GRAIN.

Barley continues to be sent forward rapidly, and if cars were available at interior points the exports would be enormous. There is, however, another shortage of cars at the time they are most needed, and some local grain houses have withdrawn their buyers from outside points in consequence. These prices rule for barley at outside points, loaded and ready for shipment: No. 1, 65c; No. 2, 60c; No. 3, extra, 50c; deliveries of which are reported light, as more attention is given to barley. Prices are becoming more settled, however. On points west and north red and white wheat is quoted at 89c to 94c; old spring Toronto and east, 95c; east, north and west, 87c; oats, east, 38c; peas, north and west, 60c; peas, east, 62c.
