bears and a cow in a trap one day this week. The informant states that the trapper will get no bounty on the cow.

Our farmers are waging a desperate warfare against the caterpillar, with the chances against them. The orchards are besieged with the pests in greater numbers than last season.—Bridgetown Monitor.

Mr. W. R. Racey, manager of the Merchants' Bank at Woodstock, is to be married to Miss Chandler, of Dorchester, at St. John, early next month, and during his honeymoon trip his place will be filled by Mr. J. Trainor, of the agency at Fredericton.

The oldest working editor and newspaper publisher in Nova Scotia, and probably in the Dominion, is Mr. Lawson of the Yarmouth Herald. He is now nearly eighty years of age, and has been the successful editor of his Herald, for over fifty years.

Messrs. Huestis and Hutchinson, of Providence, R. I., spent a few days of the past week in our county, making Bridgetown their headquarters. These gentlemen are interested in the International Brick and Tile Company, a new enterprise about being started here.—Bridgetown Monitor.

Mr. James Rosee found a living tree frog in a bunch of bananas he got by the boat last Satnrday. It is about the size and shape of one of our frogs, but has suckers on its feet to enable it to climb, and can change its color to that of whatever it happens to be on, from a dark brown to a brilliant green.—Yarmouth Times.

The Grand Div. S. of T. met at Hampton yesterday, when G. W. P. Thorne, presented his address. The grand scribe reported 1,455 new members initiated, during the half year and a net increase of 381. The grand treasurer's report showed the balance on hand last term $368 90; receipts for half year, $665.88; expenses, $800.90. Leaving a balance of $233.88.

On the fishing banks, a few days ago, two men named Isaac Larkin and Wm. Butler of Pubnico and Liverpool, N. S, respectively, were drowned while under running their trawls. It is supposed by the captain and crew of their vessel, the Hazel Glen of Yarmouth, that the trawls must have been caught fast to the bottom of the ocean, as they found the dory bottom up.

Messrs. Clark and Munson, of Houlton, Me., who last autumn purchased a portion of St. Andrews Island, Charlotte Co., are now making arrangements for the erection of a number of cottages.
