R. J. YOUNG & CO.

Our Mr. Young has just returned from a purchasing trip to England, and our new goods will be coming forward almost at once, and just now the two things required most by us are: (1) Money to pay duties; (2) room for the new goods. You can help us in both ways. We have gone round and put the knife into several lines that it will pay you to see. R. J. Young & Co. will sell you cheaper goods than other people will. We buy right, and can and will sell right.

Come in at once and see what weare doing.

If you need a Dress, we can sell you one cheap.

If you need Household Goods, we can show you value unsurpassed.

Parasols—A few left. Prices almost cut in two. Better see them; it's money in your pocket.

Its Obvious Purpose.

Johnny (looking at lightning-rod on barn)—I'd like to know why it branches out into two parts after it gets up on the roof.

Willie (with supreme contempt for the other's ignorance)—To catch the forked lightning, o' course!

Messrs. E. L. and F. W. Edy, of Edy Bros., photographers, have returned from the convention lately held at Washington, D. C., and have secured some valuable accessories for the photographing art. About 1,000 attended the convention, during which a memorial to Daguerre, the inventor of photography, was unveiled. The memorial cost $6,000, and is a handsome piece of work. Messrs. Edy Bros. turn out the finest work in the city, and the valued information they have received in improvements will be given to their patrons. Some of their work was shown at Washington, and although they did not compete for prizes their work was highly complimented by the judges. During Messrs. Edy Bros.' career in this city their photos have always been turned out by workmanship of the best kind, which accounts for the large patronage they now have.

London's New Acquisition.

Yesterday the final arrangements for the introduction of the works of the Globe Tobacco Company, of Windsor, to this city were completed with the lease of the Marsh building on Carling street. The company will commence moving their plant into the new premises on Oct. 1, and inside of a month it is expected that the works will be in full running order under the direction of over 50 operators. The products of the new industry will be fancy cut smoking and chewing tobaccos and cigarettes. The local business men interested in the new company are Messrs. Moses Masuret, Reid Bros., P. Mulkern, H. Marsh, A. Smith and others.

Sad Case of Wife Desertion.

This morning a prepossessing young woman of 22 years, but who could easily have passed for a girl of 16, had an audience with Acting Mayor Moule with a view of obtaining relief. She was accompanied by two children, one about 2 years old and the other an infant not more than 6 months. She gave her name as Mrs. Hewson, and said that she had resided in the east end of the city for the past five months. Her husband was a cooper and had been employed in the city during the first two months of his sojourn here, but on the expiration of that time he left for Detroit in search of work. Since leaving his wife has not heard from him, but she continued to struggle and make both ends meet, until in despair she to-day applied to the city for help. Her mother, she said, lived near St. Thomas, but was unable to do anything for her. The parents of her husband resided near Paris. She did not want to go to either place, but the Mayor thought it better for her to be with relations and gave her a pass to the latter place.

Horse Thieves Arrested.

Detective B. B. Allen arrested John and William Cluse, of Brantford, at Hamilton yesterday on a charge of stealing a team of horses from A. R. Murdock's stables, of London West. The prisoners were brought before Squire Smyth to-day and remanded until Sept. 4. The Hamilton Spectator says: "Detective Allen was detailed to trace the thieves. Near Simcoe he learned from a party of gypsies that the Cruse brothers had traded off the horses with them near Hamilton, and they had tried to make a deal with a Richard Tomlinson, butcher, 239 York street. So Allen came on to Hamilton. He was lucky enough to find the men he was after at Tomlinson's. They had with them a horse and rig, which they were endeavoring to induce Tomlinson to buy. He says they tried to sell him a pair of horses two weeks ago, and they are supposed to have been animals which were stolen from London. The youths took their arrest quietly and would say nothing. When they were searched at headquarters a revolver was found on one of them—John, the elder of the two."

Death of Mr. Chas. F. Goodhue.

Another of London's prominent citizens has passed away in the person of Mr. Charles Frederick Goodhue. The sad event took place about 10 o'clock this morning at the family residence, Maple avenue, South London. Mr. Goodhue was 53 years of age at the time of his death, and was the second son of the Hon. George Jarvis Goodhue, who settled in London in 1829, and was one of the most important and influential persons in the county of Middlesex until his death, which took place in 1870. When a young man deceased studied law with the Hon. John Wilson, and afterwards practiced the profession for a number of years. He was twice married, his first wife being the daughter of the late Dr. Fraser, of Montreal, and his second, who survives him, the daughter of the late John A. Willox, of Brantford, and widow of Edward D. Parke, of London. By his former wife he leaves two children, one daughter and one son, both of whom are unmarried. Mr. Frederick Goodhue, who has been studying medicine in England, arrived home in time for his father's death. Mr. Goodhue had lived all his life in London, where he was universally respected and esteemed for his many excellent traits of character. The bereaved family have the heartfelt sympathy of the community in their affliction, which though sad was not altogether unexpected. The funeral will take place from the family residence on Saturday afternoon.

A family in Parkersburg, W. Va., have been losing meats so often from the well, where they were put to keep cool and fresh, that last week they set a watch and found the thief to be a black snake several feet long.

No one need fear cholera or any summer complaint if they have a bottle of Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Dysentery Cordial ready for use. It corrects all looseness of the bowels promptly and cause a healthy and natural action. This is a medicine adapted for the young and old, rich and poor, and is rapidly becoming the most popular medicine for cholera, dysentery, etc., in the market.
